

Baby's Picture--

Next to the baby itself there is nothing so dear as BABY'S PICTURE.

It's time you were having YOUR baby's picture taken.

Why Not Today?

The Ferguson Studio

WEDDING BELLS AT DOW CITY

Mr. Claude Cornelius and Miss Letha Terrill United in Wedlock at Dow City Monday Evening.

REV. G. A. BAKER OFFICIATES

Bride a Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Terrill, Residents of Dunlap—Groom Well Known.

DOW CITY, June 15—Special—On Monday evening of the past week, Mr. Claude Cornelius of this place and Miss Letha Terrill of Dunlap, were united in marriage at the local Baptist parsonage, Rev. G. A. Barker officiating. The couple were attended by Foster Cornelius, brother and sister of the groom. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Terrill, residents of Dunlap and although not as well known to us, she is well spoken of and all will welcome her as one of our midst. The groom is the eldest son of George Cornelius and wife, of this vicinity, and thus is too well known to require an introduction. He is an industrious young man, and his friends unite in extending congratulations and best wishes to himself and bride. The happy couple will make their home on a farm, which the groom has rented southeast of town.

C. T. O'Hale of Jacksonville, Florida, was an arrival Tuesday morning and expects to make his home here with his sister, Mrs. Eva Baber.

The T. K. Coleman family have been enjoying a visit the past week from her mother, Mrs. Ellsworth, of Council Bluffs.

C. B. Bonee and Robert Robey, of Omaha, were guests at the Henry Roy home the early part of the past week. Mr. Bonee is a nephew of Mr. Roy and was a resident of Dow City about thirty years ago. The two gentlemen are contractors.

W. F. Hurlburt has been quite sick the past week and under the care of a physician, but at present he is reported some better.

An interesting event of the past week was a birthday party Tuesday afternoon in the parlors of the Methodist church given under the auspices of the Women's Home Missionary Society in observance of the fortieth anniversary of the founding of the organization. At this time the new members of the past year were special guests of the old members and a royal good time was enjoyed together, the company being made up of some thirty-five members told. After a season of informal visiting the guests were invited to partake of an elegant two-course dinner. Three long tables had been neatly arranged for the affair and presented a most attractive appearance, with their appointments of beautiful bouquets of yellow roses. A toast program was next in order, Mrs. Warren Towne acting in the capacity of toast-mistress. The following numbers were given: Welcome to New Members—Mrs. A. H. Cook.

Responses—Miss Ellen Goddard. The Land of the North Lights—Mrs. Frank McHenry. Our Sunny South—Miss Marguerite Rink.

Our Rev. and Brown Brothers—Mrs. Ida Talcott. The Lonesome Trail—Miss Mildred Wiggins.

Lands of Sunshine—Mrs. W. H. Rule. Americans All—Mrs. Robert Docherty. Each topic was highly interesting all dealing with the work of the W. H. M. S. in various fields. This concluded the afternoon and each one present declared the occasion one of real benefit and pleasure and a fitting close to another successful year's work.

Miss Bernice Hunsinger of Indianapolis, and Miss Margaret Ryan of Creston, two of the high school teachers tendered their resignations to our school the past spring, have notified the school board that they have decided to return to Dow City again next fall, a fact their friends rejoice to learn.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. S. E. Wiley with an average attendance. The lesson hour, with Mrs. Ida Talcott as leader, was given over to a study of the dangerous use of various drugs containing alcohol. Several leaflets, bearing testimony from leading physicians to this effect were presented and a very interesting and helpful lesson was developed. The vital question of committee was appointed at this meeting to gather flowers to send to the orphan's home in Council Bluffs as a token of cheer from the local W. C. T. U. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. P. Goodman, with herself as the appointed leader.

Leslie Logsdon, of Portsmouth, was a recent visitor to this place, Mrs. Frank Glassburner and family. He is now engaged in the barber trade at that place.

Misses Martha and Ruth Lueck and Eva Roy who are attending summer school at Carroll, came down Friday for a week-end visit with the home folks.

her husband, who has been here for some time. Mr. and Mrs. Ruck are again taking up their residence in Dow City after several months spent in Centerville. At present their home is occupied by the Frank Binnall family and they will locate elsewhere in town until the lease on their property has expired.

Miss Florence Miller resumed her duties as type setter in the Reporter office Monday following a week's vacation.

Fred Logsdon was here from Ames several days the past week visiting relatives and friends.

E. G. Wiggins, cashier of the Farmers' State Bank, is enjoying a week's vacation from his duties and he and his wife left Wednesday for Lake Okla for an outing, making the trip overland. Miss Flora Wiggins, assistant cashier, is managing the work in the bank during his absence.

Mrs. Jake Reeser and daughter Mearle, were visiting in Denison Friday.

Friday afternoon, Mrs. C. L. Tudd was the charming hostess to the members and friends of the Friday club. A party of several were present to participate in the discussion of current events and the like, which occupied the hours until lunch time. The guests were treated to a most palatable two-course menu served out on the lawn. All took their departure with much praise for the hostess.

J. H. Young and wife returned Friday evening from Omaha where they spent three days, the latter having dental work done while there.

Mrs. Mary Christensen and daughter Mrs. C. L. Hoffman and children, went down from Denison Friday visiting and shopping. The two ladies are the mother and sister of Mrs. Charlie Dybe of this place.

The Standard Bearers met in regular monthly session Friday evening at the home of Misses Payne and Irma Acker in the country and the usual good attendance is reported. After the devotional exercises an interesting lesson was taken up with Loren Thomas as leader, the study being taken from the book "Malaria." A social hour with a dainty service of refreshments closed a very pleasant evening.

W. L. Swatman and wife came up from Missouri Valley Thursday being called here by the serious illness of their daughter, Mrs. Jesse Agee.

A. W. Wilson and R. E. Lusk were Logan visitors Thursday.

Mrs. A. H. Harper, who has been in Dunlap at the home of her brother, C. C. Bousal for several weeks past, came up to Dow City Friday to be present at the Eastern Star meeting, returning again Saturday.

Little Thomas Baber has been here from Dunlap during the week visiting relatives, the W. C. Rolls and O. A. Cooper families.

A pre-nuptial shower honoring Miss Ruth Swasey, a bride of this week was given Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. M. Cole, the affair being planned by Miss Blanche Cole, Mrs. Leo Schwab and Miss Adelaide Potter. The guests present included the Palo Alto and several intimates, the company numbering about twenty-five. The time was devoted to the popular diversions, appropriate to the event. A very nice repast served as the closing feature of the day. Miss Ruth received a fine assortment of gifts at this time which testified to the high esteem in which she is held by her friends. Mrs. Ben Parker, of Red Oak, an aunt of the guest of honor, and Mrs. Charles Brady, Mrs. Leslie Hon and Mrs. Leo Schwab, of Dunlap, were present from out of town.

Mrs. W. W. Galland has returned from a pleasant visit at the home of ter, left Thursday for Boulder, Colo., where she will devote the summer vacation to the study of French.

A robbery of daring magnitude was perpetrated here Friday night when the D. E. Bremer store was entered by breaking the glass in the door on the north side of the building. The intruders succeeded in getting away with a silk waist, skirt, hose, shoes, etc., the articles stolen being valued at something like sixty-five dollars all told.

The M. J. Breen pool hall was also visited in like manner, the same night, entrance being made through the back way by unfastening a screen door. Three or four dollars in small change was taken from the cash register, the parties also helping themselves to candy and cigarettes. The robbery was not discovered until Saturday morning, thus giving the parties who committed the theft time to escape. As yet the guilty ones are unknown.

W. C. Rolls was here from Grand Junction making an over Sunday visit with his wife and daughter.

Dr. Henry Williams, in an article in Motors, combats the theory that motoring is reducing our opportunities for exercise. He says its benefits are threefold—physical, mental and vocational. The buffeting of winds and the inhalation of large quantities of oxygen stimulate digestion, assimilation and excretion. This is true of the person who merely sits, as well as of him who drives. The latter, however, benefits directly. Doctor Williams says: "When you drive a car 40 or 50 miles over average American roads, or a fraction of that distance in any city, you give your arms and torso a course of purposeful calisthenics that redounds directly to the benefit of your muscles and arteries and heart, and indirectly, but no less significantly, to the benefit of your digestive organs of elimination as well as the nervous system."

Mrs. W. T. Rink was a visitor at the county capital Saturday.

Mrs. Roman Wright, who has been spending several weeks with her son here, A. J. Wight, and family went down to Woodbine Saturday to spend some time at the home of her son, Earl, and family.

Mrs. Robert Johnson and baby, Virginia Mae, were passengers from Denison Saturday for an over Sunday visit at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Edwards, Sr., and with other relatives.

Edmund Riddle was a county seat business visitor Saturday.

Mrs. L. B. Berger was an arrival the latter part of the week from Watertown, S. D., for a visit at the parental, Art. S. Randall, home and with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Ahart.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Brasel and children were over from Manilla Saturday visiting with relatives.

The Thos. Walters' family have been enjoying a pleasant visit the past week from Mrs. Walters' sister-in-law, Mrs. Jake Bruhn, and two daughters of Tilden, Neb., who arrived Wednesday coming here from Omaha where they had stopped a few days with relatives. They departed Sunday for their home.

Miss Adelaide Potter spent a few days with friends and acquaintances in Kenwood last week, near which place she taught school a year or so ago.

Sam Kline and wife, of Dunlap, were Dow City shoppers Friday.

Mrs. Warren Ettleman and daughter, Bernice, were up from Dunlap last week and spent a few days with relatives.

Minnie Patterson, of Bayard, was an arrival in town last week and at present is assisting in Herman's store during the big closing out sale.

Mrs. Janette Crandall and daughter Lulu, returned Friday from a ten days' visit with the former's sister in Dallas Center.

Laverone Haley, of Anthon, has been here during the past week visiting the Haley family, residing in this vicinity.

Mrs. Fred Rule was a passenger from Council Bluffs Tuesday for a several days' visit with her husband's people here.

Miss Lisle Goldsworthy, who has been teaching in Montana the past year, arrived last week to spend the summer at the parental, J. T. Goldsworthy, home. She states that she is very favorably impressed with the western country.

Miss Vera Paul, who has been spending a couple of weeks here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Paul since closing her school at Guthrie Cen-

Sunday School Notes

SIDELIGHTS ON NEXT SUNDAY'S Lesson for Teachers and Pupils. Edited by CHARLES K. MEYERS

June 20—Our Divine Shepherd, Psalm 23 and John 10, 7-15.

We have for the lesson this week, the Psalms of Psalms, the one which is the best known the world round. In Christian America, with its churches and Sunday schools, and to the farthest points where the mission spirit has penetrated, this Psalm and the Lord's prayer are the first and best known of any parts of the Bible. There must be a reason for this and we will take a little time to think out why it is so. It was my good fortune and pleasure to hear during the late Methodist conference at Des Moines, an evening sermon by Bishop Ware, a man who for many years has wrestled with theism in the rough, and been able to score a host of distinct triumphs. In speaking of the Gods which the heathen world worship, he stated that every one of them was considered to be the enemy of the soul of the human being, and that it was to the supreme duty of each person to try by some means to propitiate, make friends, to appease the wrath of these deities. It was for this the zealots of India beat themselves with sharp instruments, cut themselves with knives, made a bed on sharp points, held a hand in the air until a change of position was impossible, threw the babes before the wheel of the crushing car.

The Christian religion holds before the heathen world, a Heavenly Father the "Tender Loving Shepherd." Is it any wonder therefore, that the prayer beginning, "Our Father," and the Psalm which opens "The Lord is My Shepherd" should be the most precious words in all the world to those coming out of heathen blackness into the marvelous light of the bible religion? As the great sun drives back the gloom of the night from the physical earth so do the great prayer and the twenty-third Psalm effect the spiritual night of the soul, bringing joy, hope, gladness, visions of immortality, changing the entire outlook of being.

Henry Ward Beecher, the eloquent preacher declared this Psalm "The Nightingale of Psalms" and added, "It has filled the air of the whole world with melodious joy greater than the heart can conceive; it has comforted the noble host of the poor; sung courage to the army of the disappointed; poured balm and consolation into the hearts of the sick; of widows in almighty grief, of orphans in the loneliness." The greatest writers have expended their highest thoughts in praise and adoration, concerning this wonderful Psalm and I shall not try to rival them here.

One of the most beautiful talks on this Psalm was written by William Allen Wright, under the heading, "Song of Our Syrian Guest," and it certainly seems as if he had brought out a host of most comforting and charming features of this wonderful bible selection. There is brought to the foreground the customs of the shepherds of the Syrian country, which adds richness and tenderness to every word of the Psalm. The book is but a small pamphlet and can easily be obtained from any of the religious book publishing houses and I recommend that any interested person secure a copy.

There was a compliment for this series of Sunday school notes from an unexpected source this week. Among the readers of the papers publishing these notes, is a faithful Catholic, a fine old Irish gentleman, one of the "olden times". It seems that he has

GOOD EXERCISE IS MOTURING

Physician Seems to Have Made Out a Good Case for His Side of Argument.

Dr. Henry Williams, in an article in Motors, combats the theory that motoring is reducing our opportunities for exercise. He says its benefits are threefold—physical, mental and vocational. The buffeting of winds and the inhalation of large quantities of oxygen stimulate digestion, assimilation and excretion. This is true of the person who merely sits, as well as of him who drives. The latter, however, benefits directly. Doctor Williams says: "When you drive a car 40 or 50 miles over average American roads, or a fraction of that distance in any city, you give your arms and torso a course of purposeful calisthenics that redounds directly to the benefit of your muscles and arteries and heart, and indirectly, but no less significantly, to the benefit of your digestive organs of elimination as well as the nervous system."

Mrs. W. T. Rink was a visitor at the county capital Saturday.

Mrs. Roman Wright, who has been spending several weeks with her son here, A. J. Wight, and family went down to Woodbine Saturday to spend some time at the home of her son, Earl, and family.

Mrs. Robert Johnson and baby, Virginia Mae, were passengers from Denison Saturday for an over Sunday visit at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Edwards, Sr., and with other relatives.

Edmund Riddle was a county seat business visitor Saturday.

Mrs. L. B. Berger was an arrival the latter part of the week from Watertown, S. D., for a visit at the parental, Art. S. Randall, home and with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Ahart.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Brasel and children were over from Manilla Saturday visiting with relatives.

The Thos. Walters' family have been enjoying a pleasant visit the past week from Mrs. Walters' sister-in-law, Mrs. Jake Bruhn, and two daughters of Tilden, Neb., who arrived Wednesday coming here from Omaha where they had stopped a few days with relatives. They departed Sunday for their home.

Miss Adelaide Potter spent a few days with friends and acquaintances in Kenwood last week, near which place she taught school a year or so ago.

Sam Kline and wife, of Dunlap, were Dow City shoppers Friday.

Mrs. Warren Ettleman and daughter, Bernice, were up from Dunlap last week and spent a few days with relatives.

Minnie Patterson, of Bayard, was an arrival in town last week and at present is assisting in Herman's store during the big closing out sale.

Mrs. Janette Crandall and daughter Lulu, returned Friday from a ten days' visit with the former's sister in Dallas Center.

Laverone Haley, of Anthon, has been here during the past week visiting the Haley family, residing in this vicinity.

Mrs. Fred Rule was a passenger from Council Bluffs Tuesday for a several days' visit with her husband's people here.

Miss Lisle Goldsworthy, who has been teaching in Montana the past year, arrived last week to spend the summer at the parental, J. T. Goldsworthy, home. She states that she is very favorably impressed with the western country.

Miss Vera Paul, who has been spending a couple of weeks here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Paul since closing her school at Guthrie Cen-heart can conceive; it has comforted the noble host of the poor; sung courage to the army of the disappointed; poured balm and consolation into the hearts of the sick; of widows in almighty grief, of orphans in the loneliness." The greatest writers have expended their highest thoughts in praise and adoration, concerning this wonderful Psalm and I shall not try to rival them here.

One of the most beautiful talks on this Psalm was written by William Allen Wright, under the heading, "Song of Our Syrian Guest," and it certainly seems as if he had brought out a host of most comforting and charming features of this wonderful bible selection. There is brought to the foreground the customs of the shepherds of the Syrian country, which adds richness and tenderness to every word of the Psalm. The book is but a small pamphlet and can easily be obtained from any of the religious book publishing houses and I recommend that any interested person secure a copy.

There was a compliment for this series of Sunday school notes from an unexpected source this week. Among the readers of the papers publishing these notes, is a faithful Catholic, a fine old Irish gentleman, one of the "olden times". It seems that he has been reading the notes, and delivered himself of the sentiment that "there was much of the bible in them and he always read them clear through." His kind words were thankfully received and appreciated.

That the great Psalm is so much loved, but shows that people are longing for care and protection of soul; that the thought God loves them, cares for them, has direction over their lives and will make things work together for good to those who trust in Him, is satisfying and precious. "Jesus in the verses from John, calls himself the "Good Shepherd," says that he is the door to the fold where there is safety; that He is ready to lay down his life for His sheep; that He knows His own; that He came to the world to give life and that more abundantly. How precious indeed are the thoughts of this lesson for they tell of loving care, protection, life, now and hereafter. It is my wish that all readers may claim as their own, the Good Shepherd and the Heavenly Father, and rest secure under His loving care.

Anyway the merchant who doesn't advertise can have a nice leisurely buzz for care and protection of soul; that the thought God loves them, cares for them, has direction over their lives and will make things work together for good to those who trust in Him, is satisfying and precious. "Jesus in the verses from John, calls himself the "Good Shepherd," says that he is the door to the fold where there is safety; that He is ready to lay down his life for His sheep; that He knows His own; that He came to the world to give life and that more abundantly. How precious indeed are the thoughts of this lesson for they tell of loving care, protection, life, now and hereafter. It is my wish that all readers may claim as their own, the Good Shepherd and the Heavenly Father, and rest secure under His loving care.

Anyway the merchant who doesn't advertise can have a nice leisurely buzz for care and protection of soul; that the thought God loves them, cares for them, has direction over their lives and will make things work together for good to those who trust in Him, is satisfying and precious. "Jesus in the verses from John, calls himself the "Good Shepherd," says that he is the door to the fold where there is safety; that He is ready to lay down his life for His sheep; that He knows His own; that He came to the world to give life and that more abundantly. How precious indeed are the thoughts of this lesson for they tell of loving care, protection, life, now and hereafter. It is my wish that all readers may claim as their own, the Good Shepherd and the Heavenly Father, and rest secure under His loving care.

Anyway the merchant who doesn't advertise can have a nice leisurely buzz for care and protection of soul; that the thought God loves them, cares for them, has direction over their lives and will make things work together for good to those who trust in Him, is satisfying and precious. "Jesus in the verses from John, calls himself the "Good Shepherd," says that he is the door to the fold where there is safety; that He is ready to lay down his life for His sheep; that He knows His own; that He came to the world to give life and that more abundantly. How precious indeed are the thoughts of this lesson for they tell of loving care, protection, life, now and hereafter. It is my wish that all readers may claim as their own, the Good Shepherd and the Heavenly Father, and rest secure under His loving care.

Anyway the merchant who doesn't advertise can have a nice leisurely buzz for care and protection of soul; that the thought God loves them, cares for them, has direction over their lives and will make things work together for good to those who trust in Him, is satisfying and precious. "Jesus in the verses from John, calls himself the "Good Shepherd," says that he is the door to the fold where there is safety; that He is ready to lay down his life for His sheep; that He knows His own; that He came to the world to give life and that more abundantly. How precious indeed are the thoughts of this lesson for they tell of loving care, protection, life, now and hereafter. It is my wish that all readers may claim as their own, the Good Shepherd and the Heavenly Father, and rest secure under His loving care.

Anyway the merchant who doesn't advertise can have a nice leisurely buzz for care and protection of soul; that the thought God loves them, cares for them, has direction over their lives and will make things work together for good to those who trust in Him, is satisfying and precious. "Jesus in the verses from John, calls himself the "Good Shepherd," says that he is the door to the fold where there is safety; that He is ready to lay down his life for His sheep; that He knows His own; that He came to the world to give life and that more abundantly. How precious indeed are the thoughts of this lesson for they tell of loving care, protection, life, now and hereafter. It is my wish that all readers may claim as their own, the Good Shepherd and the Heavenly Father, and rest secure under His loving care.

Anyway the merchant who doesn't advertise can have a nice leisurely buzz for care and protection of soul; that the thought God loves them, cares for them, has direction over their lives and will make things work together for good to those who trust in Him, is satisfying and precious. "Jesus in the verses from John, calls himself the "Good Shepherd," says that he is the door to the fold where there is safety; that He is ready to lay down his life for His sheep; that He knows His own; that He came to the world to give life and that more abundantly. How precious indeed are the thoughts of this lesson for they tell of loving care, protection, life, now and hereafter. It is my wish that all readers may claim as their own, the Good Shepherd and the Heavenly Father, and rest secure under His loving care.

Anyway the merchant who doesn't advertise can have a nice leisurely buzz for care and protection of soul; that the thought God loves them, cares for them, has direction over their lives and will make things work together for good to those who trust in Him, is satisfying and precious. "Jesus in the verses from John, calls himself the "Good Shepherd," says that he is the door to the fold where there is safety; that He is ready to lay down his life for His sheep; that He knows His own; that He came to the world to give life and that more abundantly. How precious indeed are the thoughts of this lesson for they tell of loving care, protection, life, now and hereafter. It is my wish that all readers may claim as their own, the Good Shepherd and the Heavenly Father, and rest secure under His loving care.

Anyway the merchant who doesn't advertise can have a nice leisurely buzz for care and protection of soul; that the thought God loves them, cares for them, has direction over their lives and will make things work together for good to those who trust in Him, is satisfying and precious. "Jesus in the verses from John, calls himself the "Good Shepherd," says that he is the door to the fold where there is safety; that He is ready to lay down his life for His sheep; that He knows His own; that He came to the world to give life and that more abundantly. How precious indeed are the thoughts of this lesson for they tell of loving care, protection, life, now and hereafter. It is my wish that all readers may claim as their own, the Good Shepherd and the Heavenly Father, and rest secure under His loving care.

Anyway the merchant who doesn't advertise can have a nice leisurely buzz for care and protection of soul; that the thought God loves them, cares for them, has direction over their lives and will make things work together for good to those who trust in Him, is satisfying and precious. "Jesus in the verses from John, calls himself the "Good Shepherd," says that he is the door to the fold where there is safety; that He is ready to lay down his life for His sheep; that He knows His own; that He came to the world to give life and that more abundantly. How precious indeed are the thoughts of this lesson for they tell of loving care, protection, life, now and hereafter. It is my wish that all readers may claim as their own, the Good Shepherd and the Heavenly Father, and rest secure under His loving care.

Anyway the merchant who doesn't advertise can have a nice leisurely buzz for care and protection of soul; that the thought God loves them, cares for them, has direction over their lives and will make things work together for good to those who trust in Him, is satisfying and precious. "Jesus in the verses from John, calls himself the "Good Shepherd," says that he is the door to the fold where there is safety; that He is ready to lay down his life for His sheep; that He knows His own; that He came to the world to give life and that more abundantly. How precious indeed are the thoughts of this lesson for they tell of loving care, protection, life, now and hereafter. It is my wish that all readers may claim as their own, the Good Shepherd and the Heavenly Father, and rest secure under His loving care.

Anyway the merchant who doesn't advertise can have a nice leisurely buzz for care and protection of soul; that the thought God loves them, cares for them, has direction over their lives and will make things work together for good to those who trust in Him, is satisfying and precious. "Jesus in the verses from John, calls himself the "Good Shepherd," says that he is the door to the fold where there is safety; that He is ready to lay down his life for His sheep; that He knows His own; that He came to the world to give life and that more abundantly. How precious indeed are the thoughts of this lesson for they tell of loving care, protection, life, now and hereafter. It is my wish that all readers may claim as their own, the Good Shepherd and the Heavenly Father, and rest secure under His loving care.

Anyway the merchant who doesn't advertise can have a nice leisurely buzz for care and protection of soul; that the thought God loves them, cares for them, has direction over their lives and will make things work together for good to those who trust in Him, is satisfying and precious. "Jesus in the verses from John, calls himself the "Good Shepherd," says that he is the door to the fold where there is safety; that He is ready to lay down his life for His sheep; that He knows His own; that He came to the world to give life and that more abundantly. How precious indeed are the thoughts of this lesson for they tell of loving care, protection, life, now and hereafter. It is my wish that all readers may claim as their own, the Good Shepherd and the Heavenly Father, and rest secure under His loving care.

Anyway the merchant who doesn't advertise can have a nice leisurely buzz for care and protection of soul; that the thought God loves them, cares for them, has direction over their lives and will make things work together for good to those who trust in Him, is satisfying and precious. "Jesus in the verses from John, calls himself the "Good Shepherd," says that he is the door to the fold where there is safety; that He is ready to lay down his life for His sheep; that He knows His own; that He came to the world to give life and that more abundantly. How precious indeed are the thoughts of this lesson for they tell of loving care, protection, life, now and hereafter. It is my wish that all readers may claim as their own, the Good Shepherd and the Heavenly Father, and rest secure under His loving care.

Anyway the merchant who doesn't advertise can have a nice leisurely buzz for care and protection of soul; that the thought God loves them, cares for them, has direction over their lives and will make things work together for good to those who trust in Him, is satisfying and precious. "Jesus in the verses from John, calls himself the "Good Shepherd," says that he is the door to the fold where there is safety; that He is ready to lay down his life for His sheep; that He knows His own; that He came to the world to give life and that more abundantly. How precious indeed are the thoughts of this lesson for they tell of loving care, protection, life, now and hereafter. It is my wish that all readers may claim as their own, the Good Shepherd and the Heavenly Father, and rest secure under His loving care.

Anyway the merchant who doesn't advertise can have a nice leisurely buzz for care and protection of soul; that the thought God loves them, cares for them, has direction over their lives and will make things work together for good to those who trust in Him, is satisfying and precious. "Jesus in the verses from John, calls himself the "Good Shepherd," says that he is the door to the fold where there is safety; that He is ready to lay down his life for His sheep; that He knows His own; that He came to the world to give life and that more abundantly. How precious indeed are the thoughts of this lesson for they tell of loving care, protection, life, now and hereafter. It is my wish that all readers may claim as their own, the Good Shepherd and the Heavenly Father, and rest secure under His loving care.

Anyway the merchant who doesn't advertise can have a nice leisurely buzz for care and protection of soul; that the thought God loves them, cares for them, has direction over their lives and will make things work together for good to those who trust in Him, is satisfying and precious. "Jesus in the verses from John, calls himself the "Good Shepherd," says that he is the door to the fold where there is safety; that He is ready to lay down his life for His sheep; that He knows His own; that He came to the world to give life and that more abundantly. How precious indeed are the thoughts of this lesson for they tell of loving care, protection, life, now and hereafter. It is my wish that all readers may claim as their own, the Good Shepherd and the Heavenly Father, and rest secure under His loving care.

Anyway the merchant who doesn't advertise can have a nice leisurely buzz for care and protection of soul; that the thought God loves them, cares for them, has direction over their lives and will make things work together for good to those who trust in Him, is satisfying and precious. "Jesus in the verses from John, calls himself the "Good Shepherd," says that he is the door to the fold where there is safety; that He is ready to lay down his life for His sheep; that He knows His own; that He came to the world to give life and that more abundantly. How precious indeed are the thoughts of this lesson for they tell of loving care, protection, life, now and hereafter. It is my wish that all readers may claim as their own, the Good Shepherd and the Heavenly Father, and rest secure under His loving care.

Anyway the merchant who doesn't advertise can have a nice leisurely buzz for care and protection of soul; that the thought God loves them, cares for them, has direction over their lives and will make things work together for good to those who trust in Him, is satisfying and precious. "Jesus in the verses from John, calls himself the "Good Shepherd," says that he is the door to the fold where there is safety; that He is ready to lay down his life for His sheep; that He knows His own; that He came to the world to give life and that more abundantly. How precious indeed are the thoughts of this lesson for they tell of loving care, protection, life, now and hereafter. It is my wish that all readers may claim as their own, the Good Shepherd and the Heavenly Father, and rest secure under His loving care.

Anyway the merchant who doesn't advertise can have a nice leisurely buzz for care and protection of soul; that the thought God loves them, cares for them, has direction over their lives and will make things work together for good to those who trust in Him, is satisfying and precious. "Jesus in the verses from John, calls himself the "Good Shepherd," says that he is the door to the fold where there is safety; that He is ready to lay down his life for His sheep; that He knows His own; that He came to the world to give life and that more abundantly. How precious indeed are the thoughts of this lesson for they tell of loving care, protection, life, now and hereafter. It is my wish that all readers may claim as their own, the Good Shepherd and the Heavenly Father, and rest secure under His loving care.

Anyway the merchant who doesn't advertise can have a nice leisurely buzz for care and protection of soul; that the thought God loves them, cares for them, has direction over their lives and will make things work together for good to those who trust in Him, is satisfying and precious. "Jesus in the verses from John, calls himself the "Good Shepherd," says that he is the door to the fold where there is safety; that He is ready to lay down his life for His sheep; that He knows His own; that He came to the world to give life and that more abundantly. How precious indeed are the thoughts of this lesson for they tell of loving care, protection, life, now and hereafter. It is my wish that all readers may claim as their own, the Good Shepherd and the Heavenly Father, and rest secure under His loving care.

A Friendly Tip to BRIDEGROOMS

Insure the success of the New Home by equipping the Kitchen with a

MONARCH MALLEABLE RANGE

The Boys Department Store Hardware Department

Shoes in America the Cheapest

In Germany 16 days' labor earns the price of a pair of shoes
In Italy 4 days' labor earns the price of a pair of shoes
In France 3 days' labor earns the price of a pair of shoes
In Britain 2 days' labor earns the price of a pair of shoes
In America 1 day's labor earns the price of a pair of shoes

That is the way to look at it if you are a good sportsman. Under no circumstances will we lower the quality of our shoes. Sometimes you may think you might pay less--so you can-- but---

This week we are having attractive close-outs.

MEN'S DRESS SHOES, $5.95 value English last, wide last $4.95

MEN'S WORK SHOES from $3.50 to $7.50

WOMEN'S DRESS CANVAS PUMPS AND OXFORDS, leather sole $3.50

WOMEN'S DRESS CANVAS PUMP, rubber sole $1.50 & $2.50

QUEEN QUALITY, reignskin fabric, street heel $8.00

DARK BROWN KID, French heel Colonial pumps $8.00

72 pairs 1 and 2 strap, street heel pumps $5.95

Children's barefoot sandals and baby dolls at factory prices. Some we bought in 1919.

You'll miss it if you don't look them over.