OPEN LETTERS TO MR. McDONALD.

Editor New North-West: Please read the news gently to Duncan McDonald (the Nez Perce historian) ...

Your readers here awaited the arrival of the New North-West of January 31st with breathless anxiety.

The writer talks through a Nez Perce telescope, and he would naturally hold his breath while the ghosts of his friends' victims were passing in review.

BANNACK, Feb. 4, 1879. SUBSCRIBER.

Dear Sir:—Being one of your numerous subscribers who has for many years read your valuable paper, particularly since the history of the Nez Perce war is being published weekly through the proficiency and kindness of Mr. McDonald, whom, I have no doubt, is giving a fair and impartial account of the campaign, and judging from the fact of his retracing steps from time to time in the several issues of your paper, when speaking of long-remembered events, I would, therefore, respectfully ask Mr. McDonald to draw back to the Big Hole battle ground, and from said point give us an outline of the Nez Perce march to Horse Prairie, thence to Birch creek and Lemhi valley, which has been omitted. By so doing he will confer a great favor upon many readers who have looked forward for a solution of the principal facts incident to that portion of their march.

A SUDDEN DEATH.—Mr. Leon Quesselle died suddenly at the City Hotel on Saturday evening last. He came to Deer Lodge on Thursday, and on Friday, in company with Mr. Charles Rouleau, was out in the foothills looking for stock. On Saturday he seemed in the enjoyment of perfect health, but after eating his supper in the evening, while walking away from the table, fell to the floor and expired almost instantly. Dr. Musgrave was summoned, arrived where Mr. Quesselle was in a few moments and endeavored to revive him, but he was past all help. The Doctor immediately announced the cause of his death to be heart disease and the appearance of the body on Sunday proved him to have been correct. Messengers were immediately sent to Butte to convey the sad intelligence to his relatives and friends living at that place. The funeral took place from the Catholic Church on Monday afternoon, and the body was followed to the cemetery by many friends. Mr. Quesselle had been a resident of this county a number of years, first coming here in 1860. He engaged in stock-raising and farming in the Upper Valley for some time. Last summer he moved to Butte and has been engaged in merchandising there. He leaves two children.

TO LET.

The store room—36 feet front—formerly occupied by E. L. Bonner & Co. as a dry goods store is offered for rent on reasonable terms. Possession given immediately. The building is situated by a good water supply, and is well adapted for a grocery store and counters, and is as near as desired to a building can be made. For terms, etc., apply to NEW NORTH-WEST.

The STORM.—Tuesday's storm was the severest ever known in the valley. Coaches due here on the evening of that day did not arrive until late Wednesday—the Helena coming in about 3:30 and the Easterns after 4 p. m. "Chas" the driver on the Helena route stopped over night at Miss Maud's, which place he reached late in the afternoon. "Jimmie" the driver on the Eastern route left Silver Bow at eleven o'clock on Tuesday. After getting in the valley below Pierce's station, he lost his way in the blinding storm, but finally reached Warm Springs at 1 a. m. Wednesday—18 miles from Deer Lodge. He left the Springs at daylight at arrived here in the time as stated. When he left Silver Bow nothing had been heard of the coach east of that place for two days.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

How did you like your valentine? Light mails have arrived from the east for the last week.

Mr. Sol. Huggill has succeeded Mr. Haany in the bakery business.

The snow fall above the Deer Lodge crossing was much greater than in the lower part of the valley.

The Nez Perce papers are not published this week, no Missoula mail having arrived since Tuesday last.

The "Beautiful Snow" has been tolerably well written up. Now let some one write something about the "beautiful's no."

A scrupulous Jehu was heard to remark on Wednesday that "this snow is a good thing for placer miners, but it's a— on stage horses."

Addison Smith, Esq., has been asked to deliver the opening address at the Deer Lodge county Teachers' Institute, which will meet at this place on March 3d.

Zozol Bros. have started the foundation of their large blacksmith and wagon shop on Main street. If the weather is favorable they will occupy their new building before long.

A large number of seamen, representing different branches of business and eastern and California houses, have interviewed our merchants during the past week.

The Good Templars of New Chicago have their ball Tuesday. We acknowledge receipt of an invitation to the present on Wednesday. Dance alone prevents our accepting, as it will undoubtedly be a pleasant affair.

The NEW NORTH-WEST presents its subscribers with a handsomely printed calendar for 1879. It has also reduced its subscription price to $5 per annum. The NEW NORTH-WEST is one of the best papers published in the far west.—Husbandman.

John J. Healey writes a complimentary letter in relation to Deer Lodge, which is published in the Benton Record of the 7th. Mr. Healey is writing a series of "Frontier Sketches" for the Record, and they are full of interest—particularly to old residents of the Territory.

Mr. Sol. Huggill has succeeded Mr. Haany in the bakery and restaurant business, and presents his card in this issue. Lunches will be served at all hours. At the bar will be found the best brands of liquors and cigars procurable. "Sol" will be pleased to have his friends call.

We call attention to the conspicuous advertisement of E. L. Bonner & Co. in this week's paper. The firm have an immense invoice of goods coming in the spring, and desire to dispose of the stock on hand. "One Price" is their motto, whether the goods are bought in person or ordered by mail or express.

A bill has been introduced in the House which provides that "tramps shall be put to work with a ball and chain." If it becomes a law, the distribution of a few copies of this enactment along the route by which they are liable to come to the Territory will have the effect of keeping this non-desirable class of emigrants from coming among us.

The committee have made arrangements with Mr. Strickland to furnish a conveyance for parties desiring to attend the Gallo Ball on Friday evening next. Leave your orders at the stable and the sleighs will be sent to the residences. If careful preparations are any evidence of a good time, all who attend the Ball may rest assured they will enjoy themselves.

Unlike the Millerites and others prone to prophecy, it would seem that Professor Knapp was nearly correct in his predictions in regard to the sickness which is to prevail this year. From all over the country comes reports of sickness in various places—a great deal of which is fatal. Although there has been more sickness in Montana than ever before known, we are happily exempt from the fatality attendant in other places.

For the benefit of sufferers from neuralgia, we give Edison's receipt for his polyform, which is said to be remarkably successful in curing or deadening the pain of that terrible disease. It must be remembered that it is for outward application only: Chloroform, two ounces; chloral hydrate, two ounces; alcohol, one and a half ounces; camphor, one ounce; sulphuric ether, one ounce; sulphate morphia, six grains; oil peppermint, two drams. Shake thoroughly. It can be put up at any druggist's.

DOWN GOES THE PRICES.

Thirty Per Cent. Reduction on Clothing Made Order.

To keep pace with the times, I have come down Thirty Per Cent. in prices of Clothing made to order.

I desire particularly to work down my large, fine stock of French, English and American casimere. All work wanted done in every respect. For reference, I need refer to the many patrons of my house during the past two years. Call and see my goods—Wall street, Helena. S. LEVINE, Merchant Tailor.

THE RAILROAD EXEMPTION BILL.

HELENA, Feb. 11.—The railroad exemption bill was reported back to the House at 3 p. m. After considerable skirmishing, in which the anti-exemptionists had the best of it by two votes, the bill was made the special order for 10:30 a. m. on Thursday, Feb. 20th. The vote stood:

Ayes—Heach, Boyer, Edwards, Forbes, Hamilton, Harrington, Marton, McElroy, Myers, Perkins, Robinson, Sweney, Thorpe and Wilson—14, Yeas, 12.

Unless, therefore, there is a change in the sentiment of the House, the bill may be considered lost in the House.

ESTRAY TAKEN UP.

Came to my ranch on Warm Spring Creek, Jan. 17, 1879. I have been unable to find the owner. The owner is requested to prove property charges and take the animals away. Warm Spring, January 15, 1879. (400-4)

RELATING TO FIREMEN.—A bill has passed in the Legislature to exempt only the officers and not the members of fire companies from jury duty. Exemption from this duty may be assigned as the cause of the large membership of which the fire companies throughout the Territory boast.

However, if the law does not prescribe the number of officers, it can be easily applied. Any one who may desire to join a fire company can have no objection. We expect to hear of a Deer Lodge No. 1 consisting of a number of our citizens. We suggest a bugler, nozzle carrier, lantern-holder, pipe-layer, spigot-greaser, etc., until all members have offices.
