

DOW CITY ITEMS

Dow City friends of Mrs. Helen Woodruff Isaacs and husband, of Douglas, Wyo., are in receipt of an announcement conveying the information of the recent birth of a baby daughter to them. All concerned are reported to be doing nicely.

Carl Statro accompanied his father to Cherokee the early part of the past week, where he will spend some time with relatives.

Mrs. Lloyd Wells and little daughter, Cleo, started Wednesday evening on their return trip to their home in Detroit, Mich., following a visit of several weeks at the parental, J. W. Cramer, home and with other relatives. The former's brother, Arden Cramer, accompanied them, he having secured employment there with his brother-in-law, Mr. Wells, in the Ford factory.

Editor E. E. Roland has been confined to his home the past week caring for the flu, of which he was a victim. We are pleased to report him as being able to be about again at present.

Joe Hollowell was here and spent a day recently at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Hollowell, and with the Frank Glassburner family. He was on his way to his home in Webster City from Kansas City, where he had been taking a course in auctioneering.

John Ahart and wife spent a couple of days last week in Mapleton and while there were guests at a golden wedding celebration given in honor of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Griffin. They report a splendid time.

Miss Edith Kline, of Dunlap, was a guest of Mrs. Vera Sopher Wednesday. The Royal Neighbors held their regular monthly meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Clair Butterworth with a fairly good turnout. No business of special import was transacted other than is usual. At the close of the afternoon Mrs. Butterworth treated the ladies to a dainty luncheon, which they greatly appreciated. The members of this order are planning on holding their annual banquet the coming month.

Misses Marie Birkhofer and Josephine Stepanek were visiting and shopping in Denison Tuesday.

Lloyd Brake, who left on Tuesday of the past week for Ft. Dodge, where he took the telegraph operator's examination, was sent to Humboldt, where he was given a position instead of at Corwith as had been expected.

Miss Lillie Gibson went down to Omaha Wednesday morning to care for her sister, Mrs. Chas. Horn, who is reported seriously ill with pneumonia.

Mrs. F. N. Rowe and little son, Robert, were down from Denison one day last week visiting at the parental, M. E. Rowe, home.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society held its regular monthly meeting Wednesday afternoon in the League room of the Methodist church with a fair attendance. The quarterly dinner which was to have been a feature of this occasion was called off on account of illness. Mrs. Ida Talcott, in her usual capable way, conducted the lesson study of the hour, which was taken from the fourth chapter of the text-book. Some time was also devoted to answering questions from the mystery box. The society has made arrangements to hold an all day session at the church on Friday, February 20th, at which time the Woman's Home Missionary society and the members of the Baptist Circle will be special guests. An invitation will be extended to each woman in the town and vicinity who is not affiliated with either of the organizations mentioned above. Watch for further particulars next week.

Mrs. Lillie Marks came down from Denison Thursday to be in attendance at the L. D. S. conference which was in session here over Sunday. While here she was a guest of her daughters, Virginia and Myrtle.

Elmer Riddle was a caller in Denison Thursday, as was also J. F. Ridd.

On Tuesday of the past week Mr. and Mrs. Paul Davis were called upon to part with their only child, little Paul, seventeen months of age who was taken from them by death. The little one had been suffering with an attack of whooping cough and flu. The best of care and medical attention failed to stay the angel of death and after a severe illness of a few days the soul returned to God who gave it. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the home, after which the remains were taken to Dunlap and tenderly laid away in the cemetery at that place. The hearts of all go out in sympathy to the grief stricken parents. The relatives who were here during the illness and death of the child include his sisters, Isabel and Marcella, of Des Moines, her parents and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lam Lambert, and Leo Tripp, of Dell Rapids, S. D. and Mrs. Clara Livingston of Council Bluffs.

Mrs. Robert Docherty returned home Friday from a two weeks' visit with her daughter, Mrs. S. J. Farlowe, and husband in Des Moines.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Butterworth was the scene of a prominent social event Friday evening when the members of the Palo Alto club and their gentlemen met in their annual banquet. The color scheme of red and white was carried out extensively, the spacious rooms being adorned with red hearts and red carnations. Shortly after the guests had assembled the banquet dinner, consisting of three splendid courses, was served, and to say the meal was delicious would be terming it altogether too mildly. The company were served at individual tables where the attractive red heart place cards with the names neatly inscribed thereupon in white ink told each guest where to be seated. The color scheme was furthered in the menu, which was served by the Misses Ruby Rolls, Ruth Judd, Clara Potter and Faye Acker. After dinner a season of games and the like were held, both of which occasioned much mirth. In the first one a book was offered in the way of a prize, it being won by Floyd Sharp. In the second contest Mrs. R. E. Link was the lucky winner of first prize, a box of candy. Norman Riddle received the consolation prize, a Herby bar. Victrola and piano selections and several vocal numbers were also enjoyed during the evening. At a late hour adieus were spoken and the guests repaired to their respective homes with the unanimous opinion that the occasion was a most fitting climax for the club year. The participants in the affair numbered thirty-two, Roy Gebert, of Denison, being the only out of town guest.

Miss Eva Roy, who has been employed in the local telephone office as assistant to the chief operator for several weeks, has given up the work and Mrs. P. J. Brown has been secured to take her place.

Mrs. M. M. Strickland was a recent arrival from Harrington, Neb., being called here to care for her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Birkhofer, husband and child who have all been having a siege of the flu. We are glad to state that they are now on the road to recovery.

The community club met Thursday evening in a business session, at which time an election of officers was held, resulting as follows: W. C. Rolls, president; Herma Link, secretary; T. E. Allen, treasurer. A board of directors was also elected as follows: W. E. Fishel, Ed. Riddle, Chas. Smith, O. J. Judd, D. C. Collins, F. C. Buss. Arrangements were also made for the various committees to be connected with the organization and the chairman of each branch expects to have his membership list in readiness by the next meeting on Thursday of the coming week. The remainder of the time was devoted to a general discussion pertaining to the welfare of the town, after which the meeting was adjourned.

Miss Grace Conn, the chief telephone operator at Denison, was in town Saturday and spent the afternoon with Miss Anna Barnes, the state operator who spent last week at the local office. Miss Barnes left Saturday evening for Washington, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dillenburger were passengers to Vail Saturday evening, where they enjoyed an over Sunday visit with his people.

Frank Binnall went to Pierson Saturday for a couple of days' visit at the home of his son, Dr. Bryce Binnall, and wife.

Miss Janet Rae, Mrs. S. E. Baber, and the Misses Coral Argotsinger, Caroline Shirk and Blanche Cole represented Dow City in Denison Saturday.

Mrs. Charley Bell, who has been seriously ill the past week, is reported to be improving, a fact her many friends will be pleased to learn. Miss Stella Riddle has been caring for her.

Big Value in Tires for Small Cars

Back of the manufacture of Goodyear Tires for small cars is the same purpose to supply high value in the product that is behind the manufacture of the Goodyear Tires that equip the most expensive automobiles built.

This purpose is expressed by the enormous resources, extraordinary skill and scrupulous care applied to the manufacture of Goodyear Tires in the largest tire factory in the world devoted solely to the 30x3-, 30x3 1/2-, and 31x4-inch sizes.

The effect of this endeavor is noted in the fact that last year more cars using these sizes were factory-equipped with Goodyear Tires than with any other kind.

It is also noted in the fact that, if you own a Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell or other car requiring the sizes mentioned, you can secure Goodyear Tires and Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes at the nearest Goodyear Service Station.

30x3 1/2 Goodyear Double-Cure Fabric, All-Weather Tread... $20.00

30x3 1/2 Goodyear Single-Cure Fabric, Anti-Skid Tread... $17.65

Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes are thick, strong tubes that reinforce casings properly. Why risk a good casing with a cheap tube? Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes cost little more than tubes of less merit. 30x3 1/2 size in water... $3.90

GOODYEAR

If ever men are "Tom" and "Bill" to each other, it's when good pipes are a-going. If ever good pipes go their best, 'tis when Velvet's in the bowl.

For Velvet is a mighty friendly smoke. Kentucky Burley is the leaf that Nature made for pipes. Wholesome and hearty, honest as the day. And Velvet is that same good Burley leaf, brought to mellow middle age.

For eight long seasons Velvet "meditates" in wooden hogsheads, throwing off the rawness of "young" tobacco—truly "ageing in the wood." Out Velvet comes—cool, calm and generous—the tobacco Nature made good, kept good and made better.

Velvet's sweetness is the sweetness of good tobacco, not "put on" like "frosting" on a cake. Its mildness comes from natural ageing, not from having the life baked out. Its fragrance is true tobacco fragrance, not a perfume. And Velvet makes an A Number One cigarette. Roll one.

As good old Velvet Joe says:

"Fill yo' heart with friendly thoughts, Yo' mouth with friendly smoke-- An' let the old world wag."
