

DUNLAP ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Jensen had as their guest over Sunday the past week Louis Jensen and Victor Belnap, of Omaha.

The O. E. S. held their regular meeting Thursday evening at the lodge room.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Smith have closed their home for the winter and have moved to their home in the country.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Jensen spent Monday in Omaha.

Frank DeCouture of Kansas City, was in town Sunday a guest at the McElroy home.

The Epworth League of the Methodist church held a social last week in the church, that was supposed to be a membership meeting, hoping to increase their roll for the coming year. A short program was rendered, games indulged in and a lunch served at the close of the meeting. Mrs. Nixon, wife of the pastor, had the meeting in charge and will be the president for the coming year.

The promotion day exercises of the Methodist Sunday school were finished before church the past Sunday, having been continued from the previous Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hartigan, of Ute, were in town Sunday and spent the day at the McElroy home.

Miss Emma Smith and her brother, who have been here for some time visiting at the Elmer Smith home and also with other relatives, left last week for Nebraska, where they will visit sister at Syracuse, and then will go to California Junction, Mo., to visit another sister, and from there to Pacific Grove, Calif., to spend the remainder of the winter.

Mrs. Geo. E. Cullivan was in Omaha several days the past week.

A. P. Smith, of Milwaukee, was a guest of his niece, Mrs. J. C. Gorham, several days the past week.

Mrs. Ester Hall and Mrs. Adelaide Mayson, of Seattle, Wash., returned from their week's visit in Omaha.

A. L. Tule, of Harlan, was in town last week, enroute to Nebraska to visit his daughter and family there.

Mrs. J. C. Gorham has had as her guest the past few weeks her sister, Mrs. Savage, of South Dakota, also an aunt, Mrs. Fitch, of DeSoto, Mo.

Mrs. Fitzgerald was in Omaha last week and visited her daughter, Mrs. Greenwood, Mrs. Greenwood returning for a week's visit here.

Miss Louis Millard and Mrs. Will Gleason are in town, guests at the Fred Foote home.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Hartigan and family, of Ute, spent Sunday at the L. B. Edwards home.

Mrs. Frank Smith was a passenger to Denison Monday evening.

P. F. Barrett and wife motored to Omaha one day last week.

Mrs. Frank Wetmore and daughter, Barbara, were in Omaha shopping one day last week.

Herman Webber met with an accident Saturday evening last week that smashed his car and damaged the truck when a freight train that was at the crossing gave a backward lurch, striking his car and smashing it considerably. The car he was driving belonged to his brother in town, he having left his own near the bridge the same evening for repairs and gone to get his brother's car to take his family home and was returning the car when the accident occurred.

The Fortnightly club held their initial meeting Saturday evening, the evening with an interesting program. The first installment of books were there and the men were out so as to organize the work of their department. The following program was given: Piano and Violin Solo—Mrs. Wm. Jones and Jasper O'Banion. Vocal Solo—Marie Smith. Reading—Nellie Smith. Vocal Solo—Mrs. J. B. Chauncey. "Our Fortnightly Club"—Mrs. B. H. Cutler. Vocal Solo—Mrs. Jay Widney. Vocal Solo—Carl Heid. Reading—Leah Service. Piano Solo—Mildred Rogers. Miss Eliza Bailey, who was in town several days, left for Omaha Friday.

The Missionary society of the Congregational church met at the home of Mrs. Fred W. Curtis on Friday with the usual number out, and a very interesting lesson was given and a lunch served at the close of the afternoon.

Miss Velham Hicks was up from Omaha and spent the week end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Hicks.

Mrs. George Hannigan and baby have been here from Spaulding, Neb., visiting their many relatives.

The Service Star held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. A. E. Smith on Monday. This was the meeting scheduled for the library, but this time the eleventh came on Monday and conflicted with the domestic science day and so was held at the Smith home. This was the time when the canned fruit was taken for the hospital at Ft. Des Moines. The program consisted of the report of their delegates to the national convention at Des Moines the past month and was given by Mrs. J. E. Kirk who was a delegate attending. Clarence Eagen, in a big Stevens car, met with an accident Saturday evening when he collided with a Ford driven by Mr. Digan, a road contractor from near Denison. Both cars were badly damaged, it taking practically $500 to put the big car in shape again.

The Daughters of Isabella gave a shower for Mrs. James McClinn at their regular meeting on Tuesday evening of the past week. A fine lunch was served and the guest of honor was given a spoon. Mrs. McClinn will be remembered as Miss Elsie McAndrews.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McLean, who have been visiting here for a week, left for Omaha Sunday evening.

A birthday party was held at the home of Mrs. Chas. Brace one day last week in honor of the seventeenth birthday of Mrs. Brace, Sr. All the sons and their families who live in the vicinity were there and a very pleasant day was passed by all. Mrs. Brace was the recipient of many gifts.

Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Slattery were in Omaha Sunday, the doctor taking a patient down to the hospital.

Mrs. W. A. Chauncey arrived home on Tuesday from a two weeks' visit at the home of her mother in Indiana.

Miss Lucie McNally, of Mill Creek school, was among the number attending the institute at Logan the latter part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Dally arrived last week from Waterloo, where they had been attending the funeral of their niece, Miss Constance Smith. Constance was the daughter of Mrs. Jennie Smith, who formerly lived here. She was a great scholar and it is thought that so much close study undermined her health and was the cause of her last illness which seemed to change from a fever to tuberculosis. Mrs. Mary Beatty, of Omaha, was also at the funeral, returning at the same time with Mr. and Mrs. Dally.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Jensen are promoting a new restaurant in the building formerly occupied by the Satterlee drug store. They will also carry a line of confections and cigars.

Mrs. Frank Jackson and son, Claude, were in Omaha Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Polt, who have been making their home in Texas, have returned to live in Iowa again.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorham and Mrs. Noel motored to Denison one day last week.

The remains of Henry Olson arrived last week and a military funeral was held at Soldier October 4th.

Mr. and Mrs. Yager drove to Logan Saturday.

Anthony Monahan, of Omaha, spent Sunday here with his family.

Mrs. Frank Jones is visiting at Avoca.

John Terry was in Harlan Wednesday.

Guy Argotsinger and sister, of Arion, visited relatives near here Sunday.

Bern Ferguson has been in Plattsmouth, Neb., several days.

The Misses Mamie and Gertrude Kirshbaum, of Defiance, motored over one day the past week and visited at the home of their sister, Mrs. F. E. Peters.

Mrs. J. W. Denniston was hostess to the members of the Thursday club at her home last Thursday.

The mothers of the high school pupils met at the school house Tuesday afternoon and discussed ways and means of enlarging the athletic fund in the school for both the boys and girls and decided to hold a cooked food sale at the city hall on Saturday for this purpose. They also decided that the girls basket ball team should always attend the school for both the boys and girls and not as individuals and should each time have two mothers at least as chaperones.

Mr. and Mrs. Dell Kingsbury were in town one evening last week and visited at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Riechelt, the doctor being a brother of Mrs. Kingsbury. They were on their way home from a visit with relatives at Defiance.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Klene were in town and visited near here Sunday.

Mrs. Frank and Mrs. James McClinn were in town Monday evening, motoring down from Denison.

The Misses Heller, Andrews, Clark and Rose, all teachers in the public school here, were in Omaha Saturday.

Barrel Herrington, who attends the Creighton college, was home over Sunday.

The teachers attended an institute at Logan Thursday and Friday, school being dismissed for this purpose. The youngsters have certainly enjoyed the institute, many of them making trips to the country for nuts.

E. H. Barrett, of Omaha, was here several days the past week.

The small son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Monahan has been in the past week at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Hall.

Leo Casey, of Omaha, was in town the fore part of last week.

Zorba Dolte came up from Council Bluffs and spent the week end with her brother and family on the farm.

Miss Stina, of Portsmouth has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Weights.

Dr. W. B. Burleigh attended the 6th semi-annual meeting of the Council Bluffs association of Congregational churches and ministers at Red Oak October 8 and 7 a number of noted speakers were on the program at this meeting and was thoroughly enjoyed by those attending. Mr. Burleigh returned on Tuesday.

Landis Singing Orchestra which appeared at the school auditorium on Friday evening was well received and did themselves credit. The only fault was with the patronage, it not being as good as it should have been.

Mr. McIntosh and son of Harlan were in the Grove on Sunday of the past week.

Dr. P. G. Ingersoll is the possessor of a new Buick coupe which he is driving.

Mr. and Mrs. James Baber and family were in Dow City the past Sunday visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. W. C. Rolls.

A surprise was given Mrs. Geo. Jones by about thirty of her friends at her home in the east part of town. Mrs. Jones' wedding occurred only the past week and these old friends and neighbors called to wish her much happiness in her new home. A most enjoyable afternoon was passed by the guests.

Mrs. James Duff was in town over Sunday a guest at the home of Mrs. Frank Gorham, coming from her home in Pierce Nebr. Mrs. Duff will be remembered by some as Miss Nellie Buckley and lived here some time ago. She spent a pleasant time here renewing old acquaintances.

A surprise birthday dinner was given Mrs. J. C. Gorham by her home Sunday by her children and their families. When Mrs. Gorham returned from church she found a number of people had taken possession of her home in her absence and the table was set with an array of good things to eat. All of her children and their families except her son Ellis and family who live in South Dakota, were present and helped her celebrate her birthday. Besides these there were a number of other relatives.

Mr. Wright Left of Webster City was in town the past week and visited at the home of F. S. and J. C. Gorham. Mr. Left had known members of the families for many years. He returned to his home after a pleasant visit.

A big chivalry was held at the Schaupp home northwest of town Sunday evening at which time about one hundred people were present to wish Mr. Schupp and his new bride many years of happiness in their life together. A big feed of ice cream and cake was served to the entire number at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Pedersen late in the evening.

Mr. Frank Gorham, who is in the Soldier hospital underwent an operation the past week which for the time seems to have given him relief from his Rheumatic trouble.

Dr. P. G. Ingersoll and Fred Landis spent the past week in Minnesota fishing and as a result they caught their men friends a big fish feed upon their return.

Mr. and Mrs. John Nicolls and family of Moorhead visited in Gallands Grove one day the past week.

Mr. Butler of Arion was in town on Tuesday.

Mr. Wolverton and daughter spent Sunday in Dow City.

Father Toher was in Woodbine the past Sunday.

Mrs. D. A. Peters left the past week for Villa Barrio, Ottumwa, where she will visit her daughter, Bernice, who entered the novitiate of the Sisters of Humility there. She was a member of the class of '20 here the past year.

The Riverside Farmers club will hold their seventh annual meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brock on October 14. This will be the start of the fall meetings and a good attendance is expected. There will be music and readings and the following question will be discussed: "What moral effect will the women have on our coming election?"

Miss Besse Lehan left last week for Chicago where she will spend a month visiting at the home of Miss Mae Hartigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Clem Honz and family were in Portsmouth Sunday motoring down.

Miss Minnie Roth returned Wednesday from a month's visit away, most of the time being spent with her sister, Mrs. Young at Waterloo.

Mrs. E. L. Manchester spent Saturday in Denison where she inspected the W. I. C. there. She was the recipient of a dinner while there served by the corps ladies.

Mrs. E. L. Manchester, Bowersox and Miss Clemma, Stewart were in Denison Wednesday, returning in the afternoon.

Mrs. W. B. Burleigh was in Dow City Tuesday.

A dinner was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cook last Sunday in honor of the forty eighth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Arch Cook of Council Bluffs at which nearly all of the children and their families were present.

Miss Jennie Burke was in Omaha the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Kinsell has gone to Mississippi where she will spend the winter with relatives.

Frank Jackson spent Sunday with his parents in Dow City.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Jordan delightfully entertained the S. S. at their new home Tuesday evening at a six o'clock dinner after which the evening was passed at cards.

Word has been received by relatives of the birth of a daughter to the home of Mrs. Rottia Hull, Belin, in Success, Canada.

Miss Mildred Kirk was home from Logan over Sunday.

Dr. J. G. Powell was an Omaha passenger Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Mosher were in Council Bluffs several days the past week, returning Saturday evening.

The ladies of the C. C. have been busy the past week cleaning and renovating the church. A very neat appearance is the result.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Malone are here from Parkston, South Dakota, for a visit at the home of their daughter, Mrs. L. Hart.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Malone of Denison were in town Saturday, returning to Denison Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred O'Banion are in Omaha this week visiting relatives and Mr. O'Banion is waiting for him to get the shop ready for him to again open the market. He has been closed since the fire which nearly destroyed the market some weeks ago.

Mrs. Mary E. Burling returned Thursday being here to attend the Tilton-Rehmer nuptials.

Mrs. Anna Colburn left Sunday for Danbury in company with the Will Acton family who motored over after her. She will remain at the Acton home while Mrs. Acton enters a hospital in Chicago for an operation. Mrs. Acton's many friends here hope for a speedy recovery.

George Cullivan was in Omaha Saturday on business.

Miss Lowell Burling was home from Corwith, Iowa, and spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Burling on the farm. Lowell is teaching in a consolidated school at Corwith as are Mr. and Mrs. Hinshaw who were here last year in the schools. She reports it as a very pleasant place and that she enjoys her work very much. She returned Sunday evening.

Miss Estella Murphy was up from Omaha Saturday evening to remain over Sunday, a guest of her father, John Murphy and also her many friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Nurse returned to Omaha Friday after being here to attend the Tilton-Rehmer wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. John Roush and daughter, Margaret, were in Omaha Thursday evening.

Mrs. A. P. Moore, Amanda Edwards and Wiggend were Dow City visitors Friday.

Mr. Frank Howarth and daughter, Kathryn Lou were Denison callers on Sunday afternoon, motoring down.

Mr. Carter, of Defiance, was in Gallands Grove on the past Sunday.

Oscar Quick was in Harlan Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Reynolds were in Harlan one day the past week.

Mrs. W. A. Chauncey and Mrs. A. S. Chauncey, of Mapleton, were Omaha visitors last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hansen returned during the week from O'Neill, Neb., where they had been for some time on a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Holland were in Omaha Thursday evening to attend the Harding speech. Mr. Holland returned that night and Mrs. Holland the following evening.

Miss Hannegan, who teaches in the Bluffs, was home for Sunday visiting relatives here and in the country.

How is a fastidious lady voter going to be able to spit on these dupe pencils in the polling booths to make them mark?

Many people who are now harvesting fine crops of vegetables and fruit and the only farming tools they require are an automobile, a bag and a dark night.

The "more pay and less work" crowd are likely to realize that getting a half of their program by not getting any work at all.

You can't shut up a socialist but frequently he will keep still of his own accord because it is so much work to talk.

These bomb plotters would better look out as a lot of people around here have guns loaded for skunks.

the Methodist church held their meeting at the home of Mrs. Plato Dunham in the country the past week and had a most delightful time.

Ed Ryan was in Omaha Thursday evening and heard the Harding speech, returning Friday evening.

Mr. Broderick, of Nebraska, has been in town for some time visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Leggett. Mr. Broderick was the companion of Mr. Leggett's brother, Jim, during all his time spent overseas.

Walter Van Meter was home from Denison.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Stilson and Mrs. Marcella Barsby motored down from Arion Sunday afternoon and visited at the Thos. Lehan home.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hartigan, of Ute, were in town Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Leggett, of Mapleton, were in town and visited at the home of her mother, Mrs. Chas. Reed. Barney Cutler was in Omaha Thursday evening to hear Harding speak.

A. E. Smith and daughter, Helen, were in Omaha Friday.

THE BOYS

DENISON'S POPULAR STORE

UP STAIRS

RUGS AT LOWER PRICES

There has been a revision downward in rugs. It will be "The Boys" policy to give our customers advantage at all times of any change in prices regardless of what we paid for merchandise. You no doubt have been holding off buying a rug till prices were lower.

Read These Prices

7-6x9 Bon Ton Fibre Rugs	$15.50
8x10 Bon Ton Fibre Rugs	19.00
9x12 Bon Ton Fibre Rugs	21.00
6x9 Oxford Brussels Rugs	22.50
8-3x10-6 Oxford Brussels Rugs	39.00
9x12 Oxford Brussels Rugs	42.50
8-3x10-6 Biglow Bussorah Rugs	67.50
9x12 Biglow Bussorah Rugs	77.50

All Whittall Rugs Reduced Proportionately

9x12 Anglo Persian Rugs	$170.00
9x12 Royal Worcester Rugs	132.00
9x12 Teperac Rugs	111.00
9x12 Peerless Body Brussels Rugs	78.00

Best Quality 12-ft Printed Linoleum

Three splendid patterns suitable for diningroom or kitchen. Nairn's best quality printed burlap back linoleum.

Specially priced, per running yard

$6.85

Women's and Misses Fall and Winter Suits

Splendid new suits made of good quality tinseltone, silvertone, wool velour, serge and tricelines, all wanted colors of Brown, reindeer, tan and navy, sizes range 16 to 44

Divided in Two Lots

$39.00 and $59.00

Fall and Winter Coats For Girls, Misses and Women

We are now showing unusual coats made of wool materials and plush. Short and full-length styles. A splendid range in misses' and women's coats.

$24.50 to $59.00

Girls' and Boys' Coats $6.98 to $19.50

Work Shirts

Men's cheviot work shirts full cut, sizes 15 to 17. Specially priced.

$1.35

Men's "Big Three" Overalls

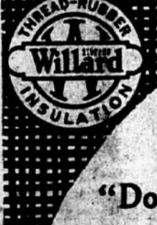

This overall does not need an introduction as everyone knows the merit of this overall. Very full cut, well made and good denim. Per pair

$2.69

THE BOYS

DENISON'S POPULAR STORE

THREADED-RUBBER INSULATION

"Do Unto Others"

That's us every time. We treat your battery just as if it was our own and we were bound to make use of every last cent's worth of value in it.

Of course we recharge batteries and always have on hand the Still Better Willard with Threaded Rubber Insulation—the kind selected by 152 manufacturers of passenger cars and motor trucks.

DENISON STORAGE BATTERY CO
DENISON, IOWA PHONE 113
Official Willard Station No. 2114

PIPELESS HEATERS

Have Proved Satisfactory to Users

We are quite proud of our 1920 series. The results secured from our ideal pipeless heater are truly surprising.

The Ideal Pipeless heater has many new features. As a result the Ideal is a leader among high grade heaters.

The Ideal answers every requirement and we can prove it to you.

It has the one-piece, solid cast radiator slatted fire bowl, double feed doors extra heavy casing, large air space, air in casing.

You are cordially invited to call and look them over.

J. B. SULLIVAN
Hot Air Heating Contractor

Modern Funerals Directing

Demands and requires the services of men trained in the profession who can work with sympathy, remembering the sacredness of the departed and with regard for the poignant grief of the living.

Charles Barcher Funeral Director

Get Rid of Your RATS!

USE

AZOA

CALL AT OUR STORE FOR INFORMATION

Schlumberger Pharmacy