Obituary.

J. J. Liddy, the object of this sketch, was born Jan. 3, 1851, in the state of Maine; his parents were natives of Ireland and with them he moved, when a lad four years of age, to Littleport Iowa. He was reared on a farm near here, growing up a strong, active man; he received his education at the common schools in this county, finishing up at St. Joseph's College, Dubuque. After completing his education he followed the profession of teaching for a number of years with marked success; he was afterward engaged as clerk with the mercantile establishment of F. Pelek & Co. He continued with this firm until 1893, when he bought out the business which he has since successfully conducted.

He held the office of postmaster at this place during both terms of the Cleveland administration; he also held the office of township clerk, of Cox Creek township, for eight years, in the discharge of both he performed the duties in a satisfactory manner.

On Jan. 3rd, 1892, he was married to Miss Minnie Wegener. To them have been born five children, viz.: Fred J., Millie, Lottie, Irma and Minnie, the latter two young to ever remember the kind care of a loving father. He also leaves to mourn his death three brothers, Dennis, of Monticello, M. H., of Strawberry Point, and Dr. F. J., of Chicago, and two sisters, Mrs. Beardslee, of Manchester, and Miss Hannah, of Chicago.

The funeral, which was one of the largest ever held at this place, was from the late residence, on Wednesday, conducted by Rev. Father Minogue, assisted by Rev. Father Pelekart, of McGregor, and Rev. Father Dollard of Whittemore, Iowa, and the large concourse of people attending attested to the high esteem in which deceased was held. Clayton County Democrat.
