

DEATH CLAIMS HENRY TEBBE

Highly Respected Citizen of Hanover Township, Passes Away December 24th After a Long Illness

LEAVES WIFE AND ONE SON

Funeral Services Were Held Saturday, Rev. Wm. Freese Officiating—Interment in Hanover Cemetery

Henry Tebbe, highly respected citizen of Hanover township, passed away on Wednesday morning, December 24th, at 2:45 o'clock, after an illness of three weeks' duration, at the ripe age of 72 years. Mr. Tebbe has not been in the best of health of recent years, suffering with stomach and heart trouble, and it was this trouble which was the immediate cause of his death.

Mr. Tebbe was a native of Germany, being born there Nov. 27, 1847, a son of Albert and Henrietta Tebbe. They came to America in 1874, locating in Clinton county. Henry Tebbe was educated in his native land and it was when he was twenty-six years of age that he came to America and for ten years he remained with his father, assisting in the work of the home farm. He began farming on his own account in Crawford county, purchasing in 1885 a part of the farm in Hanover he owned at the time of his death. He applied himself to such good purpose that he was able to purchase land as time advanced so that he acquired considerable holdings. Mr. Tebbe improved his land and was considered one of the best farmers in that section of the county.

On the 25th of February, 1885, Mr. Tebbe was united in marriage to Miss Sophia Wiese, who was born in Germany, Sept. 18, 1863. There were four children born to this union, three of whom, Elizabeth, Matilda and John, died in infancy. Albert W., the eldest, was born March 15, 1887, and is still living at home. For the past few years Albert has been the mainstay of the family, practically managing the farm on account of his father's failing health.

Besides the devoted wife and son, Mr. Tebbe leaves to mourn his death one brother, John Tebbe, of Kenwood, and five sisters, Mrs. George Busch, Clinton county; Mrs. William Kuehn, Clinton county; Mrs. August Kuehl, Clinton county; Mrs. Leonard Zogg, residing in Wisconsin; and Mrs. Henry Busch, Clinton county.

Mr. Tebbe's interests were thoroughly identified with those of Hanover township and no man in the township was more willing to assist in its advancement. He was of a modest, retiring disposition and therefore never sought publicity, preferring to devote his time and attention to his family and farm. He was a man held in high esteem by all with whom he came in contact, and in his death Hanover township and Crawford county has lost a good citizen, kind friend and neighbor.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the late home, Rev. Wm. Freese, pastor of the Lutheran church in Denison, officiating, after which interment was made in the Hanover township cemetery.

The Review joins with the many friends in extending heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved wife and son in their sorrow.

REVIEW CLOSES YEAR 1919

With this issue The Review closes the year 1919, having given the readers fifty-three numbers of the paper this year. Beginning with next week the paper starts on the fifty-fifth year of its existence, and under the most flattering conditions in its history. Time has dealt kindly with The Review and today the paper has more friends throughout the field it covers than ever. Fifty-four years is not so long a time as the centuries come and go, but it is quite a spell in the history of the locality in which the paper is published. We have before us a copy of The Review issued July 16, 1869, in which the editor, James D. Ainsworth, in his introductory remarks says that "in resuming publication the paper was evidently suspended for a time prior to Mr. Ainsworth gaining control. Ed of The Review, and in presenting to you this our first number it is needless to say much by way of introduction, the paper speaks for itself." And it has been speaking weekly without intervention all these years since. An institution that could survive for fifty-four years with only brief suspensions, and in modern life growing a little bit better and a little more serviceable to all those about it, is deserving of some self-praise, and yet we hesitate—the present owners are not given to much self-aggrandizement—we are willing to let the public and those The Review serves determine the merits of the present publication.

The year 1919 has been one of many contentions, all has not been smooth sailing, the cost of a weekly publication such as The Review has more than doubled, labor conditions, mail facilities, conservations and government regulations have all added to make the newspaper business anything but a flowery bed of roses. Along with the publisher might idly linger, and yet without The Review ends the year with the books showing the best business in the history of the paper. For this we are truly grateful—without the loyal support of our hundreds of friends, subscribers, advertisers and customers for printing, we would have been unable to maintain the quality of the paper, and the aim for which we have striven would not have been reached. For the year just beginning we are not making any promises other than it will be our greatest ambition to improve wherever possible, to give the best service within our power, and to uphold the standing and envied prestige gained by The Review during the past year.

We wish all a very happy and prosperous New Year.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cassaday and Howard Gray were in Omaha Tuesday of last week, where they attended the wedding of Miss Ruth Gray and Mr. Alfred Hughey. The bride is a sister of Mr. Gray and Mrs. Ralph Cassaday. The wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Gray, and was a quiet affair, only the immediate relatives, together with a few friends of the couple being in attendance. The bride is quite well known in Denison, having visited her sister here on a number of occasions. For several years she has been a nurse at the Clarkson hospital in Omaha. Mr. Hughey is a draftsman in the employ of the Missouri Pacific railway and makes his headquarters at St. Louis. Mr. and Mrs. Hughey left Omaha for a brief wedding trip, after which they will make their home in St. Louis.

3,200 AUTOS ARE REGISTERED

County Treasurer's Office Crowded With Owners Anxious to Pay Auto Tax, and Secure New Certificate

$52,000.00 IN CASH COLLECTED

Fees Run From $10 to $80, the Fees Being Higher Than Heretofore—Treasurer Congratulated

With a penalty of $1.00 a month for delinquents and today (Wednesday) as the final date of payment to be in good standing, hundreds of automobile owners are swamping the court house to pay car license fees to Treasurer Louie Evers, who has charge of the automobile registration in Crawford county. The morning approximately 2200 cars had been registered by Treasurer Evers and his assistants, and about $52,000 in fees paid in. It is estimated that there are 4000 cars in Crawford county, and to see the crowd at the court house today there seems to be no question but what that number will have registered before the office closes this afternoon. For the past two weeks the rush has been on at the treasurer's office. Mr. Evers and his deputy, assisted by two young lady clerks, have been taking care of the registration work. Last week, however, W. A. Cramer, the recorder, and Sheriff A. C. Greene, were drafted and have been giving valuable assistance helping owners to properly fill out the application blanks.

Owners of cars have been surprised somewhat at the fees charged this year, being greatly in excess of those charged heretofore. Owners of "Tin Lizards" are taxed a ten spot for the pleasure of owning them. Fees range anywhere from $10 on up to $80.

The amount paid in to Crawford county for registration fees is a considerable sum but our citizens will be pleased to know that some 96 per cent of this money will be sent back here to be used for the improvement of our roads.

Treasurer Evers is handling this new department of his office in a most efficient manner and in fact he was complimented highly by the secretary of state office in Des Moines. His report was the first received and was one of the few received without a mistake of any kind.

W. C. Rollins returned home Tuesday forenoon from a three months' trip in the interests of the Keith-Wavter concern of Cedar Rapids, traveling at the head of a large entertainment company and making only the principal cities of Wisconsin, southern Minnesota and the entire state of South Dakota. Mr. Rollins expects to date this company for Denison at some future time.

NORTH STANDARD OIL STATION

Will Immediately Begin the Erection of a Modern, Fireproof Building, the Construction to be of Tile

Will Davis, of the Davis service station, has purchased a lot just north of the Standard Oil station on South Main street, and will immediately begin the erection of a modern, fireproof battery station. The deal for the ground was consummated Tuesday of this week and already Mr. Davis has made arrangements for the building material. The building will be fifty by fifty, constructed of hollow tile, with pebble dash exterior, and will be modern in every respect. There will be a driveway through the center of the building and suitable office rooms, work rooms, display and stock rooms will be provided. The building will be heated throughout and patrons will be assured of every convenience. The location is an ideal one; the oil station to the south of the grounds will prove an attraction, and it is understood the public service station will be erected to the north. Mr. Davis is to be congratulated upon having been able to secure the grounds.

Geo. Newcom, proprietor of the Lincoln highway garage and local distributor for the Ford cars, reports the sale of five Fords on Saturday last. He is making a special effort to look sales now for delivery in the spring.

The popular corner jewelry store will in the future be known as the Chamberlin Music and Jewelry house. For many years E. C. O'Meara Case Up Again in Courts

IDA GROVE, Dec. 30—An application to correct the record in the case of Ray O'Meara was filed with the clerk of the court and Judge Albert, of Jefferson, came here for the purpose of hearing evidence and arguments necessary to insure such correction.

The document, which covers several pages of typewritten matter, was signed by H. M. Havner, attorney general, and C. S. Macomber, county attorney, and exhibits A and B are affidavits of C. S. Macomber and J. A. Kindig, representing the state in the O'Meara trial. They asked that the record made at the trial be corrected so as to set forth the actions of defendant's counsel in argument and the argument used by defendant's counsel in said cause.

In County Attorney Macomber's affidavit he asserts that to the best of his belief he was justified in using the language that he did in his argument to the jury in the district court, but that E. H. Campbell, attorney for the defendant, erred when he stepped over the railing which separated him from the jurors and said to them: "You know me and I know you and I tell you upon my honor as a friend that I know this defendant is not guilty."

Attorney Kindig in his affidavit denies having made any promises to O'Meara's associate, Earnest Rathbun, in the crime committed, as to getting him a pardon if he testified against O'Meara, which counsel for the defense also used in his arguments to the jury.

On December 25th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McCord, a very pretty wedding took place when their daughter, Hazel, became the bride of Earl Taylor, Rev. C. E. Harp, of Springfield, Ill., performed the ceremony.

The parlor where the ceremony was performed was very prettily decorated in pink and white. A large arch of flowers in the center of the room served as a beautiful setting for the scene.

Promptly at 12 o'clock the wedding couple took their places in the parlor to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Miss Ruth Jergens, of Glidden.

The bride was most charming in a white satin gown with a georgette over-drape trimmed with pearls and carrying a large corsage of pink and white roses.

Miss Mable McCord, of Des Moines, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid and wore a gown of pink satin with a georgette over-drape, and carried a corsage of pink and white roses. The groom was attended by Arthur Jergens, of Glidden, and both wore dark suits.
