Domestic Trouble.

On New Year's night there was a decided explosion at Henderson's saloon.

O'Connor skulked in the neighborhood for several days and was arrested by Under-Sheriff Warren.

An examination was had on Saturday before C. E. Irvine, J. P., and the prisoner held to bail in the sum of $500.

Mrs. O'Connor's wounds, though serious, are not considered fatal or even dangerous.

LECTURE.—Rev. Wm. Stoy, will deliver a lecture at the Court House, Deer Lodge.

Saturday Evening, January 13th, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society.

THE ANGLE-SAXON EMPIRE. Admission 50 cents. By order of the Ladies' Aid Society.

Phillipsburg.—Our correspondent at Phillipsburg, under date of Jan. 6th, sends us the following items:

The Tabor mine is looking well, shows an eight-foot vein of milling ore and is improving in quality.

George H. Hannab died, after a short illness, of congestion of the lungs, in Virginia City, Jan. 8.

Some anxiety is felt as to the safety of Mr. Thomas Miesot, of this place.

HOW THEY DO IN SHELLEN AND HOW PEOPLE SHOULD DO HERE. GO TO E. A. F. HELM'S, Post Office Store.

Good Hunting.—On Monday last Messrs. Gomer and Miller of Deer Lodge returned from a hunt on Warm Spring Creek.

Both antelope and sheep are numerous in places along the foot hills, having been driven from the mountains by the heavy snows.

Illness.—Our friend and townsman, Howard H. Zeor, late Clerk and Recorder of this county, has been confined to his room for eight or ten days past.

Not so Well.—The boys of Phillipsburg are a jolly set, but some of them have a weakness for "draw." "A verdant" from the valley visited their locality to collect some vegetable pills.

Fresh California Goods JUST RECEIVED BY KLEINSCHMIDT BROS.

Milk for All. Thinking the citizens of Deer Lodge for the very liberal patronage bestowed upon us, I take pleasure in informing them that I am now able to furnish all the milk required.

Give Up.—Apparently this lot got good weather for our Mongol friends. Ah Tong passed in his papers and took flight to his relatives in the moon.

The Bridal Chamber. ESSAYS FOR YOUNG MEN, ON THE DUTY OF BRIDE AND GROOM, WITH MARRIAGES—WITH A FULL AND COMPLETE HISTORY OF THE MARRIAGE CEREMONY.

THE IBEZ AGAIN.—The San Francisco Scientific Press of Dec. 30th, presents a very good likeness of the patriarch of the Ibez family lately exhibited here.

BANK EXCHANGE. JAMES O'GRADY, PROPRIETOR.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

H. Inkamp, from Phillipsburg, was a call. The express from 13th to 15th Street.

Our talented and drowsy Democracy friend, Thos. L. Napton, Esq., returned from Virginia City Wednesday night.

An eastern mail came through last Tuesday with dates back to the 18th of December. It was the first mail in ten days.

Rev. Mr. Stoy lectures in Helena for the benefit of the Literary Association, Jan. 20th. Subject, the "Anglo Saxon Empire."

Attention is called to the "Notices to Settle," to be found in our new advertisement column. Both parties man business.

There is a letter at this office, containing valuable information, for Mr. L. Loreto, from P. Loreto, near Cleveland, Ohio. Also one for Mr. McCraner.

J. C. Robinson, Esq., our District Attorney, returned from Virginia City on Sunday. He honored us with a call and spent some pleasant yarns about affairs at the Capital.

The seventh session of the Montana Legislature was to adjourn at 11:30 p. m. last evening. Up to the hour of closing our forms were unable to learn the particulars of the closing scenes.

George H. Hannab died, after a short illness, of congestion of the lungs, in Virginia City, Jan. 8. Mr. H. was one of the first settlers in Virginia, and was well known throughout the Territory.

Some anxiety is felt as to the safety of Mr. Thomas Miesot, of this place. He left home some six weeks ago to bring up some of his stock from the Gallatin.

THE TERRITORY.

The holiday stock was the first of the kind known in the Territory. Capt. Nat Pope arrived from Santa Fe, N. M., fifty days on the way.

Staircase accidents are the order of the day and evening. The ladies of the M. J. Church are to have a "princely concert and festival" for the purpose of paying off the indebtedness of the church.

Col. Charles, Assessor of Internal Revenue, is about leaving for the States, shortly. Mr. Frank Abt yesterday brought down a basket which he found lying around in his back yard, containing the remains of a human skeleton.

The committee for the distribution of the proceeds of the Entertainment given by the Grand Potatoes, for the relief of the poor, are unable to find much destination. Work of all kinds is plenty in Helena; even portulacae wood sawyers are scarce, and the colour market is almost stagnant.

The Supreme Court met yesterday, a full bench present. The business will occupy the Court about ten days. The occupants of the Robbers' Roost held jubilee New Year's night.

Mr. A. F. Thrasher has sold an interest in his views of the Yellowstone, and with his partner has left for Philadelphia where it is the intention to have the views transferred to canvas before exhibiting their wonders.

Dr. Alexander has a shaft over 100 feet deep on the Big Lost Lake, Hot Springs. The hole has a two-foot vein of black iron rich in gold.

The office of the Pioneer has been removed to Main street. Fred Gross has had one of his feet badly frozen.

A dancing club has been formed in Missoula. Charles Edwards, for sometime past laboring under mental derangement, attempted suicide by shooting himself.

The course of lectures of the Helena Library will commence January 22d, by a lecture on the Rev. Mr. Stoy of Deer Lodge.

NOTES OF THE DAY. Calcutta's commerce is decreasing. Sojourner Truth is lecturing in Kansas.

Mr. Spurgeon has been compelled within the last year to receive ten warm offers of marriage.

The King of Prussia, according to Biemark, owes his long life and good health to the copious use of beer and wine.

George H. Boker, Minister to Egypt, was tendered a farewell banquet before his departure, at which Bayard Taylor read a poetic farewell.

THE BORN. HARRIS—In Deer Lodge, Jan. 2d, to the wife of Henry Harris, a daughter.

DECEASED. HARRIS—In Virginia City, Jan. 8, George H. Harris, of common law, aged 38 years.

TAKEN UP. CAME TO MILK RANCH, three miles below Deer Lodge, about Nov. 1st, 1871, a hogged cow.
