Colonel Elboeck and ex-President Abrams, of the Anti-Saloon League, are both supporting Cummins. Well, what next?

Dead men are sometimes divided into two classes, namely: Those who are dead and in their graves and those who are politically dead. Governor Shaw belongs to the latter class.

All Sorts of a Crank. From the Cedar Rapids Republican: The fact that H. H. Abrams of the Anti-Saloon League of Des Moines and elsewhere has come to the aid of Cummins is the only recent set back to the republican campaign.

Afraid to Accept Office. Many citizens continue to decline the office of president of Cuba. Either offices of like nature are of varying degrees of desirability or the theory that human nature is the same the world over must receive a shock.

An Educated Person. In order to be well educated it does not necessarily follow that a person must have a knowledge of the dead languages, and be full of historic facts concerning the past.

Reaching For The Band Wagon. We are all feeling better since Senator Chesnut started to Editor Brant of Clinton that Mr. Cummins had at no time sympathized with the railroads.

After waging an unprecedented inter-party campaign of calumny against Candidate Cummins, the Republican hears that somebody who is somebody else something about Mr. Cummins that makes it feel better.

Schwab Makes a Proposition. Will Talk With the Men if They Go to Work.—Reply to Labor Ward.

Steel Magnates Claim Victory at Duquesne; So Do the Strikers.—Burns and Schwab in Confab.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 2.—Steel officials in Pittsburg declared last night that all reports to the contrary notwithstanding, there is no strike at Duquesne and will be none.

Milwaukee, Sept. 2.—Charges that the national officers of the Amalgamated Association had misrepresented the attitude of the United States Steel corporation toward organized labor in order to get the members of the association out on strike were made by ex-Vice President J. D. Hickey at a meeting of the high office of the Anti-Saloon League of Des Moines and elsewhere has come to the aid of Cummins.

Hickey's report was listened to by all the men with respectful attention, and although no vote upon the question of the strike appeared to be taken, the result of Hickey's mission is claimed to be that the truth regarding the situation of the steel workers is to be made known to the public.

Chicago, Aug. 29.—In the face of Judge Baker's injunction twenty-seven persons, who arrived at the W. B. Conkey building, were arrested at Hammond, Ind., were surrounded by strikers and persuaded not to go to work. No threats were made by the strikers; neither was any effort made by the company's officials to enforce the injunction.

New Philadelphia, Aug. 30.—Attorneys Bower and Buchanan, for the American Steel Steel company, have served an injunction on the United States court against the Amalgamated association at Canal view for intimidating and keeping workers from entering the mill, also in holding and stopping pedestrians upon the highway.

Chicago, Sept. 2.—Labor's national holiday was celebrated by the hosts of trades unionists in Chicago this morning with a great parade, in which it is estimated—according to the enthusiasm of the estimator—that from 20,000 to 40,000 took part.
