"H. M. S. Pinafore" Performance.

By a "Special Reporter" for the occasion. This popular comic opera, which has had so many successful runs, perhaps, in all the leading cities in the United States and Europe...

Considering the nervousness always attendant upon "first nights," and especially as with some of the characters, it was their first appearance on the stage, the performance throughout was remarkably smooth and highly creditable to the performers.

The "Admiral" of Mr. Ed. C. Alderson was, for make-up, dignified bearing, distinction, and artistic acting, all that the character suggested or the most appreciative imagination could apparently demand. "Ed's" voice was a little "off," on account of a recent cold and sore throat, yet his singing was quite smooth and the time and accentuation almost faultless.

The "Captain Coreoran" of Mr. Wisner was good throughout. Although not so much in the character of a singer, Mr. Wisner is an excellent singer, and as the successful performance of his part depended so much more on the latter than the former, he performed his part admirably and to the evident satisfaction of the audience.

Miss Mamie Alderson as "Josephine," in her evident appreciation and familiarity with the character sustained, and in her almost faultless acting and singing, was at home behind the foot-lights. Miss Mamie, having been "raised" in Bozeman, and but just "blushing" into womanhood, very few of the audience expected anything more from her than an ordinary, common-place performance. In this, however, they appeared to be most agreeably disappointed, for the frequent and hearty applause with which she was greeted demonstrated her to be a natural actor, singer and actress in a most gratifying manner.

Mr. Harold Stevens as "Ralph Rackstraw," although not at his best, on account of a severe cold and general indisposition, performed his part in a creditable manner. His voice, though not strong, is quite musical, and his pleasing effects very noticeable in the duets, trios and quartets in which he took part. To Mr. Stevens, more than any other person, is due the credit of overcoming the many discouragements which from time to time threatened the efforts of the amateur company with failure; in other words, by plucking victory from apparent defeat and achieving the very gratifying success which has finally crowned their efforts.

The "Little Buttercup" of Miss Nettie Ely was performed in a manner most creditable to that young lady. A little nervousness was manifested in her opening solo, which was soon overcome, when she fairly electrified the audience by the clear and impressive manner with which she sang and recited, and the quaint and genuine humor she evinced in acting her part. Mr. Matt Alderson as "Dick Deadeye," although not evincing any special merit as a "singer," went through that part as the performer without any bad luck, while his make-up and acting more than met the expectations of his friends. He was dressed so as to show a grotesquely misshapen and angular figure, and never, apparently, lost sight of the difficult and ludicrous part the character he was representing required.

Miss P. Burchard as "Cousin Hebe" was unassuming, but remarkably pleasing, and won golden opinions from the audience for the faultless manner with which she acted her part. Mr. Magnus Lundwall as "Boatswain," sustained his part with that promptitude and earnestness that clearly implied, "no foolishness here," and thoroughly convinced the audience, "that in spite of all temptations to belong to other nations," his comrade, Ralph, steadfastly remained an Englishman.

Miss Libbie Wakefield, as "Milkmaid," was the embodiment of a gentle, "fat" in miniature, and looked and acted as "cute" and vivacious as though to the "manor born." She caused much merriment as she brought to her eye the long spy-glass to "take in" the approaching Admiral and his retinue of sisters, cousins and aunts; as, also, when she picked up and donned the Admiral's hat, and strutted up and down the stage with so much importance and apparent dignity, in front of the performers.

In addition to the persons above mentioned, the following ladies and gentlemen took part as sisters, cousins, aunts and suitors, forming a chorus which was an agreeable surprise to all, and of which any town of greater pretensions than Bozeman might feel justly proud. Mrs. A. P. Proffit, Miss Clara Works, Miss E. Lina Alderson, Miss Alice Warfield, Miss Mary Taylor, Miss Gay Woods, Miss Mary Graham, Miss Annie Alderson; Messrs. Benj. F. Fridley, Geo. W. Lockey, Hago Hopy, Mason G. Guy and Benj. Clark.

Too much praise cannot be given Mrs. J. H. Willard, under whose musical direction the "Pinafore" opera was produced. The second and last performance was given on Friday night, and although the company was not greeted with so full an audience as we think it deserved, yet the audience was decidedly appreciative and the unanimous verdict of those who attended both nights was, the second night's performance was quite an improvement on the first.

ment on the first. One peculiarity of this community is, that it does not take enthusiastically or kindly to a repetition of anything, especially if produced wholly by home talent. And yet, there is such an insatiable longing for a sort of unaccountable fascination about "Pinafore" that it would be safe to predict that even Bozeman will give an unmistakable request for its re-production at no distant day.

LOCKEY'S Bozeman Store Has the Largest Stock of TOYS

And Holiday Goods in the Market. Prices as Low as the Lowest.

Sandwiches. Chris. Sowers is just "walking off" with the candy trade. Story is buying flour.

Holiday Goods. A carefully selected stock of goods for the holiday trade, opened at the Post Office Building, among which are BIBLES, WRITING DESKS, STATUARY GOODS, VASES, SILVER PLATED WARE, from the well-known Firm of Reed & Barton.

Choice Candles and Nuts. Also BIRD CAGES, BASKETS, BASKETS, LAMP STANDS, FLOWER POTS, BRASS, IRON, PAINTS, BRUSHES, and many other articles both useful and ornamental. All of which are offered at prices lower than ever.

Gallatin City News. GALLATIN, M. T., Dec. 15, 1879. All is quiet on the Potomac. Lewis Romans of Hamilton, was in town on Saturday.

Bright, pleasant winter weather, with plenty of snow. All the Nichols of this place, on Monday last, killed and prepared for market eighty fat hogs. He is shipping them to Butte.

Two small children have quite recently died from scarlet fever, on lower Willow Creek. Others are reported to be in a critical condition. The Gospel was presented to a large audience in a very entertaining manner, at this place last Sabbath by Rev. Spencer of Jefferson valley.

One day last week Johnny England of Madison valley, met with quite a serious accident. While in town his team became frightened and ran away, throwing him, from the wagon. The result was several ribs fractured and a few slight bruises.

Last Friday afternoon John T. Russell, of this place, was found dead, by Kal Perkins, at his place of residence about one half mile above town. It seems from all appearances that life left the poor, old man without a struggle. His funeral services were held here yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Russell has been a resident of Madison valley and this immediate vicinity for about fifteen years. X. N. Just Received STRASBURGER & SPERLING'S An elegant line of Ladies' CLOAKS & DRESS GOODS

In all shades; also LADIES' SHOES, And many other articles, too numerous to mention. They also have a complete stock of BOOTS, CLOTHING and GROCERIES.

The weather for the past week has been very cold and windy. The river is bridged with ice sufficiently strong for teams to cross with safety. No sickness or deaths to report, every one in this section seems to be enjoying good health.

A party of young men started from here on Saturday, enroute to Bull Mountain, to hold a protracted hunt. B. F. Dexter arrived in Coulson on Friday with his men and outfit, for the purpose of moving his saw-mill to the Judith Basin.

A wind storm, on Wednesday last week, blew Mr. P. Garmels house down, fortunately there was no one in it at the time. It is not uncommon nowadays to hear of a person buying friendship, but we never heard of a person buying a girl and paying for her with saddles. The Bachelors in this neighborhood, now spruce up, and rustle around pretty lively, as there has lately been an increase in the female population.

fuel, unless the price of the latter is considerably lowered and cutting reduced to some reasonable rate. Ladies' Cloaks, in every style, just received at A. LAMME & CO'S.

Mr. Carr, an old-time Bozeman (Montana) friend, dropped in on us during the week. He has charge of Jacob Ellis' freight train. Mr. Ellis, long engaged in the mercantile business in Bozeman, may settle at Rapid City.—Black Hill's Journal.

300 pounds of elegant, fresh, fancy candies, suitable for Christmas Trees and the holidays, for sale cheap at A. LAMME & CO'S.

Last week County Treasurer McCann disposed of a portion of the eight cent, refunding bonds, at one-eighth of one per cent. premium. The court house bonds, advertised in this week's COURIER, show the same rate of interest, and should readily find purchasers at their par value.

We must pay our bills, consequently must collect. Everybody indebted to MOUNTS & SANBORN is requested to call and settle at once. A. T. Fort, of Coulson, gave us a call last week. We regret to learn that he lost his entire crop by the severe hail storm which visited that portion of the Yellowstone last summer. Mr. Fort, however, is not easily discouraged, as appears from his determination and "grit" with trying again. We trust he will meet with better success next year.

Ladies' Furnishing Goods, Underwear, Hosiery, &c., at WILSON'S. Ur an innocent misapprehension of the facts, no doubt, some person reports that the Pinafore Company paid $50 for the show bills used to advertise the performance. They cost the company just $5.00 to a dot.—Only a slight error of one 0, and the misapprehension of the decimal point. Forty five dollars out of the way; but then, who cares for trifles?

New styles of Prints, in almost endless variety, just received at A. LAMME & CO'S. A bright little three-year-old boy, whose papa is in the habit of carrying up the stairs of the hotel after each meal, the other day after he had partaken of a hearty repast, was required to walk, on a heavy cart at the head of the stairs, the little fellow stretched himself up to his full height, heaved a deep sigh and delivered himself thus: "FOR JESUS CHRIST'S SAKE, AMEN."

Foreign and American Mineral Water at HEADQUARTERS. We notice that Rev. W. C. Shippen, who was appointed several months since by the M. E. Conference of Montana, to the work at Bozeman, is still laboring with the hard-pressed sinners of the Social City. We presume it must be apparent to him that Madison county stands in greater need of his services than Gallatin, and hence concludes to labor where he can do the most good. Gloves, Ribbons, Fur Collars and Cuffs, at WILSON'S.

Drs. Monroe and Chambliss have their new dispensary fully stocked with fresh and genuine drugs and medicines. With the new furniture and fixtures, properly arranged and neatly labeled, as they are, the resident M. D.'s of Bozeman have perhaps the finest and most complete office in the Rocky Mountains, at least we have seen nothing to compare with it, either in Montana, Utah or Colorado.

The 1879 W. Taylor Whisky will always be kept at HEADQUARTERS, MOUNTS & SANBORN. "Rev. Edward Brand, a missionary of the re-organized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints," (if we have not skipped a sentence or two in the name) gave us a short call on Monday last. We suppose he is the same Brand ("plucked from the burning") that the Madisonian furnished a little gratuitous advertisement for a few weeks since. We predict that Montana will prove a hard field for the Mormon people to cultivate. They don't go much on that or any other kind of "outdoor" in this Territory.

Water-Proof Cloaks and Shawls, at WILSON'S. Mrs. J. H. Willard, after a two months sojourn in Bozeman, left on Sunday last for the Crow Agency. Mrs. Willard is a most excellent musician, which in connection with very pleasing social qualities, made her many friends here who will be glad to welcome her at any time in the future when she may be able to visit us. She left town with the honor of having brought the musical part of "Pinafore" to a very successful public presentation, and may justly feel proud of her work.

The Headquarters of Selous has just received the most thorough stock of Wines, Liquors and Cigars ever brought to Montana. MOUNTS & SANBORN. The Frontier Index of the 7th inst., is responsible for the following: The pastor of the new church at Glendale, Rev. Hugh Dunham, a high-pressure Scotchman, was preaching in Alder Gales fifteen years ago, and as he queried in a loud voice: "What will you give in exchange for your soul?" "I say I will give you in exchange for your soul!" Just then, the house of worship dashed an anathema, bestirred a cyclone, and when died, the primeval Christian, the wickedest in the world's "ash vocation": "Forty dollars! forty dollars I'm bid!" He was answered by the Edinburg occupant of the pulpit: "Yes, and it's all you will get, too!"

Ready for Christmas at the Blue Front. New and elegant designs in plated Silverware, Toys, Dolls, Fancy Goods, Children's and Misses' Cloaks, & Venetian Blouses of the most popular outfit. Confectionery, Nuts, &c. &c. Come while the assortment is good. R. F. MAY. Thanks of the "Pinafore Crew." The Bozeman Amateur Pinafore Company, desire to express publicly their appreciation and sincere thanks to Capt. McAdams, Lieut. Huntington, Capt. Fuller, J. V. Bogert, Prof. W. W. Wylie, F. Carr, Col. J. D. Chesnut, Geo. C. Howard and others, for favors and valuable assistance rendered the company in preparing the comic opera for presentation to the public.

HEROLD STEVENS, Manager. DOWN GOES THE HAMMER. All persons indebted to me, either by note or account, must make payment by the 1st day of February, or down will go the hammer, and don't forget it, and for the next forty days my business will be strictly cash. P. P. WORSHAM. Religious Services. Mr. Richards will preach at Elk Grove Grove and Fairview School houses next Sabbath, Dec. 21st, according to appointment. The Weekly Prayer Meeting will be held on Tuesday, Dec. 23rd, at 7 p. m., at the residence of Mr. Walter Cooper. All are cordially invited to attend. Rev. Matthew Bird will preach in the M. E. Church in Bozeman next Sabbath morning at 11 o'clock, Dec. 21st 1879.

Notice. All persons owing the late firm of Ash & Fridley, are notified that the same has been dissolved, and that the assets of the same are being sold, and that the proceeds of the same will be paid to the creditors of the same. GEO. W. FRIDLEY.

OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS. An Hour in the Assembly Hall. Having occasion to step into the assembly hall of the public school building on business, Monday afternoon, we were kindly invited by Prof. Wylie to try a short time and witness the closing school exercises for that day. We had no sooner consented to remain than the teachers and pupils from the various departments were called, assembled, and quietly and systematically seated in the newly seated and spacious hall.

Without a moment's delay the exercises commenced with a lively little air by the entire school, Miss Langhorne, teacher in room No. 2, presiding at the piano. Then followed in quick succession, short declamations, dialogues, select readings, songs, instrumental music and original essays, about forty pupils from the various departments performing their respective parts of the programme in a most creditable manner.

One young man, from the advanced department, read a very humorous paper on the Zebra, in which he ingeniously managed to bring in some of the distinguishing traits of the mule, and the forcible characteristics of the Continental musket. Another read an exhaustive essay on the value and civilizing influence of money. Another delivered a Congressional obituary speech—or, rather, a burlesque of one—on the supposed death of an esteemed colleague. A young lady pupil read an essay, the subject of which had to be "guessed" by the school. It was amusing to notice the general tendency manifested by the younger people to run into poetry. It is much more difficult than prose to read or recite intelligently or correctly, and yet every child appears to think if he commits to memory a few verses with an apparent rhyme or jingle he is all right. Perhaps poetry is the natural element of children, as it appears to be of many of riper years whose minds are not fully matured.

But without any attempt at moralizing or the least desire to sharply criticize, we must say that we were not only agreeably surprised with the almost impromptu exercises of the school, but really impressed, well pleased, and pleasantly entertained. We are informed that somewhat similar exercises take place each week; that they are intended to be in a manner informal, the pupils being allowed to make their own selections or depend largely upon their own resources. The arrangement, in our opinion, is not only well calculated to educate the pupils for the higher and more active duties of life, but at the same time affords a happy and most beneficial recreation from the regular and somewhat severe studies of the school-room.

CASH PAID FOR XXX WHEAT AT THE UNION MILLS. GEO. A. LEWIS. HELENA LETTER. HELENA, MONT., Dec. 14, 1879. O. J. Salisbury has gone to Deadwood. Freight trains from everywhere were thicker than hops last week. The County Commissioners terminated a nine day's session on Wednesday. A sprinkling of snow last night and a prospect of much more very soon. Fox's trial No. 2 proceeds slowly, but will doubtless be finished up before Court adjourns on the 24th.

Ladies of the various churches are busily engaged in preparing pretty things for the Christmas trees. A fair for the benefit of the Episcopal church commences Tuesday night and continues one week. Several loads of flour were spilled through the canyon last week. Four chimneys burned out Wednesday morning. The season for the Fire Fights' carnival is approaching. A $100 doll embellishes the window of a Helena notion store. It is 3 feet high, and wears $12 gold earrings. A reunion of soldiers of the Mexican war who live near Helena takes place on January 8th of the coming year. Sealed bids for the People's National Bank building were to be received until last night by Granville Stuart, receiver. The thermometer has got down to a ticklish point several times recently, and slaters are much more in demand than formerly.

The distance from Ogden to Beaver Canyon is 274 miles, and the trip occupies Utah and Northern passenger trains 18 hours and 40 minutes. Fifteen days from the terminus is pretty good time at this season of the year, but freight which left the Dive on November 25th was unloaded here on the 11th inst. The overland takes out a number of passengers every morning bound for the East, where they can get fresh oysters from Seattle, paying $1 per quart for them. J. T. Ward, stationer and newsdealer, who has been in business in Helena for fourteen years, is closing out at auction, with the intention of going into cattle-raising. Rev. Jas. Patterson lectured at the Presbyterian church Tuesday evening, giving an abbreviated and not excessively entertaining account of his meanderings through most parts of the habitable universe.

The road through Priest's Pass is completed, and is highly praised by freighters who have been over it. The country fathers have fixed moderate rates of toll, but the public is invited to travel over the new road free of charge for the next thirty days. Pinafore is to be repeated in Helena for the benefit of Mrs. Howe, the lady who superintended the preparation of the comic opera, and did so much toward making it a success. The Helena Pinafore Company is wanted at Butte and Deer Lodge—babies cry for it.

The assessed valuation of the property in Helena, five districts on which $80,613.41 taxes were collected up to Dec. 1, is $1,865,700. When one walks through Helena, and looks into Helena's store, and thinks of the above figures, the conclusion is irresistible that something is rotten in the State of Denmark. Barclay J. Smith and family left Helena on the 9th for Ogden and, presumably, San Francisco. Some people have been led to look upon Mr. Smith as a martyr, as an innocent and offensive man cruelly persecuted and maligned by vindictive enemies. Other people entertain a radically different opinion of this new "martyred president," which some inconsistencies in his statements appear to justify. In an alleged interview, published in the Herald, after Smith's return from his journalistic visit East in company with detective Rice, the ex-bank president spoke of his release from custody in Pennsylvania as the result of a triumphant vindication of his character, leaving him as pure and spotless as a lamb. There is now reason to believe that the release followed a compromise by which the claims of one of the principal sufferers by Barclay's operations were satisfied. In the interview referred to Smith also said that if Detective Rice ever struck Helena again and remained in town overnight he would be "punsured for perjury, conspiracy and false arrest." Rice is now here and has been for five or six weeks, but, lo! and behold, he is un molested, while Mr. Smith slips away unobtrusively, his departure being expedited, it is rumored, by a vague dread that another requisition lurked in the garments of the officer of the law, whose return to Helena was to be followed by dire retribution. MONTANA. Report of East Gallatin School.

Dec. 6, 1879. Number of pupils enrolled during the month, 25; average daily attendance, 18. Names of pupils present every day, Lois Ferguson, Flora Kennedy, Harvey L. Ferguson, Nicholas Eckland, Benj. Kennedy, Lewis Kennedy. We invite parents and patrons of the school to visit us, and to co-operate with us in making our school one of the best in the valley. S. A. WHITE, Teacher.

PHOTOGRAPHS. On or about the 10th of November I will open my old Photograph Gallery on Main Street. Those wishing work done must immediately call. BIRD CALFEE. DIED. Of scarlet fever, near Bozeman, on Friday morning, December 12, Ellen, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Jackson, aged 3 years, 3 months and 7 days. She died on the 13th. He that giveth can take away. GEORGE ASH, K. L. FRIDLEY. Bozeman, September 23, 1879. $200 a week in your own home. Terms and full outfit free. Address H. HALLETT & CO., Portland, Maine.

Bonds for Sale. There will be sold at public auction, on Wednesday, December 31, A. D. 1879, at the front door of the court house, in Bozeman City, Gallatin County, Montana Territory, to the highest bidder for cash, but for not less than their par value, forty-seven thousand dollars for so much thereof as may be necessary of the coupon bonds of Gallatin County, Montana Territory, said bonds to be of the denomination of fifty, one hundred, five hundred, and one thousand dollars each, and shall bear interest at the rate of eight per cent. per annum. Interest payable semi-annually at the office of the Treasurer of said county, or if the holder or holders of not less than one thousand dollars of said bonds shall give notice in writing that they desire the principal and interest of the bonds, so held by them, to be paid at some designated National Bank in the city of New York, then they shall be paid at the office of said Treasurer. Said bonds shall be redeemable at the pleasure of said County after the expiration of five years from the date of their issue, and shall be dated at the time of their issue, and shall become due on the 1st day of January of their date. Said sale shall be adjourned from day to day until all said bonds shall be sold. In witness whereof, I, the undersigned, County Clerk of said County of Gallatin, do hereby certify the principal and interest of the bonds, so held by them, to be paid at some designated National Bank in the city of New York, then they shall be paid at the office of said Treasurer. SAMUEL W. LANGHORNE, County Clerk.

KNIGHTS OF HONOR. Bozeman Lodge No. 42. Regular meeting nights, second and fourth Thursdays of each month, at 7 o'clock p. m. W. O. P. Hays, P. D. W. W. Alderson, Dictator. F. J. Smith, Secy. S. W. Langhorne, Reporter. The next meeting will be on Friday the 20th, instead of Thursday the 23rd, on account of the holidays.

DIVOLUTION NOTICE. The partnership heretofore existing under the style and firm name of Ash & Fridley, has been dissolved by mutual consent of the parties. They will collect all debts due and pay all obligations of the late firm. GEO. ASH, K. L. FRIDLEY. Bozeman, September 23, 1879. $200 a week in your own home. Terms and full outfit free. Address H. HALLETT & CO., Portland, Maine.
