Local Matters.

Religious Services. St. James' Church, Bozeman, Mont. will observe the services of the Epiphany on Sunday, Jan. 19th, at 11 a. m.

Traveling Agent. Fred. M. Wilson is our daily authorized agent to receive and receipt for any and all amounts due us on subscription or other accounts.

Photographs. I have re-opened my gallery for a short time. Those wishing work done in my line will find me at the following address.

FOR SALE! The old Kluge school building, Main Street, Bozeman, and a 100 acre ranch, one mile and a half from town, can be purchased very cheap for cash.

Pay Cash for XXX Wheat AT OUR VALLEY MILLS. J. J. Tomlinson & Sons.

To Helena Merchants and Flour Dealers. Those who have left the Valley Mills, not having made any satisfactory arrangements with the owners of said property, will find that the mills there were but twenty sacks of flour there of any grinding.

Notice. Having sold a half interest in my mercantile business to Mr. Thomas Lewis, it will now be conducted under the style and firm name of Lewis & Lewis.

For Sale! A small party of Barnacks passed through the past winter, returning home from about on the Yellowstone. They had a very pleasant trip, and were very much pleased with the country.

Best assortment of Culligan's Canned Goods ever at Bozeman at LOCKEY'S.

W. O. P. Hays, C. Edwards and W. L. Perkins, members of the Mont. Legislature from Gallatin co., left last week for a brief visit to Helena.

Large stock of Pictures and Canvas Moulding and Picture Frames at J. H. TAYLOR'S.

The Tongue River mail came in, on Sunday last, on a brown pair of boots drawn by four handsome black steeds dressed in holiday harness.

Odell Hall Re-Opened. Having re-opened the above popular saloon, stocked it with the finest quality of Liquors, Cigars, etc. old patrons and all others will find no one else in the city doing a better business.

Advertisement for J.O. Guy & Sons, Groceries, featuring various food items and household goods.

Sandwiches.

The last thing to miss in this issue is Ellis & Davis' new ad.

All old stock sold very low by LOCKEY. H. Countryman arrived in town on route home from Virginia City on Saturday.

Clark Switzer and bride are at present domiciled in the building recently occupied by Miss McClaren.

Yesterday, the Bozeman Post-office was removed to more commodious quarters, one door east of Langhorne's drug store.

Our rustling canvasser, Fred M. Wilson, is doing excellent work for the Courier in Madison county, swelling its lists to an unprecedented extent.

Try the Irish Cough-cure at ODELL HALL. Rich's train arrived in town Sunday from Gage's, having delivered the wire for the military telegraph line, at that point in an unprecedented extent.

Meals at home of the day or night at BOZEMAN LUNCH HOUSE. Mr. Ed. Ryan, of Horse Shoe Bend, one of the prominent stock raisers of that section, has returned home after an extensive trip through the Eastern States.

Part II. of the Arabian Tale will be found on the first page of this week's issue. The author is now at work on part III, which will appear as early a day as possible.

Go to the 12 1/2 cent, 6 cent or 4 cent-class drink or cigar for 1 1/2 cents. C. L. Clark, the energetic superintendent of the Bozeman and Tongue River stage line, arrived in town a few days ago.

Robert J. Guy, while on route to Sherman, was taken quite ill at Shiloh's river. We are pleased to learn, however, that he had so far recovered on Sunday last as to consider himself strong enough to continue his journey home.

Fresh oysters served in every style, at Bozeman Lunch House. E. P. Vivion, of Vivion & Pierce, is at Hunter's Hot Springs rustating.

Through the pressure of business matters, last week, we inadvertently omitted to mention the social surprise party at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Maris on Friday evening, the 3rd inst., and which we had the pleasure of knowing was a most enjoyable affair.

For all the delicacies of the season go to the BOZEMAN LUNCH HOUSE. During a dance held at "Kirk" Eberhart's some time since, a drunken fellow was taken down stairs, and landed on his head with such momentum as to break through the floor; after which he received a handsome "pummeling" from his antagonist, then went on his way rejoicing.

Dr. C. L. Bishop, with his wife, has arrived at St. Paul, Minn. The doctor will have his office in Monroe's building, corner Main Street and "Tongue" street. A good practical dentist is something Bozeman has been in need of for some time, and if there is such a thing as a dentist being so-called, we have no doubt he will receive it.

The card of Thompson & Bequette appears in this issue. Mr. Thompson is late of Helena, is a clear-headed man, and one who enjoys the reputation of being a first-class sign, carriage and ornamental painter. He will more than fill the niche left vacant by Mr. Hitchens. Mr. Bequette is well known to the people of Bozeman and vicinity and his work speaks for him. The new firm will undoubtedly be kept busily at work.

A stiff breeze swept through the valley on Saturday night last, drifting the snow and filling up the beaten roads so completely as to make them difficult to find and tedious to travel. We have sufficient snow to make excellent sleighing and everybody appreciates the fact, as we counted no less than twenty-five sleighing outfits on the country on the streets at one time last Saturday.

We heartily congratulate the Madisonian upon having at last discovered a honest Indian Agent, or, to use its own words, "Financially, his experience has not been of a character to create a 'hankering' after Indian affairs in the future." It may look a little queer that this good Indian Agent is, with one exception, the only Montana Indian Agent that has ever been indicted by a U. S. Grand Jury, a portion of which jury was composed of prominent citizens of Virginia City; but, then, that's only based on the jurors, of course.

The Phenological Journal for January and the Phenological Health Annual for 1879 are received, and an examination shows them to be full of matters of more than ordinary interest and value. No better magazine for the money is published in America. It is only $2.00 a year with premium Phenological bust, or when 25 cents extra for postage is sent, a premium book worth $1.50 is given. In club with the COURIER, the Journal can be had for $5.00. With premium book $3.25. The Annual contains a vast amount of information in regard to health, care of the sick, Phenology, etc., and is sold at the remarkably low price of 10 cents a copy. Address, S. R. Wells & Co., 737 Broadway, New York City.

Married.

In Bozeman, Tuesday, Jan. 14, 1879, at the residence of the bride's parents, Wm. B. Miller, of Stillwater, to Miss Mary W. B. Bozeman.

Invitations issued drew out quite a large number of the friends of the parties, and at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening the ceremony was performed by Rev. C. L. Richards. The bride was dressed in white haired gowns. After the ceremony, the guests were served to an excellent supper.

The following is a list of the presents and donors: Mr. and Mrs. Sarnum—1 silver pickle fork, 1 silver sugar spoon. Jas. Gourley—1 large French plate looking glass.

Jno. Stevens—1 pair vases, 1 baby rattle. F. B. Warlick—1 silver-mounted toilet, 1 coffee can, 12 dozen milk pans, 1 cake turner, 1 milk skimmer, 1 coffee pot.

Jno. Mendenhall—1 white counterpane, 1 table-cover. J. L. Harlowe—1 toilet set (7 pieces). I. W. Swan—1 pair elegant gilt vases, 1 glass pitcher.

Worship, Krug and Benz—1 wash-tub, 1 clothes-wringer, 1 wash-board. Ed. B. Lammie—1 stand lamp, 1 Japanese cup-saucer. Ed. Frisley—1 pair vases.

Lea F. Marlin—1 coin silver butter dish. Thos. Lewis and Frank Rich—1 set cut glass ware, 1 mirror. W. J. and N. J. Malin—12 dozen linen towels.

Mrs. M. Monms—1 silver syrup pitcher, 1 match safe. Langhorne & Malin—1 perfume toilet set. Mrs. Latta—1 white bread-pan. Ellis & Davis—1 lamp.

Isaac Harlick—1 accordion. Sr. Monms—Good advice to the groom. Mr. Clausen is one of solid citizens of the county, and is to be congratulated on having found a companion that will add to the comfort and attractiveness of his station near the mouth of the Stillwater.

Frank J. Dunbar last week closed out the last of the stock of merchandise belonging to the estate of G. H. Campbell, deceased, to Messrs. Strassburger & Sperling, for the sum of $900, so we are informed, and will be, judging from the amount of goods, must be a good bargain for the purchasers. Messrs. Strassburger & Sperling will remove the stock to their old stand, where they will be prepared to give better bargains to their customers than ever before. See their new advertisement in another column.

The Bozeman Dramatic Company gave their fourth entertainment on Monday evening last to a very good house, considering that the roads were in a very bad condition, being dirt full of snow. The entertainment consisted of "The Miser of Marcellus," and "Just Arrived From the Moon," with two recitations, "The Three Belles," by Miss Libbie Wakefield, and "Peter and Thistle," by William Welsh, coming in with a beautiful transformation scene in seven tableaux, "The Temple of Liberty." Singly and as a whole, the entertainment was very creditable to the performers. The fifth performance will take place in about two weeks.

First News over the New Telegraph Line. Stillwater, M. T., Jan. 12, 1879. Editor Avant Courier: On the evening of the 10th inst., at the near the Red Cloud Agency overpowered the guard, killed two and wounded four of them and escaped, but was followed and fired upon by the "Grand Guard," who killed forty of them. The remainder escaped, but were closely pursued by the Fifth Infantry who expected to recapture them.

Nothing more of interest from this locality. The above facts I learn from Col. J. C. Vandover, Supt. Construction Telegraph Line. Respectfully, HENRY COUNTRYMAN.

What came very near being a serious affair took place in Locke's store Saturday evening, "Pretty George," a stage driver on the Helena road, while on a "bender," for some real or fancied insult, drew a revolver on "Nick," the proprietor of the Bozeman Lunch House, "Nick" jumped forward and grasped both of George's hands just as he drew his revolver, George gave it up to Mr. Vator, a clerk in Locke's. Afterward George tried to get at "Nick," but was prevented by Dave Boerum and others.

The fellow from the West Side, who advised bleeding an animal in the neck veins until nearly depleted to death, and then cutting the gristle out of the nose as a cure for black leg, had better seek his head 20 miles in ice-water, and then get bed for the simples.—COURIER.

Do you think your cow could have lived anyway? We incline to the belief that the treatment was resorted to at too late a day.—New North-West.

That's just where you are off wrong. We experimented on a cow that had no symptoms of the disease at all, and she died with the black-leg in just 14 minutes after the operation. You don't fool us again—not on that prescription, anyhow.

Sixteen pieces of new music were received at the COURIER office on Saturday evening last for the Needham music hall. Her friends visit this office to hear this wonderful instrument and a large number take advantage of the same to leave substantial recognitions of the Couriers. The following is a partial list of the numerous pieces we have, any one of which will be played at the solicitation of visitors: Overture, Caliph of Bagdad, Old Hundred, New Haven. (My faith looks up to thee), Waltz, (Blue Danube), Irish Washerwoman, Bohemian Girl, (Heart Washed Down), John Anderson My Joe, Locked in the Cradle of the Deep, What a Hero We Have in Jesus, Bonnie Dundee, William Tell Waltz, St. Patrick's Day, Trotatore, (Miscere), Faust March, Star in the Arms of Jesus, Lucia Borgia, Drinking Song, Mulligan Grog, Brannagan's Band, When the Band Begins to Play, and Cameron Guards. Freeconcerts given, ad libitum.

DIAGRAM OF SUBJECTS FOR EACH DAY. ARITHMETIC. First Day. 1. Definitions of terms used in Arithmetic. 2. Origin of Arabic and Roman Characters. 3. Practice in the Fundamental Rules.

Second Day. 1. Contracted methods of Multiplication and Division. 2. Greatest Common Divisor. 3. Least Common Multiple. Third Day. 1. Subject of Fractions. Thorough Analysis of the reasons for the various operations.

Fourth Day. 1. Percentage. 2. Ratio and Proportion. GRAMMAR. First Day. Classification and forms of Nouns, and exercises in Simple Analysis.

Second Day. The Adjective and Participle. Exercises in Analysis. Third and Fourth Days. Correction of False Syntax, and Analysis. GEOGRAPHY. First Day. How to teach Primary Geography, and the use of Maps.

Second Day. Explanation of Zones, and the reasons for their boundary lines being placed where they are—some of the most important Geographical descriptions. Third Day. Methods of teaching Descriptive Geography. Lessons on North and South America.

Fourth Day. How to teach Historical Geography. Lessons on the United States and Europe. ORTHOGRAPHY. Thorough drill each day upon Sounds of Letters and Diacritical Marks. Rules for Spelling, &c. Marks used in Webster's Dictionary.

HISTORY. First Day. How to teach History. First, Second, Third and Fourth Days. Constitution of the United States, and the law-making powers of the General Government, States, Territories, Counties and Townships.

As it is desirable to get the most possible good from this four days' institute, it is thought advisable to inform the teachers beforehand of the work prepared to be done in each branch of the studies mentioned. Hence, we give in diagram the parts of each subject to be treated on each day. All teachers engaged in the county, as well as persons holding certificates, are required by law to attend (See Sec. 2 of an Act of the Legislature authorizing the holding of County Teachers' Institutes) and all will be expected to recite from the lessons in the Institute work. Therefore they will come prepared.

Professor W. W. Wylie, A. D. Maynard and Frank Benepe will conduct the class work, with such other assistance from time to time as the County Superintendent may direct. The following persons have kindly consented to lecture on the evenings of each day, as follows: First Night: Rev. Clark Wright, Superintendent of Public Instructions of Montana.

Second Night: To be supplied. Third Night: Matt. W. Alderson. Subject: Education and Training of children at home and in the school-room. Fourth Night: John V. Bozert. Subject: Serious and Cosmic aspects of Education: Where Parents are to Blame. The public generally are cordially invited to attend the exercises and lectures of the Teachers' Institute. We hope to make it pleasant and profitable for all.

GEO. W. MONROE, Co. Supt. Pub. Instruction. Mont na in a Nut-Shell. The Meagher county tax levy this year is 16 mills.

The future of Eastern Montana is brightening every day.—Humboldtian. The tax levy of Deer Lodge county is 22 mills—3 mills less than the levy for last year.

No snow in the Musselshell valley, and the thermometer has not been lower than 10 degrees below zero. Russell B. Harrison, the new assayer for the Helena Assay Office, has arrived and taken charge of the office.

The people of Helena raised a purse of $150 as a present to Robert Casey, the mail carrier on the Benton road. Several veins of, what promises to be, excellent coal, it is said, has recently been discovered in Meagher county.

The Miner is earnest and solid against any and every form of railroad subsidy, and there is where it shows its good judgment. Mrs. Drouillard has confessed to the killing of her husband at Missoula, and has been committed to jail to await trial at the next term of Court.

The Legislature of Montana will meet in Helena, Feb. 14th, at 7 p. m., and will be opened with a sermon by the Moderator, Rev. L. B. Crittenden. We are inclined to the belief that the individual was not well read who, entering one of the saloons the other day, called for a drink, and said he would take a "Bell punch."—New North-West. The Humboldtian advocates the building of a bridge across the Missouri at Canyon Ferry. A good idea, provided it will not obstruct the contemplated navigation of that stream.
