LOCAL AND NEWS ITEMS.

Gen. Fremont passed through the city Saturday evening, en route to St. Louis.

The fire alarm last evening was caused by the burning of a small house in Hibleytown, belonging to Samuel Merry.

Capt. Robt. Patterson, of the 14th Ind. has been appointed Lieut. Col. of the 9th.

There is a letter in the Postoffice for "Know Nothing, or the biggest fool in town."

We understand all of the men drafted from Linton township have procured substitutes with two exceptions.

A contemporary says, a female recruit in Rochester was detected by trying to put her pants on over her head!

The Daily Morning Express is found in nearly every family in the city, and hence advertisers delight to make known their business through its columns.

Col. Carrington, chief mustering officer at Indianapolis says, as a general rule, it is presumed, that all militia, subject to draft, who did not, at the proper time, claim exemption are able bodied, and fit for nine months of service.

Mr. J. C. Walter will leave for Helena, Ark., to-morrow morning. He will take charge of any letters or packages for the 11th or 63d Regiments that may be left at Mrs. Walter's Millinery Store by 10 o'clock, a. m.

One of the drafted men in Linton township, this county, after being drafted, deliberately cut two fingers off his right hand for the purpose of evading the draft. The hand shows that two ticks were made before the object was accomplished. A recent decision of the War Department says that persons who purposely maim themselves shall not be exempted, and accordingly he will be taken to Indianapolis as soon as he recovers.

The Secretary of War has so modified his order in regard to the promotion of officers from old regiments, as to permit the Governor in certain meritorious cases to make them. Application must first be made to the War Department by the Governor, with assurance that the regiments from which such officers are to be taken, will not suffer by the transfer, or rather that their places can be supplied within the regiments.

Lieut. Col. R. R. Stewart received a dispatch yesterday morning informing him of his appointment as Colonel of the 5th Indiana Cavalry. This is a meritorious and well earned promotion, and was done without any solicitation on the part of Col. S., who knew nothing of it until the announcement was made. Col. S. is unequivocally in favor of putting down the negro rebellion. Whenever he goes the rebels will feel his power. The companies for this regiment—including Capt. Jonas Seely's, recruited in this county—are all full and now in camp.

MAKING IT PAY.—Mr. Wm. C. Dunn, of Pleasant township, Laporte county, was drafted last Monday, but made money by the event. He belonged to an organization in Laporte which was formed for the relief of those of its members who might be drafted. One thousand and forty dollars were paid in, which was to be divided pro rata among those of its members who might be drafted. Mr. Dunn was the only man and hence will get the whole amount.

When Gen. Sill's forces left Frankfort, Ky., they dismounted the rebel guns placed on the hills overlooking the city. Some Union men mounted in their place a lot of beer kegs, covering them with tarpaulins. Morgan's rebel cavalry came afterward, and scouted about the city one whole day fearing to approach within range. At last, discovering that the main body of the Union troops had passed on, they made a desperate charge upon the batteries, and captured—the beer kegs.

The following are the appointments made by the North Western Indiana Conference for the ensuing year, in the Terre Haute district:

Presiding Elder, J. L. Smith; Terre Haute, G. M. Boyd; Terre Haute circuit, T. Bartlett; Otter Creek, M. M. Stolz; Greencastle, Roberts Chapel, T. S. Webb; Greencastle circuit, D. Shoukwer; Russellville, J. Conrad; Bloomer, D. De Motte, one to be supplied; Rockville and Montezuma, L. Nebeker; Annapolis, C. B. Heath; Clinton, J. S. Donahoe; Sanford, J. W. Wright; Newport, D. Crawford.

Indiana Asbury University, P. Wiley, Professor, and A. Wood, Agent, and both members of Roberts Chapel quarterly conference.

HARD TIMES AT VICKSBURG.—Mr. Montgomery, business man of the Vicksburg Whig, arrived at Cairo Thursday, having managed, with his family, to run the block side. They represent a terrible state of things at Vicksburg, and say that the place can be captured at any moment, if a determined attack is made. Flour is fifty-two dollars per barrel; domestic a dollar and a half per yard. He wore a pair of shoes for which he paid thirty-five dollars. Mr. Montgomery says that, outside of the army, there are not a half dozen honest secessionists in Vicksburg, and that the people daily make a pilgrimage to the high land above the city in the hope of seeing the white smoke of the gunboats coming down the river to capture and occupy the city. Cotton is worth three cents a pound, Confederate currency, and a bale of it will not purchase a pair of negro shoes. About ten per cent. of the cotton in Mississippi has been burned. He says that the extraordinary high prices offered at Vicksburg are due, not to the depreciation of currency, but to the scarcity of goods. Currency will purchase merchandise as cheaply as gold.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

NOON DISPATCHES.

FROM NEW YORK.

New York, Oct. 20.—A special dispatch has the following additional concerning Gen. Stahl's reconnaissance at Upperville.

He learned there were no rebels this side of the Shenandoah, but there was a considerable force of infantry and artillery at Milwood. Learning that a provision and forage train of a few wagons, sent to him from Fairfax Court House under an escort had been captured at Haymarket by 400 rebels, and that the force was advancing towards Thoroughfare gap, which he had taken the precaution to guard, he at once moved to meet the enemy. He pressed upon the enemy's left, at the gap, and after a skirmish, obliged them to retire in confusion, capturing numbers. Gen. Stahl coming up, attacked the enemy. A fight ensued, in which we lost two men and had one Captain wounded. The enemy were driven back through the gap toward Haymarket, where they had about 800 prisoners were taken. After leaving Gainesville he continued the pursuit to New Baltimore, from whence they retreated to Warrenton. The rebels had some considerable forces at this place, and Gen. Stahl posted part of his force at New Baltimore, proceeding with the advance to Warrenton, entering that town close on the heels of the flying rebels. They captured their pickets and then ran nearly into the town. Here he found a brigade of cavalry, a regiment of infantry, and a battery. A skirmish took place, and after an hour or more of circular fighting, Gen. Stahl withdrew his tired forces, and marched to Centerville. Our loss is about ten men.

A number of prisoners were sent in among them the father of Captain Ball, a noted rebel cavalry officer, who is known as Aspy.

New York, Oct. 19th.—The organization called Federal Union, a meeting and nominated Gov. John A. Dix for Governor, and issued an address to the electors of the State without distinction of party, to form Federal Union clubs and send delegates to a Convention on the 20th to hold at Cooper Institute to ratify his nomination.

New York, Oct. 20th.—The steamers G. Caline and Ellen Terry, from Newborn on the 14th, arrived yesterday.

Gov. Stanley arrived at Newborn on the 11th.

The gunboat Seymour has been raised from the Nense river, and put in order for service.

FROM PHILADELPHIA.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 20.—The Washington Republican of today says a refugee who came into Gen. Sigel's headquarters at Amesville, Culpeper county, Va., reports that the greatest concentration imaginable of rebel forces is now in the section in consequence of an apprehended negro revolt.

Seventeen negroes, most of them free, had been hung, copies of N. Y. newspapers having been found upon them containing President Lincoln's proclamation to liberate the slaves. The terror of the whites is reported to be beyond description. It is said that the negroes in the different counties around Culpeper are engaged in a conspiracy for a general insurrection.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 20th.—The Harrisburg Patriot and Union of this morning says, as usual on Sunday the city was filled with exciting rumors yesterday, the most important of which was the crossing of the Potomac at Hancock, by a large rebel force and their regulars by the Union troops with considerable slaughter on both sides. A dispatch to this effect was received by Gov. Curtin at the time of writing this item. No dispatches have been received by us confirming the above rumor.

FROM CAIRO.

CAIRO, Oct. 20.—Nothing from Commerce today.
