and wore a wreath and veil. She presented a charming appearance as she stood beneath the arch receiving the marriage vow. The groom wore the usual black.

Miss Emma Wolf, sister of the bride, served as brides' maid and was also becomingly gowned in blue. Mr. John Sternhagen brother of the groom served as best man.

The ceremony was performed by the pastor of the German Episcopal church. The wedding march was beautifully rendered by Miss Anna House, which gave credit to the occasion. A reception and a wedding feast followed the ceremony. Music and social amusements were the entertainments during the afternoon. A large crowd assembled in the evening. Showers of congratulations were bestowed upon them, after which dancing and games were indulged in. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Wolf and has grown to womanhood in our midst, therefore, need no introduction.

The groom is the second son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sternhagen and is an industrious young man of good habits. The young couple has the good wishes of their legion of friends. They will reside on a farm south of Worthington.

Mrs. Francis Roe. Miss Edith Davis was born near Peconica, Illinois in 1860 and died at her home in this city, Monday, February 15, 1903. The deceased came to Delaware county with her parents when but 10 years old and has resided in this county continuously from that time.

Miss Davis was united in marriage on the 19th of August, 1878, to Francis A. Roe, who with four children, Harry, Laura, Elton and Burton, remain to mourn the death of a loving wife and devoted mother.

Mrs. Roe was a true Christian woman and had been for many years a member of the Presbyterian church of this city. She had the good will and esteem of all who knew her and her death casts a shadow of gloom over her many friends.

The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the family residence. Rev. Kirkwood officiating.

Frank G. King, "Chic" Perkins and a good company will present "The Boy Tramp" at the Central Opera House, Friday night, Feb. 20. It is one of the best comedy-dramas now before the public. Considerable attention has been given to the scenic and mechanical effects—a complete set of scenery being carried for each act. The engagement of this popular attraction promises to be a rare treat for our amusement loving people. The Philadelphia Dispatch says: "The Boy Tramp" is the best of the season. It is well constructed, the language excellent and, has a good cast. Frank G. King is an unusually fine comedian and gives imitations almost as clever as Nat Goodwin. He is handsome, graceful, has a fine voice and is a splendid actor. "Chic" Perkins leaves scarcely anything to be desired. The lady's impersonation has a finished, matured quality that is refreshing to witness in these days of gawky society debutantes. All her work is permeated with that certain indefinable something that always marks the natural-born actress, trained in a good school. The great Brooklyn Bridge scene was presented in a marvellous way, and elicited each generous applause. Price 25, 35 and 50 cents.

This sum will be turned over to the Library Board to be used by the latter in providing furniture and fixtures for the new Carnegie Library.

The committee in charge of this bazaar wish to extend their thanks to the Mandolin Club, to Miss Gertrude Anderson, to Mrs. Cooley, to Mr. Sutherland, and to all who so kindly assisted in furnishing the program, and provided entertainment for the patrons of the bazaar, and especially to the members of the different committees, and the public at large, for faithful work, and their very liberal patronage.

Wolf-Sternhagen. A pretty home wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents at high noon, Feb. 11th when occurred the marriage of Mr. Charles Sternhagen and Miss Ida Wolf.

The marriage took place in the presence of a wide circle of relatives and friends. The home was tastefully decorated for the occasion, in bunting and evergreens dotted with ribbon and roses. The ceremony was performed beneath an arch of evergreens from which suspended a floral bell.

The bride was becomingly gowned in pale blue silk, trimmed with white jets,
