Notice to Subscribers.

There is a large amount due this paper on subscription, and it is very desirable that it should be paid. We have had no good opportunity to go around to collect the same. No doubt most of the amount would have been paid, as many of the delinquents are good men, and it has been more forgetfulness on their part. The sums due for subscription on the first volume, and some other accounts, will be placed in the hands of CHARLES P. BLAKELY, Esq., and it is expected that payments will be made to him on presentation. The collection of what is due on this paper will be a sensible relief, and enable us to furnish the readers of the COURIER with a first-class paper.

NOTICE.

All persons indebted to us are hereby notified that we will take FLOUR and GRAIN in payment, and we will allow the highest market prices for the same. Delivery must be made within fourteen days from this date.

All accounts not paid by that time will be placed in the hands of an attorney for collection.

Bozeman, M. T., January 30, 1873.

OLD WINTER, falling to put in more than a modest appearance at the proper time, has come down upon us, in the shank of the season, with an icy vigor scarcely without a precedent, spilling severely pathetic odes to spring, prepared by some of our poetical legion. The snow is two feet deep on a level.

Jewelry, Jewelry, Jewelry—all kinds of jewelry—to be had at MERRLE'S.

THE COMING BALL.—Our friends, the Odd Fellows, are actively engaged in preparing for their first ball, which takes place on the 27th proximo. That it will be the grandest affair of that character ever before had in our place, the extensive and magnificent preparations fully assure us.

DELICIOUS BUGGIES!
The only place in town to get a handsome turnout, on wheels or runners, is at Charles Clark's Livery Emporium on Bozeman Street. He keeps none but the finest and the best vehicles, and a always on hand with either.

A LARGE number of miners are now in Bozeman, awaiting the opening of spring, to visit the Clark's Fork mining district. Some have already located rich quartz ledges, which they will proceed to develop, while others go to prospect the country. We think we are safe in saying that a camp of several hundred men will be established in that district the coming summer.

AGRICULTURAL OVERSIGHTS. For Gents, Ladies, and Misses, at HARRINGTON BAKER & CO.'S, second door west of the Courthouse, Main street, Bozeman.

REDUCTION OF PRICES.—We call attention to the local advertisement of Mr. Henry Wittenbach, proprietor of the International at Helena. The International is one of the largest and finest hotels in the West, and in all of its appointments will compare favorably with the best first-class hotels in the East, while the price is the same, if not lower, than some of the latter and the accommodations superior. When you go to Helena, give the International a call.

VEGETABLE BITTERS. by the bottle or case, and at the leading Patent Medicine, at the new Drug Store of W. W. Morris, Bozeman.

JAMES B. FINCH advises to-day a new plan of tempering mill picks, which is pronounced by those who have tried it to be far superior to anything of the kind ever before introduced. Mr. Finch is an excellent mechanic, and should be liberally patronized.

On account of the deep snow, which had drifted so as to make the road above impassable for a short while, the stage due here Tuesday did not arrive until Wednesday evening.

Remember that the only complete stock of FANCY GOODS, as well as the best Cigars and Tobacco, can always be found at HOLZMAN & BROS.

THE MINSTREL COMPANY.—The "Twenty-second of February" did not pass off here wholly unobserved. The Fort Ellis Dramatic and Minstrel Company gave one of their performances in the hall of Speth & Krug on that evening, and came fully up to all they had promised in their new and varied programme. To our townspeople and the citizens of this county nothing need be said in explanation of this dramatic company, while to others not familiar with it we may state that it is composed of soldiers stationed at the military post, who, in hours of leisure and exemption from duty occupy their minds by acquiring and practicing dramatic and other stage compositions by whom much tact and liberal talent in that direction are manifested. They have among their good actors, fine singers, and accomplished musicians; some also who evince ability in the composition of comedy. The company, we regret to say, were ill-fated in their selection of Saturday evening last for a performance here, inasmuch as many things previously arranged combined to prevent our citizens from enjoying the amusement of that occasion, among which may be enumerated, the ball at Odell's the previous evening, the rehearsal of the school children for the forthcoming exhibition, which attracted many relatives and friends, the attendance in the lodges, and last, though not least, the meeting of the Presbytery of Montana. Notwithstanding this concentration of obstacles to a successful evening, a fair audience was present, but not at all such as would have greeted the deserving company had not such difficulties and impediments thrown themselves in the way.

Ladies' Watches, Pens and Charms, at MERRLE'S.

Those of our citizens who were here when the 13th Infantry garrisoned Fort Ellis, will be pained to learn of the death of 1st Lieut. Osceola A. Thompson, who died at Newport Barracks, Ky., on January the 8th, of small-pox.

From the Army and Navy Journal we extract the following from the General Order of Col. P. R. De Trobriand, announcing to the regiment the death of Lieut. Thompson: "Lieut. Thompson served during the late war of the rebellion as Captain of a Rhode Island battery, and was appointed 2d Lieutenant 13th Infantry, March 17th, 1863, being promoted to the grade of 1st Lieutenant, March 4th, 1867, and serving continuously with his company until December 23rd 1870, when he received the detail for recruiting service for 1871 and 1872, and just after being relieved from such duty, and when his brother officers were anxiously looking for his return to the regiment, the sad news of his death was received. During the long period of his service with the regiment, Lieutenant Thompson had won the respect and affection of his brother officers by his excellent qualities as an officer, and his pleasant manners as a gentleman. His loss will be long remembered and deeply felt by all who knew him."

New Shop.
Call at Fordonka's Tonsorial parlors for Shaving, Hair Cutting, and Dressing, Choice Perfumery, Oils, Pomades and Soaps for sale. Come and see my "Geyser," North side of Main, three doors east of Black Street.

PLEASANT PARTY.—On the evening of the 21st, a social party was given in Odell's Hall by the general proprietor, Odell himself, who, being an artist in music, knows how to select that indispensable element to the pleasures of the ball room, and in this instance excelled himself in judgment and good taste. All were promptly on hand, the ball opened early; on went the dances, and joy was unbounded; all the announcements of supper brought the merry party to a reluctant but temporary stop, for even the inducements of Mr. Geo. W. Wakefield's supper table scented for a moment to fall in alluring the gay participants from the whirl of the waltz. After partaking of the sumptuous repast the dance was resumed and continued in pleasant and pleasure till hours after the historic "Twenty-second" had been ushered in, when each and all turned homeward with every kind thought and happy recollection that spring from the social pastime of a pleasant party.

IMPORTANT TO SETTLERS.
Applications to Enter Homesteads or Pre-emption should be filed six months before payment of entry of the land can be made. The non-mineral proofs required in such cases may be taken without cost of trip to Helena, by applying to
ARCH GRAHAM,
County Clerk, Bozeman.

EVERY OF THEM.—We gratefully acknowledge the receipt of a large jar of pickled horse radish from our esteemed friend, Capt. John S. Bartruff, proprietor of the "Model Garden" at Virginia City. Bart, raises the finest vegetables in the Territory, and shares them heartily with his neighbors and friends. By industry and perseverance Mr. Bartruff has created a little paradise on a table of about 6,000 feet above sea level. In the "Model Garden" the most delicate and beautiful flowers, handsomely arranged in beds and winding around beautifully designed trellis work, shed their fragrance over the community; variety of grapes, currants, and different kinds of domestic berries are cultivated, besides all kinds of vegetables, which attain prodigious size, and several fine apple trees will bear fruit this year.

To Families and Others.
I would respectfully announce to the citizens of Bozeman and vicinity that, in order to keep up with the times, I will hereafter sell bread at the CITY BAKERY AT HALF PRICE. Families not able to get at the trouble of baking their own bread, as they can buy cheaper.

Larger loaves at half price—48 cents per loaf. LUNCHES served at any hour. 12-1/2 cent minimum price—CITY BAKERY, next door to the ship.

JOHN MANEY, City Bakery.

A BEAUTIFUL GIFT.—Lieut. Grogan presented yesterday to the Young Men's Association, a beautiful and large sized steel engraving, entitled, "The Future." The members tender their sincere regards to the generous Lieutenant, and trust that others, like him, will give substantial tokens of their good will to this worthy organization. In this connection we will state that the officers and ladies of Fort Ellis, have ably assisted this association, and several of the officers are active members.

A GOOD OPPORTUNITY.

Those desiring to work should call on Dr. Frary at once—office at Moritz's Jewelry Store, as his stay in Bozeman will be probably limited. Those who cannot conveniently pay the cash can turn in flour at cash prices.

The farmers have been snowed in the past week, and our streets have presented a dreary appearance. Local items have been scarce as greenbacks.

Clocks, Clocks, Clocks, from $5 to $100, at MERRLE'S.

Chess.—It seems that the gauntlet thrown down by our Ft. Ellis friend has been taken up by the Virginia City Chess Club, and also by Mr. J. E. Owings, of Deer Lodge, the latter proposing to play by telegraph. Gentlemen of Virginia, draw your wallets or hunt your holes, and Mr. Owings you will be accommodated. The following are the responses to the challenge published in the COURIER:

"J. E." RESPONDS.—In reply to the challenge recently sent out from Gallatin Valley to any player in Montana and J. E. Owings, of Deer Lodge, in particular, that gentleman comes promptly to the scratch in the following language: "I have no disposition to degrade the noble game of chess into a means of gambling. The style of the challenge savors somewhat more of bragadoise than a desire for a contest of skill. But to determine the sincerity of the challenge and the skill of Gallatin Valley chess players, I hereby propose to play any or all of them a game of chess by telegraph between Bozeman and Deer Lodge, the loser to pay the expenses of such telegraphing as may be necessary to play the game. This means chess and business.—Herald."

LAST week's issue of the AVANT COURIER contains a banner from Gallatin County to the chess-players of the Territory for a chess tournament, for from $500 to $1,000 a side, whereupon we are authorized to make the following proposition: The Virginia Chess Club will back one of its members in a tournament of seven games for $1,000 against any player in Montana, the contest to take place at the rooms of the Virginia City Club on or before April 15th, 1873. Deposits made at the Banking House of Henry Eiling, in this city, will be promptly met. "Put up or shut up."—Montanian.

SCHOOL EXHIBITION.—The regular term of the District School comes to a close to-day, and an exhibition by the school children will be given, under the supervision of the teacher, Mr. J. L. Vernon, at Good Templars' Hall this evening, commencing at 7 o'clock. Considerable preparations have been made for this exhibition, and we are admission it will prove highly successful. An addition of fifty cents will be charged, the funds so collected to be used for purchasing books and other necessary articles for the school. The object is certainly commendable and should secure a large attendance.

New Chicago is improving, a hotel has just been finished.
Quartz mining is being vigorously prosecuted at Butte City, and they are taking out a large quantity of rich ore from several of the lodges.

The Illinois State Journal devotes a full column to a well-written obituary notice on the death of Major J. B. Campbell, of Gallatin County, M. T. The writer pays a deserved and eloquent tribute to the memory of the respected dead, in the passing away of whom Illinois recognizes the loss of a once prominent citizen of that State.

MARRIED.
ROBERTS-BICKETT.—At the residence of the bride's father, on West Gallatin river, February 25th, 1873, by the Rev. J. T. Curtis, Mr. John M. Robinson and Miss Florence Bickett.
We unite with the many friends of the happy couple in congratulations, and wish them full measure of domestic bliss.

CORP-MCKINNEY.—On the morning of 25th, at the residence of the bride's uncle, Deaver, Head Valley, by the Rev. H. H. Prout, Mr. George F. Cope, editor of the Montana Times, to Miss Annie Lee Kelly, formerly of Randolph county, Missouri.

We acknowledge the receipt of a handsomely printed invitation to be present at the reception of the newly wedded couple in Virginia City.

DIED.
BATES.—At Nicholasville, Kentucky, on the 7th of February, 1873, Judge JAMES GEORGE BATES, aged 63 years.
At the time of his death he was Judge of the Jessamine County Court, and had resided in that county for over sixty years. The deceased was the oldest brother of our fellow-citizen, Major John P. Bruce, and uncle of the publisher and proprietor of this paper.

Judge Bates was a gentleman of high cultivated mind, and earnest in the discharge of public duty, honest and capable. He possessed the entire confidence of the people whose affairs he conducted, and his loss will be deeply mourned by his relatives and felt by his neighbors and fellow-citizens. He died professing unshaken confidence in his Saviour, and closed his life peacefully and calmly.

AXIS.—In Gallatin City, on the morning of the 15th of February, 1873, of supposed congestion of the brain, Mrs. L. A. Akin, aged 10 years, 8 months and 10 days.

Little NELLIE was a good girl and a general favorite. This was evidenced by the very large company of sympathizing friends that accompanied her remains to the grave.
We append the following beautiful lines, dedicated to the stricken parents, as a fitting tribute to the memory of their precious little daughter:

NELLIE IS AN ANGEL.
BY MISS L. B. CURTIS.
Our Nellie is an angel,
So joyous and so bright;
She is singing songs of gladness,
In heav'n where all is light.
Yes, Nellie is an angel,
A shining crown of gold,
Rests upon her fair young brow,
She's now in Jesus' fold.

Our Nellie is an angel,
Array'd in spotless white;
She's free from earthly trouble,
From sorrow and from strife.
Yes, Nellie is an angel,
Her little heart is pure,
Her little hands are clean,
She'll sing forevermore.

Our Nellie is an angel,
Back to the world of sorrow—
O sickness, pain and care;
No, let our little angel
Rest with the God of Love,
Her happy little spirit
Has rock'd in heav'n above.
