

Calendar table for April 1877 showing days of the week and dates.

RELIGIOUS.

Services at the M. E. Church each Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Sunday school at 2:30 p. m. Prayer meeting each Thursday evening.

St. James' Church. Services each Sunday morning and evening at the usual hours. Sunday School immediately after morning services.

Local Matters.

Removal. The Courier now occupies its new office. The press room is upon the first floor, and the editorial sanctum on the second.

Montana Presbytery. The annual meeting was held on Tuesday at Hamilton. We have arranged for a report of proceedings, which we shall publish next week.

The Mail's. The independent objects to our complaints over mail delays. We still, and with others, complain. We believe there is something wrong.

Farm For Sale. A farm of 220 acres adjoining Bozeman. Improvements, one log house, corrals, fencing, 25 acres broken. Will sell cheap. Apply to W. W. Alderson at the Courier office.

Delegate Maginnis. It appears, we are closeted with the Gould-Dillon N. and S. Railroad party at New York during its consideration of the subsidy proposition. Is that the way in which Mr. Maginnis fosters the interests of Montana?

To Dairyman. For sale—very low—one 110 Gallon Cheese Vat, with Heater attached, four patent Extension Hoops, two Screw Presses, and all first-class apparatus for cheese dairy.

Elias Spurling. places us under constant obligations for reliable news from the Yellowstone. Such correspondence is not only welcome to us, but valuable to our readers. We ask correspondence from all who have "items" to give, for (and we say it advise) of such is the kingdom of Heaven.

Helena Fair. We have received the Premium List for present year, and at the proper time shall publish extracts. In the meantime our copy is subject to inspection of our farmers, who, we hope, may conclude to "show up" Gallatin county on the 24th of next September.

The Bruce Farm. We call attention to Major Bruce's advertisement. This property is very eligibly located near town, is well fenced, broken and ready for crop, while the buildings erected by him for his own use are first class in all respects. He will sell very reasonably.

The First Boat. Mr. Elias Spurling writes us, that the first boat of the season was launched on the 28th, at Stillwater, and started for Tongue River that day, manned by Messrs. Brown, Seward, Walters, Whipple, Milliken, R. Eser, Shafer, and Gore. It is loaded with personal supplies only—the owners intending to locate at Tongue River.

The Agency Story. We are authorized by Messrs. Fridley & Ash and Mr. Wakefield to contradict the story of the Times, that they were roughly used by Agent Carpenter, and ordered off the Reserve to which they had gone to dispose of horses to the Crows. Nothing of the kind occurred, and the story was aggravating alike to all parties, as Mr. Carpenter, who is hospitable to the last degree to all visitors, gave no cause of offense whatever.

M. E. Church, South. The District Conference was held at Willow Creek Church, on the 16th ult. Present—Ministers: M. H. Spencer, L. B. Stahler, D. Morton, and E. J. Stanly. Lay: M. McGraw, W. B. Tinsley, Geo. L. Duke, J. Winsley, E. S. Banta, G. Haskins. The following were elected Lay delegates: A. Collett, Prichy C. Peck, E. G. Brooke, A. Whitcomb, M. H. Spencer, Bozeman; R. Childs, Missoula; Alternates: C. E. Kemp, Helena; L. Duke, Willow Creek; J. T. Robinson, Corvallis; Thomas Kemper, Deep Creek. We understand the next District Conference will be held at Boulder. Having no official report, we may not be wholly correct in all particulars.

A number of our citizens have tried Jackson's Wonderful Oil and recommend it very highly.—Madisonian.

THE CAMPAIGN.

Latest News.

[Specials to Courier.] CAMP BGM TRIMMER. April 2, 77. Column just here.—Roads terrible.—Reach Stillwater 4th.

CAVALRY. St. Paul, March 29, 77. Reports reach here of surrender at Tongue River Post of nearly 100 Sioux, and more expected. C. P.

Dr. Lamme was at St. Paul on the 14th inst. Mrs. Worsham left for San Francisco on Monday, in search of health.

Star and Bucklock, late of Helena, have located a bonanza near Lead City, Black Hills.

Geo. E. McKinsey has returned to Gallatin County, and will put in a crop upon his farm near town.

Agent Carpenter and Mr. Ruinsford are in town attending to the matter of Agency supplies.

Col. L. M. Black left Washington for Bozeman about two weeks since, and may be expected at any time.

Col. Brackett, now commandant at Fort Sanders, was lately thrown from his horse and severely bruised.

G. W. Wakefield visits Raymond Bros. of Virginia City, with the intention of purchasing a fine stallion of that firm.

Mr. Pratt, the Government freight contractor for present fiscal year, is in town. Mr. Jas. G. Dow will act as his local agent.

W. L. Perkins has purchased a large interest in the Clark's Fork Smelting Co.'s stock, and will actively participate in the operations of the company.

H. N. Maguire has issued from the press, "The Black Hills, and American Wonderland." The volume is devoted to descriptions of the Hills and Eastern Montana. We have ordered copies, which, when received, will be on sale at this office.

It is rumored that Mrs. C. L. Clark will presently return to Bozeman for permanent residence. Mr. Clark will probably remain at Deadwood, where his business is flourishing. A letter from Mr. Morrill to Mr. Cleveland states that they feed 150 horses nightly, over and above their own stock.

R. v. Mr. Hewitt left for Hamilton and Helena on Tuesday, accompanied by Mr. Hedge. The Rev. gentleman made an unusually favorable impression here, both as a divine and a man. His resemblance in appearance and manner to Bishop Tuttle is marked—a compliment to both gentlemen, evidently.

Mr. Thos. Baker, now assistant editor of the Madisonian, will be remembered here as one of the Pick and Plow, Courier and the Montanaian; and, as the New North-West says, "he made an interesting local page without ever descending to vileness or viciousness." As we say here— "How!"

Easter Sunday. The Easter service at St. James' Church called out a full congregation. The church was elegantly decorated with flowers contributed by the ladies, conspicuous among which were the donations of Mrs. Lamme and Mrs. Bowen. The choir, consisting of Mrs. Bowen, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Taylor, Miss Bogert, and Mr. Taylor, executed most superbly the music of the day.

Rev. Mr. Hewitt, of Helena, preached an eloquent sermon at the M. E. Church, which was kindly tendered the Presbyterian Society by Rev. Mr. Long and the Trustees, Presiding Elder Asbury Riggan also being present. In the evening, at suggestion of Mr. Hewitt, a conference meeting was held, in which Messrs. Long, Hewitt, and Helges took part. Altogether it was an interesting Sunday to Bozeman.

S. W. Langhorne. Call and examine my stock, if you want anything in the line of Patent Medicines, Perfumery, Paints, Oils, Window Glass, Toilet articles, &c. I deal largely in Garden Seeds, Fishing Rods, and Fishing Tackle of every description. Pocket Cutlery, superior quality. Orders from the country promptly attended to, and goods guaranteed as represented. I will not be undersold in my line of goods. I am here to stay with the people of Gallatin County and desire patronage. 21st

Notice. All persons indebted to me are requested to call and settle as soon as possible. I need the money in my business. 18th

The Indian Ring. We have just discovered that the Benton Record finds it easier to preach than to practice—the following elegant and unfounded item having appeared in its columns: "In this week's issue of the COURIER, Mr. J. V. Bogert announces himself associate boss of the resuscitated Indian Ring organ. Glad to hear from you again, Vesuvius."

It will be time enough to denounce the COURIER as an "Indian Ring organ," or any species of organ, when it shall prove itself such. As the Record has of late assumed much virtuous indignation over the degradation of journalism (having devoted several columns to condemnation of newspaper scurrility and uncalculated for personal abuse), the elegant extract above shows exactly how much principle lies at the bottom of its defense of respectability.

Before it direct more criticism against the Herald had it not better brush up its own manners a little? However, one redeeming feature remains—the Record did not send us our copy of its issue containing the mentioned tid-bit. Was it ashamed to?

Custer County. We are advised that immediate steps will be taken to organize this county—a move in the right direction.

Courier Clubs. Any person sending us five cash subscriptions will receive the COURIER one year gratis.

Our School House.

Hon. Cornelius Helges during his late visit expressed great interest in the matter of our projected school house. He, so far as Helena is concerned, corroborates the testimony of Mr. Raymond of Virginia City—viz: the good business and population results have more than offset the debt so far incurred. We trust his next visit may be early necessitated by the completion of the building, which is demanded by the best interests of both town and county.

The Trustees have sent to the East for the necessary bonds, and are investigating the question of plan, fittings, etc. We do not doubt a ready and good market for the bonds—the bank will largely invest, many of our citizens stand ready, and Mr. Stary has ordered purchase of them on his account. Let the good work begin without delay.

That R. R. Supplement. The Independent don't like it, and despairingly asks if somebody won't "wake up that live journal, the AVANT COURIER, and inform it there won't be any election." And then it asserts, that Supplement propounds "conundrums"—and "shrieks frantically"—and "wildly calls"—and "howls." And then it says the Gallatinites want "the country fenced in"—and "must get up meetings"—and "must let off steam," etc., ad infinitum.

But then, gentlemen, Gallatin county has had some experience with "you fellows," and thinking safety is upon the safe side, did as the New North-West records, viz: "Bozeman thought the railroad corporation was going to make a still hunt, and construed the "silent tactics" as a dangerous menace and struck out in bold opposition a week or two ago."

We guess no one was hurt, except the patriots who can't answer that Supplement.

The New Mail Routes. Postmaster Taylor has been requested to furnish the P. O. Department with data regarding the line of the following named mail routes—established by Act of Congress of March 31, viz: "Bozeman to Cheyenne."

"Bozeman to Bozeman, via Tongue river and Forts Sary and Tullock, the Rosebud and Fort Ellis."

"Deadwood to Bozeman, via Tongue, Big Horn, and Stillwater rivers."

Postmaster DeWilling is also preparing data covering the route established by same Act from "Springfield, Dakota, to Virginia City, via Custer City."

These routes, of so great import to Montana, will soon be advertised, and we are advised that prominent Eastern contractors and stage-men are now on the way here to investigate, preparatory to bidding upon the coming postal contracts over them.

Those R. R. Speeches. The Madisonian waxes sarcastic. Alluding to Judge Davis' address, it says: "Old Facts and Figures" is wrong again. The company don't want the bonds. Judge—wouldn't have 'em, no how! Ain't you sorry you spoke?"

Well, we guess he isn't. His arguments will do to save-up for some other rainy day.

It then complains to Major Bruce: "Major Bruce, single-handed, fought the anti railroad forces of the Eastern Metropolis combined, and made a gallant stand in behalf of the North and South railroad project. We are glad to see that the veteran journalist is on the side of progress."

Yes, the Major did his earnest best, but though no one questions his sincerity, no one remembers his line of argument. You see, no one ever defended a more unpopular side than the Major did, and it was love's labor lost.

Fort Ellis. As much anxiety prevails regarding the future of Fort Ellis, we have taken steps to inform ourselves, and hope soon to report positive data for publication in the COURIER.

Gen. Blaine thinks the post must remain a Cavalry head-quarters for some years to come, and a personal St. Paul letter concludes thus: "The 2nd Cavalry will not return to you, but I have some reason to think Ellis will remain a Cavalry post for at least two years. Of course, no one yet knows positively, but you may, I think, lose your 'critter companies' this year."

Major Benham is now in command. Lieut. Worden Post Adjutant and Commissary.

Capt Marshall remains at Ellis, his order to the field having been countermanded by Dept. Headquarters.

It is rumored that Col. Gilbert, now at Camp Baker, is ordered to the command of Ellis, and will be accompanied by two additional companies of Infantry. Col. Gilbert is one of the most accomplished officers of the service, and we hope his transfer to this post may be permanent.

Tongue River and Big Horn Posts. In reply to several enquiries, we state that when Gen. Sheridan requested the $300,000 appropriation for the two new posts, he agreed to abandon six of the old ones—which ones is not, so far as we know, yet decided upon. From a distance published last year (a copy of which is on file at Fort Ellis), it appears that the Tongue river post will be 130 miles from that on the Big Horn, taking it for granted the latter will be located at mouth of the Little Big Horn. The Tongue river post is about 230 miles, and the Big Horn post (if located as stated) will be 369 miles from the mouth of the Yellowstone.

The latter will, as we lately stated, be built of logs—the former of material purchased last season, the present stock also to be destroyed, or used as adjuncts to the new buildings. Both will be 12 company posts—and the quantity of supplies required will be the same at both.

Expeditions are fitting out for the Big Horn country in Utah, Nebraska, etc.—the head waters being the point aimed for. That a large influx of population will result this season we cannot doubt, but that the business will be over done, to the injury perhaps of those who go from here, is not improbable. Look, before you leap.

Let us be clean, in order that we may be healthy. To be thoroughly so, and to counteract eruptive tendencies and render the skin white and smooth, let us use Glenn's Sulphur Soap. No eruption can withstand it.

Bozeman Items.

A miners' and stock holders' meeting of the Bozeman Mining Company will be held at the Gulch on the 7th inst.

The Fontenelle and Peninah will operate upon the Yellowstone this season, says a St. Paul letter—which adds, that possible changes in the military programme may cause an attempt to carry public supplies as far up the river as its channel will permit.

Mr. Okwood's residence will have the finest doors and windows in town. A $100 front door is worth notice in hard times.

The second boat of the present Yellowstone season will be Horenden's, loaded with sutler supplies. Horenden offers to carry mail to the command.

T. B. Warfield (sheriff Ralston having resigned prior to departure for Tongue River) will act until a regular appointment can be made. We vote for Thomas, every time.

Ed. Hubbard has become a partner in Oakwood's saloon and bowling alley.

A good quality of Seasoned Lumber of all kinds, in quantities to suit pur-chasers. T. BRUNETT.

Attention Farmers! The experience of last season should teach farmers and dairy men that a market may be made in the country below by attention to its peculiar needs. Among the articles we advise production of are 5 pound cheeses, 5 pound packages of thoroughly good, well-worked and salted butter, put up in air-tight cans or pails—onions, parsnips, carrots, prepared hot and cold horse radish, and slaw, etc. Such things will no doubt be in demand, and there is money in them.

Work Horses, Mares, and Mules, at low figures, for sale by T. BRUNETT.

See Here, Herald! By reference to another column the Herald's admiration for the "un-unities of civilization," etc., etc., will be noticed. But, by reference to the Herald of March 31st, it will be seen that its said admira-tion hasn't yet cured it of appropriating without credit the COURIER'S Campaign mat-ter. It gibbets from us, without so much as saying, thank you. Would a railroad teach it better? If so, we'll build one for it.

Valley Mills. John J. Tomlinson, Esq., by reput-one of the best millers in the Territory, and a machinist without a superior, is now prepared to do custom work. The terms of his fine mill are 1-8 toll—the guarantee being about 50 lbs. of flour and shorts from 1 bushel of good wheat.

Mr. Tomlinson has struggled long and hard to get his mill in working order, and we rejoice over his final success. It is first class in all respects, and, in connection with the saw and planing mills, must command a good business. Mr. Tomlinson invites inspection both of the mill and its work.

Good, Dry Cord Wood—Pine and Quakingasp—delivered on short notice. T. BRUNETT.

New Post Freights. On the 15th ult. the bids upon river transportation of supplies to and for the two new posts were opened at St. Paul. A portion of the supplies will be freighted by river to Bismarck, and from there by subject to further orders as regards mode of delivering at destination.

The bids for the Missouri section of the contract ran from 14 to 30 cents, award being made to Jno. R. Davis of St. Paul; at 15 cents, who was the successful competitor for the Yellowstone, at 57 1/2 cents; the bids running from 41 cents to 2 dollars.

Ja-kon's Wonderful Oil cures Lam Back.

To Tongue River. Basinski Bros., represented by the brothers Samu and Simon, started their teams on Monday, accompanied by Caffee, the photographer. His partner, Calin, went ahead with their outfit. Messrs. Allen and Williams (late of the COURIER) also left the same day.

Messrs. Brewer, King and others will next week start from Benson's in a boat now building, loaded with their personal stock.

Fort Sully. General orders, No. 3, Department of Dakota, state: Under executive order of January 17, 1877, the military reservation of Ft. Sully, described in general orders No. 79, of 1869, from these headquarters, and declared by the President on the 10th day of December, 1869, is reduced by leaving out therefrom that portion which lies within the Sioux Indian Reservation as described in the treaty of 1868, to wit: all that portion of the military reservation as described in general orders No. 79, of 1869, from these headquarters, which lies to the west of the left bank of the Missouri river.

The Nez Perces. The Miscellaneous products possible trouble with this tribe. Joseph refuses to return to the reservation—saying he would do the first, and silencing those who wish to do the order. He had sent runners to several other bands, asking them to rally within two weeks at Wall-owa, as well receiving into his camp discontented Umattilas and Palouses, while even reservation Indians signify an intention to join him. He had sent word to these outside bands "that he was going to have a fight with the whites, and to come prepared to help him."

Garden Seeds AT OSBORN'S DRUG STORE, CHEAPER And as good as were ever sold in Montana 203

Wilson & Rich. Announce that in making preparation for a large stock of goods in the Spring, now offer their splendid stock of Ladies' Dress Goods, Trimmings and Furnishing Goods, at Cost. Also Clothing, Hats and Caps, Gent's Furnishing Goods, Scarfs, &c., &c. The public will do well to examine this stock. Would also state that in putting in our supply for the coming season, we need all money due us, and must call on all delinquents to come forward and settle. We are now receiving by express the latest styles of Hats, Ladies' Ties, Handkerchiefs, &c., which we offer at very low prices. 6-134.

Brisbin City and Milesburg.

Brisbin City—the proposed new name of Baker's Battle Ground—and Milesburg situated about two miles below Tongue river Cantonment, promise to be multiple places of note. Messrs. Pease, Black & Kicadden have a large stock of goods at Milesburg, and have or will have an equally extensive one at Brisbin City. Buildings are erecting at both points, and these locations will doubtless prove havens of rest to the large influx of this season's travel both up and down the lower country. At last the dreams (?) of Eastern Montana in general, and of Bozeman in particular, regarding the Yellowstone and the Big Horn are promised realization.

As a few days ago, we looked over the papers of the most ridiculed "Yellowstone Wagon Road Expedition" of 1874, we could but notice that Tongue river (now on everybody's lips) was the point aimed at by the Expedition. We were conquered then, but not subdued.

St. Louis Imperial at Odell's Hall. Wonderful. Bennett's "Magic Cure" for rheuma-tism, neuralgia or chronic pains in any part of the body, is unquestionably the best remedy ever used for complaints of this character. We simply ask you to try it and be convinced. Sold at the Drug Houses in Bozeman. 61y.

A Steamer! The assay returns from Clarke's Fork are continue so very flattering, and the investment would in so many ways prove beneficial and remunerative, that the project of local ownership of a small, light draft steamer for the Upper Yellow-stone is receiving favorable consideration. That it would pay there is no doubt, and that it would have work to do during the whole of every season is evident. The new country below will make both pas-senger and freight business both ways—and as the enterprise will, if carried out, be in capable hands, we hope to be able soon to record its organization.

Bass & Co's., Ale Odell's Hall. Yellowstone vs. Missouri. The Benton Record says: "The North West states: 'We understand Mr. J. V. Bogert, of Bozeman, will probably be the New York Herald reporter with Miles' command in the coming campaign.' Thus, according to the report published on our local page (regarding Sitting Bull at Beaver Creek), Mr. J. V. B. will do his Faber-shoving on this side of the "Big Muddy," and will probably have the pleasure of meet-ing the steam of Yellowstone when she comes to B.nton."

To which we respond, that notwith-standing our ambivalence, the upsetting of all our theories by the spectacle of that steamer at B.nton this season must cause us— "To tear our hair, And tumble in the mud, Till all the ground For miles around Is kivered with our blood."

Sour mash whisky at Odell's Hall. Holloway's Pills and Ointment. Scrofula was considered incurable until the great discovery of "Holloway's Pills and Ointment" flashed upon the world. Diseases which baffle the skill of the medical school's readily yield to these peerless remedies. Scoury, Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Itch, and all cutaneous raptions are curable by them. 25 cents per box or pot.

Popular illustrated book (50 pages) on MARRIAGE, WIDOWHOOD, MARRIAGE Impediments to Marriage; the cause and cure. Sent securely sealed, post paid for 50 cents, by Dr. C. WHITTIER, 677 St. Charles Street, St. Louis, Mo., the great specialist. Read his works.
