Baby's New Papa

While on a train a woman sat opposite me accompanied by a chubby youngster that was just learning to toddle around. At one of the stations the woman requested me to watch the child while she sent a telegram. The conductor assured her there would be plenty of time. Imagine my consternation when the train pulled out and the woman did not return! With the now screaming child in my arms and beads of perspiration trickling down my desperate countenance, I searched the entire train in a vain endeavor to find "mamma." At the station just ninety miles further the overjoyed conductor came running into my coach with a telegram from mamma addressed to baby's new "papa." And at the next stop, baby's uncles, aunts, and cousins were there to receive it.—Chicago Tribune.

D., formerly of Manilla. He was the second son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Dunn, who was manager of the Farmers lumber yard here for several years. Jean met his death while in swimming. One of his companions venturing too far out, Jean went to rescue him and both lost their lives. Jean was a very bright boy and well liked by all who knew him. He was thirteen years of age. Question asked, what has become of the old fashioned boy who used to carry the four bladed pocket knife? O, well, he goes to a manure now, and he doesn't whittle anything except whittle down his hours of labor. It is suspected that some of the people who are spending money to get presidential candidates nominated, might be willing at great personal sacrifice to take cabinet jobs or foreign missions. POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT For Attorney General BEN J. GIBSON Republicans, vote for Ben J. Gibson for Attorney General. He is a man of the very highest standing and character, heartily and unanimously endorsed by the whole Eighth district and by the judges and members of the bar. He was a doughboy in the service. His name comes first on the ballot in Crawford county in the list of candidates for attorney general. Look for it and put a cross opposite it. He will make a splendid attorney general.
