

Section One

THE PAPER YOU TAKE HOME

DENISON, IOWA, WEDNESDAY, JAN. 14, 1920

Pages 1 to 8

"Advertising is the main spring of all business and the printed word carries the message."

"Advertising is now classed with editorial and news matter as a force for creating opinion."

VOL. LV

No. 2

MANILLA INVADES DOW CITY FRIDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Riddle were in Council Bluffs the latter part of the week, where she had an operation performed for the removal of tonsils and adenoids. They returned home the same evening.

SECONDF HALF WAS A TUSSEL

Score 37 to 15—Teams Well Matched as to Weight and Size, but Dow City Outclassed Visitors

HUGO GERBERT HONORED

Elected to Membership in the State Historical Society of Iowa by the Board of Curators

ESRA P. SAVAGE DEAD

Former Governor of Nebraska and at One County, Dies at Tacoma

PRISCILLA CLUB MEETS

Prominent Event in Dow City Social Circles Past Week Was Annual Open Meeting Priscilla Club

ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM DOW CITY

Mr. Needham, is here at present for a visit with them.

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Bryan have been enjoying a visit the past week from their daughter, Mrs. Marion Hatfield, and husband, of Eagle Grove, and their son, Marcus Bryan, and family, of Fillmore, Saskatchewan, Canada.

Miss Martha Lackman, of Vail, has been visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Jessa Igoe, and family in this vicinity the past week.

Mrs. William Leuck is caring for a badly injured knee, the result of having slipped and fallen down stairs at her home in Denison, Friday.

Miss Berenice Judd went down to Omaha Friday and enjoyed a couple of days' visit.

Mrs. J. A. Brill has returned from Boone, where she was one of about four hundred ladies to be initiated into the White Shrine, an auxiliary of the Masonic lodge, Mrs. Brill was joined in a wedding ceremony of ladies on her way to Boone.

A. J. Wight, daughter, Josie, and sons, Ivan and Jay, with Miss Waver Thompson, were in Denison Wednesday visiting Mrs. Wight in the hospital.

Dow City friends of Miss Kathleen Luke, who is a student at Simpson college, Indianola, will be pleased to learn that she has secured a contract to travel on the chautauqua circuit for the summer of 1920 for the Travers-Newton company of Des Moines, as soprano in light opera. They will sing numbers and give sketches from the "Mikado" in Japanese costume. She will also do solo work. In addition to the regular conservatory music course Miss Kathleen is taking the piano and public school music and expects to complete both courses in the spring of 1921.

Miss Ruth Glassburner, of Woodbine, who is engaged as a music school teacher, is traveling with the same company as pianist. Miss Glassburner also acquired her musical ability at Simpson, she having entered as a student there some time after her graduation from the local public school in 1913. Both are young ladies of splendid accomplishments and having been reared here, our people feel a special pride in them.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Laubscher are entertaining a new baby son, born to them recently. All concerned are doing well.

Sears McHenry was a Dow City business visitor Wednesday from Denison.

On Tuesday afternoon of the past week the members of the Golden Hour club met in their annual business session at the home of Mrs. D. E. Bremser, at which time the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Ward Towae; secretary, Mrs. Frank Glassburner; treasurer, Mrs. D. E. Bremser.

Misses Lillie Gibson, Hilda Turndall and Lillian Crandall were appointed as calendar committee for the coming year. The calendar committee is made up of Mesdames W. E. Dow, Clair Butterworth, T. E. Allen and W. E. Fishel.

Miss Marian Carlson was absent from school several days the past week owing to illness.

Mr. and Mrs. John Coburn were passengers from Denison Wednesday for a visit with their children and other relatives in this vicinity.

Miss Adelaide Potter resumed her teaching near Denison, Iowa, Tuesday.

Mrs. G. A. Barker, whom we reported last week as being with her mother, has been a great sufferer the past week. At this writing she is still bedfast, but is thought to be slightly improved.

Friends of Mr. Chas. Butler will be interested to learn of his marriage to Miss Anna Peterson of Tida Grove, which took place there on Tuesday, Jan. 6. Immediately following the marriage they left on a wedding trip after which they will be at home on his farm near Tida Grove.

Mrs. David McAllister was down from Denison Thursday visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. John Edwards Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Olmstead were up from Dunlap Thursday and visited at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. H. Killian, and family.

Mrs. R. Griffin has been laid up the past week because of an injured side, received while lifting and loading some heavy timber.

Wednesday evening the Standard Bearers met at the home of Miss Pearl McElwain with an attendance of about thirty-six. The lesson study under the direction of Mrs. M. H. Cook was most interesting. Much food for thought and assimilation being developed therefrom.

Mrs. Zeph Fienhold returned Thursday from her visit to her mother, Mrs. E. R. Butterworth, who is in Denison on a business mission Thursday.

A business meeting of the Priscilla club was held at the home of Mrs. W. E. Dow Tuesday evening for the purpose of completing arrangements to ward their annual open meeting.

Miss Nellie Ryle returned Thursday from her visit to her mother, Mrs. E. R. Butterworth, who is in Denison on a business mission Thursday.

The members of the Palo Alto club and a number of friends were delighted to entertain the trip across the Blanche Cole Tuesday. The popular social pastime was indulged in and the club took occasion to present one of its members, Mrs. Chas. W. Wight, with remembrances, in honor of her recent marriage.

Mr. Walter Leytham, a son of Robert Leytham, residing on the Keonekamp place about three miles west of town, was united in marriage January 5th with Miss Emma Messenbrink of the Dunlap vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dryden and child returned the early part of the past week from a two weeks' visit with her people in Missouri. Her father, Mr. Needham, is here at present for a visit with them.

Mr. and Mrs. John Coburn were passengers from Denison Wednesday for a visit with their children and other relatives in this vicinity.

Miss Adelaide Potter resumed her teaching near Denison, Iowa, Tuesday.

Mrs. G. A. Barker, whom we reported last week as being with her mother, has been a great sufferer the past week. At this writing she is still bedfast, but is thought to be slightly improved.

Friends of Mr. Chas. Butler will be interested to learn of his marriage to Miss Anna Peterson of Tida Grove, which took place there on Tuesday, Jan. 6.

Mrs. David McAllister was down from Denison Thursday visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. John Edwards Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Olmstead were up from Dunlap Thursday and visited at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. H. Killian, and family.

Mrs. R. Griffin has been laid up the past week because of an injured side, received while lifting and loading some heavy timber.

Wednesday evening the Standard Bearers met at the home of Miss Pearl McElwain with an attendance of about thirty-six.

Mrs. Zeph Fienhold returned Thursday from her visit to her mother, Mrs. E. R. Butterworth, who is in Denison on a business mission Thursday.

A business meeting of the Priscilla club was held at the home of Mrs. W. E. Dow Tuesday evening for the purpose of completing arrangements to ward their annual open meeting.

Miss Nellie Ryle returned Thursday from her visit to her mother, Mrs. E. R. Butterworth, who is in Denison on a business mission Thursday.

The members of the Palo Alto club and a number of friends were delighted to entertain the trip across the Blanche Cole Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dryden and child returned the early part of the past week from a two weeks' visit with her people in Missouri.

The News of the Week, as Gathered and Put in Readable Shape by Our Regular Correspondent

Miss Irma Chamberlain, Mrs. Norman Riddle and Miss Bernice Judd, were voted into the organization at this meeting. The club also talked over plans for their annual banquet which is scheduled for the latter part of the month.

O. S. Carlson was an Omaha business visitor Wednesday.

W. C. Rollos has returned from a several days visit with his brother, George, in Alton, Ill. His father, J. H. Rollos, who has been making an extended visit there, came home with him.

The building owned by Joseph McCole, known as the corner feed store, occupied by W. H. Rule for many years past, has recently been sold to Robert Docherty, who conducts a creamery business three doors south of this place.

On Tuesday afternoon of the past week the Royal Neighbor met in regular monthly session at the home of Mrs. George Binnall.

Mrs. David McAllister was down from Denison Thursday visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. John Edwards Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Olmstead were up from Dunlap Thursday and visited at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. H. Killian, and family.

Mrs. R. Griffin has been laid up the past week because of an injured side, received while lifting and loading some heavy timber.

Wednesday evening the Standard Bearers met at the home of Miss Pearl McElwain with an attendance of about thirty-six.

Mrs. Zeph Fienhold returned Thursday from her visit to her mother, Mrs. E. R. Butterworth, who is in Denison on a business mission Thursday.

A business meeting of the Priscilla club was held at the home of Mrs. W. E. Dow Tuesday evening for the purpose of completing arrangements to ward their annual open meeting.

Miss Nellie Ryle returned Thursday from her visit to her mother, Mrs. E. R. Butterworth, who is in Denison on a business mission Thursday.

The members of the Palo Alto club and a number of friends were delighted to entertain the trip across the Blanche Cole Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dryden and child returned the early part of the past week from a two weeks' visit with her people in Missouri.

on the farm near Dow City. That they may enjoy an abundance of health, wealth and happiness is the sentiment of the community.

Norman Riddle and wife were passengers to Omaha Friday morning where they spent the day.

Leo Needham, of the state mission, was an arrival in Dow City the early part of the past week and is a guest at the home of his sister, Mrs. Robert Dryden.

Among the prominent events for the coming week is the special number on the "Singer's" to be given at the school auditorium Tuesday evening, January 20.

Mrs. Horatio Wingrove, Mrs. F. M. Mahin, Mrs. Ed Ahart and Miss Ruby Tolls were visiting in Denison Saturday.

Miss Anna Nelson returned Saturday from a week's visit with friends in Denison.

Mrs. Prior Mackey left Saturday for her home in Glidden following a visit to her mother at the home of her sister, Mrs. R. W. Paul.

J. H. Bonnell went to Castana last week to look after his farm interests.

On Monday evening of this week the Masons held their installation of officers as follows: W. M., James Scott; S. W., Sam Shaw; J. W., W. C. Rollos; secretary, G. M. Goddard; treasurer, D. E. Bremser.

Mrs. C. H. Best has been suffering the past week with an abscess on her right arm just below the elbow.

Miss Ruth Swasey was charming hostess to the members of the J. E. O.'s and a few intimate friends at her home Saturday afternoon.

John Ahart made a shipment of two cars of hogs to Chicago and three cars of cattle to Omaha Thursday.

Mr. O. W. Wigan was a caller at the county capital Thursday.

Mrs. O. J. Judd went down to Omaha Friday to see her mother, Mrs. Emma Fisher, who has been sick.

PETCOFF STORE CHANGES HANDS

F. W. Buncher and R. M. Nash, of Des Moines, Purchase Denison Shoe Store of W. M. Petcoff

THEY ARE NOW IN POSSESSION

New Proprietors Are Experienced Shoe Men—Mr. Buncher Formerly of the Boys' Department Store

The W. M. Petcoff shoe store changed hands on Monday of this week, Mr. Petcoff retiring from the business, having sold the stock, fixtures and lease to Fred W. Buncher and R. M. Nash, of Des Moines. Mr. Buncher will be remembered as having been in charge of the Boys' shoe department at Denison for the past two years, up until last fall. He has spent the past fifteen years in the shoe business, and knows the ins and outs of the game from start to finish.

Mr. Buncher has associated himself with a man equally experienced in the person of R. M. Nash, a young married gentleman who has been connected for many years with the Seymour people at Des Moines, and Mr. Nash expects to move his family to Denison as soon as arrangements for a suitable home can be made.

Manuel E. Orkin, the younger of the three Orkin brothers, at one time engaged in business in Denison in the building now occupied by J. B. Lyon, is to be married January 16th to a Miss Belle Fisher of New York city.

Income Tax Facts You Should Know

In making out his income tax return the taxpayer is required to show both gross and net income.

Incomes below $5,000 are exempt from surtax.

The following illustration will show the average taxpayer whose net income was more than $500 how to compute his tax:

News and Comment About Iowa People and Events

The strike of the coal miners has created unusual interest in a more extensive use of water power.

There is a case pending in the O'Brien county district court the outcome of which will be decided with the case of Jacob and Marcel.

Ten men whose names are withheld were given full pardon on Christmas day by the governor at the recommendation of the state board of parole.

O. H. Benson, for several years superintendent of club work, national department of agriculture, has resigned to accept the directorship of Boys and Girls club work in the state of North Atlantic states.

Henry Mesenbrink, of Charter Oak, has accepted a position with the electric light department of the city of Denison.

He came to Iowa in 1843 and the first year he raised in the state was on farm land that occupied the hills in what is now East Des Moines and upon one of these elevations now stands the state house.

Grand Army men are striving to have the mining town and post office in Marion county named Andersonville given some other name.

A big suit is on in the district court at Rock Rapids, Lyon county, which is directed against G. H. Mammon, state selling agent of stock in a Nebraska enterprise.

William West who died recently at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Agatha Ramsey, at Rock Rapids, was born in France, near Orleans, O., in 1832.

Motorists who have been brought in to police court for violating a state law making it unlawful to leave the engine of an automobile running when the automobile is unoccupied have been surprised at the severity of the punishment.

He came to Iowa in 1843 and the first year he raised in the state was on farm land that occupied the hills in what is now East Des Moines and upon one of these elevations now stands the state house.

Grand Army men are striving to have the mining town and post office in Marion county named Andersonville given some other name.

A big suit is on in the district court at Rock Rapids, Lyon county, which is directed against G. H. Mammon, state selling agent of stock in a Nebraska enterprise.

William West who died recently at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Agatha Ramsey, at Rock Rapids, was born in France, near Orleans, O., in 1832.

Motorists who have been brought in to police court for violating a state law making it unlawful to leave the engine of an automobile running when the automobile is unoccupied have been surprised at the severity of the punishment.

He came to Iowa in 1843 and the first year he raised in the state was on farm land that occupied the hills in what is now East Des Moines and upon one of these elevations now stands the state house.

Grand Army men are striving to have the mining town and post office in Marion county named Andersonville given some other name.

A big suit is on in the district court at Rock Rapids, Lyon county, which is directed against G. H. Mammon, state selling agent of stock in a Nebraska enterprise.

William West who died recently at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Agatha Ramsey, at Rock Rapids, was born in France, near Orleans, O., in 1832.

Motorists who have been brought in to police court for violating a state law making it unlawful to leave the engine of an automobile running when the automobile is unoccupied have been surprised at the severity of the punishment.

He came to Iowa in 1843 and the first year he raised in the state was on farm land that occupied the hills in what is now East Des Moines and upon one of these elevations now stands the state house.

Grand Army men are striving to have the mining town and post office in Marion county named Andersonville given some other name.

A big suit is on in the district court at Rock Rapids, Lyon county, which is directed against G. H. Mammon, state selling agent of stock in a Nebraska enterprise.

William West who died recently at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Agatha Ramsey, at Rock Rapids, was born in France, near Orleans, O., in 1832.

Motorists who have been brought in to police court for violating a state law making it unlawful to leave the engine of an automobile running when the automobile is unoccupied have been surprised at the severity of the punishment.

He came to Iowa in 1843 and the first year he raised in the state was on farm land that occupied the hills in what is now East Des Moines and upon one of these elevations now stands the state house.

Grand Army men are striving to have the mining town and post office in Marion county named Andersonville given some other name.

A big suit is on in the district court at Rock Rapids, Lyon county, which is directed against G. H. Mammon, state selling agent of stock in a Nebraska enterprise.

William West who died recently at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Agatha Ramsey, at Rock Rapids, was born in France, near Orleans, O., in 1832.

Motorists who have been brought in to police court for violating a state law making it unlawful to leave the engine of an automobile running when the automobile is unoccupied have been surprised at the severity of the punishment.