"AUTHORIZED."—Our readers will have noticed frequent allusions in the Legislative proceedings of a bill "to authorize the Commissioners of Deer Lodge county" to do certain things. This bill, we learn, authorizes them to aid in the construction of a wagon road from Phillipsburg, in this county, across the mountains to Bitter Root Valley, but the amount and conditions have been unable to ascertain. It is desirable that it would materially decrease the cost of transportation on Bitter Root products to Phillipsburg and other camps of this county as it would shorten up the distance from 60 to 80 miles. The project has been in contemplation for several years and was largely subscribed to at one time. But while desirable, we feel it requires the expenditure of a vast sum of money. It was undertaken by liberal subscriptions in 1870 or 1871, but fell through without anything of importance being done and was pronounced by many too expensive if not impracticable. As inferred from the title of the bill it is not mandatory and there will be opportunity to fully investigate and ascertain the facts.

THEY'VE FLAT.—Messrs. A. Hays and D. Cohen came down on Wednesday from Dewey's Flat and gave us the following items from that prospective but little mentioned locality: "The Flat" has a population of eighty souls, including ten families. A good school is being conducted, with 20 scholars, by Mr. Buckwater. It is contemplated soon to erect a good building for a school room and public hall. Among the improvements, Mr. Hays has just completed a hotel 34x36, two stories; Cohen Bros. are erecting a store building 32x30 in which a dance, for the school house building fund, will be given as a house warming, and Mr. Miller has just completed a residence and shoe store. The Montana mill has been running steadily with good results under the superintendence of Mr. Logan, and is just now temporarily stopped to put supporting walls under the mill. Forty-eight tons of ore have just been crushed for Mr. Mansfield, saving 83 per cent, and the Monroe company have resumed active work taking out ore from the Pettengill lode. Mr. Dewey is putting in a three-story battery with his armament and will materially increase his working capacity there. John Heenan & Co. have a quantity of ore from the Traveller lode, just across the river from the Flat, now at the mill, and are running a tunnel for the lode. Leggett Bros. have out 500 tons of good ore at their mine and developments are progressing favorably in the district. The gentlemen say the outlook at Vipond and Dewey's Flat is as good now as it was at Butte one year ago. Mining is coming to the front.

GOOD TEMPLAR'S BALL.

As anticipated the Good Templar's ball on Tuesday evening, under the auspices of Centennial Lodge No. 55, was the finest that has been in Deer Lodge for years. Willcox Hall and the Lodge Rooms were crowded with participants, there being nearly two hundred persons present and the entertainment was a financial as well as social success. The Lodge netting a handsome surplus over expenditures. The arrangements were complete and satisfactory in every respect, reflecting credit on the committee and the supper was absolutely superb. Thanks to the liberality and benevolence of the good ladies of the lodge. The dance continued until 4 o'clock and will be remembered among the happiest hours by the many who participated in the long-talked-of Good Templar's ball.

THE VIVIAN.—We are requested by Mr. McMurphy, agent of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vivian, to state that they will give their Parlor Entertainment in Deer Lodge on Wednesday evening of next week, the ball to be hereafter announced. Mr. McMurphy will be here on Saturday evening and notice was furnished on account of engagements at Fort Shaw and Benton declining them, and another entertainment will be given in Helena to-morrow evening. The excellence of these artists is so well appreciated that further mention is unnecessary. They will have a splendid audience in Deer Lodge.

E. L. Bonner & Co.

Dr. J. M. Merrill and Mr. Joshua Jennings, of Phillipsburg, are in town this week. Lou. P. Smith, deputy sheriff, and Mr. J. H. Buxton, deputy P. M., are visiting Helena this week. W. W. Dixon, Esq., and O. B. O'Bannon, Probate Judge, have been in Butte on business during the week.

Willie Woodward, of Butte, has had heavy affliction. Last year his father died in California. A few days since he had a telegram announcing the dangerous illness of his mother. He started at once by coach and an hour or two after he left a telegram came announcing her death. He, however, continued on his sad journey. Willie is highly esteemed and has the warmest sympathies of his friends.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Bonner and Charley left on Wednesday's coach desiring to be absent several months. They go first to California and thence to New York and Boston. Mr. B. goes to purchase goods for their house and will remain in the market during the season, thus having the great advantage of examining and purchasing goods when best opportunity offers. We are pleased to know that our energetic young friend Mr. M. J. Connell in the employ of E. L. Bonner & Co. for the past two years has been promoted to an interest in the business which has largely increased in proportions during the past year. With Mr. Bonner purchasing and Mr. Robertson seconded by Mr. Connell conducting business here the firm will be enabled to operate with unsurpassed advantages in handling the newest and best styles of goods at unapproachable low prices. Mr. C. has all the elements of a first-rate business man and we are pleased to see him have so auspicious a start.

5. When owners of property cannot be found, proceed to make list according to your best information and belief and append the following certificate to the return. 1. Elias Lytle, Assessor of said county of Deer Lodge, hereby certify that the above named person, upon demand, refused to render under oath a list of his property, and that the within list was made by me at the date therein named according to my best knowledge and information, and 2d part cent. added thereto as required by law in such cases. (Signed.) ELIAS LYTLE, Assessor. Board adjourned.

Masquerade Suits.

I have forty magnificent costumes, mostly new and first-class, which I will hire at reasonable prices. Serious buyers in the Territory. For particulars inquire of JOHN O'NEILL, Deer Lodge, Mont.

INSTALLATION.—At a regular meeting of Centennial Lodge No. 55, I. O. O. F., held at Deer Lodge, on Monday February 9, 1877, the following officers were duly installed to serve for the ensuing term: W. C. T. T. H. Tolman, W. M.; R. H. S. Bettle Irvine, Sec.; H. S. Clark, J. H. S. Maggie B. Irvine, W. M.; W. V. T. Jane O'Neil, W. M.; W. S. W. F. Shanley, W. M.; W. A. S. J. Woodward, W. M.; W. S. J. Haddenbrook, W. M.; Daniel Stephens, W. M.; W. C. T. Wm. Hawley, Treas.; O. E. Warren, Marshal; Eliza Shaw, W. A. M.; J. B. Wilcox, Chaplain; J. T. Coughenour, W. I. G.; M. J. Connell, W. O. G.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Peter Just nearly amputated a thumb a few days ago. Rev. Father DeFeyere will be in Phillipsburg and have Catholic services at usual hours next Sunday. Radiguepo, the Italian in the insane asylum, is growing worse; all the other patients are improving. Mr. George Rea who was under sentence in the Penitentiary received conditional pardon from the Governor and was liberated this week. Miss Capitola Manning has been engaged as teacher of the Phillipsburg school and leaves this morning with a view to commencing next Monday. Chinese New Year, we don't know how many thousand and ninetieth, has been progressing with uninterrupted festivities and fireworks this week. John's earthly dream of Paradise is pork, chickens and fire-crackers. Mr. T. J. Demers' pack-train loaded with flour came from Frenchtown Wednesday and left for home this morning. Mr. Mart. Newcomb, who has charge of the train, disposed of his load Thursday to one of our wholesale houses. The Deer Lodge Public School Exhibition will take place in a couple of weeks. The participants are devoting as much time to preparation as other duties will permit and the entertainment promises to be very interesting and characters well sustained. The entry of Butte town lots the latter part of last week was lively, as many as 25 or 30 a day being entered and recorded. The real estate future runs high in our neighboring burg, and it seems to be well sustained by developments and prospects. "Is" and "are" have subsided. It is probably the lust before the storm, and in the Teachers' Institute the doughy champions of the disputed verb will buckle on the grammars and hunt the thunderbolts of syntax with unrelenting fury. Mr. Ringling, Secretary of the Hope Mining Company, Phillipsburg, brought up and shipped on Monday ten bars of silver, valued at $10,000. Mr. R. says the ore is yielding well and the Hope is going on its way prospering. F. J. Kiesel, Esq., of the popular forwarding house of Kiesel & Co., gave us a call the other day in his annual trip among his Montana patrons. "Ever accommodating, prompt, energetic and correct" is what the patrons say of Kiesel & Co. And such has been our experience. Episcopal Church services during Lent will be as follows: Wednesday evenings, with lectures on History and Practices of the Church; Friday evenings, with lectures on Personal Religion. A series of sermons will be delivered on Sunday evenings on the subject, "Christ Satisfying the Instincts of Humanity." Messrs. Dick Hauser and George Hale, of Helena, went to Butte a few days ago. Mr. Hauser designs establishing a Bank there—a branch we presume of the First National of Helena—and Mr. Hale has purchased the stock of Dr. Wetzel & Co. and will put in a complete and large stock. A good Bank building will probably be erected. L. Scholfield, 24 U. S. Cavalry, passed through from Ft. Ellis to Jocko Agency and arrived in Deer Lodge over Sunday. Lient. S. is assigned to duty with Lient. Fuller who is stationed at the Agency with twenty cavalrymen. It is understood that on recommendation of Capt. Ball, a company of Infantry—some 30 or 35 men—from Fort Shaw will march as soon as transportation can be had and relieve the Cavalry detachment on duty at the Agency. The Dexter mill, Butte, will send down to-morrow $12,000 or $13,000 in silver, this week's contribution to specie resumption. Our mining and reduction is this winter giving compensated employment directly and indirectly to probably 1,500 people in this county and exerts a material effect on business and finances over previous winters. By next winter the effect will be still more apparent and the long winters will have lost their terrors to business men.

MILES LAST BATTLE.

"All of which I saw, and Part of which I was." Special Correspondence New North-West. Post No. 1. MOUTH OF TONGUE RIVER, FEBRUARY 17, 1877. I wrote you a short time ago giving you an account of the last expedition under General Miles, in which Mr. Sitting Bull was for the second time worsted by the 5th foot. Since then we have been on ANOTHER EXPEDITION. And have just returned, coming into town yesterday noon. You may talk of the efficacy of a winter campaign, and of the results likely to follow thereupon, but I can tell you that the same is a thousand-fold more destructive to the whites than to our enemy. Accustomed to houses where to shelter themselves, good fires without clothing when obliged temporarily to expose themselves to the severity of a storm, we whites when obliged to travel with a limited supply of a clothing, a small piece of canvas for covering during the night, and, except what they are enabled to purchase out of their small monthly pay, with the same clothing that is issued to them in the most southern districts, are by far more severely affected by the asperities of this climate than are the enemy they so laboriously seek.

FROST BITES, Principally of the feet, hands and face, are of daily occurrence, and with the limited appliances for cure, afforded on a scouting expedition, are of exceeding annoyance and wonderfully productive of demoralization and disaffection. The reds, to be sure, are very much disturbed and suffer more or less, but it is a question whether the untutored savage in cases of this kind is not the equal if not the superior of his more enlightened Escaulapian brother. To return, however, as I said before we arrived yesterday noon from our last trip. This time we scouted the whole of Tongue River, from its mouth to within sight of Goose Creek, the scene of the opening of Crook's campaign one year ago. We succeeded in finding an immense camp of Cheyennes and Sioux combined, and on the 8th of January had quite a severe tussle with the warriors appearing thereto.

THE PLACE OF COMBAT Was in the Wolf Mountains, near the mouth of Prairie Dog Creek, and although we brought no scalps back with us, the numerous blood-sockets we discovered on the snow-covered ground proved most positively that our first victory was ours. Our own loss was one killed and eight wounded, one of whom has since died. The remainder will recover. The band is supposed to be that of Crazy Horse, joined to the Cheyennes driven from Powder River by McKenzie. Their camps extended about one and one-half to two miles, and bore evidence of having been occupied for some time. They were obliged to leave it, however, and are now probably in the Big Horn mountains, where they will in all probability remain until again disturbed. They will not, however, soon get another such splendid camping ground, for the valley of Tongue River affords abundance of grass, timber and shelter. They were both to leave, and gave us a good fight for the possession of the same, and retired only after a stubborn resistance and the loss of the more prominent positions of the field. We brought in a few squaws and children, who will be turned over to the Department Commander. The trip was a severe one on us, and resulted in seventy-five or eighty cases of frost bite of a force of about 400 men, but grumble as we all undoubtedly did at the severe calls upon us, we will all go out again cheerfully after a week or two of rest.

THE WEATHER.

Has been very severe during the first of the month, occasionally raining, the rain being followed by a receding thermometer to 29 to 40°. Our return trip was over ground covered by from 12 to 14 inches of snow, frequently made interesting by drifts of from two to four feet in depth. If you have not waded through the same you can form no idea of the fatigue consequent upon the effort, and will fall to appreciate the arduous nature of our task; but if you have, you will at once see that we have had no child's play wherewith to amuse ourselves. The only cheer that I heard on the whole trip was on breaking camp yesterday morning, when we knew that 11 or 12 miles would bring us to the Post, and a little rest.

HAPPY AGAIN.

Now, however, that we are all back we feel happy once more, and are ready to begin preparations for the next campaign. Carroll lost 200 head of stock about the time our expedition started out. Of these we recaptured 11. A number of ponies, saddles, &c. added to the squaws and children, complete our list of spoils. If these few notes are of any small use to you, I have had only a few minutes to scribble them out, having only just now heard that a scout was to be dispatched to overtake a citizen who starts from one of the hay camps to-morrow morning. Yours, L.

RESOLUTION OF THAMES.

A Deserved Compliment to Our Centennial Commissioner. —H. J. R. No. 4.— WHEREAS, Joseph P. The Fair will commence on Monday, September 24th, and continue six days.

Zed Daniels, just arrived from Tongue river, reports that Miles has had a brush with the hostiles, and that the Sioux had stamped or were running, or that Col. Miles had retreated in good order and needed help. Ye local "got the account somewhat mixed," but we have a vivid impression still of the dog and bear story—it was nip and tuck, with the dog (Goose Indian) a little ahead.—Courier, 8th.

Dr. Schmalhausen has gone over to Banack. Dr. Leavitt expects soon to make a protracted visit to the States, and in that event Banack and vicinity would be left without a physician. And at the request of Dr. Leavitt, Dr. Schmalhausen has gone over, probably to take charge of his practice during his absence.—Madisonian.

George Honk, from Cypress Mountain, reports that about the 23rd ultimo, a lively fight took place between a war-party of Snake Indians and a small camp of Pen d'Oreilles. A new fire-proof stone building is to be erected on Main street, to the north and adjoining Foster & Ray's store, to be occupied by E. L. Bonner & Co. as a store and warehouse. Their rapidly increasing business in this place obliges them to move to more suitable quarters in order to meet the demands of their trade.—Id.

Five bars of silver representing a coin value of $5,400, were shipped from the Dexter mill on Friday last. The mill is still running on ore from the La Plata mine the average assay of which so far has been 180 ozs. silver and $65 gold.—Id.

The Young & Roundshub was in operation for five days and two nights of last week. The mill is still incomplete, which accounts for its not running continuously. During the time it was in operation it was demonstrated that five tons of ore can readily be crushed per day.—Id.

Nearly $7,000 in crude bullion was shipped from A. J. Davis' mill to-day to the Government assay office at Helena and another shipment will be made during the week. The pans in use still leak a little quicker, which has been the greatest defect in the works since starting up, but this trouble will soon be overcome. The process now used in the reduction of ores was questioned by many before the starting of these works, but a trial of three weeks has demonstrated the fact that it is all and even more than has ever been claimed for it, as silver to over 70 per cent. has been saved, and also a large percentage of gold—something that was not expected.

Reviews of "Her Lovers" in the Gate City and Constitution by one of the most accomplished literary critics speak of the work in very flattering terms: "It has been 'long since a novel has appeared with such claims to originality of plan, such beauty 'in its descriptions of nature, and such 'power and pathos in its portrayal of that 'passion which has been truly said to rule 'the world.'
