

BRIEF MENTION.

A party of young people were picnicking at Mossy Glen Monday.

Allan LeRoy was in Waterloo yesterday attending the Chautauqua.

Miss Isabelle Wolfe of Alton, Illinois, is a guest of Miss Mildred Smith.

Dr. Clarence S. Lister spent the week-end visiting with friends at Iowa City.

Miss Emma Paxson was a guest of friends at Minneapolis for a few days last week.

Mrs. Ida Newcomb arrived home Thursday after a short visit with friends in Chicago.

Bert Cox, a resident of Etnesburg, Iowa, is in the city renewing old acquaintances.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace B. Atwater are the parents of a baby girl born Saturday morning.

The Woman's Club will meet with Mrs. Florence Davis Monday, September 10th, at 2:30.

Miss Edna Clark of Blue Earth, Minnesota, is visiting at the home of her uncle, Mr. Burton Clark.

Ringling Brothers' circus showed in Dubuque Monday. A number from this vicinity were in attendance.

Miss Florence Hetherington left Saturday for Parkersburg, Iowa, where she has accepted a position in a millinery establishment.

Dr. H. Heykins entertained his guests last week his sister, Miss E. Heykins and her friend, Mr. Andrew Fink, both of Ackley.

Miss Gladys Andrews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Andrews, entertained a number of her little friends at a birthday party last Friday.

Miss Katie Ellis, daughter of Mrs. K. Ellis, left Saturday night for Parkersburg, Iowa, where she will take a course in stenography at the college in that city.

Mrs. James W. H. Cooley and T. N. Arnold and children, of Manchester, were guests of their father and brother, S. T. and W. E. Richards, most of last week.

Mrs. Geo. Keiser entertained about twenty of her lady friends at breakfast last Saturday morning. The morning was spent in playing "five hundred."

Harry Smith, who has been attending the university of Chicago during the summer, left last week to enter upon his duties as instructor in the schools of Keosauqua.

A pair of itinerant musicians entertained, for the usual consideration, in the passers-by on the street last Thursday by their attempt to tease the utterance of harmony from an unwilling harp.

The Mercy and Help Department of the Epworth League, gave an ice cream social on the Methodist church lawn last Wednesday which added about ten dollars to the funds of that department.

The engagement of Miss Cordelia Katherine Riddell, formerly of Manchester now of Decatur, Ill., and Mr. Harold Orrin Wheeler of Minneapolis, is announced. The marriage is to take place in the autumn.

Louis Haehler of St. Paul, Minnesota, is visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Haehler. Louis now holds a responsible position in the General offices of the Chicago Great Western Railroad.

Lloyd Ballard, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Ballard, returned Thursday to Fort Collins, Colorado, where he goes to resume his studies. The condition of Lloyd's health makes it necessary for him to seek the western climate.

Harvey Hanna and Frank Sly left last Thursday morning for Ames Iowa where they will enter the Iowa State College. Mr. Hanna expects to pursue a course in Agricultural Engineering and Mr. Sly, the course in Agriculture.

The firm of Addison and Southall, barbers has been dissolved. Mr. Addison is retiring. Mr. Addison has removed to Kenosha, Wisconsin where he has accepted a position with Will Goodwin, a former resident of this city. Mr. Addison is a good workman, and will undoubtedly prosper in his new location.

Mrs. Edith Fox Norton arrived in this city last week for a visit with her mother, Mrs. T. J. Jacobs. Mrs. Norton will be joined by her husband, R. C. Norton, the first of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Norton will remain here until they take up their work again with the Evangelist, Chapman.

A. D. Hubbell has a peach tree near his residence on Delaware street that has had several peaches on this year and some of them are now ripening. The late frost last spring damaged the buds some, but yet it is shown that peaches can be grown here in Iowa.—Edgwood Journal.

Mrs. Chas. Burhans is a guest of friends in Dubuque.

Ben Hamblin of Cedar Rapids is visiting relatives and friends here this week.

Bernie Belknap is at home from Vinton where he has been for the past two weeks.

Miss Frank Lovelace is in Chicago this week selecting stock for P. Newcomb's store.

B. Clark returned last Friday from Chicago where he made purchases for the fall trade.

Dr. H. B. Griffin of Dubuque, was a guest at the home of Dr. H. M. Bradley last Thursday evening.

The members of the Grange were entertained at a picnic dinner last Saturday at the home of Mr. John Marshall.

Glenn Tabor, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Tabor, left for Cedar Rapids Monday where he will attend the Cedar Rapids Business College.

Mrs. Maggie Johnson Kellogg of Macon, Missouri, arrived in the city last week for a visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. John Kerr.

Mr. and Mrs. Rabenau visited with relatives at Iowa City last week. Their son, Carl, who has spent the summer there, returned home with them.

Miss Jane Armistead, for the past few weeks a guest at the Armistead home in this city, returned to her home in Memphis, Tennessee, last week.

Miss Mabel Edmunds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Edmunds, left last Friday for Grand Rapids, Minnesota, where she has a position in the city schools.

Dr. E. G. Dittmer was in Fond du Lac last week on business connected with arranging the affairs of the late Prof. Walter W. Bell, a brother of Mrs. Dittmer.

Mr. and Mrs. James M. New of Masonville who have been visiting at their former home in New York state for the past two months, returned home last week.

Miss Alice Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Jones, departed last Friday for Garner, Iowa, where she has accepted a position as instructor of music in the schools.

Mr. Bert Ellis of Osage, Iowa, was renewing acquaintances in this city last week after an absence of three years. Mr. Ellis has an excellent position in a printing office at that place.

A large delegation from this city were in Dubuque last week attending the Tri-State Fair held there. On Thursday at that place, he renewed racing horse, Dan Preak, a mile in 1:58, thus breaking the track record for Iowa.

The friends of Allan Graham, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Graham, will be pleased to learn that he has been appointed superintendent of the gas works at Hannsburg, Pa. He is to be congratulated upon his rapid advancement in his line of work.

Floyd Arnold and Burdette Young, who have been with the Illinois Central exhibit at the state fair, were in town between trains last Saturday. The boys state that the fair was the most magnificent ever held in the state, the number and class of the exhibits greatly surpassing any heretofore made, and the attendance greatly exceeding all previous records. The live stock exhibit was the largest ever displayed at a state fair. Iowa has reason to be proud of such a marvelous exposition.

Rev. and Mrs. Suckow and family returned last week after an absence of two weeks during which they have been visiting at Cedar Rapids and Fort Madison. During his sojourn, Rev. Suckow ably filled the pulpit of the First Congregational church of Muscatine, Aug. 20, and delivered several entertaining and instructive lectures at the Chautauqua held at Ottawa, Illinois. The Suckow and Hall families left Monday for a three days trip by carriage among the hills of that section popularly known as Turkey Timber. Mr. Suckow spent his boyhood days in the vicinity of Elkport, and has not revisited the scenes for thirty years.

Last Thursday, Mrs. Chas. Fargo, residing northwest of town, was found dead in a chair at her home, death having come suddenly. The funeral was held Saturday, Rev. Holden of the Baptist church preaching the funeral sermon. Interment was made at the Platt cemetery seven miles southeast of this city. Mrs. Fargo, whose maiden name was Catherine Ross, was born at Cleveland, Ohio, on July 4, 1850. In 1854 she moved with her parents to Iowa settling near the town of Milheim, Delaware county. On July 4, 1877, she was married to Geo. Van Horn. One daughter, Mrs. Wm. Bacon, was the only child of this union. Jan. 29, 1885, she was united in marriage with Chas. Fargo, who with one son, Guy, and the daughter, are left to mourn the loss of a faithful wife and loving mother.—Strawberry Point Mail Press.

The Strawberry Point fair proved a strong attraction for the residents of Manchester and vicinity, about 84 going over the M. & O., and a great many preferring to drive. Senator Tillman addressed a large audience of attentive listeners on Thursday with his exposition of the race question. Mr. Tillman is one of the most noted and able members of the United States Senate, and acquitted himself admirably in his interesting and powerful speech. The Manchester ball team played in two close and exciting contests. On Thursday they defeated Hawkeye by the score of 4 to 1, playing an exceptionally strong game. McCusker and Kelly composed the battery. On Friday they were defeated by the heavy hitting Watouma team by a score of 14 to 4. Manchester utilizing three pitchers. The speed contests were high in every respect, and the local visitors express themselves as being highly satisfied with the treatment received at the fair.

Mrs. C. W. Keagy is a guest of friends and relatives at Waterloo this week.

Wallace Pettjohn of Chicago, Illinois is a guest at the home of Dr. J. J. Lindsay.

Hon. R. W. Tirril left yesterday for Aberdeen, South Dakota where he was called to look after business interests.

Mr. W. H. Magill left for Winnebago, Minnesota yesterday on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Sweeney of Osage, Iowa, are visiting at the home of W. W. Ford.

Miss Sue Paxson has returned to Omaha to resume her duties as instructor in one of the Omaha high schools.

Miss Nellie Hatch and Miss Ilene Thorpe have gone to Cedar Falls where they will enter the Iowa State Normal school.

Miss Hattie Griffin, who has been visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. R. B. Griffin, returned to Des Moines last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Berner Hayward of Davenport are here, guests at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Yoran and Mr. and Mrs. George Ford.

On Saturday, September 8th, Mrs. Geo. Ford entertains informally at her home on Howard street in honor of her nieces, Mrs. Verne Hayward of Davenport and Mrs. Fred Hruby of Dubuque.

Mr. Clarence Gifford of Clear Lake, Iowa and Mr. Claude Gifford of South Dakota are in the city called here by the serious illness of their mother, Mrs. Dan Gifford.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Roderick and daughter, Maud, of Rossville, Illinois were guests at the Meskimen home last week. Mrs. Meskimen accompanied them as far as Dubuque on their return trip.

Mrs. J. E. Nye was a guest of friends at Cedar Rapids for a few days of last week. She was accompanied home by her niece, Miss Ruth McClintock who will remain in the city for several days a guest at the Nye home.

Miss Nina Carhart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Carhart, returned Saturday from a weeks visit at Beloit, Wisconsin. Miss Carhart left on Monday for Cedar Falls, Ia., where she will attend the Normal School during the year.

The School Board met in regular monthly session Monday evening. Miss Maud Joseph was elected instructor for the eighth grade. New music books were adopted in the grades. Several bills of minor importance were allowed.

The celebrated Thomas Orchestra company will give daily concerts at the Waterloo chautauqua from Sept. 3 to 8th inclusive. A rate of only one fare for the round trip for these occasions, is given by the Illinois Central as will be seen by local in another column.

Mr. George Hines, traveling passenger Agent on the I. C. R. R., was in the city over Sunday visiting his mother, Mrs. Dr. Hines. Miss Clara Hines who has been visiting at the home of her grandmother for several days, returned to Chicago with her father.

In the butter contest recently held for the purpose of selecting butter for exhibition purposes at the Inter-state live stock fair to be held in Sioux City next week, Mr. C. J. Rhode, buttermaker of the Hazel Green creamery won first by the remarkable score of 99, in competition with the butter makers of three states.

Mrs. Robert Graham and two daughters, Helen and Margaret, left Sunday for Twin Falls, Idaho where Mrs. Graham will visit her sister, Mrs. B. A. Baker. Mr. and Mrs. Baker removed from near Greeley to Twin Falls about a year ago, and are delighted with their new location. Mr. T. Noble, Mrs. Graham's father, accompanied them on their trip.

A clever rogue engaged in the nefarious business of forging checks and passing them upon the unsuspecting merchants, operated in this vicinity last week. Three stores in this city, Thorpe Bros., Kalamity's and a d. Drew, as a d. that of Adahet Clarke of Thorpe were successfully galled by the smooth grafter. In each place a small purchase was made, and a check for ten dollars made payable to Wm. Brown assigned by Matt Hutson was tendered in payment, professing to be a thrasher working for Hudson. When the check was presented for payment, the fraud was discovered, but entirely too late to apprehend the perpetrator.

Edward Hollister and Miss Ruby Scott were united in marriage last Thursday at the home of Rev. Hugh Dowling Atchinson, pastor of St. Luke's Methodist Episcopal church of Dubuque. The ceremony was performed at three o'clock in the afternoon, Mr. Lefe Matthews Jr. and Miss Madge Pentney attending the bride and groom. The news although not entirely unexpected, came as a great surprise to their many friends who were astonished at the felicity and dispatch with which the ruse was executed. However, the happy pair are receiving the sincere congratulations of their many friends. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelious Scott, a girl of striking personality, winning and refined in manner. Mr. Hollister is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Hollister, and a young man of high business and social standing. He is now connected in a business with his father, one of the most prominent and successful lumber merchants in the state, and will undoubtedly attain similar success in his chosen line of business. The young couple are at present at home to their friends on the Hollister residence on Marion street. The Democrat joins with the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Hollister in extending to them their sincere wishes that they may be very happy in their new relation.

Something for School Wear

Have your boys been fitted out, have they all the Suits, Shirts, Pants, Caps and Shoes they need to begin school? If not we would like to have you see what we are showing in this line.

- BOYS SUITS in mixed chevrons and cassimers, just the thing for school wear, ages 3 to 8, $2.50 to $3.50
BOYS SUITS in medium heavy weight cassimers, also mixed worsteds, ages 8 to 16, made double seam and extra strong throughout, especially for school wear. Price $3.50 AND $5.00
BOYS KNEE PANTS made for hard wear of odds 39c, 50c AND $1.00 and ends, size 3 to 16, price
BOYS SHIRTS light and dark colors 25c and 50c
BOYS CAPS 25c to 50c. Boys fast black hose 13c and 25c.
BOYS SHOES made strong, especially for school wear $1.50 and $2.00

GILDNER BROS.,

Men's and Boys' Outfitters.

Tan Shoe Sale FOR MEN ONLY.

All that remains of our tan shoes and Oxfords, former price $3.50, $4.00 and $5.00. We are now cleaning them out at the price of $2.45 the pair. We must sell every pair regardless of cost.

P. F. Madden GOOD SHOES.

House for Sale or Rent. Corner Howard and Iowa streets. 36w1. A. J. PEASE.
Pasture to Let. Will take a few Cattle or Horses to pasture. Enquire Jos or W. H. Hutchinson. 23 If Farm for Rent. The Schneider farm at Golden Station. Enquire at the premises. 35 w1.
Organ for Sale. Fine organ for sale for $30. S. K. MEYERS, The Piano Man.
Notice of Appointment of Administrator. STATE OF IOWA, Delaware County, ss. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That the undersigned has been duly appointed and qualified as Administrator of the estate of Amos S. P. M. Bradley, deceased, in and for said County, Iowa, deceased. All persons indebted to said Estate are requested to make immediate payment, and those having claims against the same will present them, duly authenticated, to the undersigned for allowance. MARTHA SUTHERLAND, Dated Aug. 21, 1906. H. H. STRAUB, Clerk District Court.

Referees Notice of Sale of Real Estate. Notice is hereby given that the undersigned referees will on the eighth day of September 1906, at the dwelling house on the premises hereinafter described, offer for sale and receive bids on the following described real estate situated in DeWitt township, Delaware county, Iowa, to-wit: The southeast quarter (1/4) of the southeast quarter (1/4) and the south two (2) rods (1/2) of the southwest quarter (1/4) of the southwest fractional quarter (1/4). Total of section seven (7) township eight (8) north range four (4) west of the 5th P. M., except railroad right of way. Dated this 14th day of August 1906. C. C. BRADLEY, H. M. BRADLEY, Referees.

Notice of Dissolution. Notice is hereby given that the partnership heretofore existing between Dr. C. C. Bradley and Dr. H. M. Bradley of Manchester, Iowa, has been dissolved by mutual consent. All persons knowing themselves to be indebted to said firm are requested to make payment to Dr. H. M. Bradley at his office in Manchester, Iowa. C. C. BRADLEY, H. M. BRADLEY.

Wood for Sale. Will contract green wood at following prices: Good, sound Poplar, in 5 cord lots, at $1.00 a cord; Oak wood, in 5 cord lots, at $5.00 a cord. This wood is made from live wood—1st class in every particular. Enquire of Jos. HUTCHINSON.

Organ for Sale. Fine organ for sale for $25. S. K. MEYERS, The Piano Man.

Lots and Residence Property for Sale. We offer for sale on favorable terms, several lots near the river on Butler and Main streets, two of which have dwellings and other buildings on them, also one large business lot on Main street between the Clarence house and the Main Street Laundry. For particulars enquire of George A. Ballard, 40-1/2 Durham Bull for Sale. 1 Durham Bull 4 years old, kind, gentle and a splendid individual. W. M. STRAUB, Manchester.

Latest Arrivals In AUTUMN FASHIONS.

New Fall Suits, Cravanette Coats. An assemblage of new, fashionable suits, cravanette coats, ladies' and children's cloaks and skirts. The new arrivals in this section are decidedly attractive. Exclusive designs and moderate prices are among the many pleasing features. All sizes and a practically unlimited variety of styles, and elaborateness of the display we believe will take precedence over any showing ever spread before our customers.

New Silks For Fall. Handsome silks for early fall line have arrived, and are the most exclusive effects, both in style and color, ever shown. Stylish Fall Dress Fabrics. An interesting showing in which style and quality are the chief characteristics.

RUGS and CARPETS. Our extensive showing of new rugs and carpets is now at its best. Dozens of artistic patterns and beautiful colorings in high grade Wilton velvets, Brussels and Axminsters. The variety is so great that you will have no difficulty in choosing a rug to harmonize in color with the effects of any room you desire to furnish.

B. CLARK

Fall Goods .. Every department full and complete or the Early Fall Trade. Millinery, Dress Goods, Cloaks, Carpets, Clothing and Shoes. Call and you will find a complete stock with prices as low as the lowest. Respectfully, W. L. Drew Kalamity's - Kolumn. ALL KINDS OF .. School supplies. Tablets, Pens and Pencils, Ink, Erasers, Book Straps, Lunch Boxes, Composition Books, Drawing Tablets, Colored Crayons, Pencil Boxes. Everything you need except Books.

Central Pharmacy. HEADQUARTERS FOR School Supplies. Text Books New and Second Hand. A wonderful line of Tablets. Pencils, Penholders, Rulers and everything needed to start the little ones to school. If you can't come yourself send the children. Anders & Philipp

Clean 'Em Up Shoe Sale. We have a few broken lots of women's shoes which we are going to close out quickly with little regard to cost. 48 pairs of women's shoes in $3.50 and $4.00 values, in kid and patent leather stock, going at $2.89. 51 pairs of women's shoes in $2.85 and $3.00 values, in several different styles, nearly all sizes in the lot, going at $2.39. 31 pairs of women's shoes, mostly narrow widths in $2.50 values, going at $1.98. The above advertised shoes comprises all the broken lots of women's shoes in the store and are exceptional values in all of them. We keep our stock clean by sacrificing prices. You get the benefit. Don't Miss these Bargains. Next week is the Delaware County Fair and we especially invite every man, woman or child to come in and look over our stock of shoes. We are always pleased to have you make our store headquarters whether you buy or not. We have lots of chairs and will get more if needed. Yours, H. H. LAWRENCE Telephone 361. The Shoe Man.