

MANILLA ITEMS

Miss Lillie Arndt who is employed in the C. F. G. Kehr department store left the fore part of last week to spend two weeks at her home at Leeds, Iowa visiting her parents.

Two Milwaukee detectives who have been making a great effort the past few weeks to pick out the thief who has been breaking into a Milwaukee freight train located him last Tuesday night. They watched him break the seal and then enter the car and then made the arrest. Stolen merchandise has been found twice in the Bohlander corn field just north of town. The sheriff came down from Denison and took the thief there to await his trial. The detectives were unable to find out his name.

Miss Mary Berkemier has been confined to her home the past week by an attack of rheumatism. Her many friends hope that she will regain her health again.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Brockridge and Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Brokaw were county fair visitors Thursday.

Mrs. Al Ivey accompanied her daughter, Miss Mildred to Cedar Falls last week going from there to visit in Austin, Minnesota before returning home.

Miss Gladys Baker who visited with friends at Carroll, Iowa, returned home Sunday of last week.

School opened Monday of last week with an enrollment of 260 pupils, 198 pupils in the grades and 62 students in High School. There are fourteen new teachers here this year and some good work is being planned. Mr. H. Shedd who at a former time was manual training teacher is Superintendent for the coming year.

Prof. and Mrs. McGau of Cornell college Mt. Vernon, Iowa, were guests one day last week at the home of Miss Lillian John.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kesting enjoyed a visit last week from Mr. R. W. Tyler and family of Winterset, Iowa.

Miss Katie Hayes left last week for Schaller, Iowa where she accepted a position in the public school at that place. Miss Hayes taught at Ralston, Iowa last year, and her many friends wish her success in her new line of work.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Baker and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Barrow autoed to Arion Thursday to attend the county fair.

Mrs. Mary Grimes left the fore part of last week for Jersey Shore, Pa., where she will spend some time visiting with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Cadwell and family are now pleasantly located in the Huber property formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Elschild. Mr. Cadwell will be janitor at the public school for the coming year, and the community is glad to extend the glad hand of welcome to them once more.

Mrs. Henry Ackey and small daughter, Velma, went to Perry Tuesday morning where they visited several days with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Pease of Omaha were guests of the past week at the home of W. E. Liggett.

Mr. James McCane who has been out in Colorado for the past few weeks returned home the fore part of last week.

Dr. Alice Delaney Chiropractor has her office over the B. O. Wilkinson hardware store.

Mr. Jack Anderson and family are now pleasantly located in their rooms over the City Bakery.

Mrs. Oscar Copeland returned home the latter part of last week after visiting her sister, Mrs. Tague at Minden, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. George Copeland went to Arion Thursday to be in attendance of the county fair.

Miss Ruth Moore left the latter part of the week for Kansas to resume her college work.

Mr. and Mrs. Prescholdt returned the latter part of the week after attending a convention at Detroit, Michigan. Mr. Prescholdt being chosen a delegate from Iowa to attend the Harness convention.

Miss Alice Knott left last Monday for Carroll where she will resume her school duties.

Miss Marian Kehr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. G. Kehr entertained a number of her girl friends to a party last week. Games were played and a two course luncheon was served, all the little ones spending a very pleasant afternoon.

The Sweet Show put on three good shows at Manilla last week the first night, "It Pays to Advertise," was well liked, the second night "Kick In," and the third night "Believe Me Zantippe," all of the plays were appreciated very much here and a full attendance each night.

Mrs. Chas. Stickleberg who has been very sick the past few months is reported to be in a very good physical condition and little hopes for her recovery.

Miss Hertha Joens has again accepted the work in Kehr's department store.

Mrs. Wm. Godard who has been taking treatments at a hospital in Omaha came home Saturday night to spend Sunday.

The Epworth League society of the Methodist church entertained the new teachers of the public school Friday evening of last week in the basement of the Methodist church. A large crowd was present and the evening was spent in playing games, after which a dainty luncheon was served, all present spending a very pleasant evening.

Mrs. W. N. Stipe and two children who have been visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony the past few weeks returned to their home Saturday A. M. at Adair, Iowa.

Miss Marie Healey left the fore part of last week for Dubuque, Iowa where she will attend St. Joseph Academy the coming year.

Misses Baby Kelly and Myrtle Albert of Denison who are teachers here in the public school spent the week end at their parental homes.

Mrs. Al Ivey who has been visiting among friends and relatives at Austin, Minnesota, returned home the latter part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Kahan of Davenport, Iowa, came Saturday night to visit the latter's sister, Mrs. Clyde Elwell.

Mrs. Chas. Schram was on the sick list the past week as reported as now convalescing of which her friends are pleased to learn.

Miss Lillian John, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will John left the latter part of the week for Cornell where she will attend college the coming year.

Miss Theresa Nicholson who teaches the primary grade spent the week end at the home of her friend, Miss Ethel Voss near Manning.

Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Draper who have been away for the past six weeks in various parts of the east returned home Friday evening. Dr. has been taking a special course in X-Ray work while in New York.

Mrs. Bettie Brockridge has accepted a position in the City Bakery.

The man who is principled against tipping at the summer hotels will probably get his breakfast in time for luncheon.

DELOIT ITEMS

The Ladies' Aid society will meet in the church on Friday afternoon, September 17th, at 3 o'clock, for the purpose of electing officers. Members are requested to be present.

The Deloit school building underwent a thorough cleaning this week.

John Vennek and family, of Manilla, spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. George Hutchinson.

All the teachers of the Deloit school attended the fair Thursday.

Leta Winans' young friends gave her a farewell party at her home Saturday evening. Miss Winans expects to leave soon for school.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis took supper at the M. E. parsonage Sunday evening and attended church.

Mr. and Mrs. John DeWitt were at the fair Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Broder Boysen, Mr. and Mrs. Young and Mr. and Mrs. F. A. True spent Monday at Lake View.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Newcom returned home Tuesday from a pleasant trip to Dakota.

Earl Winans returned home from a pleasant visit at the Ray Winans home at Percival this week.

Dr. Merriam spent a few days at Omaha the fore part of the week.

Broder Boysen attended court Tuesday in Denison.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Snell went to Schaller Monday to spend a few days with relatives.

Isaac Newton spent several days at Arion visiting at the Earl Tripp home and attending the fair.

Rev. Kampfoefner was here Thursday to hold quarterly conference.

Mrs. and Mrs. Frank Preeses returned from their pleasant auto trip in Nebraska and Kansas this week. Mrs. Bert McKim, who accompanied them, returned a day later on the train.

The Epworth League will hold a social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Woolsoneroff Friday evening. A cordial invitation to everyone, young and old, to attend.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church will hold an election of officers at the church Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. All members are expected to be present.

Ruth Stephens and Kathryn Vennek were home over Sunday.

Miss Virgil Darling, who is assisting with the housework at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Anderson in Denison, spent Sunday at home.

Mrs. Alma Prentice, Mrs. Cyrus Dohson and daughter, Eunice, Ben Beaman, S. D. Newton and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Will Huskey attended the fair Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephens and family were Boyer visitors Thursday.

Murray Woolsoneroff and Earl Riggleman have each purchased a tractor. Farmers are waking up to the fact that modern machinery will do quicker work.

Mrs. Bell Jordan, of Laurel, Neb., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Dunbar, and sisters, Mrs. Chas. Campbell and Mrs. U. S. Dunbar. Mrs. Jordan is an old resident of Deloit.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene McKim arrived Monday from the west and visited over the day with his brother, James, going Tuesday to Odebolt to visit his sister, Mrs. Geo. Newcom. He is on his way to Ohio to attend a rubber tire convention.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Chamberlin had sixteen guests for six o'clock dinner on Wednesday evening, when Mrs. Piletelle, of London, Eng., and Mrs. E. A. Romans, of Boston, were the honored guests. The table was very pretty with a low bowl of garden flowers and candlesticks. A delicious four course dinner was enjoyed and a social evening followed.

The Westminster society of the Presbyterian church is having an all day session at the home of Mrs. Turner this Wednesday.

Misses Jessie Goodrich and Grace Meyers were hostesses at the opening meeting of S. S. on Tuesday evening when a most enjoyable social hour was had with welcoming the many friends that have been gone during the summer. The usual lip supper was served at 6:30.

The O. E. S. met in their club rooms Tuesday evening when three new members were taken in. Mrs. R. O. Dobb, Mrs. John Rusterholz and Miss Amelia Weiss. After the formal ceremony and initiation dainty refreshments were served.

Miss Marie Connor will be hostess for the H. H. club on Thursday evening.

Mrs. R. O. Dobb will entertain the Grotto club on Thursday, September 23d.

A number of the teachers and friends of Miss Effie Norris gave a little picnic in her honor Saturday afternoon when a jolly time was had. Games and a most tempting picnic lunch were the features of the occasion.

Mrs. Geo. McHenry was hostess at a tea on Tuesday afternoon to the members of the Sioux City deanery of the Episcopal church. About twenty-five guests were present. Mrs. Richardson and Mrs. John Shaw Van assisted the hostess.

D. A. R. was entertained at the home of Mrs. Will Laub, when Miss Lessie Marshall was hostess together with Mrs. Laub, Mrs. Robinson, of Los Angeles, who is visiting at the home of Dr. J. C. Robinson, was an out of town guest. A most interesting book review, "The Tin Soldier," by Blair, was given by Mrs. Sam Wright and light refreshments concluded the program.

The Friday club is planning a tea and musicale Friday afternoon for the club members.

Miss Caroline Pahl entertained at a waffle party at her home on Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Ann Mundt, of Los Angeles, and Miss Lillian Nussbaum, of Omaha.

The Missionary society of the Presbyterian church held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Jacob Sims last Wednesday afternoon. After the regular program of the meeting and all business was attended to the members of the society, together with their families, enjoyed a delicious chicken pie supper. All present report a perfectly delightful time.

The Woman's federation met Saturday at the club rooms for their first meeting after the summer vacation. Mrs. Albert Weiss and Mrs. Ben Mill both gave interesting accounts of the national biennial meeting of the Woman's clubs held recently at Des Moines. It was decided to hold the annual rummage sale the first week in November, the exact dates to be announced later. The ladies voted to purchase a gift for the American Legion club room and a committee was appointed to confer with legion members as to their wishes.

A SURPRISE WEDDING

Rosebe Romans and Mrs. Myrtle Tomlinson Quietly Married Saturday by Rev. M. M. Cable

The many friends of Rosebe Romans and Mrs. Myrtle Tomlinson were surprised to learn of their marriage which took place on Saturday. The wedding was a quiet affair, only the immediate relatives being present. The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. M. Cable, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Romans departed by auto for Sioux City, where they are spending a few days visiting friends.

Both of these people are so well and favorably known that they need no introduction at this time. The groom is a son of the late Lou Romans and for many years has been a resident of Denison. Only a few months ago he entered the employ of the Hubbert-Reimers company as superintendent of their auto repair department. The bride, a daughter of Eli Korn, has long been a resident of this community and is an estimable woman.

The Review joins with the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Romans in extending congratulations.

A jolly good time was had by a large number of young people at the Methodist parsonage on last Friday evening when the members of the Baraca and Philthea classes of the Sunday school entertained as a farewell to the departing students and as a welcome to the new teachers of the public schools. The evening was enjoyed with music, games and readings and dainty refreshments were served.

The first meeting of Friday club will be held at the library club room on Friday of this week at 2:30 o'clock. A program of music will be given, after which the executive board and officers will serve tea. An important feature of the meeting will be a report by Mrs. Al Weiss of the meeting of the general federation of women's clubs, held at Des Moines last spring.

SPLENDID ATTRACTIONS COMING

Manager Peter Krauth Has Booked Some Fine Attractions for Winter - Fiske O'Hara October 4th

Peter Krauth, manager of the opera house, has booked some splendid attractions for the winter months and theater lovers will have something to look forward to.

All will be glad to learn that Fiske O'Hara is to appear again in Denison. He has been booked for Monday, October 4th, in his new four act play, "Springtime in Mayo." O'Hara will play at the Brandeis theatre in Omaha during Ak-sar-ben week. This will be his third appearance in Denison and will no doubt play to a packed house.

On October 13th the comic opera, "Oh Daddy," will be presented and another opera, "The Gumps," is booked for October 23d. "Oh Girls" is scheduled for November 1st, and on November 19th "Come Along Mary" will be staged. Vogels minstrels will appear November 30th, "Katzenjammer Kids" December 15th and "Mutt and Jeff" January 28th.

Robert Sjogren, of Kiron, was a Denison business caller Saturday.

Goodrich Tires today cost 25% less than they did in 1910 and give approximately 100% greater average mileage

FABRIC TIRE PRICES
SIZE	1910	TODAY
30x3	25.45	19.10
30x3½	33.85	23.20
32x4	48.65	36.80
34x4½	65.35	53.15
35x5	82.75	65.35

Compare these prices:
Adjustment Basis:
SILVERTOWN CORDS, 8000 Miles
FABRIC TIRES, 6000 Miles

Goodrich Tires
Best in the Long Run

SOLD AND RECOMMENDED BY
Denison Tire Co., Denison, Aug. P. Minter,
Feinhold's Garage, Dow City, O. W. Nelson, Arion
Crawford Rubber Company

THE BOYS
DENISON'S POPULAR STORE

UP STAIRS

GEORGETTE BLOUSES

$3.98

Seven new styles Georgette Blouses in all colors of flesh, white, sunset, tea rose and league blue. Embroidered and plain tucked styles, slip-over and button fronts, all sizes to 44. Specially Priced.

$3.98

Men's Union Suits

Men's ribbed fall weight union suits. These are Cooper Suits with the famous closed crotch, all sizes 36 to 46.

$2.00 and $2.50 Suit

36x63 Axminster Rugs

A good heavy Axminster, mottled pattern in various colors.

$8.00 Each

Gingham Dresses

Women's and girls' good quality gingham dresses in plaids, checks, plain and stripes. One rack.

$2.95

Oil Window Curtains

A medium green oil window shade 36 in. x 6 ft. Slightly imperfect.

95c Each, Complete

9x12 Armstrong's Linoleum Rugs

These rugs are a good grade of print linoleum, bur'ap back insuring a good wearing rug. Three good patterns for your selection. Suitable for dining rooms, bed rooms or kitchen.

$25.00 Each

12-Ft. Printed Linoleum

A medium heavy printed linoleum, burlap back 12 ft wide

$1.35 Sq. Yd.

9x12 Wool Fibre Rugs

An extra heavy Bon Ton wool and fiber rug, plain center with borders. This is a heavy enough rug so that it will lay flat on the floor.

$19.00

Cheviot Work Shirts

A blue heavy cheviot work shirt, full cut size.

$1.45