

COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE.

SCHOOL NOTES.

From the Delaware County Teacher.

Rose Harris has accepted a position in Idaho.

Bert Hamblin is attending school at Epworth this fall.

Ethel Collins will attend the State Normal this year.

Louis Cruise will teach near Aurora, Iowa this year.

Julia Pierce will spend the year in study at Cedar Falls.

Francis Porteous spent her vacation visiting friends in Chicago.

Alice Hunt has charge of the grammar room at Volga City this year.

Thirty-three first-class certificates have been issued since the first of August.

A fine new schoolhouse has been built in the village of Dundee this past summer.

Phoebe Morgan will be the assistant principal of the Eagle Grove school this year.

Nora Mansfield enjoyed a well earned vacation visiting in Michigan and Wisconsin.

Any Boggs returns to Waterloo as principal of the west side high school for another year.

Clara Barr, after spending a year at the State Normal School, is back in her old place at Delaware.

Bertha Lightfoot has resigned her position at Spring Branch to enter the college at Mt. Pleasant, Iowa.

Nine hundred and twenty-two volumes have been placed in the school libraries of this county during the past year.

All the schools of Northfork have new slate blackboards. Quite a number of other districts have also purchased slate blackboards this past season.

Bert Wilson, after a year's successful experience in the schools of this county has accepted a position at more than twice the salary in North Dakota.

John Williams has secured a very good position in the western part of the state. We predict the same success for Mr. Williams this year that he had last.

Gertrude Du Bois goes back to Campbell, Minn., for another year with an advanced salary. The school board of that town believe in keeping a first-class teacher.

All work for the school exhibit at the fair should be taken to this office by October 2nd. Over one hundred volumes are to be given to the schools making exhibits.

The Manchester school board has recognized the good work done by Ethel Johnston and Pearl Stewart in the rural schools by electing them to positions in the Manchester schools.

Maude Hubbard and Oscar Dorman were married recently at the home of the bride at Edgewood. Mrs. Dorman has been one of Delaware county's best teachers.

Fred Main, who is one of Delaware county's most successful teachers, is now the principal of the Prairieburg school. The democratic party of this county have seen fit to nominate Mr. Main for the office of county superintendent. He is thoroughly qualified for the position, and if he is elected he will do much for the improvement of the schools. We believe that Mr. Main has the respect and good will of every teacher in this county.

The examination papers handed in at the close of the summer school were the best lot of papers, we believe, that were ever written in this county. Out of over one hundred who applied for certificates there were but six standing below 85 per cent. This is not the only result of the four week's hard study during those hot days in July. Better schools are being taught in all sections of the county because of the methods and reviews given at the summer school.

GREELEY.

James Winnard is able to sit up.

Mrs. Cole is very sick at this writing. William Davis is re-shingling his house.

Miss Lottie Box has been sick for the past few days.

Mrs. Dotter and little Dorothy came Monday, called by the illness of James Jenkins.

Thursday, just before noon, James Jenkins suffered a stroke of paralysis and is at this time at his home and improving some we learn. He has been working hard of late, and when the stroke took him he was in the act of preparing the last papers in a case which had been brought before him, and his pen dropped from his hand, and since then he has had no use of his right side. As quickly as possible medical assistance was summoned and everything possible done.

James Milton Arbuckle was born in Mercer county Pa., September 6th, 1833, and died at the Presbyterian Hospital in Chicago, September 15, 1899. He grew to manhood at the place of his birth and removed to Fayette county, Iowa, in 1855, where he resided until 1867, when he moved to Delaware county, and has lived at and in the vicinity of Greeley, until his death. During his earlier years he taught school in Pennsylvania and in Iowa for eighteen terms, the remainder of his life being spent in farming and stock raising. He was married September 30, 1861, to Martha Montgomery, of Colesburg, Iowa, who has survived life's journey with him and travels to mourn his sad taking away.

Grandma Marcham died on September 15, 1899, having fallen asleep in Jesus, even as a mere child, without a struggle. For many years she has been tenderly cared for by the heroic devotion of her aged husband whose ever patient vigils had been shared by their son and others of the family. Fanny Marcham was born March 20th, 1813, in Hampshire, England. She was married to Richard Pilgrim, who died at an early date, leaving her with two small children. On November 17th, 1844, she was married to Thomas Marcham, and in August 1870, came to America. The tolls of a long and eventful life are ended. She leaves an aged husband and four sons, also a number of grand chil-

Miss Carolina Arens and Mr. Joseph Kern were united in the holy bonds of matrimony in St. Francis church last Tuesday, Rev. Father Jungemann officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Joseph Arens, near Petersburg, and the groom is a son of Mrs. John Kern who resides on her farm northwest of Dyersville, and both are highly esteemed by a large circle of friends. A pleasant wedding took place at the home of the groom's mother which was greatly enjoyed by all present.

Mr. Caspar Westemeier of this place and Miss Wilhelmina Felder, of Guttenberg, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony in the Catholic church of that place last Tuesday morning, September 19, 1899, the Rev. Father J. H. Brinkmann officiating. After the ceremony all repaired to the home of the bride's mother where a pleasant reception was held, and congratulations and tokens of esteem were bestowed upon the happy couple. The groom is one of the progressive and intelligent young farmers of this vicinity, and the bride is one of Guttenberg's most charming daughters, and the writer joins the many friends of the happy couple in wishing them a long life and prosperity.—Commercial.

SLOOUMVILLE.

The manufacture in this county of sugar from beets is one of the growing industries. Factories are now in operation in this state, Michigan, Illinois, Colorado, Nebraska and Washington and the end is not yet.

Henry Beiser, who has charge of the new sugar farm, is pushing the new buildings to completion as rapidly as possible. The lumber is being furnished by the Manchester Lumber Company.

Your Shady Hill correspondent does well to keep shady, as there are some pretty close keepers as to who the lucky girl is. Joe got his girl and farm and Slooium hopes the aforesaid correspondent will do as well, he can't do better.

Melitable came near giving me away to Mr. Stein about that gipsy woman affair, but I destroyed my copy of the Democrat containing the item, so that Mrs. S. would not see it, and have escaped up to the present time, but I am all the time in a tremble for fear she will hear about it. Truly, the way of the transgressor is hard.

Charley Seeds has business in this vicinity recently. He is always a welcome visitor out this way.

I had a pleasant chat with Squire Emerson, of your city, the other day, and found him the same genial, jolly and entertaining gentleman as of yore.

The guaranty label on Devoe Ready Paint amounts to an insurance policy. It is different from most guarantees; talks about results, not materials. It says:

If you have any fault to find with this paint at any time, either now in the painting or after in wearing, tell your dealer about it. We authorize him to do what is right at our expense.

But do yourself and us the justice to follow instructions.

Notice "ANY fault at ANY time; make it good at our expense." You'd be safe in using sand and water for paint with that guaranty on it. We use Devoe Ready Paint.
