THE SANITARY COMMITTEE.—Will meet at the office of W. R. McKee, Wednesday morning, at nine o'clock. A full attendance is desired.

L. G. WARREN, Chairman.

The man who stops his team on the cross walk was in town yesterday. He sat in his wagon and coolly looked at the ladies wading round it through the mud, just as though he enjoyed making a nuisance of himself.

The Nashville Union says that city abounds with two noted species of arboreal growth, the lovely and queenly Magnolia and the foul-breathed Alanthus; the former smells as fragrant as patriotism, and the latter stinks like treason.

A new moon was hung in the heavens last evening but from its neutral position, the weatherwise could not exactly determine whether it would be wet or dry weather this month. Very probably it will be one or the other.

The Indianapolis Sentinel notices the safe arrival of Capt. Goodwin, of this city, with eighty four men. They immediately took up quarters in Camp Morton. Ample preparations have been made to receive companies of the Legion as fast as they are reported.

The Catholic Society of this city go on a picnic excursion to-morrow morning, to the four mile rocks, southeast of the city. A train on the E. & C. R. R. will leave the depot at 8 o'clock. Fare for the round trip, 25 cents. The most complete arrangements have been made to secure the success of the picnic, and all who choose to go will undoubtedly enjoy a pleasant time.

THE WEEKLY EXPRESS, containing the latest news from McClellan's Hallock's, Fremont's and other Departments, New York and Cincinnati markets, home news besides a vast amount of interesting reading, is issued this morning. Single copies in wrappers for mailing can be had at the counting room, for five cents. Nothing better can be sent to friends in Camp.

PRINCETON HOME GUARDS.—Capt. L. S. Ball, son of Dr. E. V. Ball, of this city, came up from Princeton yesterday with a company of fifty-five men, and left on the afternoon train. As they passed through the city they elicited the admiration of our citizens by their fine soldierly appearance. The following are the principal officers: Lawrence S. Ball, Captain; D. B. Adams, 1st Lieutenant; G. W. Dickerson, 2d Lieutenant; W. A. Gunn, Orderly Sergeant.

Business in the recruiting line continues brisk, reminding us very much of the exciting times of one year ago. Messrs. Peck, Paddock and Parry, are doing a heavy business in the Linton Block, on Main street. Capt. Hamill late of the 11th Indiana (Zouave) Regiment, has opened an office at the old Adams Express corner, and Mayor Stewart at the City Hall, each of whom, we have no doubt will succeed in filling their companies in a short time. As these troops will not go out of the State, a fine opportunity is here offered for a display of "Home Guard" patriotism. There should be as little delay as possible in this matter, as the call is urgent. Let the ranks be filled up at once. The Hoosier boys now in the service have won immortal fame. Let not the fair name of the State be sullied by any lagging on the part of the patriotic boys who yet remain.

A young man named Neck has recently been married to Miss Heels. They are now, therefore, literally tied neck and heels together.

Persons are in Washington seeking authority to raise the sunken vessels at Norfolk, one of which is said to have seventy five thousand dollars aboard.

Vicksburg and Natchez have both surrendered to the Federal fleet. Memphis will be the next place attacked by it.—Where is Hollis? Cannot he be caught and his musket fed destroyed?

Gen. Butler, says a New Orleans letter, has taken the wife of Gen. Beauregard, who was found to be in New Orleans, under his care and protection.

General Fremont has decided to hang guerrillas and bushwhackers, in case that he is not interfered with. It is said that when a guerrilla falls into the hands of his soldiers, the usual report of the guard is, "that the prisoner tried to escape and was shot," or that a "gun was accidentally went off and killed him."

The Toledo Commercial gives the following good report: "The other day as a number of rebel prisoners were being shipped at Sandusky for the traitor's home on Johnson's Island, a little German made himself quite prominent with his noisy remarks about the seceders. One of them, a brawny six-footer, turned savagely upon him and said, 'We eat Dutchmen down South.' 'You den you eat Sigel?' was the instant retort. Secesh had no reply to give, but passed sadly on."

General Order, No. 41. ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE, INDIANA VOLUNTEER MILITIA, Indianapolis, June 2, 1862.

General Orders No. 41. Special orders, No. 38, issued on the 28th of May, 1862, for the organization of volunteer forces to relieve the 60th regiment, and to guard rebel prisoners, have been modified as follows:

A sufficient number of companies, to serve three months unless sooner discharged, will be accepted to organize one regiment, and at least one battalion, and be mustered into the United States service.

Each company will be organized as follows: 1 Captain, 1 1st Lieutenant, 1 2d Lieutenant, 1 1st Sergeant, 4 Sergeants, 8 Corporals, 2 Musicians, 1 wagoner and at least 64 privates.

Each company will elect a Captain, 1st Lieutenant and 2d Lieutenant, subject to the approval of the Governor, by whom they will be commissioned, unless good reasons exist for refusing. The non-commissioned officers, until the company shall be embodied in a regiment, will be appointed by the Captain, afterwards by the Colonel, on the recommendation of the Captain.

When one half a company has been mustered into service, the 1st Lieutenant thereon can also be mustered in, and when the organization of the company is completed, the Captain and 2d Lieutenant can so be mustered.

Any company of 42 men will be accepted and mustered with a 1st Lieutenant, and it they fail to fill up within a reasonable time, they will be consolidated with other parts of companies. The right is reserved to combine incomplete companies or parts of companies after a fair opportunity has been afforded them to fill up.

Companies desiring to enter the service, will report without delay to the Adjutant General's Office, file a full company roll, and state when they will be ready for duty.—They will be accepted in the order they tender their services, and the correct company rolls.

Authority is not given to parties to organize companies, nor will companies be accepted in advance of their organization. Companies must be already organized and subject to orders before they can be accepted. As soon as companies are full and awaiting orders, they will be notified of time and place of rendezvous.

Companies must not march to the rendezvous without direct orders from the Adjutant General.

It is desired to complete the organization of these forces by the 10th of June.

By order of His Excellency, G. P. Morton, Governor of Indiana.

L. E. NOBLE, Adj. Gen. Ind.

Noon Dispatches.

MISSOURI STATE CONVENTION.

SPECIAL TO MISSOURI DEMOCRAT.

JEFFERSON CITY, June 2.—The State Convention met in Representatives Hall at noon, President Wilson in the Chair.

There not being a quorum present the Convention adjourned till 5 p. m., when the Convention reassembled and proceeded to business. There being eight members more than a quorum present.

A communication from the Governor was received and read. He reviews the history of State affairs for the past year in detail, especially in reference to the Provisional Government in raising and supplying troops, and expresses the obligation the State is under to the General Government for the promptness and liberality with which its wants have been supplied. There have been no discharging officers $30,000 in State Defence Warrants, and a further amount of $50,000 will have to be issued; $100,000 have been redeemed by receipts for taxes from 41 counties. The depreciation of this paper the Governor attributes to interested parties, but gives assurance that it is better secured than any bank paper in the State as it is receivable for taxes, and in one year will all be redeemed, besides this it has the collateral security of Bank Stock and the debt will be assumed by the General Government.

The Provisional Government began with an empty Treasury. The State credit was gone because the interest of our debt was not paid. Sheriffs resigned rather than collect taxes, and even now, only forty-one counties have returned tax books for 1861; and out of 640,220 dollars due from them, only 253,386 dollars have been paid in.

From seventy-three counties not heard from, the amount due is very large; but officers are finding it more easy to make collections, and altogether, the condition of things is not worse than when the present authorities received control of the Government.

The bondholders will hardly expect the July interest to be paid, but do not doubt the ability of the State to pay, ultimately.

The appointment to fill county offices, made vacant by incumbents refusing to take the oath of allegiance, have generally been acceptable in most parts of the State. Courts of justice are open, and the laws properly administered; but in others disturbances and guerrilla warfare. Sufficient force is now ready, however, to compel the cessation of such outrages. Troops hostile to the people and institutions of the State, have been supplanted by home volunteers, who will be less objectionable.

Plans of securing peace and prosperity will be due, under the providence of God, to the patriotism and wisdom of the Convention. Much remains to be done, and nothing must be allowed to distract the attention and energy of all classes of the people from the means heretofore employed.

The Governor is doubtful as to the wisdom of electing members of Congress seventeen months before taking their seats, as questions may come up for consideration different from those on which they were elected, but he ventured no recommendation on the subject.

As to the ordinance passed last November ordaining an election of executive officers and for the ratification of the provisional Government, which was postponed till the coming August, he submits whether it should not be annulled in view of the fact that 30,000 citizens are absent from the State as volunteers, who ought to have a voice in this matter, as to an oath of loyalty for the qualification of voters, he submits the question without recommendation, although he thinks the State ought to be protected against the influence of those who have been recalcitrant to its interests.

Resolutions were passed authorizing the President to appoint a committee in each Congressional District, elections, elective franchise, finance, military and State constitution.

Some members are confident that the question of emancipation will be voted out of even a consideration, in the convention while others are sanguine, that the President propositions will be discussed and recommended. All seem resolved on stringent measures against allowing active secessionists to vote at the approaching election.

FROM MCLELLAN.

MCLELLAN'S HEADQUARTERS, June 4.

We have taken some five hundred prisoners, among whom are several prominent officers.

On Sunday as soon as was light, the fight was renewed by Gen. Sumner with marked success. The fight lasting nearly the whole day. The rebels were driven at every point with heavy loss.

The ground gained by Gen. Sumner was about two and a half miles. Gen. Heintzelman succeeded on Sunday morning in retaking the ground, lost the day before by Gen. Casey after a severe struggle.

Our loss in the two days engagement in killed and wounded is about two thousand.

A great number are missing who will probably return, having strayed away. All the enemy's killed and most of their wounded fell into our hands.

The country in which the battle was fought is swampy, with thick underbrush, and most of the fighting was in the woods.

Owing to the nature of the ground, very little artillery was used.

Both balloons were up nearly all day yesterday.

All the troops left Richmond, and marched out in the direction of the battle field.

The railroad has been of inestimable service—the cars running to within a mile and a half of the battle field, bringing forward ammunition and supplies. The wounded were immediately put aboard the cars and sent to the White House.

Gen. McClellan arrived on the battle-field on Saturday evening where he has remained ever since, directing all the movements in person. His presence among the troops had a most splendid effect.

Four separate charges, with the bayonet, were made during yesterday. In one instance the enemy were driven a mile, during which 173 rebels were killed with the bayonet alone.

Lieut. Washington, aid to Gen. Jo. Johnston, was taken prisoner.

The enemy's dead, left on the field, amount to over twelve hundred.

Gen. Howard was wounded twice in the arm.

Col. Miller, of the 81st Pennsylvania, and Col. Riespy, of Pittsburgh, were killed; and Col. Campbell, of Pennsylvania, was wounded in the thigh.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, June 2.—The Steamer Virginia brought four hundred and ninety released prisoners. They left Salisbury on the 26th and 27th of May, but an accident to the first train which terminated in throwing them all over the side of a bridge fifty feet high, delayed them in Raleigh, where the two lots of prisoners joined.

NEW YORK, June 3.—The Times correspondent gives the following casualties in Gen. Casey's division:

Col. J. M. Brown, killed; Lieutenant Colonel J. H. Stanton, wounded; Major C. N. O'Neil, wounded; Lieutenant Brown, Co. E, wounded; Capt. Daniel B. Nash, Co. D, wounded in the left arm; Capt. J. Nicholson, Co. C, wounded; Lieutenant Brunck, Co. J, wounded; Lieutenant Kellogg, Co. G, wounded, and reported to be left on the field. Lieutenant Mayo, Co. A, slightly wounded. Also, a number of non-commissioned officers and privates.

The Times correspondent speaking of the battle of Sunday says terribly did the rebels suffer on this as well as the previous day from the well directed fire of our artillery, piling the ground with the slain.

Terrible also to them were the frequent charges of our solid columns, pressing them back step by step to the last point of endurance, when they broke and ran ingloriously, leaving behind them many of their men and officers, as well as privates, and prisoners in our hands.

NEW YORK, June 3.—A Harper's Ferry special of yesterday, says Gen. Sigel succeeds Gen. Saxton as commander of the post.

This morning wherever Gen. Sigel was recognized by the troops in his visit to their various camps accompanied by his predecessor, he was welcomed with enthusiastic cheers. His reputation will have an inspiring influence upon officers and men.

Gen. Saxton will report himself at Washington. He has had a difficult task before him, holding Jackson at bay and Trimble at the head of probably not less than 25,000 men, and notwithstanding he had a far inferior force and was seriously embarrassed by other details. He did not leave until his task was completed and the rebels had retired.

FROM FRONT ROYAL.

FRONT ROYAL, June 2.—Lieut. Jenin of General Sigel's staff, with 26 of the 1st Ohio cavalry, made a reconnaissance yesterday. Going to Strasburg on his return he reported the enemy retreating through Strasburg very rapidly with their baggage trains nearly through.

Gen. Beauregard with a force was immediately ordered to advance to Strasburg and cut off the trains. Upon arriving within a mile of Strasburg he found the enemy in great force just beyond the village and not deeming it prudent to attack, halted for the night.

Much firing was heard yesterday during the entire day, some distance beyond Strasburg.

Loyal blacks reported that Gen. Rosecrans had attacked Jackson and defeated him. She probabilities are that Jackson will be overtaken and a great battle fought.

FROM VIRGINIA.

WILLIAMSBURG, June 2.—Major Dwight, Col. Kenly, Dr. Stone and others are safe at Winchester.

A battle is progressing at the latest accounts from Middletown, so say returned prisoners.

It is rumored via Harpers Ferry, that Jackson was defeated yesterday at Winchester and was retreating towards Smokens Ferry.

MARTINSBURG, June 2.—All is quiet. No indications of the enemy in the neighborhood.

HACKBERRY, June 2.—A paroled private from Winchester arrived here to-day. He says that Jackson and Ashby were both at Winchester on Saturday at one o'clock. On Sunday morning their army was put in motion to reach Strasburg. Ashby taking the route along the north of the mountains, shortly after daylight on Sunday, he heard firing in the direction of Middletown, till he reached Martinsburg.

A secessionist told him that Jackson had encountered Shields and Fremont at Middletown, where Jackson was defeated and lost ten guns.

Information received, states that Jackson had 21 regiments of infantry, and 52 guns. All prisoners were well treated. The sick and wounded, as well as the Surgeons of the hospitals, stewards and nurses, were paroled. Only a small portion were taken along with the rebel army. They claim to have taken 2,000 prisoners.

FROM WASHINGTON.

SPECIAL TO TRIBUNE.

HARPER'S FERRY, June 2.—Major Gordon of the 5th New York cavalry, has just returned from a reconnaissance to Charleston. On Saturday and yesterday the rebels left Winchester.

Centrals report that a fight occurred beyond Winchester between Gen. Fremont and Jackson on Saturday morning.

They did not learn the result. Winchester was thoroughly evacuated.

The operations here on Thursday and Friday reflect credit on General Saxton. But for his effort Jackson's force would have pushed over the Railroad bridge towards Baltimore.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—The municipal election came off to-day. The vote was comparatively small. Wallace was re-elected Mayor by about 3000 majority.

All the other candidates for the Councils of the unconditional Union tickets were elected.

FROM CAIRO.

SPECIAL TO NEW YORK TRIBUNE.

CAIRO, June 2.—The Memphis Appeal of May 27, has this dispatch:

Vicksburg, May 26.—The Union Fleet is still below this city. Their gunboats fired at our Batteries.

This evening we returned their fire and they retired.

It is supposed they are waiting for reinforcements.

The Appeal says the rebel Rams can hold the Mississippi against Foote and Farragut.
