—The messenger from Mars surveyed the multitude which had gathered to meet him with undignified interest. Nor did he hesitate to propound such inquiries as his curiosity prompted. "Where do you all live?" he asked, speaking generally. "I live in the future," said a young man, good humoredly. "And I in the past," said an old man. "How odd! And do none of you live in the present?" "Pardon me," said the Martian, hastily. "Perhaps I press my questions too closely." At this a voice from the outskirts of the crowd spoke up, saying: "We have not yet learned how to live in the present without interruption of business, don't you know?"—Puck.

Council Proceedings.
The City Council met Monday evening all members being present. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. A resolution was passed correcting the error of omitting all land in Manchester in 10 acre lots or more from the corporation tax levy, at the last meeting was fixed at 5 mills. The clerk was ordered to notify the Illinois Central Railroad Company to install permanent side walks over the streets across which its tracks run. Considerable discussion was brought out relative to the sewer connections recently made from the properties of Miles Blair and Mrs. Jennie Jones. It was contended that permissions had been granted for the connections without proper authority from the council. The residence properties of Mr. Blair and Mrs. Jones do not abut on the sewer with which they are connected and a part of the council desire that they sign an agreement to sign a petition for a sewer abutting their properties on liberty street, whenever a majority of the abutting owners on that street desire a sewer. A resolution presented by Councilman Scott was passed requiring Mr. Blair and Mrs. Jones to sign the agreement above outlined and directed the mayor to take the necessary legal steps to have the pipes disconnected if the signatures were refused. The petitions of Hubert Carr and W. D. Work for sewer
