Bozeman Items. Hot—and lemons only 12 cents a dozen—at New York.

The Pony site was filed upon at the local land office on the 20th.

The Fridley & Ash teams have gone to Whitehall, loaded with Overland Stage Co. coats.

L. M. Black has sold his fine store, corner Main and Black streets, to Geo. W. Fox, of Helena.

Mr. Seignor, of Helena, is here inspecting the school house plans, with the intention of bidding upon the contract.

Messrs. Black and Daniels will soon open a general mercantile and freighting business at the corner of Black and Main streets.

The new COWBEE material, by steamer Benton, is now due. We hope to appear in our new dress and enlarged form by August 1st.

On Saturday next at noon, Mr. Dawes will sell at auction the household effects of Rev. Mr. Dickey. The sale will be held at the late residence of Arch Graham, Esq.

Nelson Story has purchased the Lund herd of beef cattle. While attempting to cross them over the Yellowstone, several of the driving party narrowly escaped drowning.

Mess. Lumme & Co., Ellis & Davis, Strasburger & Sperling, Bastinski, L. S. Wilson, Taylor, Cooper, Langborne, Brunett, Nichols and Osborn are receiving new goods.

Town improvements continue. Ponsford has laid a new sidewalk—Warfield is adding a wooden awning to his shop front—the bank has been newly papered and painted—Marston has erected an addition to his residence—Basinski is constructing three new show windows, and Cooper and Taylor have each added one to their stores. D. Macey has opened his new meat market, and Miss McClaren's elegant millinery establishment is ready for occupation.

Personal. Tyler McCleese has returned from Bismarck, reporting the early arrival here of Mr. Mouton.

John Work has abandoned the Black Hills, and will soon resume his Montana citizenship.

Mess. Grosbon, Switzer and Greenhood have been here, taking orders and "doing" the town generally.

Mess. Kirby and Walton, of Meadow Creek, passed through town on Tuesday, bound upon a tour of observation down the Yellowstone.

Col. Black has gone below, but will return after arranging to cut 1000 tons of hay for the Big Horn and Tongue river demands.

Capt. Kawn, commanding the Missoula Post, was severely injured in the spine while hunting last week. He will be confined to his bed for some time.

The Broadwater flatboat swamped on the way to the Cantonment. Some supplies were lost, but no lives, and the boat righted again, the trip was resumed.

Superintendent Norris is not to be deterred by difficulties. Determined to visit the Custer battlefield and finding his plans to accompany the removal party checkmated, he started out alone from Fort Pease, crossing the Big Horn twice in an old hollowed out log. The result of his energy was shown in his Battlefield dispatch to last week's COURIER.

Crow Agency. The supplies and annuity goods have reached the Agency. During the visit of Rev. Clarke Wright he baptised eighteen children and two adults, and at request of Agent Frost five white men were married to their Crow wives. Ex-agent Carpenter is closing up his business, preparatory to returning East.

Clark's Fork Bottom. P. W. McAdow and Mr. Stone have returned from the Yellowstone, both of them enthusiastic over the agricultural facilities of the Clark's Fork section. Mr. McAdow has finally concluded to locate his mill near Canon Creek, and will put in a large out crop next year. The Routes, Stones, Perkins and others will also open land there, and a ditch will be constructed from the Yellowstone early in the spring.

The National Park. Superintendent Norris has arrived here and departed for the Park on Tuesday. With his accustomed energy he has entered upon his duties without delay, and issued the following notice from this office: "Notice is hereby given that extreme caution is necessary and required in building and extinguishing fires within the Park. Vandals in breaking, defacing, or carrying off cones or specimens from the Geysers or Hot Springs of any section of the Park is prohibited. Also, wanton destruction of game, fish or fowl is in violation of law. Full public sentiment, the future attractiveness of Wonderland, and the good fame of Montana alike forbid violation of this notice.

P. W. NORRIS, Supt."

He hopes for Congressional assistance in the near future, and we feel assured he will exert himself to the utmost to secure it in the best interests of the Park.

The Campaign.

Up to the hour of going to press, we are without definite news from the command. The Rosebud reached the Cantonment on the 16th, with Gen's Sherman, Terry, Miles, Hazen, and others. The party will be escorted by L company, 2d Cavalry, to Bozeman and thence to the Geysers.

All steamers there and below have been seized for U. S. transportation purposes. Mulligan, of L company, 2d Cavalry, had been shot fatally at Miles City by Clarry of the same company.

The Black train was moving toward the Big Horn, loaded for Black & Daniels.

County Fairs. Gallatin County Fair will be held about the time Gabriel blows his horn.

The Helena Fair will open September 24th. Why don't the Association circulate their Premium List? There is a call for it, but no supply, and people are left ignorant of its provisions.

The Missoula Fair will open October 9th, the Premium List covering $3000.

Grasshoppers. Grasshoppers by the 10,000 invaded the valley last week, but have disappeared almost wholly from our immediate vicinity.

Outside of damage to gardens and some injury to the grain crops, we do not yet hear of much serious results. Next week we shall report result of investigation of rumors of extensive damage to wheat and oats in all directions, East and West of town.

Who's Secretary? The Herald publishes an "article" under the above heading, calculated to carry the impression that Mr. Mills cannot "prove up" as Secretary.

The facts are simply these, as we understand the matter—Mr. Mills' final bond had not reached Washington, which coming to the "ears" of the Herald, it insults itself by questioning his bona fide appointment. The Herald might engage in better business.

Volunteers. We understand that the Governor's request for permission to raise volunteers will not be accorded, but that the question may be re-considered upon the arrival of Gen'l Sherman. Gen'l McDowell does not favor such a movement in Idaho, having reported as follows:

"Volunteers of the character and status of those operating with General Howard would be worse than useless. If you had been here during their operations I am sure you would discourage the use of volunteers in any emergency."

It can hardly be expected that the military authorities will favor such organization unless it will consent to operate under military orders—and we hear much objection to such control here in town. This idea may be carried too far, and result in defeat of the proposition.

Fifty Years Ago. Fifty years ago, the 19th Inst. John P. Bruce first entered a printing office, and on the 19th he visited the COURIER office and celebrated the anniversary by taking a hand at the "roller." That he "rolled" energetically and "distributed" the ink evenly and not "the boys" to shame, none will doubt who observes his sly step upon the street, or witnesses the ease with which he yet mounts his horse, or the regularity with which his daily visits to town are made. Fifty years of the life of a newspaper man! they have as much crowded into them of recollection and reminiscence as the 100 years of the ordinary mortal. Fifty years! half a century of "proofs"—half a century of "date" and "item," and the editor moves about, the walking "copy" of five decades.

We trust the Major may live to "roll" out many future anniversaries, and that, hale and hearty, he may pass his last years as brightly and hopefully as he has the past; and does the present.

The Tongue River Mail. Cal. Brown has gone below to arrange for the wagon service to be operated upon the route. He assures us wagons will be run through to the Cantonment from yesterday. A large delayed mail (300 pounds) was lately forwarded from Stillwater—its delay probably accounts for the non receipt of letters and papers regarding which we have had so much complaint, but which we trust will now cease. A rumor prevails in town that the service will be reduced to semi-weekly, which we trust will not prove true. The route is too important to be so treated, and prompt action should be taken in case of any attempt to reduce its accommodation.

On Tuesday six wagons for the route arrived, and Marshal Wheeler and Probate Judge Carmichael, as first passengers, started for the Cantonment on Wednesday. The Marshal goes on official business, and will visit both Posts, hoping to return with his war-time friend, Gen. Sherman; while Judge Carmichael carried with him a new set of Custer county books and papers.

R. F. May Calls attention to his advertisement upon this page. His stock is fresh, well-selected, well-bought and seasonable. Go and see for yourself.

An Auto-Indian Race. Superintendent Norris reports a curious discovery near Trail Creek and not far from the residence of Mr. Farrell. It is nothing less than a series of shafts and remains near a limestone ridge and outside the mineral belt. Mr. Farrell reporting the existence of the excavations, Mr. Norris spent two days exploring the section of country mentioned and examining the shafts in its detail. He found over forty of them, exclusive of several ridges which had been mined for Indian paint clay.

One of the shafts was forty feet in length, twenty wide and seven high, and while he found no tools, he found worked flint stones which had been scraped, &c. dentally for arrow heads, hide scrapers, &c. The more curious discovery, however, was that of evident burial cases in which immense fires had been burned for mortuary purposes.

Mr. Norris, who has had much experience among the mounds of Ohio and other Western States, asserts his belief that these remains are of Aztec origin—their age is evidently very great, and, if genuine, which can hardly be doubted, they point to an occupation of the Yellowstone region anticipating their settlement by our known tribes.

Upon his return he proposes giving them a more thorough examination, and will resume the excavations begun last week. In the meantime he has sent the relics found to the East, for comparison with others of like appearance.

Sitting Bull.

WHERE IS HE?—THE NEZ PERCE OUTBREAK.—A WINTER CAMPAIGN.

[Special to COURIER.]

Fort Benton, July 16. My advice state that about the 1st inst. Sitting Bull was located at the Bull's Head, upper end of Cypress Mountains, making dried beef and pemmican. Camps of Piegans, Bloods, Blackfeet, Stoneyes, Crees, and others, were assisting him. He declares he will make

A WINTER CAMPAIGN, and facetiously remarks that with the aid of what is called "the line" and the ammunition his people are securing in Dakota, added to what is yet to come from his present and future plans with the Nez Perces, he will be able to bother the whites to his heart's content.

Nez Perce emissaries and Sioux met last winter on Milk River, when it was arranged that the Idaho hostiles were to raise trouble at the West, while the Sioux should follow suit at the East. I hope soon to be able to give you fuller information.

SANDY HILLS. The Bannack Removal. Much dissatisfaction exists regarding the probable removal of the Bannacks to the Yellowstone—and not only upon the river, but in the settlements between here and Helena.

Unless Ten Doy and his band are to be escorted, as by law required, through the settlements, trouble may result, and unless they be located at some specified place and kept within its limits, or sent to the Crows, we much fear not only bad feeling, but disaster.

Marshal Wheeler advises us this feeling is prevalent along the stage road, and we know personally the Yellowstone settlers strongly object to any careless removal or location of the band among them. Our people are more or less alarmed, and while such a state of feeling exists, roaming Indians may be shot down without investigation as to their hostility.

The result of anything of the kind might be bad—it might lead to trouble between whites and Bannacks, and we urge upon the Governor great care in the matter.

The Bannacks should be sent to the Agency, and placed temporarily under the charge of Agent Frost, or not be permitted to come here at all this season.

Indian Contractor's Organ. The Virago, which speaks of the Times as "our paper" (how long since, pray?), dubs the COURIER as "The Indian Ring Contractor's" organ, and the "Indian Ring Organ." Scat!

The Virago is again out of sorts—it always is when it sees a pie it can't get its claws into. The trouble this time arises from the appalling fact that Mr. Alderson being the most responsible bidder has some Indian contracts. Now look out while the Virago empties its vials of wrath, and studies over its Scandal Book for the dirtiest flings it can find. It will wholly exhaust its Blackguard Book before it lets up, and then how, old how, will it get funds for another copy!

The Yellowstone Scare. The scout of Lieutenant Wright and that of the citizens mentioned by us last week, resulted in nothing. Lieut. Wright was recalled before completing his trip, to the Missoula order making it necessary. He had moved to Deep Creek, and returned via Shields river, meeting no Indians and seeing no signs. So also with the citizen scout. We incline to the idea that a small camp of friendly Indians is moving about the Sixteen-Mile country, and that should any hostiles be about they are, yet at least, a small, stealing party.

Superintendent Norris reports being shot at twice in the lower Canon, but he saw no Indians, and suspects the Crows. The report published by the COURIER last week, that 60 lodges of Crows had left Lieut. Doane and returned to the Agency, may cover a more serious matter than we had supposed. We are informed that they left in high dudgeon over something or another, and refused to proceed with Lieut. Doane's command. Rumors again reach us of Crow disaffection, and while they may be unfounded the general emergency is such that even they should be watched. The wretches would arrive of their annuities would long since have bred an outbreak in almost any other tribe; while the uprising of their Nez Perce friends and the undoubted approach made against their loyalty by the Sioux may have increased the disaffection known to exist with a portion of the nation. True, the new agent comes at the same time with their supplies, which may have a good effect; but we counsel watchfulness and careful scouting of the Flathead and Crazy Mountain country. Ft. Ellis being now almost depleted of troops, we must, practically speaking, look out for ourselves, and farmers in exposed locations owe it to themselves not to be caught napping with their stock in the hills, guns unloaded and the passes unpatrolled.

LATER. Since the above was written information has reached us that the Flathead camp mentioned by us last week, and above referred to, has left the country via Springville. Having heard of the Idaho troubles, and fearing complications here, it was hastening rapidly, men, women and children, to rejoin the main body.

J. Tomlinson 90, Lizzie Cope 90.

S. A. GRAHAM, Teacher. Roll of Honor for Dist No. 13. Report for the week ending July 20, 1877.

Table listing names of students and their scores: Nettie Gray 98, John Murphy 91, Jess Newman 90, Bertie Reeves 90, Jess McLaugh 90, Harry Gray 90, Dew Newman 90, Della White 90, Phoebe LaFarge 90.

CAPTOLA JOHNSON, Teacher.

Fort Hills.

All ex-members of the 2d Cavalry and 7th Infantry have been requested to join the Helena Light Guards.

General Sheridan left Camp Brown on the 4th, and was expected at Fort Custer by the 26th.

Mr. Murta of the Quartermaster's office is making a collection of ferns for transmission to Boston, Mass., where we understand, an exhibition of ferns will soon be held.

On Sunday Captain Browning with 40 men left for Missoula. All the available troops of the Post, including Cavalry, were sent over. Major Benham exerted himself to retain the Cavalry detachment on account of threatened local Indian troubles, but General Gibbon had been informed by General McDowell of the probable approach of the Idaho hostiles, and it was decided to carry out the original provisions of the order. All the horses in private use, six only, were taken to assist in mounting the Cavalry, and everything was done to assist the transfer. After the column had started Gen. Gibbon telegraphed it to move rapidly and in marching order, without tents or surplus baggage. Teams will be procured at Helena, Lieut. Wright having started to join his company yesterday.

Gen'l Sherman, accompanied by Gen'l Terry and Col. Bacon and Thomas Sherman, probably reached the Cantonment on Tuesday. Grant Marsh command's the steamer Rosebud upon which the party will ascend the Yellowstone. The new Posts will first be inspected, and, proceeding to Ellis and perhaps the Park, the Missoula Post will be visited. He is reported as follows: "We shall probably spend nearly all the Summer out there; at any rate, we shall be gone from home two or three months," said the General. When asked if he would state the real object of his trip, he replied that, as in the case of General Sheridan, it was for the purpose solely of providing ample military protection to the settlements in that region, and paving the way for the emigration which is setting so strongly in that direction. He expressed the opinion that the settlement of that country would in future be so rapid that the establishment of a stage line through the Yellowstone Park to Montana and beyond would be a necessity in a few years.

Montana Notes. Gen. Morgan concludes, from his investigation at Missoula and in the Gallatin, that its Posts can be supplied more readily and cheaply by the Territory than from the East.

Harry Horr, says the Herald, will guide Frank Leslie and his artistic and literary corps through Wonderland.

The Manvers, Harris & Woods combination performance, which was regarded here as miserable, took Helena by storm. Bank Inspector Langford is expected this month.

Judge Symes, late of Montana, now of Denver, Col., has declined the Mexican mission.

Sheridan and Salisbury have organized militia companies for protection against Indians.

The Massillon mentions the introduction by the Worden Co. of a mill of the Schwab machine. It produces 40 to 45 pounds of flour to the bushel, and the middlings are three quarters white, superfine flour, and the entire product is superior to that turned out by the old process.

Notice. I hereby give notice that having sold my interest in the firm of Major & Cunnis to F. Cunnis, he will conduct the meat business in future upon his own account at the old stand. All debts due the late firm must be paid to him, and he will sever all of its liabilities. F. MAJORS.

Looky's. The new establishment, known as Looky's Glass Front, is now fitted up and filled with a choice lot of goods, which will be sold at reasonable figures for cash or its equivalent. If you don't find what you want at other places, go to Looky's; go there anyway. Fresh Bread, Crackers, etc.—everything for the freighters, miners, farmers and travelers. Will buy, sell or trade. Farm produce taken in exchange for goods. 23-1f.

The Territory. Madison. Madisonian—There are at present in Madison county more stamps employed in the reduction of quartz than in any other county in Montana. The total number now in operation is 111, of which 66 are in the Pony and Hot Springs districts, 25 at Summit, 26 at Brandon. Before the winter snow flies this number will be increased to 150; thirty of the new stamps being in course of placement at Pony and Boulder, and the remainder will be set up at Granite and Silver Star.

Lewis & Clarke. Herald.—The Helena banks, for the first six months of 1877, show a larger amount of business than for a like period of any preceding year. The receipts of gold dust are large and continuous, while the silver product has increased to a considerable item. Commercial transactions show unusual activity, and accumulating deposits a healthy and growing trade. The year's exports—counting precious metals, ores, stock, wool, hides, robes, furs, etc.—will, it is thought, exceed the merchandise imports and freights by more than $1,500,000. A vigorous Territory, this Montana.

Meagher. Husbandman.—The river mining country which we mentioned last week as having located a considerable extent of the Missouri river, have also located the river from Eldorado bar to the Bear's Paw mountain. And it is stated from good authority that the new process of mining river beds will be introduced into Montana at an early day.

Missoula. Missoulian.—Call the new Post, Camp Wright. Its distance from Missoula is 8.81 miles and it is situated on the right bank of the Bitter Root. The buildings are arranged to enclose a parade ground 350 feet square, facing the river, the officers' quarters on the side from the river and the quarters of the men on the opposite side at right angles with it. The hospital, coal, and art, are to be outside of the main quarters, and the sutler's store further down the river. Lieut. Johnson, Acting Quartermaster, is pushing the work.
