—John E. Wilson, one of the Chicago Great Western brakemen, murdered at Marshalltown, was a nephew of Mrs. M. Hasey and Thos. Healy, south of this city. He has been for several months extra freight conductor, but owing to shortage of men was sent out as a brakeman. T. W. Wilson, father of the murdered man, was a veteran in the civil war, and several years ago was a resident of this county, near Golden.

—The Friday Afternoon Club, of Manchester, according to its calendar will probably do more original work next year than any club in the state. The members are announced for very many original papers, and the year book is exceedingly neat and pretty. Their motto is: "We do not just take the ball park here next Friday afternoon and the local hope to even up into the arena, where like gladiators we must fight for them." Mrs. Julia Boynton is president, Mrs. Lucinda Ford, secretary—Mail and Times, Des Moines.

—The Ladies Aid Society will give a Harvest Festival on the lawns of Mrs. Goodell and Mrs. Boynton, next Wednesday afternoon and evening, August 30. The ladies are invited to come at 3 p. m. with thimbles and needles prepared for quilting. Supper will be served on the lawn from 5 o'clock until all are served. All members of the church and congregation are cordially invited to be present and to extend the invitation to your friends outside the church. The men are not expected to join in the quilting, but it is hoped a large number of them will partake of the supper. Instead of charging a stated price for the supper, we ask all to bring a voluntary offering for the treasury of the society. The offering will be devoted to the repair of the church building—By order of the president.

—Mrs. Wm. C. Cawley is the guest of friends in Dubuque this week.

—A. J. Heener and A. C. Acres attended the Dubuque races Tuesday.

—Robert Barr has commenced the erection of a new barn 36 x 66 on his farm in Prairie. His brother Allen is also replacing the barn, recently destroyed by fire, on his farm.

—Cydey A. Kent, who has been employed as a tailor in this vicinity for several years, departs this week for his former home in England. He sails from New York Saturday, September 2nd.

—The Presbyterian pulpit will be occupied next Sunday by Rev. Ferguson, of Waterloo, who is the Presbyterian Synodical Sunday school missionary for Iowa. He will preach both morning and evening.

—Mrs. J. B. Vonberg, of Albert Lee, Minnesota, who has been visiting here with her brothers, Drs. H. H. and E. G. Dittmer departed Monday morning for Charles City where she will visit friends and relatives.

—The Board of Supervisors of Delaware County will meet in regular session at the Court house next Monday. Those who have bills to present are requested to file them with Auditor Stetson not later than Saturday of this week.

—Henry Luthmer is moving his family and household goods this week to Summit, Ia., where he will engage in the general mercantile business. He has had abundance of experience in this line of work and his friends wish him success in his new location.

—S. J. Hersey, of Earlville, has been elected to the chair of Physical Science at the State Normal at Cedar Falls. Mr. Hersey was at one time Supt. of the schools of Earlville and was instructor of mathematics in the Summer School held here last month.

—At a meeting of the board of directors of the Y. M. C. A. held last week it was decided to extend a call to E. R. Champion, assistant of the Dubuque Y. M. C. A. to fill the general secretaryship of the association here. It is not known, as yet, whether or not he will accept the offer.

—The Iowa Telephone Company is entirely rebuilding its line between Waterloo and Dubuque. The old poles are being replaced by new ones that will be capable of carrying the extra wires that the company expect to add to the system. An entire line of new poles has been put in between here and Waterloo and the work is being carried on at the present time just east of town.

—The Strawberry Point fair attracted a great many from Manchester and vicinity last week. The weather was perfect and those who went from here were well entertained. The largest number went on Thursday when every available horse in town that could be hired was put into use. It is to be hoped that the people of that section will return the compliment and come to the Delaware County fair to be held October 3-5th.

—Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Dorman who spent a couple of weeks here on their bridal tour have returned to their home at Clarksville. While they were here the groom's parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Dorman gave a reception in their honor which was largely attended and a very enjoyable evening passed. Loeose was born in this city and resided here until about four years ago, when he located at Clarksville and engaged in the practice of his profession, where he has established a large and lucrative business.

—The Manchester ball team played the Edgewood club on the fair grounds at Strawberry Point last Thursday, the contest being one of the attractions of the fair. The home team was beaten by one tally, the final score being 6 to 5. Our boys lead in the game up to the ninth inning when their opponents ran in three scores, just enough to win the game. The same teams will play at the ball park here next Friday afternoon and the local hope to even up into the arena, where like gladiators we must fight for them." Mrs. Julia Boynton is president, Mrs. Lucinda Ford, secretary—Mail and Times, Des Moines.

—The Ladies Aid Society will give a Harvest Festival on the lawns of Mrs. Goodell and Mrs. Boynton, next Wednesday afternoon and evening, August 30. The ladies are invited to come at 3 p. m. with thimbles and needles prepared for quilting. Supper will be served on the lawn from 5 o'clock until all are served. All members of the church and congregation are cordially invited to be present and to extend the invitation to your friends outside the church. The men are not expected to join in the quilting, but it is hoped a large number of them will partake of the supper. Instead of charging a stated price for the supper, we ask all to bring a voluntary offering for the treasury of the society. The offering will be devoted to the repair of the church building—By order of the president.

—Miss Mabel Sia was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Yoran on Sunday. Miss Sia is an accomplished young Chinese lady and has been in this country less than a year. She is attending school at Morning Side, Sioux City, and at the completion of her education will return as a missionary to her native city, Foo Chow, China.

—The friends of Will Collinge will be interested in knowing that he has given up his intention of returning home from the Kiowidye this fall, but will remain there this winter. He has purchased a pack train consisting of several mules and horses and will follow the business of transferring provisions, supplies, etc. He bought his outfit from a party who has been in that business the past two years and who made money and wanted to return home, and Will thinks there is no reason why he cannot also conduct the business profitably. He has made an investment of $4,300 and it is to be hoped that his luck and endurance will win him success.

—Sheriff Jacob Hausenschield, of this county, returned last Monday night from Texas with Henry A. House in custody. House was convicted of stealing money from his aunt and uncle, an old couple who reside at Worthington. He was visiting them and the returned he was misused after he left. He returned to his home in Red Wing, Minn., and there deposited gold in the bank. He could give no satisfactory explanation of how he came by the money and this with other circumstances led to his conviction, and he was sentenced to two years at Anamosa. His case was appealed to the supreme court and while it was pending there he was released on $1,000 bail. This was put up in cash. The supreme court sustained the district court but House failed to appear to be taken to Anamosa. His bond was forfeited and the officials began a search for him. Sheriff Hausenschield finally located him in prison in Mason, Texas. He was there serving a sentence for larceny. His term expired last week and when he emerged from the prison Sheriff Hausenschield was there and nabbed him.—Dyersville News Letter.

Kenyon and mother and Pearl expected to return from Oregon the first of this week, but Mrs. Kenyon's mother was taken down with pneumonia and the doctor in attendance said that it would be at least two weeks before they could return. Mrs. Kenyon writes that she is not pleased with Oregon, as a state.—Lamont Leader.

—Coroner H. L. Lawrence was summoned to Dyersville yesterday morning in consequence of an accident on the Great Western, in which an unknown man was killed. None of the particulars are known at this writing, but it is thought that the man met his death by falling under the wheels of a freight train on which he was stealing a ride. The accident occurred about a mile west of Dyersville, and about one hundred feet from the county line.

—Alex. Charles, who held the Post-mastership at Cedar Rapids for eight years, has been elected secretary of the Cedar Rapids Carnival by the merchants there and for the next six weeks will make things along Carnival lines boom. He informs us that the merchants of that city have not taken hold of this Carnival matter as a money making scheme, but to give regardless of expense the greatest show ever put up in the state.

—Last Sunday afternoon some gypsies who had camped in town got into a fuss with Edson Williams. One of the gypsies threw his boy down and held him while another of the gang pounded him. Edson came to the rescue and kicked the gypsy boys, when their mother came out and threw a dagger at him, the handle striking him in the mouth and loosening two of his teeth. The band was given the choice of being arrested or to leave town, the latter of which they did.—Earlville Phoenix.

—Exchange tell of two new swindlers. In one a woman comes along canvassing for books and leaves them in the house for examination. Later a man appears and takes them. Then the woman comes after them, says the man has stolen them, tells a tale of woe, and usually gets pay for the books. In another a ministerial-looking man seeks shelter in a farm house for the night. Later a couple come along who want to get married. The strange minister is the only one at hand and he ties the nuptial knot. The farmer signs the "certificate" as a witness, and soon a part of it turns up as a promissory note and he is obliged to settle.

—About three weeks ago the name of James McCarren appeared in a list of dead soldiers telegraphed from Manila to the war department, and it states the dispatch stated that the deceased was a member of one of the regular army regiments, while the James McCarren whose parents reside in Richland township, Ia. or was a member of the 1st Washington Volunteers. This fact gave the relatives and friends of James McCarren, of this county, reason to hope that he was not the soldier named in the death list, but a letter received Monday by Miss Jennie McCarren indicates that the hope is not well founded. The letter was from James, but it was dated July 14th, several days before the report that he was very sick with a fever and greatly emaciated. This information causes grave fears and anxiety among the relatives and friends of James McCarren, for whose safety and return to health they all earnestly hope.

A... few solid facts go a long way further than talk that has no foundation in fact.

Fact one, that we absolutely carry over no old goods from season to season, no matter what the loss to us to move them For this reason you always find bright, up-to-date goods in every department.

Fact two, that every dollar's worth of our stock is bought for spot cash, thus enabling us to buy at lower figures and take advantage of extra discounts that the average buyer cannot get. This accounts for the fact that we can and do sell at as low as any place in the state, and lower than most of them. This has long ago given us the reputation of being the leaders of low prices in this section.

Fact three, that, for reliable stylish dress goods, cloaks and capes, we are headquarters; which fact you can verify by inspection and comparison.

Dress Goods are now selling rapidly.

Jackets are already being sold to early buyers.

Fur Collarettes are going like hot cakes.

Golf Capes those popular fall and winter wraps are moving freely.

IT PAYS TO TRADE with the originators and promoters of LOW PRICES.
