"Never mind the obituary, Judge," said a Montana culprit when the court became pathetic in pronouncing the sentence.

Mr. L. R. Millet, of Stevensville, makes some pertinent suggestions in a letter published on the inside of this week's paper.

We publish to-day a law relating to the responsibility of liquor sellers, enacted at the recent session. It is one of the most important acts passed, and the most stringent in its provisions of any laws in the country relating to the sale of liquors.

The Idaho Statesman, published at Boise City, has been sold by Jas. S. Reynolds, to Judge Milton Kelley. The politics of the paper will undergo no change.

George Wilkes, in the Spirit of the Times, unravels his plan to defeat Grant. It is by getting the Republicans of the country committed to the "One Term Principle," before the National Convention in Philadelphia, June 5th, and by coalition with the Democracy, who are to operate mainly as an armed reserve, prepared to act with "wisdom and vigor."

The District Court of Utah has been obliged to adjourn until March for want of funds, the Comptroller of the U. S. Treasury stating he has no authority to pay the U. S. Marshal court expenses incurred in proceedings under the Territorial statutes.

The Gazette recently published a purported report of the Republican state, wherein Secretary Callaway was to succeed Judge Murphy on the bench, and the Editor of the New North-West succeeded to the Secretaryship.

The action of Delegate Clagett in submitting the recommendation of candidate for the vacant readership of West Point to a committee of gentlemen of this Territory, will meet with universal approval.

The "pocket veto" of the Gallatin fraud bill, otherwise known as an Act to legalize certain proceedings of the Commissioners of Gallatin county, meets with the hearty approval of the Gallatin people, as we learn from personal letters.

We are glad to see that Governor Potts, a day or two after the adjournment of the Legislature, reappointed Cornelius Hedges Esq. to be Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Col. J. A. Viall, Superintendent of Indian affairs, left Helena this week under instructions from the Department to report in person for consultation.

years of unsumming arguments with the Sioux, Assinibois, and the various warlike tribes in that section, by which they have been held in peace.

THE EXECUTIVE

Governor Potts and wife left Virginia City on Monday last for a brief visit to the States. The administration of Governor Potts began in August, 1870, and since that time the people of the Territory have had good opportunity to observe and determine its character and results.

STATISTICS FOR PUBLICATION

A resolution, passed in the Council, to appropriate $500 for the first and second best statistical and descriptive articles on Montana, to be published as an immigration pamphlet, failed by its not coming to a vote in the House.

PUBLICATION OF THE LAWS

The Publisher of the New North-West, having been appointed by Secretary Callaway to do the Public Printing for Montana, we make the following statements in relation to the publication of the statutes, for general information.

ACTION OF DELEGATES

The Delegates from the general Territory, recognizing the fact that many advantages would be gained by concert of action on all general matters relating to them, have recently organized themselves, with a view to that object, and as we understand it, all general bills affecting the Territory will at this session be advocated or opposed by them as a unit.

THE DEBT OF MONTANA

Last year the debt of Montana was $1,000,000. Since the adjournment of the Legislature in 1871, the amount has increased to $1,500,000 in seven months.

THE NATIONAL PARK

We are in receipt of a letter from N. P. Langford, dated Springfield, Mass., Jan. 25th, enclosing an article from the Philadelphia Free Press, giving rather minutely the views of Mr. Langford on the movement to create a National Park at the head of the Yellowstone river.

We trust President Grant will adopt and give to this rule. It is a hard occasion to act as a President, but it is just candidates for the Presidency place themselves under obligations to support, and actually do so, "do something" for their friends after election.
