

Denison Local

Mrs. Florence Johnson, of Kiron, was a shopper in Denison Monday.

Mrs. Wm. Schoenbach, of West Side, was a shopper in Denison Monday.

W. R. Temple is spending this week at Sioux City visiting his daughter, Mrs. Sarah Ott.

C. M. Dybbro and family motored to Dunlap Sunday, where they spent the day visiting friends.

W. W. Davis, of the Davis Service station, spent Tuesday in Omaha, driving down in his auto.

Jacob Sims and family motored to Lake Okoboji this morning, where they will enjoy a vacation.

Jacob Sims and Carl Frederick Kuehnia motored to Sac City yesterday on a business mission.

Mrs. Kate Gorman, of Kansas City, was in Denison the fore part of the week, the guest of Miss Frances Leahy.

Rev. C. E. Hamilton and family and H. A. Carpenter and family expect to motor to Okoboji this week for a few days' outing.

E. R. Reimers of the Sibbert-Reimers Co. has been spending the week in South Dakota where he is looking after land interests.

Robert McCarthy, of Minneapolis, a son of John McCarthy, arrived in Denison this week and will visit for a time at the McCarthy home.

Henry Hamann, of Nishnabotony township, was a Denison visitor Tuesday and while in town favored the Review with a pleasant call.

The Joseph Ingram family, of Milford township, are spending the week in Linn county, where they are visiting relatives. They are making the trip by auto.

Joe Monaghan, Maurice Nielsen and Dr. Yoder motored to Dow City Sunday to attend the ball game between Dow City and the World Herald team of Omaha. Dow City won by the score of 5 to 4.

Gus Windstrom, of Neuman Grove, Neb., accompanied by his three children, are visiting at the Gus Holden home in Denison this week. Mr. Windstrom is a former resident of Crawford county.

D. W. Flack, of Cottonwood, S. D., is visiting with relatives in Denison this week. Mr. Flack will be remembered as having been engaged in the mercantile business in Denison a number of years ago, being a member of the DeWolf & Flack concern.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schwartz of this city received word yesterday that their son, William, had landed at Camp Dix, N. J., and would be home within a week or so. William is a member of a headquarters company and has been overseas some thirteen months.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Seberger and children, residents of Creston, stopped off in Denison over Sunday on their way home from Lake Okoboji for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kahler. Miss Lena Kahler, who has been a guest at the Kahler home, accompanied them back to Creston.

George Duzik, the barber, who has been located under the new Farmers' State Bank, has moved his equipment to the rooms under the Crawford county bank, having purchased the barber business from George Graves. We understand the Graves' will remain with Mr. Duzik and assist with the work.

The Knights of Pythias order of Denison has seemingly taken on a new lease of life, and committees are out canvassing for new members. Thus far a number of new applications have been received and by the time the winter months arrive, there will be a goodly number of candidates to work upon.

Herbert R. McMinnimnee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McMinnimnee, of Denison, returned from France on Sunday night, having landed in New York one week ago. Herbert has been in France for ten months, serving with the General Headquarters Department. For a time he was with the machine gunners. He is looking fine, and says he is enjoying the best of health.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Chamberlin arrived in Denison Saturday from Independence for a visit at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Chamberlin. Clarence enlisted in the aviation service soon after the outbreak of the war, at which time he sold out his tire business here to H. A. Carpenter. He completed his flying school and was at New York awaiting orders to sail for France when the armistice was signed so did not get across. He has not yet decided what business he will engage in but his many friends here trust he will locate in Denison.

Patrick Hasset continues to sell real estate despite the heated weather. This week he reports the sale of an 85 acre farm near Norwalk to Chas. Spencer, of Minnesota; the 187 acre farm three miles north of Denison that he purchased from Hans Blohm some time ago he resold to Mr. Blohm at a good advance in price. Mr. Blohm will rent the farm, however, as he has purchased a home in Denison and will move to town. Mr. Hasset has also sold the 200 acre farm one mile north of Arion to Pope Foster, of Boyer, and yesterday he disposed of the Reesberg residence on Main street, selling it to D. F. Brown.

Martin Runge resigned his position last week as bookkeeper for the Gibson & Rogers garage and has accepted a position with the Paulsen & Iwen company, commencing his new duties last Saturday. The Paulsen & Iwen company have opened up offices in the Ed Nelson building, having rented the Sallinger & Welch law office. This company manufactures hog and stock waterers which are finding a ready market, having already received orders for all they can manufacture for several weeks to come. The company was indeed fortunate in securing the services of Mr. Runge to attend to their book work.

Miss Marie Rowan was a shopper in Denison Friday from Vall.

F. N. Otry and family motored to Schleswig Sunday and spent the day visiting relatives.

Ben Smith came down from his home in Pipestone, Minn., last evening for a few days' visit with friends in Denison.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Faul went to Council Bluffs Sunday, where they are spending a few days this week visiting his mother.

Deputy Sheriff J. Johnson departed Saturday evening for Dike, where he is enjoying a few days' visit with relatives and friends.

John Schnoor and family motored to Lake View today, where they have rented the M. E. Jones cottage and will enjoy an outing.

Dr. and Mrs. R. O. McConaughy and sons and Mrs. L. A. Sewell motored to Lake Okoboji Saturday, where they are spending this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Bauer of Ames are spending the week here visiting at the Red Summer home. Mrs. Bauer is a sister of Mrs. Brummer.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Burke and little daughter departed Monday for Excelsior Springs, Mo., where Mrs. Burke will resume treatment for rheumatism.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Caswell, Miss Flo Caswell and Miss Clara Conner motored to Lewis Saturday, where they visited over Sunday with relatives and friends.

Mrs. P. W. Harding accompanied by her niece, Mrs. Vada Harden, of Charter Oak, left Denison Sunday evening for an extended trip through Yellowstone Park and other points of interest in the west.

Geo. Atzen returned home Monday from Lake Park after a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Atzen. He accompanied his parents on a motor trip from Denison to Chicago and returned with them to their home at Lake Park.

Master Addis Mahon arrived here last week from Kansas City for an extended visit at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. P. E. C. Lally. Miss Claudine Mahon, his sister, has been here for the past month and will remain for a longer visit.

John Norris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Norris, who is in the 2d division of the marines, arrived last week at Camp Mills, having served for several months in the army of occupation. He expects to receive his discharge and return home some time this week.

Howard Gray returned to Denison Monday after having received his discharge from the service. Howard was one of the first Denison boys to enter the service, enlisting in Co. B, 2d Iowa infantry. Since the signing of the armistice he has been stationed at Paris.

Rev. J. L. Boyd expects to leave tomorrow for Okoboji where he will spend a week attending the Epworth League convention, which is held at the Methodist Camping Grounds on West Okoboji. This is a delightful place and Rev. Boyd anticipates a pleasant outing.

Miss Alice Boyd accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Rex Truesdell, of Sioux City, arrived Monday for a visit at their parental home. Miss Boyd will remain home a month before leaving for Lawton, where she will be an instructor in the public schools of that place the coming year.

Judge Conner returned home this noon from Omaha, where he has been for the past three weeks at the Bismont hospital taking treatment for the asthma. He returned home greatly improved in health. Mrs. Conner, who has been with him for the past ten days, accompanied him home.

The county to the west and north was favored with a good shower this morning. Some hail is reported at Charter Oak, and at Schleswig the hail was quite heavy. Those of our farmers living in the north part of the county who are raising popcorn say the crop was badly in need of rain and the shower of this morning will do much good.

Miss Hazel Laub is expected home Sunday from Chicago, where she has completed her course in nursing at the Cook county hospital. She had expected to return home sooner, but on account of the race riot in Chicago and the shortage of nurses she remained longer. We understand that she has accepted a fine position with one of the large hospitals in Omaha.

A special meeting of the Denison chapter of the Red Cross was called for last Monday evening, but owing to the small attendance no business was transacted, the meeting being postponed until some future date. It is the plan to have one member from each branch in the county act as a member of the executive board and the meeting was called for the purpose of carrying this plan out.

V. E. Anderson, the tailor, has just installed a Hoffmann pressing machine which is the last word in equipment of this kind. The machine, which represents an investment of $250, will increase the output of pressing almost 100 per cent and do the work more efficiently than it could be done by the old method. All kinds of pressing can be done with this machine and garments are thoroughly steamed and the dust removed by vacuum in the process. Mr. Anderson believes in keeping abreast of the times and is sparing no expense in taking care of his growing patronage.

Miss Hazel Laub is expected home Sunday from Chicago, where she has completed her course in nursing at the Cook county hospital. She had expected to return home sooner, but on account of the race riot in Chicago and the shortage of nurses she remained longer. We understand that she has accepted a fine position with one of the large hospitals in Omaha.

A special meeting of the Denison chapter of the Red Cross was called for last Monday evening, but owing to the small attendance no business was transacted, the meeting being postponed until some future date. It is the plan to have one member from each branch in the county act as a member of the executive board and the meeting was called for the purpose of carrying this plan out.

V. E. Anderson, the tailor, has just installed a Hoffmann pressing machine which is the last word in equipment of this kind. The machine, which represents an investment of $250, will increase the output of pressing almost 100 per cent and do the work more efficiently than it could be done by the old method. All kinds of pressing can be done with this machine and garments are thoroughly steamed and the dust removed by vacuum in the process. Mr. Anderson believes in keeping abreast of the times and is sparing no expense in taking care of his growing patronage.

Miss Hazel Laub is expected home Sunday from Chicago, where she has completed her course in nursing at the Cook county hospital. She had expected to return home sooner, but on account of the race riot in Chicago and the shortage of nurses she remained longer. We understand that she has accepted a fine position with one of the large hospitals in Omaha.

A special meeting of the Denison chapter of the Red Cross was called for last Monday evening, but owing to the small attendance no business was transacted, the meeting being postponed until some future date. It is the plan to have one member from each branch in the county act as a member of the executive board and the meeting was called for the purpose of carrying this plan out.

V. E. Anderson, the tailor, has just installed a Hoffmann pressing machine which is the last word in equipment of this kind. The machine, which represents an investment of $250, will increase the output of pressing almost 100 per cent and do the work more efficiently than it could be done by the old method. All kinds of pressing can be done with this machine and garments are thoroughly steamed and the dust removed by vacuum in the process. Mr. Anderson believes in keeping abreast of the times and is sparing no expense in taking care of his growing patronage.

Miss Hazel Laub is expected home Sunday from Chicago, where she has completed her course in nursing at the Cook county hospital. She had expected to return home sooner, but on account of the race riot in Chicago and the shortage of nurses she remained longer. We understand that she has accepted a fine position with one of the large hospitals in Omaha.

A special meeting of the Denison chapter of the Red Cross was called for last Monday evening, but owing to the small attendance no business was transacted, the meeting being postponed until some future date. It is the plan to have one member from each branch in the county act as a member of the executive board and the meeting was called for the purpose of carrying this plan out.

V. E. Anderson, the tailor, has just installed a Hoffmann pressing machine which is the last word in equipment of this kind. The machine, which represents an investment of $250, will increase the output of pressing almost 100 per cent and do the work more efficiently than it could be done by the old method. All kinds of pressing can be done with this machine and garments are thoroughly steamed and the dust removed by vacuum in the process. Mr. Anderson believes in keeping abreast of the times and is sparing no expense in taking care of his growing patronage.

Miss Hazel Laub is expected home Sunday from Chicago, where she has completed her course in nursing at the Cook county hospital. She had expected to return home sooner, but on account of the race riot in Chicago and the shortage of nurses she remained longer. We understand that she has accepted a fine position with one of the large hospitals in Omaha.

A special meeting of the Denison chapter of the Red Cross was called for last Monday evening, but owing to the small attendance no business was transacted, the meeting being postponed until some future date. It is the plan to have one member from each branch in the county act as a member of the executive board and the meeting was called for the purpose of carrying this plan out.

V. E. Anderson, the tailor, has just installed a Hoffmann pressing machine which is the last word in equipment of this kind. The machine, which represents an investment of $250, will increase the output of pressing almost 100 per cent and do the work more efficiently than it could be done by the old method. All kinds of pressing can be done with this machine and garments are thoroughly steamed and the dust removed by vacuum in the process. Mr. Anderson believes in keeping abreast of the times and is sparing no expense in taking care of his growing patronage.

Miss Hazel Laub is expected home Sunday from Chicago, where she has completed her course in nursing at the Cook county hospital. She had expected to return home sooner, but on account of the race riot in Chicago and the shortage of nurses she remained longer. We understand that she has accepted a fine position with one of the large hospitals in Omaha.

A special meeting of the Denison chapter of the Red Cross was called for last Monday evening, but owing to the small attendance no business was transacted, the meeting being postponed until some future date. It is the plan to have one member from each branch in the county act as a member of the executive board and the meeting was called for the purpose of carrying this plan out.

V. E. Anderson, the tailor, has just installed a Hoffmann pressing machine which is the last word in equipment of this kind. The machine, which represents an investment of $250, will increase the output of pressing almost 100 per cent and do the work more efficiently than it could be done by the old method. All kinds of pressing can be done with this machine and garments are thoroughly steamed and the dust removed by vacuum in the process. Mr. Anderson believes in keeping abreast of the times and is sparing no expense in taking care of his growing patronage.

Miss Hazel Laub is expected home Sunday from Chicago, where she has completed her course in nursing at the Cook county hospital. She had expected to return home sooner, but on account of the race riot in Chicago and the shortage of nurses she remained longer. We understand that she has accepted a fine position with one of the large hospitals in Omaha.

A special meeting of the Denison chapter of the Red Cross was called for last Monday evening, but owing to the small attendance no business was transacted, the meeting being postponed until some future date. It is the plan to have one member from each branch in the county act as a member of the executive board and the meeting was called for the purpose of carrying this plan out.

V. E. Anderson, the tailor, has just installed a Hoffmann pressing machine which is the last word in equipment of this kind. The machine, which represents an investment of $250, will increase the output of pressing almost 100 per cent and do the work more efficiently than it could be done by the old method. All kinds of pressing can be done with this machine and garments are thoroughly steamed and the dust removed by vacuum in the process. Mr. Anderson believes in keeping abreast of the times and is sparing no expense in taking care of his growing patronage.

Miss Hazel Laub is expected home Sunday from Chicago, where she has completed her course in nursing at the Cook county hospital. She had expected to return home sooner, but on account of the race riot in Chicago and the shortage of nurses she remained longer. We understand that she has accepted a fine position with one of the large hospitals in Omaha.

A special meeting of the Denison chapter of the Red Cross was called for last Monday evening, but owing to the small attendance no business was transacted, the meeting being postponed until some future date. It is the plan to have one member from each branch in the county act as a member of the executive board and the meeting was called for the purpose of carrying this plan out.

V. E. Anderson, the tailor, has just installed a Hoffmann pressing machine which is the last word in equipment of this kind. The machine, which represents an investment of $250, will increase the output of pressing almost 100 per cent and do the work more efficiently than it could be done by the old method. All kinds of pressing can be done with this machine and garments are thoroughly steamed and the dust removed by vacuum in the process. Mr. Anderson believes in keeping abreast of the times and is sparing no expense in taking care of his growing patronage.

Miss Hazel Laub is expected home Sunday from Chicago, where she has completed her course in nursing at the Cook county hospital. She had expected to return home sooner, but on account of the race riot in Chicago and the shortage of nurses she remained longer. We understand that she has accepted a fine position with one of the large hospitals in Omaha.

A special meeting of the Denison chapter of the Red Cross was called for last Monday evening, but owing to the small attendance no business was transacted, the meeting being postponed until some future date. It is the plan to have one member from each branch in the county act as a member of the executive board and the meeting was called for the purpose of carrying this plan out.

V. E. Anderson, the tailor, has just installed a Hoffmann pressing machine which is the last word in equipment of this kind. The machine, which represents an investment of $250, will increase the output of pressing almost 100 per cent and do the work more efficiently than it could be done by the old method. All kinds of pressing can be done with this machine and garments are thoroughly steamed and the dust removed by vacuum in the process. Mr. Anderson believes in keeping abreast of the times and is sparing no expense in taking care of his growing patronage.

Miss Hazel Laub is expected home Sunday from Chicago, where she has completed her course in nursing at the Cook county hospital. She had expected to return home sooner, but on account of the race riot in Chicago and the shortage of nurses she remained longer. We understand that she has accepted a fine position with one of the large hospitals in Omaha.

A special meeting of the Denison chapter of the Red Cross was called for last Monday evening, but owing to the small attendance no business was transacted, the meeting being postponed until some future date. It is the plan to have one member from each branch in the county act as a member of the executive board and the meeting was called for the purpose of carrying this plan out.

V. E. Anderson, the tailor, has just installed a Hoffmann pressing machine which is the last word in equipment of this kind. The machine, which represents an investment of $250, will increase the output of pressing almost 100 per cent and do the work more efficiently than it could be done by the old method. All kinds of pressing can be done with this machine and garments are thoroughly steamed and the dust removed by vacuum in the process. Mr. Anderson believes in keeping abreast of the times and is sparing no expense in taking care of his growing patronage.

Miss Hazel Laub is expected home Sunday from Chicago, where she has completed her course in nursing at the Cook county hospital. She had expected to return home sooner, but on account of the race riot in Chicago and the shortage of nurses she remained longer. We understand that she has accepted a fine position with one of the large hospitals in Omaha.

A special meeting of the Denison chapter of the Red Cross was called for last Monday evening, but owing to the small attendance no business was transacted, the meeting being postponed until some future date. It is the plan to have one member from each branch in the county act as a member of the executive board and the meeting was called for the purpose of carrying this plan out.

V. E. Anderson, the tailor, has just installed a Hoffmann pressing machine which is the last word in equipment of this kind. The machine, which represents an investment of $250, will increase the output of pressing almost 100 per cent and do the work more efficiently than it could be done by the old method. All kinds of pressing can be done with this machine and garments are thoroughly steamed and the dust removed by vacuum in the process. Mr. Anderson believes in keeping abreast of the times and is sparing no expense in taking care of his growing patronage.

Eldon and Vernon Berg, who are employed at Des Moines, spent Sunday at their parental home in this city.

Russell Lyon arrived home last night, having recently returned from service in France, where he served with the engineers.

Dr. and Mrs. Schramek, of Omaha, stopped here today for a short visit with Mrs. Frieda Sterling, while en route to Minnesota by auto.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Willin, of Spokane, Wash., are spending the week here visiting at the Fred Berg home. They expect to leave for their home on Friday.

Mrs. C. D. Moore and little son, who have been visiting with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Berg, expect to return to their home at Urbana, Iowa, the latter part of the week.

The Harrison Carnival company did not arrive in Denison until Tuesday morning and were then unable to secure suitable ground upon which to pitch their tents, therefore they are not showing in Denison. We understand they plan to go to Carroll.

Mrs. W. S. Abbey, of Sioux City, spent the fore part of the week here visiting her sister, Mrs. L. P. Servoss. She had been called to Dunlap to attend the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. E. J. Wheatley, whose death occurred at her home at Detroit, Mich., the remains being brought to Dunlap for interment. Mrs. Servoss was also in attendance at the funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Bruggen expect to leave the latter part of the week for an extended visit with relatives near Wolford, N. D., and other points in that locality. Mr. Bruggen will look after land interests while there, having the agency for North Dakota lands with an Omaha land company. They also contemplate a trip to Montana before returning home.

Denison friends of Miss Mattie Beaumont and Mr. Lonnie Erickson, of this city, were greatly surprised to learn of their marriage which occurred on Monday of this week at Omaha. The young people went to Omaha on the morning train, supposedly for a short visit, and since their return that evening the news has leaked out that they were married while there. The young people have not divulged their future plans as yet, and are both retaining their positions at the Nicholson Ice & Produce plant at present. Miss Beaumont has been the efficient stenographer for this firm for the past year, Mr. Erickson being employed there also since his return from service. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mrs. L. A. Beaumont of this city, and is possessed of a pleasing and unassuming manner, which has made many friends for her in this community. She attended the public schools in this city for a short time, later taking a business course at the Denison Normal and Business college, from which she graduated in 1917. She is a member of the Baptist church of this city and has been very active in the work of the young people's societies. The groom is a son of Lars Erickson, of Denison, and is an upright young man of good habits. He was among the first of the Denison boys to offer his services to his country and was stationed for some time at Camp Cody, from which place he was discharged and sent home on account of poor health. Since his return he has been employed at the Nicholson plant in this city. The Review extends congratulations.

Mrs. Fredericka Bumann, nee Putzier, was born July 31, 1852, in the province of Pommern, Germany, and died at her home in Schleswig Thursday evening, July 24, 1919. She came over at the age of five and lived at Davenport, later coming to Crawford county. In 1875 she was married to Julius Bumann and lived on a farm until 1907, when they built a beautiful home in Schleswig and retired from the farm. Her husband preceded her in death last February, five months ago. Five children survive her, namely: Will Bumann, of Schleswig; Rudolph, of near Battle Creek; Adolph and Misses Minnie and Emma of Schleswig. Funeral services were held last Sunday afternoon at the Friedens church, conducted by Walter Wetzel, who is filling the pulpit during his father's absence. Mrs. Ethel Boock and daughter, Zanet, returned home Monday from their visit to Avoca with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lahl.

Mrs. Fredericka Bumann, nee Putzier, was born July 31, 1852, in the province of Pommern, Germany, and died at her home in Schleswig Thursday evening, July 24, 1919. She came over at the age of five and lived at Davenport, later coming to Crawford county. In 1875 she was married to Julius Bumann and lived on a farm until 1907, when they built a beautiful home in Schleswig and retired from the farm. Her husband preceded her in death last February, five months ago. Five children survive her, namely: Will Bumann, of Schleswig; Rudolph, of near Battle Creek; Adolph and Misses Minnie and Emma of Schleswig. Funeral services were held last Sunday afternoon at the Friedens church, conducted by Walter Wetzel, who is filling the pulpit during his father's absence. Mrs. Ethel Boock and daughter, Zanet, returned home Monday from their visit to Avoca with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lahl.

Mrs. Fredericka Bumann, nee Putzier, was born July 31, 1852, in the province of Pommern, Germany, and died at her home in Schleswig Thursday evening, July 24, 1919. She came over at the age of five and lived at Davenport, later coming to Crawford county. In 1875 she was married to Julius Bumann and lived on a farm until 1907, when they built a beautiful home in Schleswig and retired from the farm. Her husband preceded her in death last February, five months ago. Five children survive her, namely: Will Bumann, of Schleswig; Rudolph, of near Battle Creek; Adolph and Misses Minnie and Emma of Schleswig. Funeral services were held last Sunday afternoon at the Friedens church, conducted by Walter Wetzel, who is filling the pulpit during his father's absence. Mrs. Ethel Boock and daughter, Zanet, returned home Monday from their visit to Avoca with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lahl.

Mrs. Fredericka Bumann, nee Putzier, was born July 31, 1852, in the province of Pommern, Germany, and died at her home in Schleswig Thursday evening, July 24, 1919. She came over at the age of five and lived at Davenport, later coming to Crawford county. In 1875 she was married to Julius Bumann and lived on a farm until 1907, when they built a beautiful home in Schleswig and retired from the farm. Her husband preceded her in death last February, five months ago. Five children survive her, namely: Will Bumann, of Schleswig; Rudolph, of near Battle Creek; Adolph and Misses Minnie and Emma of Schleswig. Funeral services were held last Sunday afternoon at the Friedens church, conducted by Walter Wetzel, who is filling the pulpit during his father's absence. Mrs. Ethel Boock and daughter, Zanet, returned home Monday from their visit to Avoca with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lahl.

Mrs. Fredericka Bumann, nee Putzier, was born July 31, 1852, in the province of Pommern, Germany, and died at her home in Schleswig Thursday evening, July 24, 1919. She came over at the age of five and lived at Davenport, later coming to Crawford county. In 1875 she was married to Julius Bumann and lived on a farm until 1907, when they built a beautiful home in Schleswig and retired from the farm. Her husband preceded her in death last February, five months ago. Five children survive her, namely: Will Bumann, of Schleswig; Rudolph, of near Battle Creek; Adolph and Misses Minnie and Emma of Schleswig. Funeral services were held last Sunday afternoon at the Friedens church, conducted by Walter Wetzel, who is filling the pulpit during his father's absence. Mrs. Ethel Boock and daughter, Zanet, returned home Monday from their visit to Avoca with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lahl.

Mrs. Fredericka Bumann, nee Putzier, was born July 31, 1852, in the province of Pommern, Germany, and died at her home in Schleswig Thursday evening, July 24, 1919. She came over at the age of five and lived at Davenport, later coming to Crawford county. In 1875 she was married to Julius Bumann and lived on a farm until 1907, when they built a beautiful home in Schleswig and retired from the farm. Her husband preceded her in death last February, five months ago. Five children survive her, namely: Will Bumann, of Schleswig; Rudolph, of near Battle Creek; Adolph and Misses Minnie and Emma of Schleswig. Funeral services were held last Sunday afternoon at the Friedens church, conducted by Walter Wetzel, who is filling the pulpit during his father's absence. Mrs. Ethel Boock and daughter, Zanet, returned home Monday from their visit to Avoca with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lahl.

Mrs. Fredericka Bumann, nee Putzier, was born July 31, 1852, in the province of Pommern, Germany, and died at her home in Schleswig Thursday evening, July 24, 1919. She came over at the age of five and lived at Davenport, later coming to Crawford county. In 1875 she was married to Julius Bumann and lived on a farm until 1907, when they built a beautiful home in Schleswig and retired from the farm. Her husband preceded her in death last February, five months ago. Five children survive her, namely: Will Bumann, of Schleswig; Rudolph, of near Battle Creek; Adolph and Misses Minnie and Emma of Schleswig. Funeral services were held last Sunday afternoon at the Friedens church, conducted by Walter Wetzel, who is filling the pulpit during his father's absence. Mrs. Ethel Boock and daughter, Zanet, returned home Monday from their visit to Avoca with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lahl.

Mrs. Fredericka Bumann, nee Putzier, was born July 31, 1852, in the province of Pommern, Germany, and died at her home in Schleswig Thursday evening, July 24, 1919. She came over at the age of five and lived at Davenport, later coming to Crawford county. In 1875 she was married to Julius Bumann and lived on a farm until 1907, when they built a beautiful home in Schleswig and retired from the farm. Her husband preceded her in death last February, five months ago. Five children survive her, namely: Will Bumann, of Schleswig; Rudolph, of near Battle Creek; Adolph and Misses Minnie and Emma of Schleswig. Funeral services were held last Sunday afternoon at the Friedens church, conducted by Walter Wetzel, who is filling the pulpit during his father's absence. Mrs. Ethel Boock and daughter, Zanet, returned home Monday from their visit to Avoca with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lahl.

Mrs. Fredericka Bumann, nee Putzier, was born July 31, 1852, in the province of Pommern, Germany, and died at her home in Schleswig Thursday evening, July 24, 1919. She came over at the age of five and lived at Davenport, later coming to Crawford county. In 1875 she was married to Julius Bumann and lived on a farm until 1907, when they built a beautiful home in Schleswig and retired from the farm. Her husband preceded her in death last February, five months ago. Five children survive her, namely: Will Bumann, of Schleswig; Rudolph, of near Battle Creek; Adolph and Misses Minnie and Emma of Schleswig. Funeral services were held last Sunday afternoon at the Friedens church, conducted by Walter Wetzel, who is filling the pulpit during his father's absence. Mrs. Ethel Boock and daughter, Zanet, returned home Monday from their visit to Avoca with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lahl.

Mrs. Fredericka Bumann, nee Putzier, was born July 31, 1852, in the province of Pommern, Germany, and died at her home in Schleswig Thursday evening, July 24, 1919. She came over at the age of five and lived at Davenport, later coming to Crawford county. In 1875 she was married to Julius Bumann and lived on a farm until 1907, when they built a beautiful home in Schleswig and retired from the farm. Her husband preceded her in death last February, five months ago. Five children survive her, namely: Will Bumann, of Schleswig; Rudolph, of near Battle Creek; Adolph and Misses Minnie and Emma of Schleswig. Funeral services were held last Sunday afternoon at the Friedens church, conducted by Walter Wetzel, who is filling the pulpit during his father's absence. Mrs. Ethel Boock and daughter, Zanet, returned home Monday from their visit to Avoca with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lahl.

Mrs. Fredericka Bumann, nee Putzier, was born July 31, 1852, in the province of Pommern, Germany, and died at her home in Schleswig Thursday evening, July 24, 1919. She came over at the age of five and lived at Davenport, later coming to Crawford county. In 1875 she was married to Julius Bumann and lived on a farm until 1907, when they built a beautiful home in Schleswig and retired from the farm. Her husband preceded her in death last February, five months ago. Five children survive her, namely: Will Bumann, of Schleswig; Rudolph, of near Battle Creek; Adolph and Misses Minnie and Emma of Schleswig. Funeral services were held last Sunday afternoon at the Friedens church, conducted by Walter Wetzel, who is filling the pulpit during his father's absence. Mrs. Ethel Boock and daughter, Zanet, returned home Monday from their visit to Avoca with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lahl.

Mrs. Fredericka Bumann, nee Putzier, was born July 31, 1852, in the province of Pommern, Germany, and died at her home in Schleswig Thursday evening, July 24, 1919. She came over at the age of five and lived at Davenport, later coming to Crawford county. In 1875 she was married to Julius Bumann and lived on a farm until 1907, when they built a beautiful home in Schleswig and retired from the farm. Her husband preceded her in death last February, five months ago. Five children survive her, namely: Will Bumann, of Schleswig; Rudolph, of near Battle Creek; Adolph and Misses Minnie and Emma of Schleswig. Funeral services were held last Sunday afternoon at the Friedens church, conducted by Walter Wetzel, who is filling the pulpit during his father's absence. Mrs. Ethel Boock and daughter, Zanet, returned home Monday from their visit to Avoca with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lahl.

Mrs. Fredericka Bumann, nee Putzier, was born July 31, 1852, in the province of Pommern, Germany, and died at her home in Schleswig Thursday evening, July 24, 1919. She came over at the age of five and lived at Davenport, later coming to Crawford county. In 1875 she was married to Julius Bumann and lived on a farm until 1907, when they built a beautiful home in Schleswig and retired from the farm. Her husband preceded her in death last February, five months ago. Five children survive her, namely: Will Bumann, of Schleswig; Rudolph, of near Battle Creek; Adolph and Misses Minnie and Emma of Schleswig. Funeral services were held last Sunday afternoon at the Friedens church, conducted by Walter Wetzel, who is filling the pulpit during his father's absence. Mrs. Ethel Boock and daughter, Zanet, returned home Monday from their visit to Avoca with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lahl.

Mrs. Fredericka Bumann, nee Putzier, was born July 31, 1852, in the province of Pommern, Germany, and died at her home in Schleswig Thursday evening, July 24, 1919. She came over at the age of five and lived at Davenport, later coming to Crawford county. In 1875 she was married to Julius Bumann and lived on a farm until 1907, when they built a beautiful home in Schleswig and retired from the farm. Her husband preceded her in death last February, five months ago. Five children survive her, namely: Will Bumann, of Schleswig; Rudolph, of near Battle Creek; Adolph and Misses Minnie and Emma of Schleswig. Funeral services were held last Sunday afternoon at the Friedens church, conducted by Walter Wetzel, who is filling the pulpit during his father's absence. Mrs. Ethel Boock and daughter, Zanet, returned home Monday from their visit to Avoca with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lahl.

Mrs. Fredericka Bumann, nee Putzier, was born July 31, 1852, in the province of Pommern, Germany, and died at her home in Schleswig Thursday evening, July 24, 1919. She came over at the age of five and lived at Davenport, later coming to Crawford county. In 1875 she was married to Julius Bumann and lived on a farm until 1907, when they built a beautiful home in Schleswig and retired from the farm. Her husband preceded her in