

BRIEF MENTION.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Rann spent Friday in Dubuque. Charlie Walters was home from Cedar Rapids over Sunday. Capt. and Mrs. H. G. Utley were Dubuque visitors last week. J. G. Schaum left Monday for a trip through Northern Minnesota. S. A. Steadman is confined to his home on Main street with illness. W. L. Dudley is in North Dakota for a short time on land business. Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Wilson are guests of relatives and friends in Chicago. Walter Woolstyn of Cresco was a guest here Sunday of Miss Minnie Hawley. Calvin Yoran was in Charles City the first of the week looking after legal matters. Mrs. J. H. Allen left the first of the week for a two weeks visit with relatives in Galena and Benton. Miss Dorothy Pond of Dubuque visited here Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Asmus. Mr. D. E. Eckert of Goss, N. Dak., arrived here Saturday evening, where he expects to spend the summer. Mrs. F. Fischer and two children of Cedar Rapids were guests here last week at the home of A. A. Anderson. Harvey Cooley returned Sunday morning from a trip to southwestern Nebraska, where he invested in a tract of real estate. Jos. Hutchinson expects to leave next month for England where he will remain for several months looking after business matters. Rev. Elmer Chapel and daughter who have been guests here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Chapel returned Friday to their home in Arena, Wis. Delight Hutchinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hutchinson, entertained a party of "youngsters" last Thursday afternoon in honor of her fifth birthday. Thorpe Bros. large store building at the corner of Main and Franklin streets is being roofed with tin. Hutchinson & Atwater have the contract for the work. The K. P.'s will give a May dancing party at their hall on Thursday evening the 10th. It promises to be the best dance of the season. All K. P.'s and their friends are invited. And now comes B. W. Grems and in a large three column announcement, explains the science of selecting and applying wall paper, and tells why he is selling it now at half price. The district convention of the Christian Endeavor held at the Congregational church last week was well attended and successful. A large number of out of town delegates were in attendance. Garry Thorpe and August Nachtmann were initiated into the Knights of Columbus at Cedar Rapids Sunday night. Those who accompanied them from here were Joe McCormick and Al Thorpe. Mrs. Katherine Langworthy of Dubuque was entertained here last Wednesday by Mrs. W. L. Dudley. Mrs. Langworthy is Deputy Grand Matron of the Eastern Star and was inspecting the chapter of that order here Wednesday. Early Tuesday morning occurred the death of John S. Wilson at his home on what is known as the Denton farm. Mr. Wilson was forty-one years old and leaves a wife and one child. Interment will be made Thursday in the Bay cemetery. Mrs. F. C. Platt, wife of Judge Platt of Waterloo, died at her home in that city last Tuesday. The funeral services were held on Thursday. His many friends in this vicinity deeply sympathize with Judge Platt in his bereavement. Hon. H. H. Norris of this city delivered the address of the day at the laying of the cornerstone of the new Masonic Temple at Atlanta Georgia, on the 8th. The Atlanta Georgian and News publish it in full and says: "Mr. Norris' address was one of the most beautiful and impressive ever delivered before the Masonry of Georgia." The appearance of the Dairy City Creamery has been greatly improved recently by a cement walk and curbing laid in the front of the building on Main street. Flowers and vines have been planted in the terrace and when they are grown will serve to make the creamery a beautiful as well as an interesting place to visit. In the last week's issue we called the attention of the readers of the Democrat to the fact that May 3 was rather late to be having snow storms. Last Friday, May 10, a little snow fell which if it could be called a snow storm, would establish a new record for 1907. Jos. Hutchinson has informed us that on May 11, 1878, this county experienced a heavy snow. Can any one beat that? Very Rev. Theo. Warning departed Sunday evening for Arcadia, Iowa, where he officiated at the funeral of his sister, Mrs. George Gleaser, on Monday morning, who passed away at the family home Saturday. Deceased was about 65 years of age and had been in poor health for some time. Deceased's maiden name was Anna Warning and for a number of years she lived at Worthington and for a short time after her marriage resided in this city. She is survived by her husband, three sons and three daughters, also by three brothers and three sisters.—Dyersville News Letter.

She started to pour some gasoline into a boiler of boiling water which was standing on the stove when the oil exploded. Mrs. Allman's arms and face were badly burned. The prompt service of the neighbors saved her from more serious injury. —The Dunkerton correspondent of the Reporter has the right spirit. While much croaking is heard about the backward spring and freezing weather, he says: "We have lived on an Iowa farm for 43 years. Every year we have had a crop and plenty to live on till another year came along." That's the kind of talk dispels the clouds of the darkest days and makes the frost melt away on the coldest mornings.—Waterloo Reporter. —The friends here of Miss Katharine Commerford will be surprised to hear of her marriage last Saturday at Ottumwa to Frank Steinman of that place. Only a few friends of the contracting parties had knowledge of their plans. The bride is well and favorably known here. She was born in Manchester and has a host of friends here who congratulate Mr. Steinman upon his selection of a wife. Mr. Steinman is a traveling salesman and resides in Ottumwa. —A band of gypsies have been visiting some of the towns in northeastern Iowa and has been hitting some of the sports for a bunch of their spare coin. The gypsies have with them a horse which looks like it might make good croissant and whose looks do not indicate a great amount of speed. As usual they are bantered for a race wherever they go and they promptly take on all comers and give them a good ending in a victory for the gypsies. They were seen in the party leaving on Ulewin sports and went from there to Strawberry Point where Wareham's Ding Dong was taken out of winter quarters and given a trimming. Last Saturday they beat the Conboy horse at Volga and are now moving on looking for more fellows who can't recognize speed in a sorry looking animal.—Argus.

SEVERE WEATHER FOR MAY. A Month of Storms With Probable Seismic Disturbances. Rev. Irl R. Hicks in his publication Word and Works says that from the 10th to the 15th will be a marked storm period with probably great seismic disturbances. Watch for severe storms, tornadoic storms, during this period. There will probably be a sufficient rainfall from the 18th to the 20th, and from the 23rd to the 26th dangerous storms may be expected and are likely to be accompanied by hail, followed by very cold weather for the time of year. The month will end amid storms and another crisis of seismic disturbances. DeVoe's weather forecasts say, 15th to 18th pleasant, 17th to 19th warm and cloudy. On the 20th a storm will form over the Missouri valley and move eastward. 21st to 22nd cloudy with rain. 23rd to 24th pleasant. 25th to 26th cloudy, threatening weather. On the 27th a heavy storm will form over the Mississippi valley and move eastward, causing very heavy rains from the Mississippi across to the Atlantic Coast and unusual cold weather. 28th to 29th cloudy with rain. 30th to 31st fair.

James Wilson Final report. Final report approved, executrix discharged. Bond released. Obituary. Robert Hunter was born at Waterloo, New York, March 30th, 1825; died at his home in Delaware county Iowa, Sunday, May 5, 1907, aged 82 years, 1 month and 5 days. These two dates mark the entrance upon earthly life and the departure into eternal existence of one who far more than four score years fought life's battles well, and when the warfare was over departed to be with God forever. The deceased was the son of Jas. Hunter who was born near Belfast, Ireland, hence, by birth inherited the sterling qualities of the Scotch-Irish, which endeared him to all who knew him. In 1845, Mr. Hunter came west with his father and began his life's work in the country that was then so new. Upon the breaking out of the Mexican war, in April 1847, he enlisted in the United States regular infantry at Rockford, Ill., and served under General Taylor in the army of the Rio Grande, until the close of the war, when he was discharged at New Port, Ky., in Aug. 1848. In 1850 he came to Elk township, Delaware county, Iowa, where he found a quarter section that well suited him, he settled, using a Mexican land warrant signed by Millard Fillmore to perfect his title. Returning to Rockford, Ill., on April 6, 1853, he was married to Miss Mary Cummins, a native of Geauga county, Ohio, who was the partner of his joys and sorrows for fifty-four years. Five children were born to this happy union: Addie, Minnie and George, who reside upon the old homestead, and Omri and Robert who died in early childhood, and are buried in the cemetery at Greeley. Of the immediate family to which Mr. Hunter belonged, three remain, David of Rockford, Ill., and Jane and Belle of St. Louis, Mo. The funeral services were conducted at the home, Wednesday, May 8, 1907 at 2 o'clock p. m. They were in charge of Rev. H. T. Crawford of the Greeley M. E. church, his pastor. The funeral was very largely attended, friends being present from all parts of Delaware county. Interment was made in the Greeley cemetery, where all that was mortal of Robert Hunter was laid to rest to await the day when all who die in the Lord shall arise to meet Him in Glory. He is gone, but not forgotten. Friends and neighbors bear testimony to his Lord-like life and worthy example. Wife and children revere his memory, and live in the anticipation of a glad reunion in Heaven, when they, too, have laid aside this earthly tabernacle and have put on immortality.—Greeley Home Press.
