LOCAL NEWS.

Silver Bow.—Advices from Silver Bow indicate an effort is being made to procure water at lower rates, two miners meetings having convened for that purpose...

Pilgrim Bar.—Another discovery has been made on the southeast end of Pilgrim Bar, and although across a small gulch from the open claims, it is supposed to be on the main channel...

Telegraph to Deer Lodge.—Mr. E. A. Large, of the firm of Creighton & Co., Virginia, who have built all the telegraph lines north of Salt Lake City, returned from the East a few days since...

Who struck Billy Patterson?—It is still in doubt, but it is pretty generally understood that Billy Patterson was killed by a man named Patterson...

Local News continued with various small notices and advertisements.

Deer Lodge.—Having given from the gold of Mr. Simmons, most complete description of the Cedar Creek country to a recent date, we have but to note current news and developments...

Shan Hardenbrook, Jack Alport and Hugh O'Neil have bought '35' and '36 above' (two miles above Louisville) with the two bar claims opposite. The ground prospects well. They were ready to begin sluicing, April 11th.

The arrivals are increasing. No women yet there, but two families were met going in. Some 15 or 16 men had come in from Walls, Wyo., and three pack trains, of 100 packs, were reported at Horse Plains...

Of the recently discovered gulches, Mr. A. says Snow Shoe contains 16 claims, ground 1 to 2 feet deep, some 200 feet deep. Claim owners assert it will pay $100 per day to the hand, with plenty of water, but will wash out rapidly...

Four Companies are prospecting with drain races. It has 140 claims above Discovery, and none below; best prospects, 15 cents.

Mr. Strang further says, that good order and industry are prevailing characteristics of the camp. Very little whiskey is drunk, and the public gambling in Louisville, on the Sunday previous to his departure, when 300 miners were in town, was confined to one game of poker.
