

$100 REALIZED FROM SUPPER

Ladies of Congregational Church at Dunlap Give Supper Thursday and Realize Goodly Sum

CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Peter McIntosh Celebrate Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary November 12. At Home Of Son Scott.

The supper held by the ladies of the Congregational church on Thursday of the past week was well attended and about $100 was realized with a very small amount of expense. Several parties were entertained at the supper and more people could have been served only that the ladies ran out of provisions.

Miss Mary Kane of Buck Grove was in town Sunday and visited her sister, who is here at the present time. The Misses Eileen and Christine Knudsen of Lehighville came last week and visited Miss Mae Killian after which the three ladies visited at Dow City.

The old teachers of the high school were hostesses to the new teachers on the 23rd at a dinner served by the Congregational ladies at the church on Thursday evening. A table was specially prepared for the ladies. John Hule was pleasantly surprised by a large crowd at his home on last Sunday evening when they came to remind him that it was his birthday. A most enjoyable evening was passed by those who were privileged to attend.

Interesting letters from two high school graduates who are now in the west were published in this issue of the Reporter. One from Ben Berger at Eutlat, Washington and the other from Hortense Wright, Pasadena, California.

A Cooked Food sale is held by the Ladies of St. Patrick's parish at the City Hall on Wednesday afternoon. An apron and fancy work booth will be held in connection with this and all sorts of cooked and uncooked foods will be on sale.

Two new typewriters have been added in the Commercial department at the high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter McIntosh celebrated their golden wedding at the home of their son Scott on November twelfth with a big celebration. The Reporter and Mrs. Luther McCord who were present at the ceremony fifty years ago were present upon this occasion also. All the children and most of the grandchildren were in attendance, weather preventing the attendance of four great-grandchildren and their parents. The day passed very pleasantly and all hoped that the happy ones might celebrate many more.
