A large crowd was present and many beautiful and useful presents were left for the bride. The Denison Bottling Works is using space in this issue to announce a contest for the boys and girls of Crawford County. To the first one hundred boys and girls who fill out the coupon and return the advertisement to the bottling works prizes valued at $2.46 each will be given if they fulfill the rules. The contest requires not more than ten hours' time. Don't fail to read the announcement of another page. Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Larson who are making their home in Denison with Mrs. J. J. McKee, are moving to a new home on an infant son which passed away Sunday, February 24th. Little Warren Laverne was born on the 27th and seemed to be a normal healthy child. Death was due to an obstruction of the bowels. The remains were taken to Ord on Monday where interment was made. The television news symposium on the increased per capita cost of living was discussed by May Robson, the popular comedienne whom Augustus Pitou Inc., will present at the opera house on Tuesday, March 16th, in her new play "Tish," a dramatization by Edward E. Rose of Mary Roberts Rinehart's famous Saturday Evening Post stories, believes she has found in the title role a character new to the stage, and one that at once appeals to all classes of theater goers. It is that of a spinster who is as lovable as she is droll, who can see good in all things, and does not tolerate wagging tongues or gossip mongers of any sort, believing everybody is here to do good and teach others to do so by actions instead of words. Edward E. Rose, the well known dramatist, has noted another big royal success in his new play "Tish," in which Augustus Pitou Inc., will present the well known comedienne May Robson at the opera house on Tuesday, March 16th. The play is a dramatization of Mary Roberts Rinehart's famous Saturday Evening Post stories, and has found favorable comment everywhere. Miss Robson will have the same cast and production in this city which characterized her successful run of three months at Power's theater last season and terminated only on account of the excessive heat. J. H. McKeever, of the Aberdeen American-News, has just been elected president of the South Dakota Editorial Association. Years ago "Mac" was fighting hard on the Review and attending the Denison Normal college. After leaving Denison he returned to Moline, Ill., and for a time was one of the editors of the Moline Mail. After disposing of his interests at Moline "Mac" found a greater part of France and Germany by the bicycle route and gained a great experience, paying his bills by writing columns of papers in the states. After his return he went to Aberdeen where he secured controlling interest in the American-News. He is one of the leading editors of South Dakota. The regular monthly meeting of the city held Monday night failed to create any interest other than to bring out a large delegation of property owners from what is known as the College addition. Most of the citizens of that addition were present and asked to have some fire protection given them. They ask that a four-inch water main be extended from the east end of Broadway east to a block east of the Frank Hanss property, then two blocks south and two blocks east. All of the property in this addition is taxed for fire purposes, but the citizens claim they have no protection. One property owner offered to dig 132 feet of water ditch and fill the same over the pipe was laid free of charge to the city. The council promised to go over the ground at an early date and decide as to the advisability of laying a main.

J. P. Jones was at Cedar Rapids Monday transacting business. M. J. O'Connell, of Wall, was a county seat business caller Friday. W. A. Jenkins and son were brief callers in Denison last Wednesday from Arion. Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Turner were in Dow City Sunday spending the day with friends. E. McElwain was up from Dow City Saturday transacting business at the county capital. Mrs. Hannah Carlson was down from Kiron Saturday spending the day with friends in the city. Ed Kusel and Ben Pautsch go to Omaha tomorrow, where they will take in the auto show. Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Wright are spending a couple of days in Omaha attending the auto show. Mrs. Peter Bruns, of Mapleton, spent the last of the week in Denison visiting with friends and shopping. Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Klinker moved Monday to their farm in Paradise township, located a half mile north of Kenwood. R. R. Robinson, of Cedar Rapids, is spending a few days in Denison this week visiting his brother, Dr. J. C. Robinson. Mrs. Ellen Stone left for Omaha on Tuesday after a several months' stay at the home of her sister, Mrs. Sam Lundgren. Miss Ina McCord has accepted a position at the Geo. Newcom garage as stenographer, commencing her duties on Monday of this week. Sam Lundgren received a telegram Tuesday stating that his sister, Mattie Lundgren, had passed away at a hospital in Columbus, Neb. Mrs. Jurgen Schroeder and son, Edward, were down from Schleswig last Thursday spending the day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Oly. Dr. C. J. Turner has purchased the residence of Mrs. E. M. Papp located on High street and will have possession of the same the 15th of the month. This is a modern home in every respect. T. E. Malloy was in Denison Monday from West Side transacting business. He sold his residence property located on West Chestnut street to Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Morgan and was here to get this deal closed up.

Mrs. John Blackman was a shopper in Denison Thursday from Arion. Miss Harriet Hall spent the week end at Schleswig visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. H. D. Jones. C. H. Richardson, prominent Jackson township farmer, was a pleasant business caller here Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Holley, of Ida Grove, spent the week end in Denison, guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Robinson. The Denison Storage Battery Co. has a special ad in this paper calling attention to the Willard threaded rubber insulated storage battery, saying they are warranted, and any repairs due to improper insulation will be made free of charge. Look for the ad and read it. William D. Miller, of Ogden, was a Denison visitor today, coming in interest of the candidacy of Mr. Deems, of Burlington, who is a candidate for governor on the republican ticket. Mr. Miller, being well known over northern Iowa, is making a schedule of the more important towns by way of introducing Mr. Deems to the voters. It may be that later on he will bring the candidate to Denison and have our voters meet him. Mr. Miller was formerly editor and proprietor of the Reporter at Ogden, and also represented Boone county in the state legislature. He may again engage in the newspaper game and is looking about for an opening. Problem of Health Solved. More than half of preventive medicine centers around the kitchen. The cook is the arbiter in large measure of the ceaseless battle between life and death. Given good food, pure water, plenty of fresh air, and cleanliness of person; and the problem of good health is solved. With these, all that is further necessary is reasonable hours and exercise. Romances are written and read not because they are either true or untrue, but because regardless of actuality they give relief to the unusual emotional pressure of our hearts.—George Soule in the New Republic.

PASSES AWAY AT PIERRE, S. D. Mrs. James Hartwell, formerly of Wall Lake, Dies at Pierre, S. D., on Last Wednesday. ILLNESS OF SHORT DURATION Removed to Pierre in 1907, Where She Had Since Resided—Remains Buried in Wall Lake Cemetery. WALL LAKE, March 3.—Special.—The news of the death of Mrs. James Hartwell at the hospital at Pierre, S. D. last Wednesday came as a shock to the friends of the family here. Never of strong physique, she had seemed in much better health since her removal west, and no news had come of her illness, which was short. She had mastoid trouble and died before an operation could be performed. Mr. Hartwell had lived in Wall Lake for some years prior to their marriage, brought her here as a bride and lived here for fifteen years thereafter, the children, with the exception of Myrtle, the youngest daughter, ten years of age, being born here and the only one who preceded her mother to the other country. Lois, who died as a babe of two months some fifteen years ago, is buried here. Mrs. Hartwell was a member of the Methodist church here, joining in November, 1892, under the pastorate of E. S. Johnson, now missionary bishop of the church, and although she had taken her letter from the church here she had never lived near enough to another one of her choice to join it, working with the Baptist church that was near, but not joining. So there were many ties binding the Hartwell family to Wall Lake, and another was added when, on Sunday afternoon, after a sermon of hope and consolation by the Rev. G. H. Hopkins, amid a profusion of flowers and in the presence of a large number of her friends and neighbors of former years, she was laid to rest in the Wall Lake cemetery beside the little daughter who went before. Miss Minnie Pence was born in Chicago Aug. 27, 1868. She was married to James Hartwell Oct. 9, 1892, and spent the next fifteen years here. On March 1, 1907, they moved to Pierre, S. D., where they have resided since, and where she died Feb. 25, 1920. Of the six children, the eldest, Grace (Mrs. Alfred Ellis) lives at Owanka, S. D., the next are at Pierre, Alice, Gabe, Mark and Myrtle, who was ill and could not attend the funeral here. In addition to the immediate family those who attended the funeral were Alfred Ellis, son-in-law, Cecil Pence, her brother, and his wife, of Steamboat Rock; her nephew, William Pence, also of Steamboat Rock, and Edward Richter, of Minneapolis. Beaten. "Jimson is beginning to show his age a great deal, don't you think?" "Yes, but it isn't at all surprising. All he has done for the last ten years is to try to kill time, and it looks as if Time had rather the better of the argument." Good Phrase. A good phrase can never become a platitude. "The rosy fingers of the Dawn" is beautiful today, though it may have been hackneyed when Homer put it in the "Iliad."—George Monroe in the Atlantic Monthly. Novelty Then. When Adam and Eve learned of their untoward future, there was some novelty to the comment that it was an unusually warm season, but never since then.—Milwaukee Journal. Fireflies' Light. The larvae of the fireflies are able to produce a glow and this has led some to mistake them for glowworms. In reality there are no real glowworms in the United States. The source of the glow in immature fireflies is not known exactly, but it is believed that some of the minute glowing organisms of the female insect may adhere to the young, enabling them to give forth a light of their own.
