Welton, of Waterloo was a Manchester visitor Thursday. W. S. Sedgwick has disposed of his stock of goods at Central City. Mrs. C. H. Toogood returned to her home in Dyersville last week. Mrs. W. H. Lufferty is a guest of friends at Colma, South Dakota. H. R. Holmes returned Thursday from a business trip to Minnesota. Chas. Baumgartner was a Minneapolis business visitor Wednesday. Denton & Ward advertise a large line of the latest copyrighted books. Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Sales were Independence visitors last Thursday. The Catholic Bazar is in full blast at the Central Opera House this week. Hogan Bros. are rushing the work on their parents' residence on Franklin street. Rockers and window shades form the subjects of Atkins & Chapels story this week. J. M. Sullivan, of Cleveland, Ohio was a Manchester business visitor Thursday. Mrs. A. B. Holbert, of Greeley, was a visitor and shopper in the Dairy City Thursday. Attorney W. A. Leathers, of Dubuque, was a Manchester business visitor Friday. Nic Weiler and Isador Zweisler, of Ryan, were Manchester business visitors Thursday. Mrs. W. H. Hogan and H. O. Harris visited friends in Independence last Thursday. Day Operator Lindsay, of the Illinois Central visited friends in Dubuque Thursday. Reuben Hockaday, of Stone City visited relatives and friends in Manchester last week. M. E. Blair was in Des Moines last week as a delegate to the State Mutual Fire Insurance convention. A stone pile has been provided by our city dads for the convenience of hoboes who make this city a stopping place. This is a move in the right direction. The marriage of Miss Jeanie F. McIntosh and Reuben Hockaday, of Stone City, will be solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Thanksgiving day noon. Miss Hulma Sefstrom departed the first of the week for Des Moines where she will visit with friends. From there she will go to Cedar Falls to attend the State Normal School. Al Hollister and John Cruise have returned from their hunting trip in Montana. They report game in abundance of which they brought home teal and one antelope. Jno. W. Seedy, prohibition organizer, will address the prohibitionists of Delaware county in the City Hall Manchester, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings December 17 and 18th. H. L. Rann, the editor of the Manchester Press, has decided he will not buy a dog. He has found after thoroughly investigating the subject, they are altogether too common. The advertisement of W. F. Drummy, of Ryan, the well known breeder of thoroughbred Poland China swine, and Plymouth Rock chickens may be found in another column. The telegraph line on the M. & O. is nearly completed. In a few days the people of Manchester will enjoy the advantages of the Postal Telegraph, a company that prides itself on its marvellously prompt service. The young peoples' christian union will meet at the home of Miss Edith Wells Friday evening, Nov. 29th, at 7 o'clock. Members earnestly urged to be present. Visitors welcome. A good program is in preparation and a good time expected. James Van Duzer, of Watkins, New York, is spending a few days in Manchester the guest of his sister, Mrs. David Waugh. Mr. Van Duzer is returning from a trip to the Pacific coast. He says he saw the farmers in Washington sowing their wheat as he came through that state last week. Miles E. Blair, Secretary of the Farmers Fire and Lightning Insurance Co. of this county, returned Friday from Des Moines, where he attended the twenty-first annual meeting of the Iowa Mutual Insurance Association, as a representative of his company. About sixty-five companies were represented. Dr. Perkins, of Des Moines, a specialist in the painless extraction of teeth, will be at the Globe Hotel in this city, next Tuesday, Dec. 3rd, and on that day will extract teeth for all who apply, free of charge. Interested parties may obtain further information, by referring to Dr. Perkins' advertisement in another place in this issue of the Democrat. A man was afraid of thunder and crawled into a hollow log as a place of safety, says a truthful exchange. The thunder roared and the rain poured down in torrents. The log began to swell and the poor fellow was wedged in. Past sins began passing before him. Suddenly he remembered that he had not paid his newspaper subscription and then he felt so small that he was able to back right out. The driver of Wells' delivery wagon had a narrow escape from death last Friday, and that by the same train that killed Mr. Graham. He was about to drive across the Illinois Central's track on Brewer street when the train came lying along and he barely escaped being crushed by the monster locomotive. There is an ordinance prohibiting the running of trains within the limits of the city at a rate of speed faster than eight miles an hour, and it ought to be strictly enforced.

Can anyone recollect nicer Thanksgiving weather. Mrs. Henry Bronson is the guest this week of her parents at Forestville. There will be a musical program at the Catholic Fair in the Central Opera House this evening. E. F. Mulvehill, the Masonville druggist, has received his stock of holiday goods, and makes it known to the readers of this paper by an announcement in the advertising columns. Next Saturday is pay day at the Manchester creamery for October milk. The milk received during the month was 522,530 pounds; average test 1.2; average price patrons, 97 cents per hundred pounds. The next regular annual meeting of the members of the Delaware County Agricultural Society will be held at the Court House next Tuesday, December 3rd, at which time officers for the ensuing year will be elected. Sir Knights and Ladies of Golden Precept will meet with Mr. and Mrs. Lillibridge on Tama St. the residence of the late Dr. J. T. Abbott, this Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Every member is expected to be present. Letters addressed to Mrs. Mary Brown, Miss Lizzie Flaherty, Miss Anna Cummings, Mr. A. N. Hyde, Mr. L. G. Sprague, Mr. Chas. Appleby, and Mr. John Garrow, are advertised as uncalculated for at the post office in this city. The publishers of Frank Leslie's Magazine warn the public to beware of one F. W. Somers who is traveling in Iowa, representing himself to be a solicitor for that publication, which, the publishers say, is false and that Somers is a swindler. Michael Mulvehill has moved out of Prairie township, and hereafter will be numbered among the citizens of Masonville. Mr. Mulvehill was a resident of Prairie township for 32 years and during that time held several of its township offices. It has been several weeks, since the friends of Mr. R. F. Stewart, have seen him in this city owing to his illness. His hours of sickness are enlivened by the visits of many of his friends, and it is the hope of all that he may be restored to health. The Farmer's Co-Operative Creamery at Masonville, expects to commence business next Monday. S. B. Shilling has constructed the building and furnished all the apparatus for the company, which is a guarantee that everything is up to date. Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Welch, of Delavan, Wis., who came here to attend the funeral of the late H. C. Graham, expect to return home the latter part of this week. Mr. Welch has many acquaintances here, formed during his many visits to this city. Miss Mae Denton returned Saturday from a three years' absence in Europe. She will visit relatives and friends here for about two weeks and will then go to New York City to spend the winter. While here she will be the guest of her aunt, Mrs. R. E. Carpenter. The Protestant churches of the city will hold a union Thanksgiving service in the Baptist church, on the forenoon of Thanksgiving day, commencing at half past ten o'clock. The sermon will be preached by Rev. C. A. Highfield, pastor of the Presbyterian church. A special song service will be rendered. Everybody is cordially invited to attend. Mrs. Patrick Trumblee, died at her home in this city last Monday morning. Her maiden name was Edna C. Cragin. She was born in Windsor county, Vt., February 11, 1822, and resided there until 1875 when she came to this state and on February 15, 1879, was married to Patrick Trumblee then a resident of Coffin's Grove, this county, and a few years thereafter they removed from their farm in that township, to this city. Mr. Trumblee preceded her to the dream-land four years ago. She leaves surviving her two brothers, T. G. Cragin, of Dubuque, and Altonzo Cragin, of Joplin, Mo., and an adopted daughter, Mrs. H. C. Trumblee of this city. The funeral services will be held this (Wednesday) forenoon at 10 o'clock at St. Mary's church. Father O'Meara will officiate. A well known young man of this city is now confined in the Hotel de Fishel serving out a fifteen days' sentence for petty larceny. The crime was committed while he was under the influence of liquor. For the past three or four years he has been, and is now, an habitual drunkard. Prior to his forming the drink habit he was an honest and trustworthy boy. Intoxicants, the greatest curse of our time, has transformed him into a criminal. The crime for which he is now paying the penalty, was not committed to procure food or clothing. It was to obtain the means to satisfy his craving for drink. With the bootleggers who, well knowing his weakness, furnished him the liquor that caused him to commit the crime, he was allowed to escape the punishment which the law prescribes shall be meted out to them? Judging from the past they will be permitted to continue their cursed work. From Belle Plaine Union: A swindling scheme in which the teachers in the district schools of Iowa county are the victims has been uncovered according to the Marengo Republican, which says: An agent of the Teachers Library Union of Chicago came here and going around among the school teachers, got each one to promise that if he secured a sufficient number to start a library, they were to pay $8.00 each, and secured their signature, as they supposed to an agreement of that character. Since then these supposed agreements have all turned up as the property of the First National bank in the form of notes, and the teachers are called on to pay up. As to the library furnished, it is found in the office of the county superintendent, where the privilege was secured to plan it and contains a grand total of 45 volumes, that at the greatest valuation is not worth over $45. There are a few popular books, but the great majority are such that no one cares for and hence remain on the shelves of the elaborate $1 case sent to hold the collection. It is an 88 experience that the 33 teachers will do to remember.

Miss Emma Olverman, of Dubuque was the guest of Mrs. A. Philipp Monday. John Hynes, a former well known resident, died at his home in Dyersville last Sunday. Miss Belle Huey, teacher in the Belknap district school, was a guest of Mrs. Roy Davis Saturday. The K. P. Lodge of this place will elect officers next Monday evening. A full attendance is desired. Mrs. Geo. W. Fairchilds and daughters, Edith and Edna, have gone to Florida, where they will remain until spring. Miss Hester O'Hare, of Sterling, Ill., is the guest of Mrs. Roy Davis, and will not return home until after Thanksgiving. Charles Acres, a former Manchester boy, spent the first of this week with friends here. He is now a resident of Chicago. The Old Folks Whist Duplicate Club held its first meeting for this season at the Norris home last Monday evening, and hereafter will be held weekly on Thursday evenings. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Denton and children, of McIntyre, Iowa, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Denton, of Perry, South Dakota, and William Denton will be Thanksgiving guests of Mrs. R. E. Carpenter. Franklin Emerson was stricken with paralysis last Monday evening and his condition is such that his recovery is considered very doubtful, though we are glad to say that this (Tuesday) afternoon he is 87 years of age, and is one of the first settlers of this county, having resided here nearly fifty years. Dr. E. G. Dittmer has a gentleman of color for a hostler, and, if our informant is correctly advised, the doctor has been making trips up to Forestville with gun and dogs in search of woodchuck, coon, opossum or something in that line to make a Thanksgiving dinner for his gentleman of color. The doctor knows all about bipeds, but his knowledge of quadrupeds seems to be murky. At any event the Delaware county specie of the particular family in question easily eluded the amateur hunter, and from each foray he returned empty handed. Just what to do he did not know. The hostler's expectations were up soaring around with the price of hard coal and other luxuries, and to disappoint him would be an act of cruelty. Just then a happy thought made everything easy. The doctor recollect-ed seeing opopsum for sale in a meat market in Chicago, and a rush order brought a pair of the succulent dainties. They are now securely hung up in Works' meat market, and a Thanksgiving dinner like those he had away down in Dixie is assured. Card of Thanks. To the many friends who rendered aid and sympathy during our recent severe bereavement, we return our sincere thanks. Mrs. H. C. GRAHAM AND FAMILY. MONTH'S MIND AT MONTI. Impressive Ceremonies for the Repose of the Soul of Mrs. T. Hanley. On Tuesday, Nov. 19th, twenty priests assembled at St. Patrick's church Monti, Iowa, to celebrate the "Month's Mind" of Mrs. Hanley—the lately deceased and well beloved mother of the pastor—Rev. John J. Hanley. The church was packed to its utmost capacity, priests and people showing by their presence the respect they had for Mrs. Hanley, and the sympathy and esteem they entertain for her distinguished son. From different parts of the diocese came the clergy, eager to tender their heartfelt condolence to a bereaved husband, to motherless sons and daughters, who had gathered together to join in solemn prayer for their loved and lost one. The priests chanted the requiem for the dead in a most impressive manner. Rev. P. S. O'Connor, of Oelwein, and Rev. Thos. Rowe, of Strawberry Point, led the choir in the sanctuary. Immediately after the office, solemn high mass was celebrated by Rev. J. J. Hanley assisted by Father Reilly, of Elkader, as deacon, and Father Leen, of Walker, as subdeacon. Very Rev. P. O'Dowd, of Independence, acted as master of ceremonies. The choir, under the leadership of Miss B. Reilly, was exceptionally good, and their harmonious strains were in keeping with the solemn ceremonies. After mass, and before benediction, Rev. R. Powers delivered a beautiful tribute to the deceased and her worthy family. Priests and people listened to him with wrapt attention and during the half hour sermon many an eye was gilded with sympathetic tears. In the sanctuary were the following priests: Very Rev. P. O'Dowd, Independence. Rev. J. J. Reilly, Elkader. "Thos. Rowe, Strawberry Point. "J. J. O'Meara, Manchester. "Thos. Murtagh, Masonville. "J. Reynolds, Dubuque. "Masterson, Sioux City. "Wm. Leen, Walker. "J. O'Connor, Oelwein. "A. Bandfield, Bankston. "John Fogarty, Dubuque. "Jas. Comerford, Clinton. "T. Sullivan, Cedar Rapids. "R. Powers, Anamosa. "A. Walsh, Dubuque. "Jas. Messinger, Ackley. "Jas. Brennan, Fond du Lac. "J. Donahue, Fairbank. Very Rev. P. J. McGrath Charles City. Rev. J. J. Hanley, Monti. Patriotic Dinner. The Thirtieth day of November 1783 was the day that our Independence was acknowledged by Great Britain, and in commemoration of that pleasing event, The Ladies of the W. R. C. will serve dinner to the public, at Pythian Temple, on Saturday next, at the low price of 15 and 20 cents each for children and adults. The W. R. C. have always received patronage from the people of Manchester and vicinity in this glorious cause of caring for the soldier and his dependent ones, which is the aim of the Woman's Relief Corps, and we trust they will still add their mite to replenish the fund.

Dinner at noon, and until all are served, come and all both great and small, and let the old girls serve you to Uncle Sam's waters. The President's own Cake, Dewey's Favorite Sweet Bread, Spanish American Hard Tack, Sampson's Santiago Chips, Manila Bay Knick Knacks, Yankee Pig Pop Corn, Smokeless Powder Results, Hobson's Choice and other articles to numerous to mention. Please do not forget the date, next Saturday, November 30th.

The Garvins. These talented artists in voice are to be in Manchester Dec. 11 and 12, their work is along the lines of temperance reform, and provides wit and wisdom in lecture, song and recitation in such manner as to please, instruct and edify. Mertie Garvin is said to possess a voice marvelous in power, she having ability to sing bass and soprano at one and the same time. Jessie is an impersonator and elocutionist of rare ability.

Three "B" Base Ball League. Chicago, Nov. 22.—Representatives of the various clubs of the Illinois, Iowa and Indiana Base Ball League met here yesterday. It was decided to keep the circuit the same as for the past year, giving franchises to Terra Haute, Decatur, Bloomington, Rockford, Rock Island, Vanport, Cedar Rapids and Evansville.

A. J. STREETER PASSES AWAY. Galesburg, Ill., Nov. 25.—A. J. Streeter, well known in agricultural and political circles of Illinois, came into national fame in 1888 as the Union Labor party's candidate for president, died of diabetes yesterday at his home at New Windsor.

Dickinson Goes to Constantinople. Sofia, Nov. 22.—Dickinson, the diplomatic agent here of the United States, will leave this week for Constantinople. There is obviously no prospect of a settlement with Miss Stone's abductors. The departure of Dickinson will probably have a good effect upon the brigands, as they may fear to lose everything by not accepting Dickinson's proposals.

Fights Bravely for Life. South Bend, Ind., Nov. 25.—Clem Stankovich, according to a statement by Dr. C. A. Daugherty, the attending physician, has a fighting chance for his life, although he is still in a critical condition. He passed a comparatively comfortable day and is perfectly rational. During the day he took nourishment.

A Nongolfer's Opinion of Golf. Imagine a great fat creature who ought to wear a turban and a long black robe to hide his grossness whacking a little ball with a club, and smiling with a perfect surgery of instruments, whacking it either with a babyish solemnity or a childish rage, as luck may have decided, and incidentally training an innocent every little boy to swear and be a tip hunting loafer. That's golf.—H. T. W. Wells in Pearson's Magazine.

To the Best of Her Knowledge. A lady was looking for her husband and inquired anxiously of a housemaid, "Do you happen to know anything of your master's whereabouts?" "I'm not sure," replied the careful domestic, "but I think they're in the wash."—Pittader.

About the Limit. "Bilkins, what is the most mortifying thing you can conceive of?" "Bilkins—I guess it's when a woman's sons having grown over the head of their father, who is of small stature, the thrifty mother has the outgrown clothes of her sons remodeled for the old gentleman's use.—New York Times.

His First Impression. Civil Service Examiner—What do you know about Budapest? Applicant—For Position on Police Force—Budapest is the name of a cat disease. It is usually fatal.—Chicago Tribune.

It is still a tradition that the people of Manchester, England, should give to Liverpool with the proverb, "A Manchester man, a Liverpool gentleman," but it is said, classification is not so strongly marked in Lancashire as in the old days. When stagecoaches were running a guard was once asked, "Who has that gotten inside, Billy?" Billy consulted his list and replied, "A gentleman fra Liverpool, a man fra Manchester, a chap fra Owlham and a fellow fra Wigam."

She Remembered. Small Mabel had received a parental injunction to remember at least one thing the minister said at church, and upon her return home exclaimed, "I remember something!" "That's right, dear," rejoined her father. "Now tell me what the minister said." "He said," replied Mabel, "A collection will now be taken up."—Chicago News.

Evidence to the Contrary. Citizen—Madam, why do you persist in punching me with your umbrella? Madam—I want to make you look around so I can thank you for giving me your seat. Now, sir, don't you go off and say that women haven't any manners.—Chicago Herald.

Stopping the Music. "Yes," said young Mrs. Tokins, "Charley used to come and serenade me for hours every night. So at last I married him." "Dear me!" rejoined Miss Cayenne. "Did he sing as badly as all that?"—Exchange.
