S. D. Gordon departed Monday morning for his home in Cincinnati, Ohio, after conducting a very successful two weeks religious convention in this city. His sermons were plain and instructive and were intended to go beneath the surface and arouse a deeper religious thinking among the people. It was his object to point out the advantages of a christian life and the duty that every one owes to himself to follow it. Mr. Gordon made a very favorable impression here and would be welcomed at some future date on his return on a similar mission.
The mystery of the steel rail found on the railroad track between Ryan and Elber a short time ago has been solved. One of the company's detectives was set to work on the case and has succeeded in finding those responsible for the act. It appears that the rail was stolen about two years ago by two young farmers who reside in that locality and who in due time became conscience stricken and returned the rail. They denied however that they placed it upon the track and the section hand who discovered it declared that it was placed in such a manner as to ditch any train that might run onto it. The company has decided not to punish the young men for their offense.

The Democrat acknowledges the receipt of a book, entitled "The Making of Iowa," from the pens of former state superintendent of public instruction, Henry Sabin, and Edwin L. Sabin, his son. We found time to give the volume only a cursory perusal, but it is written in a style at once engaging, its language is simple and we do not hesitate to pronounce it most excellent reading. We think it should attain popularity in our public schools as well as in our homes, as it touches in a very interesting manner upon the topics in Iowa's history which have hitherto been neglected by our state historians.
The new fish and game law recently passed by the lower branch of the legislature will be of interest to local sportsmen. It provides that no person, firm or corporation, shall catch, kill, take, have in possession or under control in this state, for any purpose whatever, any of the fish hereinafter mentioned, within the periods herein limited, to wit: Any variety of black, silver and striped rock bass, pickerel, croppies, native trout or perch, between the 1st day of November and the 15th day of May, following, and that no person shall shoot or kill any pinnated grouse or prairie chicken between the first day of December and the first of September next following, and ruffed grouse, or pheasant, wild turkey or quail, between the first day of January and the first day of November; any wild duck, goose or brant and woodcock, or any manner of the species of the snipe or plover family, except the common field or upland plover, between the first day of April and the first day of September following; any gray or fox squirrel, or timber squirrel, between the first day of January and first day of June, shooting or killing quail on the public highway shall be in violation of the law.
Many of the older residents in the southeastern part of this county are acquainted with J. E. Keith, who for several years was engaged in farming in Union township. From there he went to Chicago, and for the past twenty years or more has been in the commission business there as a member of the well known firm of Keith & Price and later J. E. Price & Co. He has recently retired from the commission business and accepted the management of a large automobile manufacturing company. The Chicago Dairy Duode, referring to Mr. Keith's change of business, regrets his retirement from the commission trade in which he has been so long engaged, but feels certain that the management of the new venture is a work for which he is eminently fitted. There are few men who have ever done business on South Water street who have attended more strictly to business than Mr. Keith. His energy and care of details has been something remarkable, especially in the matter of meeting his obligations in the business world. As a business man, capable of carefully and intelligently guarding large business interests to the utmost detail, Mr. Keith has few equals and will certainly be a valuable man in pushing to the front the product of this company, where energy, carefully and conservatively directed will be such a necessity.

Mrs. E. R. Champion was in Dubuque yesterday.
Father Regan, of Bryant, spent Sunday at his former home in this city.

Closing Number of the Star Course.
The last number of the Y. M. C. A. star course will be heard at the City Hall, March 29, Thursday next week. The entertainment will be a concert by The Western Stars, an organization of five talented artists. Those who have heard them speak with praise of their merit. There is a deficit in the finances of this year's course as a whole and while the association does not seek to make profit out of the entertainments it desires them to pay for themselves. On this account the price of admission to the last number has been reduced to 35 cents for reserved seat tickets. It is to be requested that all holders of dollar tickets will have them reserved for that night.
The final number will without doubt be one of the best entertainments ever heard here and should be accorded a good house.
Reserved seats will be on sale Monday, March 26th, at L. R. Stout's clothing store.
A Happy Wedding.
On Thursday, March 23rd, at high noon, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Sheldon occurred the marriage of their oldest son, Newman, to Miss Nellie Davis, daughter of Watson and Elizabeth Davis.
About forty guests, relatives of the bride and groom, were present to witness the marital rite and give the popular young people their bon voyage on life's sea. The pastor, Jesse Smith, pronounced the solemn words that made the twain as one, when Henry Sheldon, brother of the groom, played a march as the company followed the wedding party to a heavily laden and artistic festal board.
With Charley Lingsfelder as all-around joker and many other genial spirits present, it was, as everyone would expect, a merry occasion.
There were many handsome and useful presents left with the chief parties to remind them of their all important event and to speak of the esteem with which they are held by their many friends.
Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon will occupy the Sheldon homestead for a term of years, and thus the community will not lose their helpfulness in church and social circles.—Lamont Leader.

An unprotected foot,,,,,, often leads a man into trouble, especially at this time of the year. People go about in a "half-soled" sort of a way, without the correct covering for the feet.
Wet or damp feet are to be avoided if possible, and it is possible to avoid it with little expense.
There is no reason why KALAMITY cannot sell you shoes
We buy just as good and reliable shoes as there are made, and not having to depend on the one line for our profits, it can easily be seen that a SMALL PROFIT is satisfactory to us. The children require a good substantial shoe for spring and we ask you to let us show you what we have. Ladies' and Misses' fine and heavy shoes, old ladies' easy shoes and an immense line of children's shoes.
A continuance of the present weather will make a demand for boots. Laboring men will profit by our offerings in this line.
Protect the feet with Kalamity's footwear.

A DIFFERENCE OF OPINION.
A difference of opinion occasionally occurs in the best regulated families, and at no season of the year is the malady more apt to make its appearance than during the housecleaning, spring buying period. You know how it is yourself. You may want the best quality; your wife may think it costs too much or vice-versa. Now all the troubles pass away when you find high qualities and low prices combined as you do at the store of
CLARK & LAWRENCE
You will find every department of our store full to overflowing with the finest the market affords for the spring of 1900
Hosiery
For the past 3 years our sales in hosiery have increased phenomenally. We now buy hundreds of dozens of one kind at a time, the lowest prices and insuring the best for the money. Our Leather Stocking
for boys is a wonder to wear, and the same mill make other brands equally as good for ladies', children's and men's wear. They are known the world over as the "BLACK CAT BRAND", the best hose ever produced for wearing qualities.
Lace
Curtains
If you buy lace curtains before seeing our stock this spring you will make a mistake. We could never before show such an assortment of exquisite patterns and styles at low prices as this spring. Not a few half dozens or dozen patterns that you are asked to select from in other stores, but over a hundred new styles and patterns from the cheapest to as good as you want.
CARPETS!
New carpets coming every day or two and that they are right in pattern, colors and price is attested by the number we are cutting off every day. Remember that these carpets which we are now receiving were bought last fall before prices got away up, and hence we can and do sell at less than the present market prices.
Jackets and Suits
Headquarters are we for those articles. Large stock, correct in Style, Fabric and price. See for yourself.
