The base ball fever seems to have started again and we are promised some interesting games here this summer. The first team goes to Waterloo today to play its initial game. N. P. Malven has assumed the management of the team and expects to be able to organize a good one. It is the plan to hire outside players unless it is absolutely necessary, and to pay the home players an amount equal to their wages on afternoons that games are played. There is without doubt good base ball material here, and with the proper practice Manchester can have as good an amateur team as can be found in this section of the state.

Probably but few people in Iowa are aware of the fact that within the confines of their own state is being built by the C. & N. W. Rv. the greatest railroad bridge in the world. Such, however, is a fact. This immense structure is being built across the Des Moines river, between Boone and Oxford. The total length is 2985 feet, or 45 feet more than a half mile. The height above the water line is 185 feet; is wide enough for two tracks. To build this monster bridge will require 5000 tons of steel and iron, and the total cost is estimated at $600,000. This great bridge will be the only large structure of its kind in the world having two tracks across it.—Anamosa Journal.

In Memory of Mrs. Clara Stout. TO THE OFFICERS AND MEMBERS OF THE SCIENCE CIRCLE.

In the providence of God we have again been visited by the Angel of death, and one of the brightest lights our Circle have has been called home, to do the work prepared for her since the beginning of time, by the loving and all-wise Father above.

Resolved, That while we shall miss her bright cheerful face from our gatherings, her memory we will cherish, her good deeds we will strive to emulate, and may her faithfulness in doing the duties assigned to her, she out inspiration to be faithful and true in whatever circle we may be placed.

Resolved, That we extend our sympathy to the bereaved husband, who has been called upon to part for a time with a cheerful and loving companion, also to the children who can as yet hardly realize the irreparable loss they have sustained in the death of their fond and loving mother.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the records of our Circle, a copy presented to the bereaved family, also that they be printed in the Manchester papers.

Mrs. Jennie Jones. Mrs. Mary Pierce

The following resolutions were adopted by the Presbyterian Missionary Society on the death of Mrs. Clara Stout, who died May 29, 1900.

It has pleased our Heavenly Father in His all-wise providence to take from our sister, Clara Stout, one who was a kind and loving wife and mother, a faithful friend and one whose social, daily life was an example to all her associates.

Whereas, It seems just and right that a fitting tribute be paid to her memory for the many virtues and her ever ready and to assist with kindly deeds and loving words; therefore be it Resolved, That while we realize our loss, we do not forget the far greater loss sustained by the family.

Resolved, That we extend to the bereaved family our sincere and heartfelt sympathy in this hour of deepest sorrow, ever remembering that we are all traveling toward the same home from whence no one returneth.

Resolved, That these resolutions be entered upon our records, a copy sent to the bereaved family and to the papers for publication.

Mrs. E. M. Carr. Mrs. T. S. Doty. Committee.

Saturday Night is Shirt Night.

The average man will forget to provide himself with that necessary article of wearing apparel until the eleventh hour. That's why Saturday night is known as Shirt Night.

Any Night that you realize you must have a shirt come to us. We doubt if you can find elsewhere such a variety of shirts as we show at 50c. We have lower priced ones, 25c, 29c, 35c, 39c and 45c, but the HALF-DOLLAR LINE is the STRONG LINE. Almost every style, color or make that one could ask for. They have the necessary combinations, STYLE, QUALITY AND MAKE and every fifty cents invested in these garments is a GOOD INVESTMENT.

$5.00 JACKETS at - - - $2.75. $6.00 JACKETS at - - - $3.90. Etc.

We have sacrificed on these new and stylish garments to close out every one while there is yet a demand for them.

No such opportunity before offered to select such new, and desirable garments at almost half price.

We Also Show a splendid line of dress shirts, (every conceivable style) at 75c, 79c, 85c, 95c, $1 and $1.25. Positively the correct things.

Boys' and Little Gents' shirts made just like the big ones and not expensive. The late novelty is the fancy colored laundered shirt, collar attached or to be worn with white collar, for little fellows from age 4 up, at 40c, made to replace the ordinary shirt waist. A decided novelty.

We would like to show you our stock of shirts. You will easily see why this is the popular shirt store.
