To our Subscribers.
Major John P. Bruce is the authorized agent for the COURIER, and has our accounts for subscription, etc., in his hands to collect. As we have not called on our friends out of Bozeman for payment of their indebtedness to the office, since the reorganization took charge, we will find it convenient to respond promptly when called upon.

ADLSON AND SON.
In Brief.
Lots of nice fruit at Basinski's. Montana tomatoes and cucumbers at May's. Cy. Mounts expects to open his saloon to the public Friday morning. Several lots of Montana wool have been sold in the Boston market at 35 cents. T. L. Dawes has purchased an interest in the Trading Post at the Crow Agency. Nearly every merchant in town has received new goods during the past week. Andrew Hester, formerly proprietor of the Union Mills, is visiting Bozeman after an absence of four years. Large quantities of oats are being delivered in town and we are glad to know they command a good price.

Don't fail to read the advertisement in this issue of Proposals for Hay and Oats, issued at the Crow Agency. The probabilities are that the next session of the Grand Lodge of Good Templars will be held in Butte. A quantity of canned preserved pine apples will be sold in lots to suit purchasers, Tuesday, Sept. 25th, at Fort Ellis. Nearly everyone in town is laying in a supply of wood. A fire is needed in the mornings to make folks comfortable. A detachment of broken down horses from Howard's command passed through town Sunday on their way to Ft. Ellis. The farmers of Prickly Pear valley will tolerate no hunting parties on their places, without having first obtained their consent. Possible. Monday, Wm. Flannery purchased of Kinney and Samborn a head of horses. Among them is a $1,200 stallion of Eclipse (Cal.) stock. Franks and Stone are getting their wood mill in running order, and will soon be prepared to fill any order for wood in easy desired lengths. Rev. Matthew Bird will occupy the pulpit of the M. E. Church Sunday a. m., and Rev. Wm. W. Alderson—if at home—will preach in the evening. J. V. Bogert, Receiver of the Bozeman Land Office, has removed his office from the Chesnut building to a room adjoining Mayson's jewelry store. We are informed that Frank Rich lost two valuable horses, (one a work horse, the other his saddle horse) and a saddle in the Corinne fire of the 7th inst. The day of Atoneement was fully observed in town last Monday. All Jewish stores were closed and the Israelites observed the day in fasting and prayer. We acknowledge the receipt of a complimentary copy of the Territorial Fair, and we accept it with thanks. We will visit Helena during fair week, other duties not permitting too hard. We are informed that the Times editor was around town last week trying to find a copy of his paper of the 23d ult. If he had called at our office, we would gladly have loaned him a copy. It was a little shaver not five years old, and the strong wind blew him down and rolled him over two or three times, but he succeeded in getting hold of a tuft of grass, and he held tightly to it, he exclaimed: "If you don't let go."

Information Wanted.
Captain Baker, last heard of at Dixon, Wyoming, and his brother John, formerly in the cattle business on Snake river, are inquired after by their sister. The Captain is supposed to have been murdered on Snake river at the time of a massacre there. Parties knowing anything about them will please address H. G. Harmon, Bozeman, Montana.
Emigrants.
The town is full of men, most of them direct from the Black Hills. Quite a number have succeeded in getting work and many more want it. Most of them are desirous of settling in the valley. They are a superior class of emigrants and we hope we will be able to hold out such inducements as will cause all, or at least most of them, to remain permanently with us.
To the Citizens of Bozeman.
A card of thanks.
To the many friends who, in their great kindness of heart, and with sympathy, aid and care, in my sad hour of sorrow and desolation; sympathies that did so much to alleviate the dread thought that I was forsaken by God himself, to them I return my heartfelt thanks.
MRS. GEO. F. COWAN.
"Broken Kings."
The Times has a novel but wonderfully efficacious method of breaking up Indian rings and Grange monopolies. It reminds me of the Cornlaws, they will find out that there is more brains in the Alderson family than they are willing to acknowledge. That's all right, gentlemen, but if we continue to merit, and receive the approbation of the "great reading public" in the future, as in the past, every many years we will be writing power-press editorials for you. Perhaps some Montana newspaper men have forgotten the time when they would have been glad to have had even one friend who has confidence enough in them to advance the necessary money to pay the freight on a hand-press from St. Louis to Fort Benton.

Montana Presbytery.
The Presbytery of Montana will hold its Fall meeting in Helena, Friday, October 5th, 1877, at 7 p. m., and will be in session two or three days.
A Good Joke.
A private letter from Virginia City states that his Honor, Judge Blake, kindly excused two of our prominent citizens from being on the U. S. Grand Jury, intimating that they were "more fit to be investigated than to investigate."
Potatoes and Onions Wanted.
I called Proprietors in duplicate for the day at Fort Ellis, Carpenters, or Ben's Landing of 27,000 pounds of potatoes and 25,000 pounds of onions will be placed at Fort Ellis until 12 o'clock, to-day, 20th inst. Blank proposals can be obtained at Fort Ellis of A. Commissary of Subsistence.

Personal.
John Manoj is up from Miles City. Geo. Fox returned to Helena last week. Joe Sellers went to Virginia City last week. Samuel Basinski left for Miles City last week. Al Lind left for California last Monday morning. John Mathews went to Helena on the coach Monday. Fort, Dertudio and command arrived at Fort Ellis Sunday. Mr. Oldham passed through town for Helena on Monday. Pat. Largey and wife expect to visit Bozeman before long. Dr. A. J. Hunter arrived from the Sulphur Springs Tuesday. Mike Knox arrived in town last week from the Big Horn country. Benj. F. Fridley, with the Black & Daniels' goods arrived in town Monday. Jas. Irvine, the "hell man," dressed in buckskin, has gone to Virginia. Alfred Meyers started to Jefferson yesterday. He expects to return in a few days. Col. P. W. Norris, Superintendent of the National Park, has arrived at his home in Norris, Mich. C. R. Ghilden, of Emigrant Gulch, went to Virginia yesterday. He is a witness on the O'Brien case. G. H. Campbell, of Gallatin City, arrived in town Monday, and left for home on yesterday's coach. Peter Koch and T. L. Dawes left for the Crow Agency last Thursday and returned home Monday night. Mr. M. M. Russell, from Crow Agency, arrived in town last Saturday evening and returned yesterday. Wm. H. Randall arrived in town from Tongue river last week, and is at work in Black and Daniel's store. Howard Stone arrived last week from Clark's Fork Bottom with his mother, Mrs. D. E. House and Mrs. Ida Huff. Will Sutherland, of the Husbandman, who is busy canvassing the valley in the interest of his paper, called on us last Thursday. George L. Duke and James A. Farrell, County Commissioners, were in town the early part of the week equalizing assessments. Miss Capitola Johnson, who has been teaching in the eighth district for the past three months, went to Virginia on yesterday's coach. J. H. Aylesworth and wife arrived in town from Chico Tuesday evening. They will remain in town a few days. They are stopping at the Laclede. Miss Mamie Evans leaves Fort Ellis next week for Hamilton, where she will teach a three month's term of school, commencing on the 24th inst. She would have left sooner but for the illness of her sister. Among the passengers who leave town next week, with Fridley's teams are Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, and a man whose name we did not learn, for the Old Country (Sweden). Mrs. Tracey's adopted daughter, Anna, goes with them to her former home. The many friends of Mrs. G. W. Monroe will regret to hear that she has been quite ill. She was taken sick last week, supposed to have been poisoned by autumn leaves she had been gathering. She is improving, and we hope will soon be around as usual. F. F. Fridley leaves town in a few days for Franklin to meet his wife and daughter, Mrs. Rosa Black, who have been visiting friends in the States for several months. Ben. Fridley accompanies him with his train, and expects to return with a load of fruit. A pleasant trip and speedy return.

Church Items.
New hymn books are needed at the M. E. Church.
Some person who wants to make a few dollars might get the job from the Trustees of the M. E. Church of weighing the window sashes.
A quarterly meeting of the M. E. Church will be held in Virginia City next Sunday, 22nd inst. Rev. Long, Presiding Elder, will attend and preach morning and evening.
At the Columbia River Conference, recently held at Boise City, Idaho, we notice that Rev. Wm. G. Simpson, formerly one of the "boys in blue" at Fort Ellis was re-appointed pastor of the M. E. Church at Boise City.
The Presbyterians have lately occupied Boise City, Idaho, as a Presbytery Mission, and Rev. E. Condit has been sent to take charge. This, together with the new Mission in Alaska, gives them a foothold in every Territory in the United States.
Rev. L. B. Crittenden, of Hamilton, was in Bozeman yesterday, engaged in an effort to obtain assistance from our citizens in building the Presbyterian Church now in course of erection near the Gallatin Female Seminary. We trust he will be liberally aided, as it is a very laudable enterprise.
Bishop Bowman, on his way to meet the Oregon Conference, which convened at Seattle on the 29th ult., spent the Sabbath of August 20th at Portland, Oregon. The Advocate thus speaks of his pulpit effort on that day: "In a clear logical argument with simple and faultless manner, in a voice of wonderful richness and purity, he delivered such a sermon as will never be forgotten by the thinking people who heard him. His appeal for Christ's divinity was simply overwhelming, while his reply to the questioner who sneers at the story of Genesis as to sin's introduction into this world was not less so."
Labor Strike in Bozeman!
Tuesday Colonel Chesnut's bricklayers struck for higher wages, and the gallant (Colonel) succumbed to the inevitable. The masons now get $8 per day.
A Crow in the Wrong Nest.
An Indian story, brought in from the Crow Agency, is to the effect that the Nez Perces captured a Crow warrior, took him to camp, whipped him over his head with their horse-whips, dressed him up nicely, and placed him on a good gray horse. They then took him to a squaw, who, that all his people were squaws, and didn't know how to fight, and sent him home.
A New Store.
Black & Daniels are opening out their stock of merchandise and will have their store open to the public to-morrow, or the day after. They have a nice assortment of merchandise, and their store will add considerably to the attractions of the town. Hitchhins is at work on a sign for them, which will be ready to put in position in a few days.
Montana Wool Growers Association.
It is the intention of the prominent sheep growers in the Territory to perfect a permanent organization during the week of the Territorial Fair in Helena. Sheep breeders will do well to be in mind. It is a needed association and we hope Gallatin county will be well represented.
Sale of Sheep.
The large band of 3,800 sheep, belonging to Messrs. Bryant & McClellan, who drove them from California this season, has been purchased by Messrs. L. D. Bart, Henry Klein and L. Amersbach, the price paid being nearly three dollars per head. They are being driven to Smith river valley.—Independent.

What She Said.
[The answer to the piece of poetry in our last issue signed "Guess Who?"]
And does thy memory still dwell,
And find an impress given
On earth below, a beautiful form,
A fairer type of Heaven?
And does the influence of a soul,
Whose every thought was God,
Lead thee to higher aims in life,
And ladder to be true?
Then were those golden hours not lost—
(That's what we seem to say and dream)
Those happy hours that now are gone,
That were so sweet and dear?
Yes, "feeling were those hours of love,"
Our young life knew no care,
The earth seemed like no heaven above,
But beauty everywhere,
And memory will turn to them
For many years to come;
We'll think of them with tenderness,
No matter where we roam.
—Guest Again.
A "Juicy" Joke.
He was a man of age and experience,
Had voted for Jackson, Clay, and Billy Clagett, and had attended maple syrup boes in the forests of Egypt. His mouth watered for the new old-time sugar-tree juice as he leaned up against a dozen gallon cans of maple syrup on the counter—with a small sample(?) bottle on top. The temptation is too strong. He carefully unscrews the stopper of the red tin sample bottle, raises it to his thirsty lips and takes two lusty swallows, or 17 to find that he had placed himself on the outside of a pint of "Frank Miller's Harness Blacking." The old man concluded that something will be pretty well tanned, but it is fit for the "boys."
Board of Equalization.
At the meeting of the Board of County Commissioners Monday and Tuesday, Sept. 18th and 19th, the following assessments were reviewed as follows:
A. H. Beattie, on land, $100; L. M. Howell, on mill, $150; Ellis & Davis, on cro-lids, $100; G. H. Campbell, on list $300;
Mrs. J. B. Campbell, on land, $150; Miss Fannie Campbell, on list, $150.
Only one bid for the 35 cords of wood advertised for was received, and Perkins & Stone were awarded the contract at $5 per cord, the wood to be cut in two-foot lengths.
The assessment roll as returned by E. D.
Ferguson was examined and accepted.
The Board adjourned to the first Monday in December.
Town Improvements.
They had a chimney built on his residence.
Mr. F. Edmonds is making improvements on his stable.
Nelson Story has had an addition to his residence erected during the past week.
W. W. Alderson has men at work repainting the fronts in his brick block on Main street.
Several parties are building new chimneys on their residences to replace some blown down by a storm last week.
While Judge J. J. Davis is courting in Virginia City, his son Willie is taking advantage of the occasion, and painting the picket fence around the Judge's residence.
The walls of the new school house are up to the window sills, and the sills laid.
The door and window frames for the lower story are in place. They are well and beautifully made and reflect credit on the architect.
Needed Improvements.
One of the planks in the Main street bridge is broken and needs replacing by a new one.

freight shipments from the forwarding house of Fred J. Kiesel & Co., as given in Delegates to Territorial.

The New North-West of the 14th instant pays a deserved compliment to the efficiency of Delegate Maginins. It is the leading Republican journal of Montana, and no doubt its utterances are largely endorsed by that party. It says: "Delegate Maginins, after a fortnight's sojourn on the West Side, returned to Helena on Thursday's coach. He has visited our principal camping and industrial points, and has expressed his sympathy for the people, and wishes of the people, and will shortly return to Washington, desiring to reach there a few days before the extra session of congress convenes. We are glad to know that he regards the outlook for the passage of some acts of great importance to Montana as highly favorable, and to that end he will devote his best efforts.
The Major is a persistent and successful worker, has good standing and warm friends in both the Legislative and Execu-

A Card to the Public.
For many years we have made two medicines suited to the ailments of a vast class of sufferers.
Thousands of cures have been made by them, and, in fact, the world could not be coupled and named. But within the last two years counterfeits of our medicines have sprung up, dangerous in their close imitation of our Trade Mark. To secure the people we have placed upon each bottle the name of our firm, and the signature of our agent, Mr. J. H. Taylor, to counterfeits is felony.
We shall relentlessly pursue any one who imitates this with the utmost vigor of the law.
Uniformly resist the temptation of cheap purporting to be ours unless Mr. Joseph Haywood's signature is attached to each box of Pills or of Ointment, and the end will soon be reached.

BAKER & CO.'S TRAIN.
An Attack and a Fire of the Imagination.
Mr. Howard Conrad, of I. G. Baker & Co., received a letter from his firm in Fort Benton which contained the gratifying intelligence that their train had sustained no damage whatever, save a delay of four days caused by the wagonmaster and drivers hurrying to Fort Benton. The letter stated that Major Higgs and Walsh had just returned from the train on Milk river, and that not a single article was missing. The train is now on the way to Cypress.
It appears the train was camped on Milk river, and on the opposite side there was a large number of Indians, also in camp. About 6 o'clock at night a large hunting party of these Indians that had been absent for two weeks arrived within sight of the camp fires of their tribe, and, as is customary, fired a salute from their guns. The salute was instantly recognized and was answered by a return salute, accompanied by yells of delight. The train men, supposing they were attacked, used their best endeavors to escape—and they succeeded. The two men reported missing were wrapped up in their blankets, and before they could unwind themselves and secure their clothing the Indians crossed the river and assured them they were friendly. Next day the Indians helped the train start. Taking all the circumstances into consideration, the train men cannot be blamed very much.—Helena Independent.
