Amateur Concert.

On Monday evening last the Young Men's Association Hall was filled to repletion with an appreciative audience to witness the Amateur Concert advertised in our last paper. Expectation was on a high and almost every family in Bozeman was represented, with young and old. The programme indicated the talent that was to be represented on the occasion, and each felt a lively interest in the respective performers. To many who assisted in the performances the position was new and perhaps embarrassing, but as it progressed they entered into the spirit of the occasion and acquitted themselves in a manner that would have done credit to skilled actors. The arrangements of the stage were very appropriate considering the limited space which was assigned.

The concert commenced with piano duet, "Jolly Brothers," by Miss Fridley and Mr. Taylor, which was most beautifully executed. Next, vocal solo, "Waiting," by Mrs. Willson, was rendered in inimitable style. The tableau, "Faith, Hope and Charity," by Misses K. Bogert, Graham and Fridley, was superior in costumes and attitudes, and elicited rounds of applause. The piano solo, "Martha," by Miss Bogert, was executed tastefully and evinced great perfection in musical attainment. Vocal solo, Miss Crittenden, was melodious and sweet, and decidedly accurate in the whole execution. Tableau—"Croquet," Misses Morton, K. Bogert and Dr. Glazier, with solo by Mrs. Willson, was the most successful part of the whole performance, and received the greatest applause from the audience. Miss Morton never appeared to better advantage, whilst Miss Bogert's appearance in the branches of the pine as snow, viewing the lone scene enacted by her daughter and her gay cavalier, was a rich scene, and convulsed all with uproarious laughter. "Norma," bargo solo, by Mr. Lewis, was a fine piece of music, and well did he execute it. The audience made repeated calls for Mr. Lewis, and he gave them several pieces that furnished a great deal of amusement, and he was enthusiastically applauded. Tableau—"The Coquette," by Miss Morton and Judge Langhorne was another success in the programme. Miss M. was again at home and did the part in style and effect that demonstrated that she had acquired her tact in this performance by much practice and rehearsal. The Judge showed that he had, also, performed his part frequently before. This tableau again captivated the spectators, and was encored until it had to be repeated again and again. The piano solo, "The Coquette," by Miss Fridley, had a sweetness about it that was felt by all. The performer, though young, has a sweet voice, and her musical attainments are of a high order. She did all her parts perfectly and successfully, but seemed wholly unconscious of their truly meritorious character, and how greatly she was contributing to the enjoyment of those in attendance. Tableau, "Old Folks," Miss Bogert and Gen. Willson, with solo by Mrs. Willson, was admirably done, and both Miss B. and the General succeeded in their respective characters, eliciting rounds of applause. Piano duet, by Mrs. Perkins and Miss Crittenden, afforded a great deal of delight, and was well done. "The Anvil Chorus," in which Mrs. Willson, Dr. Glazier, Dr. Mussigbrod, Mr. Strauss, Mr. McPherson and Mr. Taylor participated, was one of the best features of the concert, and was highly appreciated by the audience. "The Cavalier," by Miss Bogert, is a fine piece of music, and the performer did full justice to the composer.

The whole concluded with a National Tableaux "Hail Columbia" by chorus. Misses Graham, Hoppy, Fridley, Morton and Dawes were the representatives of the characters. Miss Rosa Fridley was the Goddess of Liberty, Miss M. the Morton represented the South, Miss Dawes the North, Miss Graham the East, and Miss Hoppy the West. The costumes were rich and appropriate, and the young ladies never looked more beautiful and bewitching.

We feel that we have not done this most excellent concert the justice its merits deserve. To appreciate all of its excellencies one should have been there to enjoy it. The concert was in aid of the Library and the ladies generously came forward and gave their time and talents to the good cause, and they deserve the thanks and gratitude of all for their noble efforts. Too much praise cannot be bestowed upon Mr. J. V. Bogert, President of the Young Men's Association, for his indefatigable exertions to make the concert a success, and all bear testimony to his untiring zeal and careful management on the occasion. He is always earnest in all his efforts, and never fails of success. General Willson, C. L. Clark, Major Bowen, Dr. Monroe, Thos. Baker, Judge Langhorne, and Mr. McDonald were very efficient and worked with pleasure on the occasion. The concert was repeated on Tuesday evening, and several changes were made in the programme. Whilst the hall was not so much crowded, the performance was not inferior to that of Monday evening.

Public Meeting.

On Friday evening, December 27, 1913, the committee appointed to prepare a charter for the town of Bozeman, will report at the hall of Speth & Krug, Main Street. All the citizens of the place are invited to attend.

JNO. F. BRUCE, Chairman.

BACK of our office is a pen containing about thirty live turkeys, which belong, we believe, to our friend Martin. They have been engaged the past few days in keeping up an incessant gobble, which reminded us somewhat of the Chinese dialect. Whisky Jack says they are engaged in giving vent to the natural maledictions of a fowl race to the innovations of modern civilization in having so many thanksgiving and holidays, the turkey being sacrificed as essential to a proper observance of such occasions.

Painters and Glaziers, Attention!

You can find a full and complete assortment of PAINTS, OILS, WINDOW GLASS, PUTTY, PAINT BRUSHES and every article in your line at the new Drug Store of W. W. MORRIS, a few doors east of Lamm & Co.'s, Bozeman.

MINERS' Notices and all Legal advertisements must be paid in advance to insure insertion in the COURIER.

SPRINGVILLE.—William Logan has the accounts due us for subscription to collect, and all indebted are requested to settle as early as they can with him.

LOVERS of the balls and cue will find every requisite for enjoyment and exercise at Williams & Murray's Billiard Hall, next door to the North Pacific Hotel.

We learn that Col. L. M. Black was in Washington on the 7th inst., but expected to spend Christmas at his home in St. Joseph, Mo., after which he will return to Washington.

Reception and Entertainment.

The reception and entertainment given by the members of Lincoln Lodge No. 40, I. O. G. T., to the members of the neighboring Lodges, on Wednesday evening, the 17th, at Fort Ellis, was one of the most pleasant affairs of the season. The tasty Lodge room and the excellent arrangements for the occasion, all gave evidence of superior and varied talents among the Good Templars at Fort Ellis, and the energy with which they are prosecuting their good work at that place. The excellent speech by Rev. J. C. Gillen, the songs, recitations, &c., by the members of Lincoln Lodge, and the presence of a number of beautiful and accomplished ladies, combined to render the occasion one long to be remembered by all visitors. The Lodge at Fort Ellis now numbers over ninety members, nearly all soldiers, and the thanks of all good Templars are due to Col. Sweltzer and other officers at that post for the encouragement which they have given the Lodge there by granting its members every privilege consistent with military duty, in return for such kindness I am quite sure that true temperance men make the best soldiers as well as the truest gentlemen in every other relation of life.

VISITOR.

FLOUR!.....OATS!.....FLOUR!

ELLIS & DAVIS

Are now prepared to receive all the Flour and Oats which may be offered in exchange for goods.

They are retailing goods at less than Helena wholesale prices.

For JUDITH BASIN.—Major Pease, Special Indian Agent, accompanied by C. W. Hoffman, Esq., Lieut. Doane and a squad of military from Fort Ellis, left on Saturday last for the Judith Basin. The Major goes to select the new reservation for the Crow Indians. He will, also, endeavor to interview the Sioux in that direction and other tribes, with a view to the establishment of friendly relations between hostile tribes, in all of which we hope he may be successful. This trip of the Major's will result, we have no doubt, in gaining some useful information in regard to routes down the Yellowstone to the Musselshell. Major Pease is alive to opening up connection with the East by good roads running from Bozeman and the other towns in the Territory in preference to the tedious route via Corinne, believing that when this is done we shall solve, in a measure, the Indian question, so far as trouble exists on that account in the region embraced by the line or survey of the Northern Pacific Railroad.

NOTICE.

The regular annual meeting of the stockholders of the First National Bank of Bozeman, for the election of Directors for the ensuing year, will be held at the office of said Association, on the SECOND TUESDAY OF JANUARY, 1914.

GEO. W. FOX, Cashier.

POSTPONEMENT.—It will be seen by the card of Gov. Bramlette, in our advertising columns, that the Fourth Gift Concert of the Public Library of Kentucky announced for December 31 had been postponed until March 31st. The reasons for this postponement, which no doubt have already suggested themselves to the public mind, are clearly and succinctly stated by Gov. Bramlette. They are, in brief, the financial troubles throughout the land, the yellow fever epidemic in the south, and the general impression prevalent that these causes would complicate the postponement now announced. Notwithstanding these drawbacks the result has certainly been surprising. The manager now has exceeding a million of dollars on deposit in the Farmers' and Drivers' Bank, and, although a half-drawing was practicable, yet it was deemed more satisfactory to have a short postponement and thus secure a full drawing. That the postponement will be generally approved, and that it will result in a full drawing March 31st, we presume cannot be doubted.

Harrington, Baker & Co.

Have just received a complete assortment of LADIES', MISSES', CHILDREN'S AND MEN'S Arctic Over Shoes and Buffalo Lined Boots and Shoes.

SEVERE ACCIDENT.—On Friday last, while a son of Mr. Stockwell, living six or eight miles below Bozeman, was engaged in swinging, he accidentally fell from the swing when some twenty feet in the air, and striking the hard ground, was severely injured, having his right leg fearfully broken, and other portions of his body being bruised. Dr. Crepin was called; set his broken limb, and had the youth brought to town, so that he could have immediate medical attention until danger was over. The boy is about twelve years old, and is doing well under the circumstances.

Our town was enveloped in a regular London fog Friday. The chickens were mystified. Our old red rooster, which came down from his roost at early dawn, and crowed lustily for days, with a few extra clarion notes thrown in for Christmas, returned to his roost in disgust, and made preparations to accompany the Millerites in their ascent to a better and less gloomy world.

We acknowledge the receipt of a complimentary ticket to the course of lectures to be delivered in Deer Lodge City during the winter for the benefit of the Library Association of that place. The course was inaugurated by a lecture from Hon. D. S. Wade, Chief Justice, followed by Hon. W. F. Sanders, Our Deer Lodge friends have exhibited commendable enterprise in establishing a library there, and we wish they success. We should take pleasure in availing ourselves of the privileges of the ticket kindly furnished us should circumstances permit.

A. M. BERRY, Esq., and lady, of Nevada, arrived in Bozeman on Saturday evening last and are visiting their brother-in-law Judge H. N. Maguire. Mr. and Mrs. Berry have been spending some weeks on Meadow creek with Mrs. Walton, mother of Mrs. B. We hope their friends will conclude to make Montana their home. We doubt if they will find a home anywhere else that has so promising a future as Eastern Montana.

TO SUBSCRIBERS.—We have recently made out the accounts of a number of subscribers to the COURIER who receive their papers at post offices outside of Bozeman and sent them to the Postmasters for collection. It is hoped that as we have not heretofore been very pressing, our friends will pay their accounts promptly, as the paper cannot be run without money. It is our desire to close up all accounts due the office up to October 1, 1913.

GREAT EXCITEMENT! REMOVED!

Ellis & Davis Have again received a heavy stock of ASSORTED MERCHANDISE, and have determined to make a Further Reduction in the Prices! We guarantee to Undersell Every House in the Territory FROM TWENTY TO THIRTY PER CENT. Remember the old stand, second door east of the brick hotel. We keep the largest and best assortment in Bozeman.

Dr. HUNTER was up this week from his Springs on the Yellowstone. The road to the Judith Basin passes by the Doctor's place, and he reports considerable travel in that direction. Dr. Hunter expects quite an influx of settlers into his neighborhood next season. It is certainly an inviting section for those seeking new, desirable and profitable locations for homesteads.

The pork packing establishment of Messrs. Mardin & Myers is one of the institutions of Bozeman. The heavy receipts keep one man constantly at the scales. We noticed a few evening's since a train of six wagons in front of their establishment waiting to be overloaded. One lot received averaged over three hundred pounds to the hog.

NOTICE.

All persons indebted to the undersigned by note or account are requested to call and settle immediately. Grain and produce will be taken at market prices.

Clark, our new Sheriff, appears to be perfectly at home in his office, giving proper attention to his duties, and will make a good officer.

I WILL be prepared in a few days to fill the orders of those who have subscribed for the "Lee Monument Portrait" of Gen. Robert E. Lee, and will have also some extra copies for new subscribers. Those who wish to secure copies of this excellent picture of the great American General should call at this office and leave their names.
