—Two hoboes were gathered in by Marshal Newton and shipped over to Marshal New at Dyersville. The men were wanted for burrizing the Sawyer store at Buena Vista. One of the hoboes was an old "print" who claimed he was formerly employed with Horace Greeley and Henry Waterson. Of course it doesn't make any difference to H. G. because he's dead, but "Marse" Henry would feel awful bad to know the old "print" had got into such a "dirty" case.—Farley News.

The effort was useless as Mrs. Kerr died at about the time the train left Waterloo.—Waterloo Courier.
—The postoffice department has put an end to the mailing of post cards sprinkled with glittering particles of mica, and those people who buy such cards and mail them, lose the money invested in the card as well as the postage stamps. All such cards are required to be sent direct to the dead letter office. Postmaster Pond says that eight of these cards were sent to the dead letter office from Monticello in one day. That means that about $5 was squandered in the purchase of cards and postage stamps.—Express.
—The Davenport, Monticello and Manchester Interurban Railway company, says a Davenport dispatch, promises to be the definite result, in the next few weeks, of the large amount of preliminary work that is being done in getting matters in shape for organization for the building of the electric line that will connect the three cities named. The executive committee has in hand at present the gathering together of the necessary data, the securing of rights of ways, etc., and its members are pushing all matters connected with the organization, so as to have things in a definite shape at an early day for organization. Hon. Geo. T. Baker, the committee of the Davenport Commercial club, and jobbers and business men at this end of the line, are now taking interest in the road, at this end of the line, and the prospects are that we shall hear more of it from now on, and see it built at an early day. The line offers much to this locality, and jobbers, manufacturers and retail merchants will have a warm welcome for it, for it opens up a rich new territory to all of them. We want it, and more interurbans, from any and all directions.

Death of J. A. Thomas.
Joseph Albert Thomas was born in New London, Conn., August 18, 1827. At the age of four years he became a member of the family of his uncle, John Benedict, a resident of Osego county, N. Y., and remained with him, assisting him on his farm until 1849, when he went to California where he met with much success financially. In 1854 he went to Medina county, Ohio, where he purchased a farm and engaged in farming and two years thereafter to wit: November 1, 1856, he was united in marriage with Miss Almira Flint, a sister of the late C. L. Flint. Mrs. Thomas died December 20, 1899.
In 1862 they came to this county and engaged in farming on his first purchase of land here, a tract of one hundred and sixty acres in Hazel Green township to which he added by several purchases, eleven hundred and forty acres more.
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas had no children but took to their home two of their nieces, now Mrs. A. E. Anderson of Oelwein, and Mrs. J. W. Brazleton of Cedar Rapids, whom they cared for, reared and educated as though they were their own daughters.
Mr. Thomas was an honored and respected citizen, an enterprising business man, and possessor of a happy and genial disposition.
During his long and eventful career he was engaged in various kinds of business, and always used his means and talents to the best advantage. He was a progressive and successful farmer, and an excellent business man. Among the first creameries in this county was the Thomas creamery, established by him, which, while under his supervision was a success. For several years he was engaged in the mercantile business at Ryan, and was one of the organizers of the Ryan State Bank of which he was president from its organization until his decease.
On September 14, 1905, while residing in Manchester with his niece, Mrs. J. W. Brazleton, he was stricken with paralysis and from that time until a few days before his decease was comparatively helpless. Much of that time he was able to sit in his invalid chair, and spent much of his time reading, taking a lively interest in the news contained in the daily and his county papers. He was again stricken with paralysis on the 5th of this month at the home of his niece, Mrs. A. E. Anderson, where he lived during the past year, and from that time until his decease on the 11th inst., he was unconscious with but short intermissions.
Besides his nieces, Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Brazleton, he is survived by his niece, Mrs. R. N. Howe, of this city, and his nephews, Mr. O. W. Thomas, of St. Louis, Mo.
The remains were brought to this city Friday evening and the funeral services were held in the Masonic Temple, of which order the deceased had been for many years a member. The interment was in the cemetery at Golden.

Prof. Harry C. Weigert
Health Teacher and instructor of Hatha Yoga.
Is now at the Clarence Hotel and will be here all week until Saturday, April 20, and after that date will be here three days each week on Monday, Wednesday, Friday. If you are sick or ailed off you should learn to practice Hatha Yoga and get right with nature. If you do not understand what Hatha Yoga is go and have a talk with the Professor and he will tell you and locate your trouble without asking a single question and will explain to you the importance of Complete Breathing in its vital importance to every man, woman and child who wishes to acquire health and keep it. Its very simplicity keeps thousands from considering it while they spend fortunes in seeking health through complicated and expensive systems. Health knocks at their door and they answer: not. Verily the stone which the builders reject is the real Cornerstone of the Temple of Health.
