The people of Dyersville had better look out for the clothing peddlers, who are working the country and headed this way. They were at Manchester the first part of the week and they have been proven swindlers of the broadest type. They are peddling so called tailor made clothes and when they come through here our people should turn them down at a moment's notice.—Dyersville News Letter.

A special from Hopkinton to the Cedar Rapids Republican gives the following account of the game between the Lenox College foot ball team and High school team of this city: "At 2:30 this afternoon the Lenox college foot ball team played the Manchester high school, the game resulting in the largest score that Lenox college ever made. The score indicates the weakness of the Manchester team, for a score of 84 to 0 means a one sided game. The people of Hopkinton considered this afternoon's work as a fine practice game for their boys when they meet a team that will soon come. Next Saturday, Oct. 18, the Lenox college team will play the Wisconsin State Normal when we shall see a different game. The boys of Manchester were a clean lot of fellows and we shall be glad to welcome them to our town at any time."

His new occupation and location, Mr. Pinch informs us, has fully restored his health, and he is contented and happy at his new home.

We hear a report to the effect that an effort is being made by some of the adherents of Clerk Georgan, and Gilbert who wants to be deputy clerk, to come to an understanding so as to induce the anti-Georgan faction of the G. O. P. to support the latter at the coming election. It is however not probable that such an arrangement will be made as Mr. Georgan proved himself to be a good fighter during the primary campaign, and showed conclusively that he could not be cajoled or scared against his will into obeying the dictates of party leaders.

Special meetings were begun at the Congregational church Sunday evening, conducted by Rev. G. M. Orris of Dubuque. The attendance upon Sunday was good considering the weather. The subject of the sermon on Monday evening was "The Need of a Purpose and the Power of an Ideal." The meetings will continue during this week every evening except Saturday. At 7:30 every evening a song service will be held led by Mr. Rann. Thursday, Friday, and Saturday afternoons there will be services by Mr. Orris, in which young people will be especially interested. Mr. Orris, a strong and manly speaker who speaks directly to the conscience and the reason, is no stranger to the people of Manchester. The topic for Tuesday night is "The Power of a Life."

"Human Hearts," the Idyl of the Arkansas Hills, will be produced at the Central Opera House next Friday evening, October 17. Like "Shore Acres," and "The Old Homestead," as well as other favorites, time only increases its hold upon the hearts of the people. The prattle of an innocent child, the tears of an old blind mother, the strong love of a simple country girl, the truth of a half-wit, the love of an old-time negro, the passion of an adventurer, and the tender memory of a dead mother—the past Governor of Arkansas, are all cleverly intermingled by the deft hand of the author of this absorbing tale of the Arkansas Hills. Each succeeding season of this thrilling play's annually increasing business, has induced the management to engage for this season's production one of the strongest companies ever organized in our east. To the lovers of a good play, not one on the list this season will appeal more strongly than "Human Hearts." Reserved seats on sale Thursday.

Mrs. Avery Noble was a Cedar Rapids visitor Tuesday.

Geo. Commerford transacted business at Cedar Rapids Tuesday.

John Bigman of Waterloo was a guest of Manchester friends the first of the week.
