

DOW CITY ITEMS

(Continued from Preceding Page.)

pleasure of visiting with the W. A. Seemann, J. U. Wise and B. F. Bliglow families, former Dow City residents, who were also guests at the anniversary. Misses Berenice Judd and Adelaide Potter were Sunday visitors at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. Carl Kirk and husband near Dunlap. Miss Lillian Christiansen came over from Charter Oak Friday and spent the week end at the parental, Fred Christiansen home. She was accompanied by Misses Eva Wycoff and Mary Rademacker. Frank Butterworth of Allen, Nebr., and Fred Hendricks, of Omaha, were in attendance at the Riddle funeral Sunday. Miss Fern Dearduff was up from Dunlap making an over Sunday visit at the home of relatives, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Newkirk. Mrs. A. W. Wilson, Miss Bernice Hunsicker, Mrs. R. E. Lusk, Miss Mildred Butterworth and Mrs. Nelson Butterworth were in Arion Friday evening where they took part in a program given for the benefit of the church. Miss Mattie Tech has been sick the past week but is better at this writing. Edward Flough of Denison was an over Sunday visitor at the Fred Christiansen home. Mrs. W. H. Buss, Mrs. Jim Houston, and Mrs. John Houston were in Dunlap Sunday where they attended an initiation of the Daughters of Isabelle. L. H. Goddard and two children were here from Ft. Dodge and spent Sunday at the parental home. L. E. McBride, wife and daughter, Virginia, came up from Logan Sunday for a visit at the G. M. Brake home, returning Monday. Miss Gertrude Kelly has been up from Woodbine the past week visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. John Houston. Arrangements are being made for the annual memorial services the coming week. The program arranged for the event is as follows: Services in the M. E. church Sunday, May 25, at 10:30 o'clock. Song—Battle Hymn of Republic—Choir and Congregation. Scripture Lesson—Elder J. L. Butterworth. Song—Rest Spirit Rest—Wm. Rooks, Choir. Prayer—W. T. Rink. Song—To Thee Oh Country—Julius Eckberg, Ladies Quartette. Sermon—Rev. G. A. Barker. Song—America—Choir and Congregation. Benediction—Rev. W. T. Rink. On Friday May 20th, the procession will form on Pearl street at 1:30 P. M., new time and proceed to the cemetery in the following order: Pledge Girls. All soldiers in autos. At the monument, the services will be as follows: Commander's Address. Lincoln's Gettysburg Address—Mable Thomas. Return to City where the following program will be given: Song—Hail, Land of Freedom—Choir. Prayer—Rev. G. A. Barker. Song—Memorial Day—Choir. Reading—Miss Ruby Rolls. Solo—The Americans Come—Frank Banyard. Address—Rev. W. T. Rink. Song—Star Spangled Banner—Choir and Congregation. Benediction—Elder J. L. Butterworth. Dr. F. N. Rowe, who has been practicing as a doctor here for a number of years, sold his residence property and practice to Dr. Mahin, of Lake Preston, S. Dak., to take effect the last of June. Dr. Rowe has decided to give up his practice altogether and move to Texas where he will take up the vocation of farming, having purchased land there some time ago. It is with great regret that the many friends of the family view their removal from here. Mr. and Mrs. Otis Lloyd were over from Ute Sunday making a visit at the L. A. Vore home. Mrs. Jim Dearduff of Dunlap, who has been spending some time in this vicinity as a practical nurse, accompanied her son to Omaha last week, where he had an operation performed for appendicitis. G. W. Langley was again taken ill the latter part of the week and at this writing is confined in bed and is reported to be in very poor condition. He is being cared for by his daughters. All hope that he will soon improve. Ray Thompson of Denison, and the Rannells met at the home of Dunlap, visited the Methodist Sunday school on Sunday in the interests of the Centenary cause. Mr. Thompson addressed the Sunday school and music was rendered by the quartet. Their visit was very much enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Claude McDonald and children were visiting with relatives in Denison Sunday. George Brink left the fore part of the week for Ft. Des Moines, where he will enter the hospital to have an operation performed on his leg which has never healed since the amputation of the limb in a hospital in France Saturday while on their way to Denison by auto, the Fred Kremin family met with an accident near the county home. Our informant says that Mr. Kremin lost control of the machine which was turned to the edge of an embankment which has just recently been graded. The bank slipped from under the car, but luckily it was not completely overturned. With the exception of being badly jolted, the occupants escaped injury. The car was damaged but Mr. Kremin succeeded in driving it back to town with its own power. Dr. Mahin of Lake Preston, S. Dak., was a business visitor in town last week. Miss Ruby Spence accompanied by Misses Lauree Downs and Charlotte Westrope were over from Harlan on Sunday visiting relatives and friends. Harry Bybee, who is stationed at Ft. Hill, Okla., arrived Saturday on a furlough and is visiting his mother, Mrs. John Edwards, Sr., and other relatives. He still has four remaining months in the service. The Every Member canvass for the Centenary cause which was to have been started by the Methodist people last Sunday, was postponed until the coming Sunday. Committees have been appointed and arrangements are made to begin at that time. W. V. Butler and Bryce Binnall were here from Pierson the first of the week making a short visit among relatives. The infant babe of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kummer has been quite ill the past week and under the care of a physician. J. L. Butterworth was a passenger to Denison Saturday.

ARION ITEMS

Milton Doldge and family of Dunlap were Arion visitors the first of the week. Mrs. Chas. Holliday of Dunlap came Monday for a visit with relatives. The John and Delbert Lee families motored to Whiting Sunday. Robert Hunt was a Woodbine passenger Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Tripp enjoyed a visit from their grandson, Lee Tripp, of Dunlap, one day this week. Miss Ollie Fox entertained the Som'r Set club at her home Monday evening. A fine lunch was served and everyone present report the best time ever. Mrs. W. O. Marr and daughter, Miss Marie, are visiting relatives in Council Bluffs this week. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Keptord were week end guests at the home of Mrs. Lizzie Huffman near Denison. Mendames R. A. Talcott and Gladys Pett and little Miss Frances, were Sunday visitors at the Van Talcott home near Dow City. Mr. and Mrs. Foster Keptord, Mrs. L. C. Butler and Miss Dorothy attended the movie at Dow City Monday. Sam Tripp and daughter, Violet, returned to their home in Oral, S. Dak., after a ten days' visit here with relatives and friends. James Berka and family were over Sunday visitors at the H. Ratliff home in Dunlap. Clyde Haskins was a Denison business caller Tuesday. Miss Martha Hird left Tuesday evening for Des Moines to meet her nephew, William Wearmouth, who is with the 168th. Mr. and Mrs. John Blackman and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Butler attended the 500 club at the Nelson Butterworth home at Dow City Tuesday evening. Mrs. D. J. Butler received word on Monday evening, that her mother, Mrs. Bangs, was much worse. Mrs. Butler left on the early morning train Tuesday for two Rivers, Wash., to be at her bedside. Mrs. Bangs has many friends here who will be sorry to hear of her illness. Lieutenant Bertrand Dulac, with his wife and son, stopped here Tuesday enroute from New York City to British Columbia via San Francisco. He has just recently arrived from overseas service. They are making the trip overland. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Furne Wednesday, May 14th. Jerry Brink, of Dow City, a returned soldier from France, was shaking the hands of his many friends here Tuesday. Mrs. Milo Kelly was an Arion caller from Denison Wednesday. Messrs. Chas. Smith and Will Rolfs were in town on business Wednesday. E. Ludwig has received word that his brother, Harry has arrived from France and is now with his mother in Blair, Nebr. Mrs. Spray Malone and daughter, of Kenwood, were Arion callers Tuesday. Mrs. Woodward of Manilla, was here between trains Thursday morning. O. W. Nelson went to Durant, Wednesday evening where he will join his five brothers in celebrating their mother's 75th birthday. It is to be a complete surprise on the good little old lady. It will be the first time the boys have been home together for several years. Mark Nelson, our former banker, but now of Atlantic, is one of the brothers. Miss Mildred Peffer is spending this week with her sister, Mrs. Nick Sasgas near Charter Oak. The N. F. and Bert Stilson families visited Dunlap relatives the first of the week. Donald Nelson and Lyle Rose were Dow City business callers Saturday. Burton Thompson returned from Dakota Friday, where he has been visiting relatives for the last two weeks. Everyone is asking everyone else "Were you in Denison Saturday?" And the answer is always, "Yes!" So Arion was in Denison Saturday—and we hurried. James Butler and John Holliday have just finished painting the Jay Thompson residence south of Dow City. Rev. Iona Brosius leaves tomorrow morning, Tuesday, for Fort Dodge, where she will attend the Congregational conference. Robert Hunt is the proud owner of a fine new Chalmers car, purchased through the R. A. Doldge agency. Mrs. C. Christenson returned to her home in Logan Saturday. Word comes from Harry Argotsinger that cars were ordered to take the headquarters troops of the 3rd Army corps, of which he is a member, to the coast, which means home soon. The program given for the benefit of the W. C. T. U. and local work here Friday evening was very much appreciated by a large audience. We wish to thank those who took part in the entertainment. Special mention should be made of the harp solos by Little Miss Erma Clow, the youngest harpist of Omaha. We predict a wonderful future for the little lady. Her teacher, Miss Dolan, accompanied her here. Miss Erma visited relatives here until Sunday. Miss Ruth Smith of Denison was in Arion visiting over Sunday. Mrs. James Butler and Donna, spent several days this week with Mrs. Arden Bell at her pleasant country home north of Dow City. Our boys are coming home from overseas. Ira Le Moine and Bob Oliver came this morning. Arion is getting ready for a rousing welcome. A big feed first, pumpkin pies, that mother will make, baked chicken, jellies, angel cake, doughnuts, home-made bread and butter, candies, fudge and kisses from sisters and sweethearts. In fact everything good will be on that long white table. There will be games, singing, music, speeches and dancing. Our long day of feasting and rejoicing. The date will be announced later, place, the City Park. Mr. and Mrs. G. Hamann and Chas. Hamann of resida, were over Sunday guests at the O. W. Nelson home. Next Sunday evening, Memorial day will be observed in the Congregational church. Special music and a short program has been prepared, followed by the Memorial address, the subject, "The Grand Army." All soldiers and their families especially invited to attend this service and all others who wish to show their appreciation of those who have given their lives in the wars of our country. At two o'clock on the afternoon of Decoration Day, memorial services will be held in the Arion park for Carl Keptord. Rev. Iona Brosius preached the baccalaureate sermon for the graduates Sunday evening. Her subject was, "The Man of Tomorrow." The Misses Evelyn Marr and Ette Reynolds sang a duet. Other special numbers were sung by the choir.

VAIL ITEMS

Miss Elsie Peterson, of West Side, and Lydia Martins of Manning, spent Sunday in Vail visiting friends. B. Wahlin and wife returned Monday from a few days' visit at the Gray home in Jefferson. Johnny Maloney visited friends in Denison Sunday. Marie Hammer of Denison, was a Sunday visitor in our town. J. B. Malloy was here from West Side Sunday. Simon McGinn and sister, Elizabeth attended the dance here Tuesday. Miss Mary Kenney returned home last week from Sterling, Ill., where she went to attend the funeral of her grandfather. Mrs. J. S. Brogan, son, John, and daughter, Faye, were passengers to Carroll Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. John Sanderson departed Tuesday for Milwaukee, Wis., after an extended visit at the Mike Monaghan home. Mrs. John Kinery and daughter, Anne, motored to Denison Monday. Miss Florence Mitchell was a Denison shopper Tuesday. Misses Gertrude Hook, Marie and Irene McMahon of Manilla attended the dance here Tuesday evening. Westley Schlecta motored to West Side Sunday. Misses Grace Hawley and Mildred Lockmiller of Denison, spent Tuesday evening in our town. A number from here attended the Senior class play, "Safety First," in West Side Friday evening. Louie Lockmiller of Denison, was a caller in Vail Wednesday. Messrs. Floyd Hill and Leonard Powers motored to Manilla Tuesday. Bart Mitchell, Jr., of West Side, who attends St. Ann's Academy in Vail, was home over Sunday. The dance here Tuesday evening was well attended and a good time is reported. Pierson's orchestra of Carroll furnished the music. Mrs. Pat McCarthy and son, Frank, motored to Denison Saturday and spent the day. Mrs. J. H. Jones of Denison, was here a few days last week visiting at the parental, Jas. McAndrews home. Red and Eddie Peterson of near Manning were Sunday visitors in our town. A large crowd from here attended the dance in Denison Friday evening. Mrs. A. H. Clark returned home on Sunday to Missouri Valley after spending the week end at the parental, Frank Starek home. Miss Margaret Finnigan spent the last of the week at her home in Carroll. Mr. and Mrs. M. Giblin were shoppers in Denison Saturday. Miss Margaret Regan was a passenger to Denison Saturday. Mrs. Oly and son, Thomas, returned to their home in Omaha Sunday, after spend a week here caring for her father, Thos. Ryan, who has been quite sick, but is now on the road to recovery. James Brogan sister, Anna, and Miss Faye Brogan motored to Denison Saturday to attend the celebration. Dr. T. J. Betnoe of West Side, was calling on Vail friends Sunday. Art Adams of Omaha, visited relatives in Vail the end of last week. Mrs. B. C. Moiseid of Omaha, is spending this week visiting here with relatives and friends. Misses Ella Costello, Gladys Lorenzen and Stella Devaney were Sunday visitors in Denison. Misses Marie McCormick, Marie Mitchell and Mrs. Chas. McCormick were Carroll callers Friday. Chas. Dugan and wife, Miss Elizabeth Kelley, Mrs. J. J. Hill, Mrs. P. D. Sheridan motored to Denison Saturday to attend the celebration. Clark White was here from Denison Tuesday calling on friends. Mrs. Walter O'Connor, Misses Agnes Holland and Marion Short were passengers to Denison Saturday. R. Brockelsby made a business trip by auto to Omaha Wednesday. Mrs. John Flynn and daughter, Margaret were passengers from Denison to Vail Wednesday.

CHARTER OAK ITEMS

Miss Mildred Peffer of Arion is a guest of her sister, Mrs. Nick Sasgas. Mrs. John Hansen was called to Adair last week by the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. A. J. Eggan. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Robertson returned Sunday from a visit with relatives in South Dakota. Miss Ruth Davis of Kenwood, visited several days last week in the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Minnie Davlis. Mrs. D. A. Holmes and children left Wednesday for their new home in Sioux City, the best wishes of a host of friends follow them. C. P. Hoefler was transacting business in Schleswig Friday. The piano class of Miss Grace Mains will give a recital Friday evening, on May 23d. The proceeds of the entertainment will be used to help give a general reception to the soilder boys. The O. E. S. club will meet with W. E. Bowers Wednesday evening. Mrs. Will Buhman of Sioux City, visited relatives and friends here last Tuesday, returning home Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Barber and Leroy left Sunday for Sioux City after a week spent in the old home here. Lowell Woodward of Coleridge, Neb., is visiting his father, G. W. Woodward. Mrs. C. C. Sturges and son, Philip, of Atlantic, are visiting relatives here. Mrs. W. H. Kirley and little daughter, Leona, left Sunday for their home in Denver. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shurke accompanied the mas far as Council Bluffs. Last Monday J. M. French was taken very ill with acute appendicitis. He was hurried to a hospital in Sioux City where he was operated on, and latest reports are that he is getting along fine. Mrs. P. F. Boeck and son, Woodrow visited last week with Mrs. S. A. Huber at Minnola. T. C. Du Bois traded his Dakota land for the brick building occupied by the Woodward store.

CARL F. KUEHNLE, President. C. L. VOSS, Cashier. A. B. LORENZEN, Asst. Cashier. Bank of Denison. RESPONSIBILITY $1,000,000. General Banking Business Conducted. Exchange Bought and Sold. Long and Short Time Loans. Lowest Rates. Interest Paid on Time Deposits. Abstracts of Title Made. We Own a Complete Set of Abstract Books. Real Estate Loans at Lowest Rates. Fire Insurance Written. SIMS & KUEHNLE, Lawyers

Make your listings and buy your farms, city homes and lots of the MAN LAND COMPANY They made three sales within the past week

AN INVESTMENT IN OMAHA REAL ESTATE Assures: Safety Income Growing Value Location SAFETY: Omaha Real Estate is SAFE (and secure) Because: (1) It depends upon the combined business judgment of all the business men of Omaha. (2) It is not dependent upon the action of any man or board of directors. (3) It can't burn, blow away, go broke, or be stolen. It can't be wrecked by a crooked business executive. (4) And the demand for it will always grow because more people are coming to Omaha every day—trying to get it. An Example:—A. C. Crossman in 1917, bought property at Thirty-eighth and Farnam streets for $24,000. This month he sold it for $35,000. OMAHA REAL ESTATE BOARD 308 So. 16th St. Omaha, Neb., U. S. A.

"GREAT!" The hearty drink, the friendly drink for all real people. Hamm's Exelso. Different! Every glassful refreshing. Every drop sizzling with life. Better! Full of the strength of nourishing cereals and hops. Satisfies! The real, true flavor. At your nearest soft-drink store—try it and see how quickly you and Exelso will take to each other. DENISON BOTTLING WORKS DENISON IOWA