

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

UNION COUNTY TICKET.

FOR THE LEGISLATURE.
WILLIAM COATS.
JOHN H. BARR.
For Senator.
SAMUEL CONNER.
For Treasurer.
M. S. DURHAM.
For County Commissioners.
BEVAN MCKEEN.
WM. BROWN.
For Coroner.
J. G. ADAMS.
For County Surveyor.
CHRISTOPHER DEMOREST.

I am a candidate for the office of Treasurer of Vigo County at the October election.
JOEL H. KESTER.

I am a candidate for the State Legislature at the October election.
J. W. KEMP.

We are authorized to announce CHARLES KERN as a candidate for Sheriff of Vigo County. Election Tuesday, Oct. 14th.

HENRY CLAY JORDAN is a candidate for Assessor of Honey Creek Township.

WM. FOXWORTHY is a candidate for Assessor of Honey Creek Township.

LOCAL AND NEWS ITEMS.

CANADA BOY.—We want a good, active boy to deliver our Southern Route. One well acquainted with that portion of the city preferred.

PEACE SPEAKING.—There will be speaking to-night at the corner of Fourth and Wabash streets. Let everybody attend.

The indications are that Gen. Buell will scratch the "out" of Bragg's name and make a hag of it.

POST.—On Saturday, a bunch of kerosene will be given by the owner of this news to the postman who can have by calling at this office and paying for this notice.

BUSINESS MEN AND OTHERS INTERESTED IN THE ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURES OF MILLS, AND TIME OF CLOSING, WILL DO WELL TO REFER TO THE POSTMASTER'S STANDING ADVERTISEMENT ON OUR FIRST PAGE.

THE SOLDIERS OF THE 71st REGIMENT, WITH THE EXCEPTION OF ABOUT TWENTY, WHO WERE LEFT AS A CAMP GUARD, WERE GONE FOR LOUAGH, ON SATURDAY, UNTIL AFTER THE ELECTION.

TOLL & RIPLEY HAVE REMOVED THEIR STORE TO THE LARGE AND COMMODIOUS ROOM CORNER OF MAIN AND FIFTH STREETS, WHERE THEY ARE PREPARING TO OPEN AN IMMENSE STOCK OF DRYGOODS.

ALARM OF FIRE WAS CAUSED YESTERDAY EVENING BY THE BURNING OF A DOG ON FIFTH STREET. THE FIRE COMPANIES WERE ON TIME, BUT NOT NEEDED.

THE MISERABLE LITTLE COUNTY OF BLACKFORD, WHICH HAS THE HONOR OF BEING THE FIRST IN INDIANA TO MAKE AN ORGANIZED RESISTANCE TO THE DRAFT, BEARS ABOUT THE SAME RELATION TO THE STATE THAT ARKANSAS DOES TO THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT.

MAJOR Wm. C. LUPINSKI, WHO IS IN THE CITY, REQUESTS US TO SAY TO THE FRIENDS OF THE 5th REGIMENT THAT ANY LETTERS, LEAVES AT THE STORE OF SIMEON CORY FOR THE MEMBERS OF THAT REGIMENT, BEFORE 3 o'clock this afternoon, WILL BE TAKEN TO THEM.

MEAN.—The ringing of the fire bells on Saturday evening, for the purpose of breaking up the meeting at the Court House after the Democratic candidate for legislature had finished speaking, was a dastardly act. No other cause for the alarm can be given.

THE PUBLIC TIME.—Business men should bear in mind that now is the proper season to advertise for the fall and winter trade. The business of our day is evidently increasing, and our merchants who advertise are daily gaining new and good customers. There is no agency more effective in adding to the trade of the merchant and mechanic than advertising. This is a fact which every good business man appreciates.

LET.—Let no man fail to vote to-morrow, thinking that his single vote will be of no consequence, or that it cannot effect the result. Many a man has been elected by a majority of one vote, and many an important and useful act of legislation has been carried by a majority of one vote. Your one vote is just as important and just as effective as any other man's. See that you perform your duty by casting that vote.

INSURANCE TAXES.—The insurance companies of Hartford, Connecticut, have agreed to assume the war tax of one per cent recently levied by Congress on all premiums received and also the tax of three per cent upon all dividends made by all insurance companies. There was also a tax of twenty-five cents made upon all policies and every renewal of a policy issued, and this the companies of Hartford have agreed shall be paid by the parties insured. Orders conformable to the above have been issued by the day companies to their agents.

AT ANTISOM, blacksmiths' tools, hammers, chisels, &c., were fired at our troops from rebel cannon. Some of the rebels made a curious noise, resembling "turkey," which way, "which way," by which car gun shot to distinguish them from regular shot and shell, and as they heard them approaching they would cry "Turkey! turkey coming!" and fall flat to avoid them. One of our artillerists, a German, when he saw the tools falling around him, exclaimed "My God, we shall have the blacksmiths' shop to come next."

THE FATE OF A RECRUIT.—The careers of the Second Wisconsin Regiment is peculiarly ended. The Milwaukee News says that all that remains of the eleven hundred who left Wisconsin a little more than twelve months ago are fifty-nine, were worn and battle-grown men. Almost every blood-stained field of Maryland and Virginia is stained by the bones of the dead regiments. There were ten overrunning companies when the regiment left the state.

AT ANTISOM, blacksmiths' tools, hammers, chisels, &c., were fired at our troops from rebel cannon. Some of the rebels made a curious noise, resembling "turkey," which way, "which way," by which car gun shot to distinguish them from regular shot and shell, and as they heard them approaching they would cry "Turkey! turkey coming!" and fall flat to avoid them. One of our artillerists, a German, when he saw the tools falling around him, exclaimed "My God, we shall have the blacksmiths' shop to come next."

OFFICIAL FROM GEN. BUELL.—PERRYVILLE, Oct. 10.—Gen. M. G. McCOOK, General-in-Chief.

I have already advised you of the movements of the army under my command from Louisville. More or less skirmishing has occurred daily with the enemy's cavalry since then. It was supposed the enemy would give battle at the 14th inst., driving out the rebels from Perryville, but this did not occur.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN, now is the time to get your Fall and Winter wear cleaned and dressed. Having improved and enlarged our dye-houses and finishing tools, we are prepared to do any kind of work in our line—so as to be excelled in the western states.

J. G. REINERS & SON,
East Wabash st. bet. 9th st. & canal,
Terre-Haute.

To Local Advertisers.

Occasional, or transient local notices will not be inserted in this paper herewith, unless they are paid for when handed in. Local notices of five lines and under will be inserted for 50 cents; each additional insertion of the same matter 25 cents; for each notice, 50 cents, payable in advance. Notices for benevolent societies not exceeding five lines, 10 cents. The above terms will be strictly observed.

FROM INDIANAPOLIS.

From our Special Correspondent.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 11, 1862.

The Hon. Caleb B. Smith, Secretary of the Interior, is here on a visit to his home and his numerous friends in this State. Last night he delivered an excellent speech in Masonic Hall upon the condition and prospects of the country.

It was the address, clear and forcible, of a statesman, of one who speaks with authority, and carried its conviction along with it of good cheer, that was received with great satisfaction.

He spoke of the storm of civil war that is sweeping over the nation, and feared the people did not fully appreciate its magnitude and importance; reviewed the causes from a period twenty-five years back, and came down to the attack upon Sumter, upon which he dwelt with thrilling eloquence, portraying in a forcible manner the humiliation of the country when the Stars and Stripes were torn down by an infuriated mob of traitors and traitors in the dust. The rights of the South or of the slaveholders had never been impaired or interfered with in a single instance by the Executive, the Judiciary, the Administrative or any department of the Government, and it was the sheerest ridicule to hold the Government responsible for the utterances and opinions of such men as Wendell Phillips, Lloyd Garrison and others of the anti-slavery stripe.

The war is upon us, and is being carried on a great expense and sacrifice. The lives of the noblest men have been offered up on the altar of Freedom and there is hardly a family but mourns the loss of a dear relative. But the North was dragged into the contest and we must go on to success, which is nearer than we imagine, or yield to anarchy which is appalling to contemplate. And when we do emerge from the great sea of trouble victorious, as we shall surely do, it will be to find the nation great and glorious, in comparison to which Old Rome, in her palmy days, was insignificant.

AFTER all the burden of taxation is not so terrible; it can be borne by each and every one without being grievously felt, and we should cheerfully bear it for our own infinite benefit and the benefit of posterity. Europe is looking on with the greatest interest, especially England, who regards us as her rival, and who would be elated in the extreme at our certain downfall. But there need be no fear of intervention, the hour is past, they dare not do it. Our arms and our vessels of war are as invincible as any that can be brought against them, and the countries of Europe have enough upon their heads at home.

IT is not the want of cotton alone that prompts England to act in the disreputable manner she does, it is the want of customiers, and consequently the loading of vessels to run our blockade, and other illegal traffic is sanctioned. Goods are smuggled through Canada to such an extent, and under the patronage of government officials there, that instances of war have been established and the safe delivery of goods in Dixie insured at 4 per cent. He repeated the war must be fought.

EAST.—Toll & Ripley have removed their store to the large and commodious room corner of Main and Fifth Streets, where they are preparing to open an immense stock of drygoods.

ALARM OF FIRE WAS CAUSED YESTERDAY EVENING BY THE BURNING OF A DOG ON FIFTH STREET. THE FIRE COMPANIES WERE ON TIME, BUT NOT NEEDED.

THE MISERABLE LITTLE COUNTY OF BLACKFORD, WHICH HAS THE HONOR OF BEING THE FIRST IN INDIANA TO MAKE AN ORGANIZED RESISTANCE TO THE DRAFT, BEARS ABOUT THE SAME RELATION TO THE STATE THAT ARKANSAS DOES TO THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT.

MAJOR Wm. C. LUPINSKI, WHO IS IN THE CITY, REQUESTS US TO SAY TO THE FRIENDS OF THE 5th REGIMENT THAT ANY LETTERS, LEAVES AT THE STORE OF SIMEON CORY FOR THE MEMBERS OF THAT REGIMENT, BEFORE 3 o'clock this afternoon, WILL BE TAKEN TO THEM.

MEAN.—The ringing of the fire bells on Saturday evening, for the purpose of breaking up the meeting at the Court House after the Democratic candidate for legislature had finished speaking, was a dastardly act. No other cause for the alarm can be given.

THE PUBLIC TIME.—Business men should bear in mind that now is the proper season to advertise for the fall and winter trade. The business of our day is evidently increasing, and our merchants who advertise are daily gaining new and good customers. There is no agency more effective in adding to the trade of the merchant and mechanic than advertising. This is a fact which every good business man appreciates.

LET.—Let no man fail to vote to-morrow, thinking that his single vote will be of no consequence, or that it cannot effect the result. Many a man has been elected by a majority of one vote, and many an important and useful act of legislation has been carried by a majority of one vote. Your one vote is just as important and just as effective as any other man's. See that you perform your duty by casting that vote.

INSURANCE TAXES.—The insurance companies of Hartford, Connecticut, have agreed to assume the war tax of one per cent recently levied by Congress on all premiums received and also the tax of three per cent upon all dividends made by all insurance companies. There was also a tax of twenty-five cents made upon all policies and every renewal of a policy issued, and this the companies of Hartford have agreed shall be paid by the parties insured. Orders conformable to the above have been issued by the day companies to their agents.

AT ANTISOM, blacksmiths' tools, hammers, chisels, &c., were fired at our troops from rebel cannon. Some of the rebels made a curious noise, resembling "turkey," which way, "which way," by which car gun shot to distinguish them from regular shot and shell, and as they heard them approaching they would cry "Turkey! turkey coming!" and fall flat to avoid them. One of our artillerists, a German, when he saw the tools falling around him, exclaimed "My God, we shall have the blacksmiths' shop to come next."

OFFICIAL FROM GEN. BUELL.—PERRYVILLE, Oct. 10.—Gen. M. G. McCOOK, General-in-Chief.

I have already advised you of the movements of the army under my command from Louisville. More or less skirmishing has occurred daily with the enemy's cavalry since then. It was supposed the enemy would give battle at the 14th inst., driving out the rebels from Perryville, but this did not occur.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN, now is the time to get your Fall and Winter wear cleaned and dressed. Having improved and enlarged our dye-houses and finishing tools, we are prepared to do any kind of work in our line—so as to be excelled in the western states.

J. G. REINERS & SON,
East Wabash st. bet. 9th st. & canal,
Terre-Haute.

To Local Advertisers.

Occasional, or transient local notices will not be inserted in this paper herewith, unless they are paid for when handed in. Local notices of five lines and under will be inserted for 50 cents; each additional insertion of the same matter 25 cents; for each notice, 50 cents, payable in advance. Notices for benevolent societies not exceeding five lines, 10 cents. The above terms will be strictly observed.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

DEPARTED BY THE WESTERN UNION LINE.

Noon Dispatches.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, October 11.—Nothing from Chambersburg this morning.

The following is from the Herald extra:

Review of Stehl's division of this corps took place at Centerville to-day.

Gen. Sigel made a thorough inspection of the troops, with whose appearance he was well pleased.

He spoke of the storm of civil war that is sweeping over the nation, and feared the people did not fully appreciate its magnitude and importance; reviewed the causes

from a period twenty-five years back,

and came down to the attack upon Sumter,

upon which he dwelt with thrilling eloquence, portraying in a forcible manner the humiliation of the country when the Stars and Stripes were torn down by an infuriated mob of traitors

and traitors in the dust.

He spoke of the storm of civil war that is sweeping over the nation, and feared the

people did not fully appreciate its magnitude and importance; reviewed the causes

from a period twenty-five years back,

and came down to the attack upon Sumter,

upon which he dwelt with thrilling eloquence, portraying in a

forcible manner the humiliation of the country when the Stars and Stripes were

torn down by an infuriated mob of traitors

and traitors in the dust.

He spoke of the storm of civil war that is sweeping over the nation, and feared the

people did not fully appreciate its magnitude and importance; reviewed the causes

from a period twenty-five years back,

and came down to the attack upon Sumter,

upon which he dwelt with thrilling eloquence, portraying in a

forcible manner the humiliation of the country when the Stars and Stripes were

torn down by an infuriated mob of traitors

and traitors in the dust.

He spoke of the storm of civil war that is sweeping over the nation, and feared the

people did not fully appreciate its magnitude and importance; reviewed the causes

from a period twenty-five years back,

and came down to the attack upon Sumter,

upon which he dwelt with thrilling eloquence, portraying in a

forcible manner the humiliation of the country when the Stars and Stripes were

torn down by an infuriated mob of traitors

and traitors in the dust.

He spoke of the storm of civil war that is sweeping over the nation, and feared the

people did not fully appreciate its magnitude and importance; reviewed the causes

from a period twenty-five years back,

and came down to the attack upon Sumter,

upon which he dwelt with thrilling eloquence, portraying in a