The library board met at the home of Mrs. A. H. Harper last week for the purpose of electing officers for the coming year. The officers of the past year were re-elected as follows: President, Mrs. A. H. Harper; Vice-President, Mrs. George Binnall, Secretary, Mrs. R. E. Lusk, Treasurer, J. L. Butterworth, Miss Ellen Goddard was re-elected librarian. Several committees were appointed as follows: Book Committee, Misses Ellen Goddard, Mildred Wiggins, and Hilda Turnlund; Finance Committee, Mrs. R. E. Lusk, Mrs. E. G. Wiggins, and Mrs. Geo. Binnall; Building Committee, J. L. Butterworth, E. G. Wiggins and Mrs. E. H. Swasey. Since the beginning of the new year, May 1st, some seventy membership renewals to the library have been received and more are being added to the list from time to time.

F. W. Pearsall was among the Denison visitors Tuesday of last week.

E. R. Butterworth has purchased a new show case which he has placed in the bakery.

Mrs. Spray Malone was over from Kenwood Tuesday to attend the meeting of the Royal Neighbors.

Amos and Jesse Wright of Kingsley, and Mrs. Myrtle Steffen of Manila, were here last week on account of the illness and death of their father, Gideon Wright.

A meeting of the Royal Neighbors was held in the hall Tuesday afternoon of the past week, there being a good attendance. Three new members in the persons of Mrs. Gail Carey, Mrs. E. R. Fagan, and Mrs. R. E. Lusk were initiated into the order at this time. After the initiation, tempting refreshments were served. The meeting next month will also be held in the hall, when it is expected that some more initiatory work will be put on.

Fred Colby was a caller in town on Wednesday from Buck Grove.

Rev. W. T. Rink returned Wednesday from Council Bluffs where he had been to attend the spring district convention and centenary meeting combined, which was in session at that place during the day and evening of Tuesday.

On Tuesday evening of the past week at 6:30 o'clock, Misses Doris Mathys, Jessie Rule, Ruth Judd and Ruby Keairnes, the advanced class in domestic science of the local school, were pleasant hostesses at an elaborate two-course dinner, their guests being the teachers and members of the senior class of the high school. The dinner was served in the school dining room. Two tables looked very attractive with center pieces of yellow and blue violets. The place cards were neatly designed with red, white and blue, the senior colors. The event was very much enjoyed by each one present.

Misses Caroline Shirk and Mabel Cole were passengers to Denison Wednesday evening where they attended the picture, "The Shepherd of the Hills."

E. G. Wiggins, cashier of the Farmers State bank was in Omaha Tuesday of the past week, where he attended a bankers' convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Fredrickson and daughters, Louise, Kathryn and Vera, were passengers to Omaha Wednesday morning where they went to consult a specialist in regard to the latter, whose health has been failing of late.

Friends of Louis Carroll who is in the service in France, will be interested to learn that he has recently been commissioned to the office of second lieutenant. Louis attended the Dow City school for several years.

Miss Stella Riddle returned Wednesday from a several days' visit with her sister, Mary, in Omaha.

Martha Best, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Best, passed her tenth mile stone Wednesday and invited her friends and school mates to her home to help celebrate the event. Games of various sorts furnished the afternoon's entertainment and a jolly time was spent together. A dainty birthday luncheon rounded out the pleasures of the occasion. This day also marked the tenth birthday anniversary of Alta Cramer, and both events were celebrated together. The guests present numbered about forty-five. The honored guests received a number of handsome gifts from their friends as mementoes of the occasion.

J. H. Bonsall and wife, and Mr. and Mrs. Ira Little were passengers to Sioux City Wednesday morning where they spent the day.

Herman Casabarth was in Omaha the forepart of the past week where he went to consult a specialist in regard to his eyes.

Mrs. A. H. Cook returned Wednesday afternoon from Omaha where she had been to attend a meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Society.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society met in the basement of the Methodist church Wednesday afternoon with a good attendance. Mrs. Leslie Howarth had charge of the lesson which was on the study of the growth and expansion of the work from its organization fifty years ago up to the present time. As the jubilee year is now being celebrated, this theme was most appropriate. Reports on the recent convention of the society held at Shenandoah were given by Mrs. W. T. Rink, and Mrs. Earl Morrison, who were delegates from the local society at the convention. Many helpful suggestions were brought out and this feature of the day proved very interesting. After the lesson hour, the ladies served their quarterly dinner, Mrs. Earl Morrison being hostess. Her appointed assistants were Mrs. W. T. Rink, Mrs. James Sharp, Mrs. Thos. Rae, Mrs. L. A. Vore, Mrs. E. L. Thomas, Mrs. Sam Brasel, Mrs. John Keppel and Mrs. Ed Ahart. The proceeds from the dinner amounted to about nineteen dollars.

Miss Flora Wiggins was a passenger to Woodbine Thursday where she made a visit at the home of her brother, W. H. Wiggins and family, returning Friday.

W. E. Fishel was a caller at the county seat Wednesday.

Mrs. Erinten Sharp went to Anthon Tuesday for a visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. B. Sterrett and family.

Mrs. Ida Talcott underwent an operation at an Omaha hospital the fore part of last week. She is reported to be getting along nicely and all hope that she will soon be able to return home.

Charlie Holiday of Dunlap, was a Dow City caller Wednesday.

Mrs. W. E. Fishel went down to Omaha on Tuesday where she made a couple of days' visit, returning Wednesday. Her daughter Nellie, who had been making a sojourn of some three weeks duration there, came home with her. They visited at the A. A. Fishel home.

O. S. Strickland and Miss Dora Thompson were united in marriage on Saturday, May 3d, the event having taken place in Denison. The bride is well and favorably known in this vicinity, she having been born and reared here, and is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson. The groom's people reside at Hartington, Nebr. Having spent some time in this vicinity, he is not an entire stranger here. We understand that the newlyweds will make their home on a farm near Council Bluffs. All wish for them the best of success in their new relation.

Miss Eldora Fouts was a passenger from Dunlap Wednesday for a visit with friends, returning on Thursday. While here, she was a guest at the Arch Laird home.

C. O. Milltr was in Denison last Wednesday having dental work done. An interesting assortment of war trophies, consisting of shells, bayonets, gas masks, etc., have been on display in the Farmers State Bank the past week. The relics had been sent here by Leo Ahart from France some time before his arrival. The box which contained the relics was kept unopened at his parental home until his arrival about two weeks ago.

Mrs. C. D. Terry and son left Wednesday for their home in Columbus, Nebr., after a short visit at the home of her brother, C. L. Rudd and family. Genevieve Rudd, of California, who was also visiting here, accompanied them home.

Alfred Jackson was visiting relatives in Dunlap Thursday.

Miss Irene Welch was a business caller in town Friday from Denison.

Little Alberta Best has been suffering with an attack of tonsillitis the past week but is improving now.

The remains of Mr. Mahnke were brought here Friday from Omaha where he passed away shortly after having undergone an operation. His body was taken from here to his home in Kenwood.

The Woman's club held their monthly open meeting at the school auditorium Friday evening with a fairly good attendance. The program of the evening was opened with a pretty vocal solo by Miss Irma Chamberlin, followed with a reading by Miss Mabel Thomas. The next was a library talk by Mrs. Anna Williams, which was listened to with much interest. The audience was then favored with a vocal selection by Frank Banyard, after which Miss Marian Carlson appeared on the program with a reading, followed by a saxophone solo by Miss Mae Houston. The next was a talk by Leo Ahart, who recently returned from being abroad. Many interesting experiences of his life in the service were related and needless to say all greatly enjoyed this part of the evening's program. The program was closed with a ladies quartet, composed of Mrs. R. E. Lusk, Miss Bernice Hunsicker, Miss Mildred Butterworth and Mrs. A. W. Wilson. Each number was fine and enjoyed immensely by all present. Mrs. J. T. Goldsworthy, Mrs.

Augusta Carlson and Mrs. F. C. Howarth constituted the program committee for the next meeting.

The James Baber family motored up from Dunlap Saturday and made a short visit with relatives.

Mrs. Fred Northam and two sons returned to their home in Denison Friday evening after having spent a few days with her grand-mother, Mrs. Jane Wood. They also visited at the home of her sister, Mrs. Warren Ettelman.

J. R. Griffin spent the day Wednesday in Omaha.

Leo Ahart was a passenger to Omaha Saturday for a short visit with friends returning Sunday.

Ira Little and wife left Thursday for Basset, Nebr., near which place they will make their home, having rented the farm owned by his brother-in-law, J. H. Bonsall. They had been spending several weeks with the J. H. Bonsall family since coming here from their former home in Blue Ridge, Kan.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Lazerus, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Judd, Mrs. E. R. Fagan and daughter, Dorothy, and the Misses Ellen, Agnes and Lois Goddard were in Denison Thursday evening where they attended the picture entitled, "The Shepherd of the Hills."

Wednesday after a couple of weeks sojourn at the parental, Saul Miller home and with other relatives.

The Misses Ellen, Agnes and Lois Goddard entertained at an elegant six o'clock dinner Sunday evening, complimentary to the birthday anniversary of their mother, Mrs. E. V. Goddard. The event took place in the nature of a surprise, which proved most complete. Those invited were Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Fagan and children, Miss Nellie Rule, G. M. Goddard, wife, and children, and Mrs. E. E. Goddard. The guest of honor was the recipient of a number of nice gifts upon this occasion.

Mrs. Ida Talcott underwent an operation at an Omaha hospital the fore part of the past week. She withstood the ordeal well and is reported to be getting along nicely, a fact her many friends are pleased to learn.

George Brink, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Brink, who recently returned from France, came home the latter part of the week on a several days' furlough from Ft. Des Moines. While in the service, George was seriously wounded, having lost a limb. He is receiving care at the hospital at Ft. Des Moines.

The May breakfast serve in the basement of the Methodist church on Saturday morning by the Epworth League was a great success, the sum of about thirty dollars being realized. The proceeds will go to the League's share of the basement fund. The members and friends of the League wish to thank all who so willingly helped and for the liberal patronage received.

Miss Bessie Alexander was up from Omaha making an over Sunday visit at the parental, A. A. Alexander home.

Mrs. O. J. Judd and daughter, Ruth, were passengers to Omaha Saturday morning. The latter returned that evening while her mother remained until Sunday. Mr. Judd joined her on Saturday afternoon and they both returned together.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Riddle, Mrs. Thos. McCollough, Mrs. Ralph McKee and Miss Florence Miller were Denison visitors Saturday.
