

TOWN TOPICS.

Ethos Hamblin was in Earlville Saturday.

Mrs. F. N. Beacom visited in Dubuque Friday.

W. D. Hoyt is in Chicago this week on business.

Colonel A. B. Tirrell was in Iowa City last week on business.

The Misses Dora and Alma LeRoy were in Dubuque Saturday.

F. D. Matson of Cedar Rapids was in town last week on business.

Miss Mildred Smith and Miss Grace Sheldon were in Dubuque Thursday.

G. H. Bloodworth was in Dubuque Saturday and Sunday, visiting with his family.

S. R. Young, Ray Atkinson and Claude Chapel were in Waterloo Thursday afternoon.

N. E. Davis has returned from Rochester, Minnesota, and is much improved in health.

Mrs. S. K. Myers and Mrs. Jennie Reynolds were in Cedar Rapids Thursday and Friday.

Edwin Davis and James Gates were at home Saturday and Sunday from Coe college at Cedar Rapids.

Burt Latty went to Marble Rock Thursday to make a visit, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Tabor.

S. K. Myers attended the annual Upper Iowa conference at Mount Vernon, leaving for that place Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Blair left last week for Rochester, Minnesota, where Mrs. Blair is receiving treatment of the Drs. Mayo.

A. M. Solvie and Will Cass returned from Dallas, South Dakota, Friday night, where they registered for government land.

Mrs. William Dudley was in Earlville Saturday, to attend the annual bazaar, given by the ladies of the Congregational church.

Mrs. A. M. Cloud and Miss Sue Fleming visited in Earlville Saturday, Mrs. Cloud returning to her home in this city Monday.

Mrs. A. A. Palmer entertained her sisters, Mrs. A. W. Strainer and Mrs. Nathan Smith of Hopkinton at her home in this city last week.

Mrs. J. C. Neft and children, Lou and Francis, of Waterloo, were entertained at the home of Mrs. Neft's mother, Mrs. E. P. Smith, last week, returning to Waterloo Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Sweeney and children of Osage are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Lepley, arriving in town Saturday evening.

Mrs. Blanche Lawrence Austin visited in Strawberry Point several days last week, and leaves for Denver, Colorado, in the near future to join Mr. Austin.

Miss Mina Jenning is now in the employ of the W. L. Drew dry goods house, beginning her duties in that establishment last week. Miss Jenning's home is in Richland township.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Trowbridge left Thursday for Hoytville, California, after having spent several months in Delaware county with friends and relatives.

Mrs. Harriet Duffey left last Thursday for Wasta, South Dakota, where she joins her brothers, who have settled near that place on homesteads. Mrs. Duffey will remain indefinitely in that locality.

The Illinois Central station has been roofed with slate during the past week. The slabs of slate are about a foot wide and perhaps 18 or 20 inches long, pierced by two eyelets, through which the nails are driven, whereby the slate is fastened to the roof boards.

With the unprecedented interest in baseball as well as the national game of politics, the average man has plenty to occupy his thoughts nowadays. The result of each day's game was received last week by B. W. Grems, and the same accommodation will be given by him during the past season series now being played.

The football season has opened generally, and the State High Schools, as well as the colleges and universities, are striving to make credible showings. Iowa City has an unusually promising squad of men this fall, and the team's victory last Saturday enables it to be carefully considered by the "Big Nine," an association comprising several of the leading western universities.

Les McInnes, Marshalltown, and Waterloo High school teams each are confident of the state pennant at the conclusion of the season's games.

Leslie Burke was accidentally injured Tuesday afternoon, by being run down by Nelson Sullivan, who was riding a bicycle south on Franklin street. Leslie is a little fellow, and in trying to cross the street, became confused as he saw the bicycle approaching. Mr. Sullivan was unable to stop in time to prevent his running into the boy. He was knocked down onto the pavement and was unconscious for a few minutes. Marshall Olliver carried him to a physician's office, and it was found that he had escaped without serious injury.

Among the many home-seekers and proposed land investors who have left Manchester the past few weeks for Dakota, are George W. Ford and D. Burdette Young, who returned to Manchester Wednesday last week. Mr. Young reports that the tracts coming into Dallas, one of the towns designated by the government where filings may be made, were unfavourably filled with interested parties, but that the matter of registering and filing for a homestead was really a simple matter, compared with the varied reports of the complicated regulations relative to securing a claim for the lands.

M. H. Williston was in town a part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Stearns were in Waterloo Friday.

August Miller was in Marion Thursday on business.

Frank Kelsner was in Cedar Rapids Friday on business.

J. C. Littlejohn of Independence was in the city Wednesday on business.

A. H. Cleveland was out to Dallas, South Dakota, last week on business.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Cloud were in Dubuque and Earlville a part of last week.

F. D. Joseph enjoyed a visit from his uncle, Thos. Joseph of Quincy, Illinois, last week.

Frank Merrill of Nora Springs was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gildner last Wednesday.

W. J. Davis and August Miller left Monday for the Rosebud land near Dallas, South Dakota.

Lawrence Hollister spent Saturday and Sunday at Belvidere, at the home of his brother, E. H. Hollister.

J. S. Jones was at Ames last week, attending a conference of a board of advisors for the State college.

James T. Edwards of Chicago, formerly of this city, was in Manchester last Thursday, visiting with friends.

Mrs. A. J. Lemper of Waterloo was a guest at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George S. Lister, last week.

Miss Bertha Seeds of Oelwein was in the city a part of last week, as a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. J. Seeds.

L. Matthews is making a business trip through western Kansas and Montana, and at Glancy, Montana, will visit his son, Burt Matthews, who is located in that city.

Mrs. Hugh Middleton went to Mount Vernon Friday morning, to attend the Methodist Episcopal Upper Iowa conference, and to visit her daughter, Miss Pearl, who is a student at Cornell.

Miss Nellie Hatch has secured a position in the Ackley public schools, and went to that place Wednesday of last week. Miss Hatch is a graduate of the State Normal school at Cedar Falls and will make an instructor of ability.

S. R. Young went to Independence Thursday night to assist in the placing of a Standard Linotype machine, which is being installed in the offices of the Bulletin-Journal, one of the best country newspapers in Iowa.

Mrs. Jennie Gates Greenfield of Hubbard is in the city, called here on account of the illness of her father, Geo. L. Gates. Mr. Gates has been confined to his home for the past few months, and Mrs. Greenfield is assisting in his care.

On next Thursday afternoon, the republicans will hold a rally at Central opera house, the Hon. Walter L. Smith, congressman from the Ninth district, Chas. E. Pickett, candidate for Congress from the Third district, and other speakers will be heard.

Miss Idell Miles is planning to spend a portion of the winter in New York City with relatives, and study music. She expects to renew her work along vocal lines. The Hon. J. Miles will go to Oklahoma City later, in company with Miss Miles, where he will be a guest of his son, B. F. Miles, for several months.

Mrs. William T. Rigby of Vicksburg, Mississippi, was a guest of Captain and Mrs. J. F. Merry a part of last week, arriving in the city Wednesday. Mrs. Rigby formerly lived in Manchester and at Mount Vernon, and is well known here. Captain and Mrs. Merry and Mrs. Rigby were in Earlville Thursday, where they visited with relatives.

Kansas lands attracted a number of Delaware county people last week. Messrs. Burton Clark, Benj. Utley, S. Hewling, H. R. Holmes, E. Hamblin, John Wilson, J. W. Hartman and Swan Ericson being members of a party which left Manchester Tuesday. Real estate men in the Sunflower State are advertising in an extensive manner the possibilities and advantages of Kansas.

Miss Nellie Armistead returned home from Chicago Thursday night. Miss Armistead was a guest of her aunt, Mrs. Nellie Medbury, and of Mrs. Mabel Cunningham Williamson. Dick Williamson, who spent several weeks at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Charlotte Cunningham, last summer, accompanied Miss Armistead to this city, and will visit for several days here. Mrs. Cunningham expecting to return with Master Harry to Chicago next week.

George Underwood secured from a relative, Jack Arnold of Buchanan county, 12 kernels of Texas corn last spring, and planted them on a piece of ground on his property in Manchester. The seed sent up 12 full grown stalks, which bore 22 ears of corn, several of them containing 18 rows of 56 kernels each, which would make about a thousand kernels to the ear. The stalks measured 12 feet and 11 inches in height, and produced an excellent variety of corn, each kernel being deep and well formed.

Last week the companies comprising the 53rd regiment of the Iowa National Guard, held an election, for the purpose of filling the vacancy of the office of lieutenant-colonel, which was caused by the promotion of H. A. Allen of Independence to the position of colonel of the 63rd. There were two candidates: Majors L. J. Rowell of Tipton and F. R. Fisher of Waterloo. The election resulted in an almost unanimous vote for Major Rowell, who is a young attorney at Tipton and a popular military man in eastern Iowa. Each company in the regiment is entitled to vote, as well as the band and hospital corps, and Company D, the local National Guard military organization, cast its entire vote for Major Rowell, who will make an able assistant for Colonel Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Keagy so to Chicago today (Wednesday) for a week's visit.

The district court of Delaware county convened Monday afternoon, Judge F. C. Platt presiding.

Miss Addie Rains, of Chicago, is visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Summers. She will remain during the winter.

Mrs. Charles Thorpe expects to spend the winter at Los Angeles, California, leaving Manchester in a few weeks for the west.

Mrs. O. E. Huene visited at the home of her sister, Mrs. Henry Farmer, near Edgewood a part of last week, returning Monday.

Mrs. M. K. Brown was the winner of the $3 prize, in connection with the clock contest at the H. H. Lawrence shoe store, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Sickle of this city left Thursday morning for Denver, Colorado, where they will spend several weeks with friends.

The board of supervisors will meet October 31 at the Chamber of Commerce to attend to regular business, and authorize the payment of bills against the county.

Mrs. Elizabeth Lawrence goes the first of the month to Dubuque, where she will remain during the winter and perhaps for a longer period, with Miss Daisy Lawrence.

Henry Nelman, who returned home recently from Waucoma, where he has been playing ball with that town's speedy club, was in Elkport last Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. John Welch of Volga City was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Smith last week, returning Thursday. Mr. Smith and Mrs. Welch are brother and sister.

C. H. Parker attended a meeting of the Modern Woodmen of America, which was held at Hopkinton last Wednesday evening, when a large number of candidates were initiated by the Hopkinton team.

Dr. E. G. Dittmer leaves for Chicago next week where he will take a post-graduate course in surgery and general work. He will be gone about a month and will be accompanied by Mrs. Dittmer.

At the fifty-fifth annual convocation of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Iowa, held at Waterloo last week, E. B. Hess of Greeley was elected grand royal arch captain, one of the principal officers of the order.

The frosts of last week began to color the leaves of the maple and oak trees into the familiar autumn hues, many of the maple leaves changing almost in a night to the vivid yellows and terra cottas, with shadings of other tints.

S. W. Kibus of Earlville was a member of the party of delegates and visitors from Manchester to the conference of the Upper Iowa district of the Methodist Episcopal church, which went to Mount Vernon Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Edmunds of Calexico, California, are spending several weeks with relatives in town, being entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Blake. Mr. Edmunds was in Fayette last week, where he visited his mother, and looked after his business affairs in that place.

Work has been started on the new garage building to be occupied by R. G. Hill. The building will occupy the site immediately west of the old garage building, the west wall of the same being used as the east wall of the new building. The front will be similar to that of the old building.

The Upper Iowa conference which was held at Mount Vernon this year closed its sessions Monday evening. The loss of ministers was one of the most serious matters which came before the conference. Twenty have retired from the ministry during the past year in this conference.

Intense excitement prevailed in local base ball circles last week and is as keen at present, regarding the world series which is being played between the Chicago "Cubs" and the Detroit "Tigers." Saturday's game resulted in a score of 10 to 6 and Sundays 6 to 1, both in favor of the "Cubs." The game yesterday was won by Detroit by a score of 8 to 3.

Patrolman Fred P. Widman of Waterloo was shot by burglars who were attempting a robbery, and as a result of his wounds died at the city hospital Sunday. Widman attempted to enter the building, but one of the robbers opened fire on him, two bullets passing through his body. The mayor of the city has offered a reward of $200 for the apprehension of the murderer.

E. E. Gildner went to Mason City Saturday evening to attend a meeting of the managers of Gildner Bros. four clothing stores, which was held Monday. Messrs. John Gildner of Ansonia, E. E. Gildner of Mason City, E. E. Gildner of Manchester and Geo. Buchanan of Nora Springs were present at the conference. Mrs. Gildner accompanied Mr. Gildner to Mason City, for a short visit.

Floyd A. Post, editor of the Edgewood Journal, was in the city last week, and on Friday purchased the Simplex typesetting machine which, for several years, has been used in the office of the Press. The machine was transported overland to Edgewood. This will mean an improvement in the appearance and worth of the Edgewood paper, and Mr. Post's fraternal friends wish him continued success in newspaper work.

Gildner Bros. advertise this week in The Democrat a line of the H. F. C. Dovenmehle shoes and with every pair give a dollar watch, which the shoe company guarantees for a year. The shoes are of exceptional worth for the price, and the accurate timepiece makes this brand of shoe doubly desirable. Gildner Bros. expect to have a "corn test" in the near future, and for the best exhibit, which will be judged by an expert-a suit of clothes will be given to the winner.

A Home Run for the Boy.

FREE to BOYS

Up-to-Date WATCH.

Here is absolutely and without question the greatest offer ever made on Boys' Shoes.

Every boy likes to be like his father, have a watch that will run and keep time like his father's.

If you will need a pair of shoes this fall, now is the time to get them, boys, for the watch is a good one and costs you nothing.

The shoe is a good dependable one, and will give entire satisfaction.

Come in, and let us show you the Watch.

NOW is the Time to Secure Absolutely FREE a NICKEL PLATED WATCH

State of Iowa, Department of Public Safety, "Time Keeper" Shoes

Price for Large Boys, . . . $2.50 Price for Small Boys, . . . 2.00

This is by far the Best Combination Shoe Value ever offered. An all solid, well made, stylish shoe for boys, warranted thoroughly dependable, and with each pair FREE a Nickel Plated Correct "Time Keeper" Watch.

Let us show you the SHOE and the WATCH

Gildner Brothers, Head-to-Foot Clothiers, MANCHESTER.

Always Leaders in Special Bargains.

Fred Smith was in Independence Sunday.

W. H. Ward of Ryer was in town Monday.

E. H. Hoyt of Lamont was in town Friday.

Miss Nellie Bing is visiting relatives in the city.

A. D. Long is in Ottumwa this week on business.

Miss Sue Rich visited relatives in Earlville Sunday.

A. J. Smyth of Cascade was in town Friday on business.

Mrs. L. L. Platt visited in Oelwein a part of last week.

Mrs. F. B. Assmus spent Sunday with relatives at Independence.

Mrs. James H. Trewin of Cedar Rapids was in the city Thursday.

William McIntosh is still critically ill at his home on Main street.

H. S. Spang of Dyersville was in Manchester Monday on business.

Mrs. William Hall of Earlville was in the city the first of this week.

C. E. Pickett of Waterloo was in the city Monday for a few hours.

Mrs. J. H. Allen left Monday for Benton, Wisconsin, for a visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Blair returned Sunday night from Rochester, Minnesota.

Mrs. E. E. Brewer is in Chicago, visiting with friends, leaving for that city Saturday.

Mrs. A. T. Rodin visited in Earlville last week, returning home Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ashline and Miss Wilcox of Edgewood were in the city Saturday.

I. B. Clark left today for South Dakota, where he will register for homestead lands.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Peterson went to Chicago Sunday afternoon for a few days visit.

Mrs. August Miller and Mrs. A. L. Severson are at Rochester, Minnesota, this week.

L. G. Wells and W. H. Lafferty are in Waterloo today attending a retail grocers convention.

Miss Mary E. Quinn of Chicago is in the city representing E. Burnham & Company of Chicago.

Jerry Mahoney of Hazel Green township was in town Saturday, being on his way to Dubuque on business.

Mrs. D. B. Allen was in Cedar Rapids last week, visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. S. Hart.

The board of supervisors were in town Saturday to inspect the new concrete culvert and bridge on Butler street.

Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Bradley go tonight to Chicago, where Dr. Bradley will attend a meeting of the National Medical association.

The Missionary society of the First Congregational church will meet at 2:30 o'clock, with Mrs. C. J. Seeds, Mrs. H. J. Schweigert, leader.

Miss Sadie Wagner and Miss Louise Lichty of Waterloo were guests at the home of H. D. Wagner, who lives north of this city, the past few days.

Also, Granger was at home the last few days from a 1400 mile trip. Mr. Granger is an engineer on the Chicago Great Western railway, between Chicago and Dubuque.

Miss Fremont Thompson, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Gates, left the first of the week for Grand Rapids, Michigan, which city is her home.

Luther Bushnell of Iroquois South Dakota, was visiting at the home of his parents last week, having arrived in the city from Chicago, where he had been on business.

Garry Thorpe went to Dubuque Monday afternoon to join a fish commission car, which left that evening for a several weeks trip through the south, Atlanta, Georgia, being a destination point.

Marriage licenses were issued last week to Rudolph Kaufman and Bertha Sulzner on October 8, Jas. C. Blanchard and Pearl B. Gabel, and Wilson E. Ashline and Mabel Wiltse on October 10.

The public schools will be closed Thursday and Friday of this week, on account of the meeting of the Northeastern Iowa Teachers' association, which is to be held at Waterloo on those days.

H. W. Sabin and son Haisie, were in Dubuque last week, where the boy underwent an operation at Mercy hospital. Haisie will be able to return home this week.

A. Hollister and Lawrence Hollister arrived in town Saturday afternoon from Bolingbroke, Illinois, making the trip overland in Mr. Hollister's Winton car.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Austin of Doan, South Dakota, who visited in Greeley and Delaware the past few weeks, were visiting in Manchester a few days recently, renewing acquaintances with friends.

A Union Pacific business car, No. 8, passed through the city Saturday afternoon on the Illinois Central train No. 3, carrying several officials of the Union Pacific system.

Major and Mrs. George H. Morley of Washington, D. C., are in the city for a visit with friends. They have been in the west for some time, and are now returning to their home in Washington. They will be here for about three weeks.

J. Thorpe left Sunday night for Put-in-Bay, Ohio. Mr. Thorpe will spend a few days with friends in Chicago, and will also visit at Detroit. He has been re-instated in the United States Fish commission, and appointed to the station at Put-in-Bay.

The Women's Relief Corps will serve dinner and supper at the G. A. R. hall, in the Ford building, Thursday of this week. They will also have on sale useful articles, and invite the public to this bazaar and also to their dinner and supper.

Louis Murray, who drives the Wells-Fargo express wagon, was obliged to walk from Iowa street on Main back to the office Monday afternoon, as the gray horse pulling the wagon, enjoyed a lively pull down the street alone. No damage was done.

E. A. Peet, editor of The Journal at Edgewood, was in the city Monday on business. Mr. Peet's printing shop and all fixtures and materials, except the recently purchased Simplex typesetting machine, were totally destroyed in the fire of last Saturday morning.

James Gates, who is a student at Coe college, was home from Saturday until Monday, and during his visit in the city took orders for mail boxes for residence use. Many people in town, expecting to enjoy free delivery after the first of the year, ordered these mail boxes, which will be received at such time as the purchaser may wish.

Mrs. C. A. Gillian of Independence, a cousin of Mrs. William T. Rigby of Vicksburg, Mississippi, was a guest at the home of Captain and Mrs. J. F. Merry the past few days. Mrs. Rigby has been at Tipton, Mississippi, visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. William Catron. Mrs. Rigby went Monday morning to Mount Vernon, where she resided a number of years ago, and from that place will leave for Vicksburg.

The condition of Mrs. E. O. Clemans remains about the same, and her entire family of children are now in the city. Will Clemans of Cedar Rapids, Carl Clemans of Snodgrass, Washington, Howard and George Clemans of Cedar Rapids, and Mrs. Gertrude Clemans Flannigan of Arlington, South Dakota.

J. T. Tait, claim agent of the Illinois Central railroad, who has been in the service of the company for forty years, was given a complimentary banquet Monday at Dubuque by the business men's club. Letters of congratulations were received from J. T. Harahan, president of the company, and other prominent men in railway circles. Mr. Tait is well-known in Manchester and has a number of personal friends in the county.

The public schools of Winthrop, which have been closed for several days, were opened Monday with a new corps of teachers, the former instructors having been discharged by the board of education, on account of refusing to comply with a ruling that a recess was to be given the children both in the morning and afternoon. The affair, reached such heat that a certain disruption of the town seemed inevitable, but the diplomatic procedure of the mayor and school directors has lessened the excitement considerably, and the schools will, no doubt, resume their former regularity.

Special Notice to Ladies.

Miss Mary Quinn is now demonstrating E. Burnham's Toilet Requisites at Anders & Phillip's, instructing the ladies how to use these celebrated toilet requisites in the privacy of their own homes scientifically. The fact is that she teaches one shows the ladies their use so thoroughly that the results are equally as good as if they had visited the celebrated Parlors of E. Burnham at 70 and 72 State St., Chicago.

Miss Quinn also will show you how to remove crowsfeet, blackheads, moth patches, freckles, dark and discolored skin, putting the face in a healthy, normal, youthful condition. This is something that has never been done by any demonstrator who has visited our city before. The secrets that she teaches the ladies--how to improve and care for their complexions--are of great value, and each and every lady is cordially invited to call and see a free demonstration. At any time during the day Miss Quinn will be glad to explain to you how to remove any of the defects which you may possess. She is also giving out a little booklet which is fully illustrated showing the correct movements in massaging and also how to use the different articles in the privacy of your own home.

Here for this week only. Please come early, as her time here is limited.

Yours very respectfully.

ANDERS & PHILIPP.

LAND FOR SALE.

In Iowa, North and South Dakota and Minnesota. Parties contemplating investing in Iowa, North and South Dakota or Minnesota will make no mistake in seeing me before buying to look for land, as I have gone to considerable expense to inform myself in regard to land as above mentioned. I am here to give this information to parties interested and guarantee the advice to be correct. I will accompany parties to look these lands over and should they invest will refund all traveling expenses. Will also take in small property or stores, or any other trade that you have in Allamakee county the best bargains that ever were given in land, ranging from $20.00 to $200.00 per acre. Write or call and see these lands. C. J. WAGNER, 40 wks12 Lushine, Iowa.

House for Sale.

A well improved residence property with two acres of land for sale at a bargain. Two blocks from Fair Grounds. Inquire of Bronson, Carr & sons, Manchester, Iowa.

For Sale.

A good light wagon. Inquire at the home of Vern Barrington.

80-Acre Farm for Sale.

If you want to buy a good 80 acre improved farm in this county, best of within two miles of a railroad station, we have such a farm for sale. The farm is all under cultivation, has good dwelling, is well fenced, partly with woven wire, two new horse sheds, barn house and outhouse. For a person who wants to purchase a small farm, this is a splendid opportunity. For terms and further information, apply to BRONSON, CARR & SONS, 241

Bulbous Plants for Sale.

All kinds of bulbs for winter plants for sale at the C. L. Adams green house; Hyacinths, lilies, narcissus, etc.

C. L. Adams, Manchester.

Special Showing

New Fall Suits and Cloaks.

Our early showing of New Fall Styles should be seen by every woman who appreciates advance knowledge as to the style tendencies of the season. We show a great many attractive models that cannot be duplicated in price later in the season.

Autumn Dress Goods

This first display is representative of the coming season's most distinctive colors and styles. All the new shades which promise to be extremely popular are shown in many plain and novelty weaves. Those of our customers who take advantage of the early offerings will be more than pleased with their good fortunes.

Final Clearance

Waists and Wash suits.

For Final Clearance, every Waist and Wash Suit has been reduced one-half regular price. The assortment is one or two left of a style of the season's best patterns. The collection consists of White China Silks, Lawns and Colored Waists.

Miss Mary Quinn is now demonstrating E. Burnham's Toilet Requisites at Anders & Phillip's, instructing the ladies how to use these celebrated toilet requisites in the privacy of their own homes scientifically. The fact is that she teaches one shows the ladies their use so thoroughly that the results are equally as good as if they had visited the celebrated Parlors of E. Burnham at 70 and 72 State St., Chicago.

Miss Quinn also will show you how to remove crowsfeet, blackheads, moth patches, fre