

County Correspondence.

T. CORRESPONDENTS.

To insure publication in the issue following, all correspondence must be mailed so as to reach this office the Saturday previous to publication.

RYAN

John Beacom is a business visitor in South Dakota this week. Tom Clabby of Independence was a business visitor in Ryan last Tuesday. The old Dickey store building at Hazel Green is being moved this week to the Dunlay farm. Mrs. P. P. Curtis is a guest of relatives in Manchester this week. Rev. Father Hanley, who has been spending some time in Europe is expected home about May 1st. The political battle in the county has begun and from now on the candidates will be with us daily. John Seery, formerly of Cascade is shaking hands with friends in town today. He is now a resident of Dubuque.

Mrs. W. P. Hurley has been critically ill during the past week, and it is thought she cannot recover. This will be sorrowful news to her many friends. David Chrystal was called to St. Paul last week on account of the serious illness of his brother, John Chrystal. He reports him as being in a serious condition. At the municipal election held Monday the following were elected: Mayor, George Johnston; clerk and assessor, J. M. Brayton; treasurer, John Dolph; councilmen, James Lyness, A. O. Thompson and J. J. Dolph.

Miss Nellie Sullivan of Manchester was a Sunday guest at the Ward home. She has been engaged to teach the spring term of school in the Britt district. M. J. Yoran of Manchester is a candidate for county attorney. Mr. Yoran is one of the bright young attorneys of the county, a hustler in every respect and would be sure to make good if elected.

Tom Houlihan purchased the Tom Clabby farm of 160 acres west of town yesterday at $65 an acre. We haven't heard as yet whether Tom will settle on the place, but no doubt he will soon be looking for a housekeeper.—Reporter.

COLESBURG

April showers bring May flowers. Miss Myra DeLong is teaching the spring term of school in the Ocker district, beginning March 30. Joseph Klaus and wife are the proud parents of a son, born March 29th. A party at the D. W. Smith home on Friday evening was in honor of Miss Kate DeLong's twentieth birthday anniversary. The young folks succeeded in having a good time.

Mrs. Omar Hammond is in Finley hospital at Dubuque, where she recently underwent a serious operation. Four cancers were removed from her shoulder and side. She was in a critical condition for a time, but is now reported as doing as well as could be expected. The many friends of Mrs. Hammond and family sincerely hope that she may be restored to health.

Chris Miersom and family of New Vienna are spending a few days with Colesburg friends. Miss Marga Craig resumed her school work at Jefferson, Monday after a vacation of one month. S. P. McMahon has been very sick during the week with hemorrhages from the head. At present he is resting comfortably. As soon as he is able he will go to Dubuque for an operation. Rev. Minogue of Elkport was called Friday to see S. P. McMahon. Mrs. Alice Hyde and children, Mary and Fred, Miss Alta Gore and Carl Mitzner are the latest victims of the mumps.

BAILEYS FORD

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Young and family spent Sunday last week at the home of Mrs. R. E. Grommon. Clyde Thompson visited at R. Cooper's Sunday of last week. Harry Conner and Roy Grommon were in Manchester, Tuesday of last week. J. W. Hartman and daughter, Elvina were in Delhi last Wednesday. Mrs. Wm. Kaster and daughter, Mrs. Iola Trumble, visited at the home of Mrs. R. E. Grommon, Tuesday of last week. Clyde Thompson delivered logs in Manchester last Wednesday. S. Shaw had business in Manchester, last Friday. Rev. H. P. Schmidt conducted services at Peosta Sunday. F. W. Ray and wife entertained a few friends very pleasantly Tuesday evening. I. A. Spear spent Monday with his daughter in Greeley. Miss Verga Davis, who is attending High School in Manchester spent last week with her parents L. H. Davis and wife. The members of the Baptist Sunday School are preparing an Easter program. W. F. Esler and family visited several days recently with relatives in Dubuque. Mr. G. F. Miller of Hopkinton visited her friend Mrs. L. H. Davis. Mrs. A. Gillispie and Miss Rose Zirtzman visited an aunt in Dubuque last week. R. Bowers and family are all on the sick list. Mrs. C. A. Stone and children of Delhi spent Friday at the Hefner home. Mrs. Geo. Hendrickson of Greeley visited her parents, I. A. Spears and wife Friday. Her daughter Miss Florence Beebe returned home with her to remain during her vacation. Miss Ruth Coats is visiting an aunt in Greeley. J. J. Hollister and wife of Manchester spent Sunday at the Sackett home.

Mrs. Olive Peddycoart was shopping in Manchester Thursday.

Fred Wendall and wife and Adelbert Clark and family, of Thorpe, spent Sunday at the John Croyle farm.

J. B. Dunham and wife arrived home Wednesday from their California trip. Mrs. Geo. Cox and daughter, Adelia, attended the bazaar at Greeley Thursday.

Mrs. Hans Voelker is helping care for her nephew Amos Lubben who is very sick with lung fever and pneumonia.

Miss Lulu Rolfe was a Manchester visitor Thursday.

Geo. Cox, wife and daughter Adelia visited relatives in Earlville Monday.

EDGEWOOD

Mrs. Chas. Blanchard and little babe came home from Hopkinton last Friday morning.

Miss Amanda Fleming went to Manchester Monday night. L. B. Blanchard and B. W. Shepard left Monday night on a business trip to Chicago and Indiana.

W. E. Richards and T. N. Arnold of Manchester visited relatives here Sunday.

Mrs. Maud Dorman and children came up from Manchester Monday morning for a visit with her parents Rev. and Mrs. L. Hubbell.

Mrs. W. E. Richards of Manchester was here over Sunday caring for her mother, Mrs. J. W. Smith, who is sick.

Mrs. E. J. Tyrrell and Mrs. Jas. Camp left Monday morning for Rochester, Minn., where the latter will enter the hospital for an operation.

Allie Steele was in Elkport last Saturday doing a churning in the Bever creamery, the regular butter-maker. Mr. Watson, being sick with lung fever and the mumps. A pretty hard combination for a fact.

G. W. Barr and son Paul were in Waterloo Sunday to see Mrs. Barr who is in the hospital at that place, having had an operation performed the 21st of this month. We are glad to say that she is recovering nicely and will be able to come home soon.—Journal.

FORESTVILLE

Miss Lydia Whitman commenced her spring term of school March 29.

Chas. Armstrong and wife visited with Mrs. D. Adams last Thursday. J. W. Adams and family spent Sunday at J. P. Lee's near Dundee.

Miss Laura Rosecrans is the possessor of a fine new organ purchased of Chas. Roberts of Strawberry Pt. J. M. Clark has returned to his home in Manchester after spending a few days at the home of his grandmother Mrs. Cossey.

Dan Nace of Strawberry Point was a visitor here Tuesday. Grandma Sherwin spent Friday at Ed Smith's.

J. W. Adams and daughter Bernice were Strawberry Point visitors last Saturday.

A. B. and W. L. Pelley are doing carpenter work in Dundee. Miss Lydia Whitman spent Sunday at her home near Manchester.

EAD'S GROVE

Married—Miss Hazel Frontress and Mr. Jim McFarley at Edge-wood Thursday.

The Mesdames Ella Shelden and Edith Conger visited their sister Mrs. S. E. Way on Tuesday.

Henry Holthaus left for Iowa City on Wednesday evening to accompany his wife home.

Geo. Culbertson went to Waterloo on Friday where he has secured a position.

Misses Nettie and Sadie Fowler were shopping in Greeley on Friday. Mrs. Chas. Robinson visited relatives in Dubuque a few days of last week.

Mrs. W. S. Longhurst writes from Dacoma, Okla., that their small grain is up and some are planting corn there.

John Lash sold ten veal calves to Cad Jones on Wednesday. Will Wetherford was in Manchester on Wednesday.

Claude Callerton left for Wells-ville, Mo., on Thursday.

The Mesdames Ella Shelden commenced work on their new barn. Riky Heath is doing the carpenter work. Quite a number attended the L. C. A. dinner at Greeley on Thursday. Joe Gordon is working for his uncle Lem Harris.

DELAWARE

Mesdames Fleming and Rusah visited Manchester friends and relatives Saturday.

Rev. H. P. Schmidt conducted services at Peosta Sunday. F. W. Ray and wife entertained a few friends very pleasantly Tuesday evening. I. A. Spear spent Monday with his daughter in Greeley. Miss Verga Davis, who is attending High School in Manchester spent last week with her parents L. H. Davis and wife. The members of the Baptist Sunday School are preparing an Easter program. W. F. Esler and family visited several days recently with relatives in Dubuque. Mr. G. F. Miller of Hopkinton visited her friend Mrs. L. H. Davis. Mrs. A. Gillispie and Miss Rose Zirtzman visited an aunt in Dubuque last week. R. Bowers and family are all on the sick list. Mrs. C. A. Stone and children of Delhi spent Friday at the Hefner home. Mrs. Geo. Hendrickson of Greeley visited her parents, I. A. Spears and wife Friday. Her daughter Miss Florence Beebe returned home with her to remain during her vacation. Miss Ruth Coats is visiting an aunt in Greeley. J. J. Hollister and wife of Manchester spent Sunday at the Sackett home.

Wm Ryan of Fayette visited relatives in town Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. P. Morinson visited in Manchester Saturday.

W. J. Davis and wife of Manchester were the guests of Mrs. Davis' mother Hannah Kaster, Sunday.

DELI

Mrs. E. G. Adams visited in Manchester one day last week. Myrtle Irish and Nona Cummings of Hopkinton spent Saturday with Mrs. E. J. Hopkins.

Mrs. Will Furman and two sons were recent guests of Mrs. Naper at Oneida.

Austen Bowman of Manchester is staying at Bryce Saunders. Geo. Pulver was in Dubuque one day last week.

C. H. Cross was to Manchester Saturday by the death of his brother. Fred Brownell has moved back to Delhi.

Mrs. H. H. Porter visited her parents in Strawberry Point last week. There were several transfers in town last week.

Mrs. Irving Stoner bought the Isaac Saunders property, Perry Haight the residence of Thos. Simmons, Ira White the Mrs. Stoner cottage near the lake and Clark White the Hughes property.

Henry Pierce was over from Ryan Wednesday. Miss Rebecca Wilson has returned from Hartley where she spent the winter.

Mrs. Hattie Hoffman of Dubuque is helping care for her sister, Mrs. Walter Palmer. J. C. Waddell of Maquoketa are visiting at P. H. Rimmers.

Mrs. Mable Kaster Talmadge of Dubuque is visiting her parents William Kaster west of town. Misses Nerva and Jessie Burton are home from Lenox to spend vacation.

Mrs. Jane Simpson of Forestville is visiting at J. E. Simmons. Miss Adelaide Harris is visiting in Manchester.

Bernard McGuire of Ottumwa visited in town last week.

COGON

Mrs. Jesse Lennox went to Edge-wood one day last week for a visit with relatives.

T. E. Donnelly sold a 3-year old colt to John McEvoy one day last week for $210.

Mrs. C. W. Flint and little son of La Crose, Wis., are guests at the N. Ary home.

A number of guards from the Anamosa prison were in this vicinity the last of the week looking for an escaped convict.

The entire Citizen's ticket was elected at the town election Monday, viz: A. J. Byerly mayor; A. W. Savage A. A. DeWoody and Sam Lytle, councilmen; N. B. Richardson, treasurer and A. J. Clemons, assessor. Monitor.

HOPKINTON

Lew Beitz has bought the Loop cottage in the east part of town, paying $700.

Nona Cummings and Myrtle Irish are spending the week with Mrs. van Swearingen at Strawberry Point.

A girl is report at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Preston of Broadway last Monday, and a son to Mr. and Mrs. H. Uhlenkamp on Wednesday.

John Britt, who was in northwestern Nebraska for a good many years, arrived here last week and is visiting his brothers and relatives. He will remain here for the summer and possibly will determine to stay in Delaware County.

J. T. Smith of Yankton spent a couple of days this week with relatives here. He is on the way home from Chicago, where he has been for several months taking medical treatment. He is much improved and expresses the belief that he is now on the way to permanent recovery.

A recent news item says that "Dr. Samuel Calvin, head of the department of geology in the State university, has been honored by president Roosevelt. He has been invited to attend a conference at the White House, May 13, 14, and 15, where methods of preserving the natural resources of the country will be considered. Dr. Calvin has been a member of the university faculty for many years, and is recognized as one of the best authorities on geology in the country." Prof. Calvin is a product of Lenox College and began his first investigations in the field of geologic research here. His specialty has since made him famous and an authority whose services are frequently called upon.—Leader.

DYERSVILLE

Henry Pleanger was at Oneida Sunday visiting his brother Ben and family.

Chas. Cunningham of Masonville spent Sunday with relatives in Dyersville.

Mr. and Mrs. George Krapp of Petersburg visited with Dyersville relatives last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Parkins of Earlville were here last week to visit with Mr. and Mrs. F. Vance. Mr. and Mrs. A. Muehlekamp were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kruse last Tuesday.

Mr. Thomas Noonan of Northfork was in Dubuque last Friday to attend the funeral of the late Miss Minnie Slatery.

Mrs. Jacob Kerper and daughter Miss Agnes of New Vienna were in this city Saturday the guest of friends.

J. L. Kramer of Worthington was a passenger to Manchester Monday where he spent a few hours on business. Mrs. Joseph Scherbring of Petersburg and daughter Sister Clarence, O. S. F. of this city were passengers to Dubuque Monday. Frank Goertd and Joseph A. Westermeyer of Bremen township who are serving on the jury at Manchester were here over Sunday visiting their families. A girl baby was born to Mr. and Mrs. Vorwold at Dixon Settlement last week. A girl baby was also born to Mr. and Mrs. Herman West-hoff also of Dixon Settlement Monday.

Mrs. Lappe who was quite severely in a runaway accident last week has recovered so far as to be able to be about the house. Miss Lappe's injuries confined her to her bed the greater part of last week. Her many friends will be glad to hear that she will soon be bright again.

Ed Bolsinger of Coleburg recently underwent a surgical operation at Rochester, Minnesota has returned home. He expects to resume his position as clerk in a store at Manchester next week.

PRAIRIE HILL

A very enjoyable day was spent at Mr. Bishi's last Tuesday it being a reception for Rev. Wagner and wife who had just returned from the Ladies Aid meet at Mrs. C. H. Barham's Friday afternoon. A large crowd was out. Two new members were taken into the society. Mrs. M. Barr, in behalf of the society presented Mrs. Wagner with a silver berry spoon.

Mrs. J. Oakley was called to Winthrop Friday by the illness of her little granddaughter.

STRAWBERRY POINT

Winona Cummins and Myrtle Irish of Hopkinton visited over Sunday with Rev. van Swearingen and wife.

Miss Lena Nieman of Earlville came Saturday morning for a few days visit in the Niederfrank home. Morris Lamphier has sued Henry Farmer for damages as the result of the latter burning the former's barn last year.

Miss Emma Niederfrank who is teaching at New Hampton, came home Saturday evening to spend her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Niederfrank.

Dr. C. L. Dorman of Clarksville, Iowa, arrived here Friday for a visit at the home of his brother, Dr. Chas. Dorman. Geo. and Oscar Dorman of Manchester also spent Sunday here with Dr. Dorman.

At the town election Monday the union ticket was elected without opposition. The following men were elected: Mayor, J. C. Flenniken; treasurer, Ralph C. Barnes; assessor, J. F. Schug; councilmen, J. R. Anderson and L. W. Preston. There were 74 votes cast, nine votes being thrown out because of not being properly marked.—Mail Press.

MASONVILLE

H. A. Curran candidate for county Superintendent, was a business visitor in our burg last Tuesday.

C. E. Saeger of Manchester was a pleasant caller here Wednesday and a guest of friends in Prairie.

Dan Huyck and family who moved to California last fall, returned last week and says Iowa is the only place in Iowa that surpasses those in California.

P. Fritz and wife of Dubuque have moved onto the Reidy farm south of town and will take charge of same for the ensuing year.

P. F. Deegan and Andy McElroy were Greeley visitors last Tuesday.

Mrs. H. N. May was a passenger to Dubuque last week being informed that her father, J. Breitbach of Latverville, was quite seriously ill.

J. J. Mulvehill of Minneapolis, traveling salesman for the O'Brien Varnick Co. of South Bend, Ind., spent Sunday at the parental home.

John Rose underwent an operation at his home one day last week. Dr. Harry Bradley performing same. Mr. Rose is resting as well as could be expected at the present writing. It appears an abscess formed in his side due from information caused by pleurisy and part of a rib had to be taken out. Mr. Rose's many friends wish him a speedy recovery.

Miss Jennie Sullivan of Manchester called on friends here last Friday evening.

Quite a number have had the measles in this vicinity recently. Pat Lillis who moved to Dakota last fall is back again shaking hands with old friends. Pat says he will be in this vicinity and Waterloo for some time before returning to Dakota.

Miss Mollie Ryan was a passenger to Manchester last Friday.

Miss Alice Mulvehill spent a few days in the country last week, visiting her cousin, Miss Eva McMahon.

Our town election took place last Monday and was very closely contested, on counting ballots it was found that the candidates for Mayor and assessor were ties necessitating a recount and casting of lots for those who were tied. The following officers were declared elected: Mayor, F. S. Griffin; Treasurer, T. O. Ryan; Assessor, F. H. Parkhurst; Councilman, E. S. Peke, Chas. Preston and John Rieger.

Will Ryan and brother P. H. Ryan left here with a carload of miscellaneous goods for N. Dak. Thurs.

Miss Lottie Fitzpatrick was a passenger for Greeley Saturday.

M. J. Nolan spent Sunday with friends in Dubuque.

J. J. Goen of Manchester was a business visitor here one day last week.

Mary A. Strain was a passenger to Dubuque Saturday.

Miss Florence Kehoe of Independence was here Saturday on her way to visit her sister Mrs. D. M. Ryan near Monti.

Miss Stella Strain and friend Miss Williamson of Fremont called on friends here last Friday and Saturday.

Clarence Blanchard is erecting a new house on the farm he purchased from Mr. Utley last fall.

A number of persons from here were Independence visitors Sat. Mrs. E. H. Childs and daughter, Jos. Mulvehill and wife were Winthrop visitors Saturday.

Several from here were Manchester visitors Saturday. Mrs. H. N. May returned home from Dubuque Sat. evening. Pat Behan was the guest of his son Will here Sunday. J. M. Morris now a resident of Waterloo was a Masonville visitor Monday. Mr. Morris is engaged in the insurance business at present.

The community was much startled to learn of the sudden death of Philip Conry which took place Sunday morning at ten o'clock at the home of John Rieger. Mr. Conry had been ailing for some time past but had always been able to assist at work about the place—had arranged while down town Saturday to go out and work for Mr. Riley Davis Monday. He arose Sunday morning feeling well, usual and was walking about 20 minutes before he passed away. He leaves three sisters and a brother to mourn his departure. The funeral will take place here Tuesday at ten o'clock. We extend sympathy to the bereaved friends.

Mrs. Thos. Arthur's funeral took place last Sunday at 1 o'clock at the house, interment at Winthrop. Mrs. Arthur was preceded by her husband a little less than a year ago. The community has lost a most estimable couple, a good citizen, kind neighbors and friends to one and all.

Miss Margaret Schares of Gilbertville is the guest of friends here. Jas. Duffy and wife visited in the country Sunday P. M. at Wm. Barry's.

The Misses Mame McAdara and Teresa Lahey were passengers to Dubuque Saturday instead of Manchester.

THORPE

Bert Bowers was in Manchester last Friday.

Earnest Munger delivered some oats for Oscar Hockaday one day the past week.

Mr. Sabin was in Thorpe last week.

Bell Hendershot and brother, Earnest, spent last Sunday with Sherman Hendershot and wife near Strawberry Point.

Herman Hatch moved to Manchester last week.

Mr. Munger is breaking a colt for Mr. Sabin.

Charlie Daisy and wife attended the dance at Thorpe Friday night. The bridegrooms are boarding with Bell Hendershot.

Dan Sark and wife were shopping in Manchester last Tuesday.

Sid Simons is working on the section.

Niles Bradley and wife are spending a few days with Mrs. Bradley's parents Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Keith.

Jim Fause was in Manchester on business last Wednesday.

Mrs. Adelbert Clark took the train for Oneida last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. McOutcheon returned from Littleport last Tuesday.

THE NEWS IN BRIEF

Happenings of the Week Given in Condensed Form.

Items of General Interest Concerning Our Own and Foreign Countries—Crimes, Casualties, Etc.

Tuesday, March 31. The LaFollette-Sterling employers' liability bill will be reported out of committee this week.

The city of Winnipeg, Man., has decided to buy the Mackenzie-Mann electric railway, etc., properties within the limits of the corporation, and run them itself.

The Parker Grain company, one of the strongest companies of the kind in central Kansas, has gone into a receivership's hands.

Charles J. Sweney, who played with the famous "Cincinnati Reds," under the management of Harry Wright, is dead in the city hospital, Newark, N. J., at the age of sixty-one years.

Miss Geraldine Farrar, the singer from the United States, has been nominated as "imperial court singer," by Emperor William of Germany.

Wednesday, April 1. Los Angeles, April 1.—The Italian race in the New York-to-Paris race has arrived here and started for San Francisco.

Selig Silverstein, who tried to murder New York policemen with a bomb that exploded in his own hands, is dying at New York.

An ordinary election in Massachusetts sets the vote for instructions for Taft indicates fifteen delegates for the secretary and eleven pledged.

Mrs. Roosevelt and party are at New Orleans visiting places of interest in that city.

The grand jury at New York has handed down two indictments against ex-Special Deputy Attorney General Nathan Vidaver, charging him with attempting to extort money from a banker.

Thursday, April 2. Taft won a victory in the Massachusetts primaries. He will have at least 21 out of 32 delegates to Chicago.

Orders have been issued for the furnishing of about 200 mechanics at the Washington navyyard for a period of ninety days.

Tommy Burns, the heavyweight boxer, was given a dinner at London, at which Lord Alverstone, the noted jurist, was a guest.

The praetor near Brainerdville, Minn., are covered with wild ducks and geese and one can walk on them, so blind and are they by the prevailing blizzard.

Emperor Francis Joseph, apparently has completely recovered his health.

Wise Insects. In his experiments to determine whether it is the color or the odor of flowers that attracts bees and other insects M. Plateau, the Belgian zoologist, beheld him of trying a mirror. He selected a flower of striking color and strong odor and placed it before an excellent glass in which the reflection was perfect. All the insects went straight to the real flower, and not a single one approached the reflection in the mirror.—Youth's Companion.

Joining the Great. An Oxford undergraduate was reciting a memorized oration in one of the classes in public speaking. After the first two sentences his memory failed, and a look of blank despair came over his face. He began as follows: "Ladies and Gentlemen—Pitt is dead. Fox is dead. Gladstone is dead." Then, forgetting, he beset for a moment and continued, "And—I—I—I am beginning to feel pretty 'tick' myself."—Lloyd's Weekly.

FIRST ON THE TRACK

Thomas E. Watson Started in the Great National Presidential Race.

BRYAN MEN SORELY DEFEATED After a Warm Fight They Withdrew from the Convention.

Samuel Williams, of Indiana, Nominated for Second Place—Summary of the Platform as Adopted.

For president of the United States, Thomas E. Watson, of Georgia; for vice president, Samuel Williams, of Indiana. This ticket was nominated by the People's party convention at St. Louis Friday after stormy sessions throughout which the Nebraska and Minnesota delegations, working in the interest of William J. Bryan, strove desperately to bring about an adjournment of the convention until after nominations had been made by the Democrats.

The Aldrich currency bill is denounced and the national banking law criticized, and the maintenance of farmers' organizations and extension of their power and influence is urged, as well as the establishment of postal savings banks.

The Aldrich currency bill is denounced and the national banking law criticized, and the maintenance of farmers' organizations and extension of their power and influence is urged, as well as the establishment of postal savings banks.

The Aldrich currency bill is denounced and the national banking law criticized, and the maintenance of farmers' organizations and extension of their power and influence is urged, as well as the establishment of postal savings banks.

The Aldrich currency bill is denounced and the national banking law criticized, and the maintenance of farmers' organizations and extension of their power and influence is urged, as well as the establishment of postal savings banks.

The Aldrich currency bill is denounced and the national banking law criticized, and the maintenance of farmers' organizations and extension of their power and influence is urged, as well as the establishment of postal savings banks.

The Aldrich currency bill is denounced and the national banking law criticized, and the maintenance of farmers' organizations and extension of their power and influence is urged, as well as the establishment of postal savings banks.

The Aldrich currency bill is denounced and the national banking law criticized, and the maintenance of farmers' organizations and extension of their power and influence is urged, as well as the establishment of postal savings banks.

The Aldrich currency bill is denounced and the national banking law criticized, and the maintenance of farmers' organizations and extension of their power and influence is urged, as well as the establishment of postal savings banks.

The Aldrich currency bill is denounced and the national banking law criticized, and the maintenance of farmers' organizations and extension of their power and influence is urged, as well as the establishment of postal savings banks.

The Aldrich currency bill is denounced and the national banking law criticized, and the maintenance of farmers' organizations and extension of their power and influence is urged, as well as the establishment of postal savings banks.

The Aldrich currency bill is denounced and the national banking law criticized, and the maintenance of farmers' organizations and extension of their power and influence is urged, as well as the establishment of postal savings banks.

The Aldrich currency bill is denounced and the national banking law criticized, and the maintenance of farmers' organizations and extension of their power and influence is urged, as well as the establishment of postal savings banks.

The Aldrich currency bill is denounced and the national banking law criticized, and the maintenance of farmers' organizations and extension of their power and influence is urged, as well as the establishment of postal savings banks.

The Aldrich currency bill is denounced and the national banking law criticized, and the maintenance of farmers' organizations and extension of their power and influence is urged, as well as the establishment of postal savings banks.

The Aldrich currency bill is denounced and the national banking law criticized, and the maintenance of farmers' organizations and extension of their power and influence is urged, as well as the establishment of postal savings banks.

The Aldrich currency bill is denounced and the national banking law criticized, and the maintenance of farmers' organizations and extension of their power and influence is urged, as well as the establishment of postal savings banks.

The Aldrich currency bill is denounced and the national banking law criticized, and the maintenance of farmers' organizations and extension of their power and influence is urged, as well as the establishment of postal savings banks.

The Aldrich currency bill is denounced