She leaves her husband and three children, Dorothy, Mary and Ellen, four brothers, Bernard McGuire of Ottumwa, Edward, Francis and John of Marion, two sisters, Mrs. Ella Oehler of this place and Mrs. Kate Hogan of Oelwein. Mrs. Sherman had been a great sufferer for many months. All that loving hearts and willing hands could do was done for her. The funeral services were held at St. John's church on Tuesday morning conducted by Rev. Father Collins and were largely attended.

HOPKINTON.

H. F. McBride of Hazel Green was in town last Saturday for the first time since early last spring. Howard has been having a long and serious siege with muscular rheumatism but is now beginning to see ahead to recovery.
Prof. J. W. Parkhill has bargained for the Hawthorne lot adjoining W. P. Lord's property in the northeast part of town, and is figuring with contractors with a view of erecting a handsome residence this season. The property and location is a very desirable one.
A number of our sporting community are talking of going to Arlington next Wednesday to see the ball game between Volga and Monticello. The latter team was defeated at Strawberry Point last week by a single score and consequently are "seeing red." A special train for the event is advertised.

All the members of the party report a most enjoyable trip, after covering a large range of country in sightseeing.
Nick Delosh, son of Jule Delosh, was considerably injured in an accident last Thursday while coming to town with the cream wagon. The reach broke, parting the wagon and he was drawn over the top of the cans and along the ground by the team, but he held to the lines and succeeded in preventing the team from running away. Since then he has been taken with the measles and the young man thinks he is having more than his share of disaster.
Wm. Porter met with an accident last Monday which came within an ace of being pretty serious. He was helping stack hay on his farm in Hazel Green, occupied by Fred Messeri, and was on the load. The hay poles fell and Mr. Porter was precipitated head first from the front of the load and struck his forehead on the doubletrees, cutting a severe gash. He was otherwise unharmed in places. Fortunately the horses were not attached to the wagon at the time. Mr. Porter is now resting well from his injuries.
One of the state inspectors was in town Tuesday looking up the stocks of the merchants and advising them as to the standing of some of the foods. It is apparent that the state is going to make a vigorous attempt to enforce the provisions of the law, though it does seem as if they were putting a good deal of stress upon its technical provisions. However, the people who protect themselves from adulterated foods, and no doubt will soon get accustomed to the law and the higher prices which guaranteed articles will cost.—Leader.
