

County Correspondence.

COLESBURG.
William Schruink disposed of his personal property at public auction last Tuesday. Every thing sold well. Mr. Schruink and family will leave shortly for South Dakota, where he owns a section of land. They have the best wishes of Colesburg friends for health and prosperity in their new home.

Bert McMahon and Luther O'Neal were at Guttenberg Monday delivering books they had sold.

Minnehaha Chapter, No. 344, O. E. S. held a special meeting Tuesday evening for initiation. The degrees of the order were conferred upon H. Maloney and P. B. Beck. The work was followed by a special "fit far a king" served by Mrs. J. K. Robinson. The evening was an enjoyable one for the chapter.

J. V. Bush and W. H. Bristol transacted business at Guttenberg Friday.

Tuesday was moving day hereabout Mr. and Mrs. Amos Livingston moved on the Frank's farm at Skiptlev, John Brown and family moved on the farm thus vacated and which he now owns. Charles Bergman took possession of his farm vacated by Brown, while Nic. Moser now occupies the Joseph Merten farm vacated by Bergman.

Mr. and Mrs. George Brockmeier moved to Charles City, while his mother and sisters returned to their farm thus vacated. Elmer Funk and family moved where Mrs. Brockmeier had been living near the Ben Wesse farm. Everybody else will be found doing business at the old stand at least we have not heard of any further moving.

The young people enjoyed a party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bush at Fairview Wednesday evening.

Colesburg is agitating the question of water works and a meeting was held Monday evening. J. W. Platt, T. A. Fode and H. J. Kuhlman were appointed as a committee to investigate the matter to obtain certain desired information and report at the next meeting.

Mrs. Nic. Burlage of Dyersville was in town on Monday to see father, J. B. Moreland.

Gore and Kuhlman were at Dyersville Thursday to attend the Burial bankruptcy sale.

Mrs. J. D. Bristol was eighty-three years of age on Saturday, February 20th and in the evening a company of friends called upon her in honor of the event and presented her with some nice presents. She fully appreciated the kindness thus shown her and enjoyed the occasion. She is in very feeble health, being confined to her room most of the time.

J. B. Moreland appears to be gradually failing and is quite low at this writing. R. B. Flennick is also very poorly.

BAILEY'S FORD.
Chas. Grapes and Jim Downs departed for Frederick, South Dakota, Wednesday the 17th.

Chas. Pettion, who has been visiting relatives in this vicinity went to Manchester Wednesday, where he will visit for a few days before returning to his home in Aurelia, Iowa.

Albert Galtitz went to Chicago Wednesday with a carload of hogs belonging to himself and Claus Bros.

Mrs. Chas. Grapes and children are spending a few days with her niece, Mrs. Jerry Kaster. She expects to go to Dakota the first of the week to join her husband.

Mrs. R. E. Grommon attended the farewell dinner at J. P. Belcher's the 13th and visited over Sunday at their home.

Frank Kanten, Jas. Sheppard, Henry Claus, Chas. Grommon and Albert Galtitz were in Delaware Wednesday.

Jerry Kaster and Albert Galtitz assisted Chas. Grapes in loading his car Tuesday.

Bert Kanten was in Manchester Wednesday.

Clyde Thompson, Jerry Kaster, Ned Paris and Roy Grommon attended the Short Course at Manchester.

Avis Grommon was in Manchester Saturday.

G. B. Davis had business in Manchester Wednesday.

Elvira Hartman was a Manchester caller Friday.

Ruth Hersey visited over Sunday with friends in this neighborhood.

J. W. Hartman went to Garden City, Kansas, the first of the week.

Frank Kanten had business in Delhi Thursday.

THORPE.
We have heard of the contest being conducted by The Democrat, and Miss Mabel Parsons is the representative of this place and of the township. Great excitement is noticed throughout the county regarding the affair, and we hope Miss Parsons will win the piano. Subscriptions are pouring in from every source, and some girls in the county is bound to win the $425 piano to be given away.

Mr. and Mrs. Winstor mourn the loss of their baby boy which died Sunday.

Mrs. Perry Smith and Mrs. Sidney Simons and son Harold visited with Bell Hendershot last Friday.

Dewitt Woneleight came home from Colwell Friday.

Marguerite Croyle is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Delbert Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. Hindel are moving out of C. Thorpe's farm at Thorpe.

Several sled loads of young folks left town last Friday night. We are under information that they left for Elkport or Strawberry Point (who knows which?) as a dance was billed for each town and sleighing either way was hard to beat.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Todd were Greely callers over Sunday.

Jas. Wall called a meeting in the York school house Saturday evening for the purpose of discussing inquiries concerning the Farmer's Rural Telephone line.

Mr. F. T. Pilkington of the firm of Pilkington & Son, is confined to his home by illness.

Mr. Lawrence Funk of this place is visiting relatives at Elkport a few days.

Mrs. N. Dueschlag of town left for a week's visit with her daughter, Miss Emma who is a teacher in the schools of Alden, Iowa.

The auction sale of Mr. Beckner on the Mason's farm was a very satisfactory affair. We understand he will move his family on "The Pines" owned by F. L. Minkler but have been unable to learn who will run the farm for another year which Mr. Beckner will vacate.

Miss Harriet Schofield of Strawberry Point has sold her house there and moved to Edgewood to spend the remainder of her days with her sister, Mrs. Sarah Madison.

Joe Schacherer Jr. and his brother, E. J. Schacherer, both of this place visited with their sister, Mrs. Wm. Budden of Petersburg one day last week.

DELAWARE.
George Preston of Hopkinton was in town Wednesday.

Laro Hakenson was a recent business caller in Manchester.

Mr. Moore of Wadena was a guest of his sister, Mrs. A. W. Sackett over Sunday.

Mr. Will Roloff visited his brother in Arlington Tuesday last week.

Mrs. W. F. Esler visited relatives in Dubuque last week.

Mr. Henry Kellogg of Greeley was a business caller in town last week.

Mrs. Geo. Goldsborough entertained the Larkins club last week Thursday.

Mr. E. E. Mittelstadt took charge of the Manchester creamery last week Monday. Mr. W. Mittelstadt was called away to Fayette on account of the illness of his mother.

Miss Harry Gutherson was a business caller in Manchester Wednesday.

Mr. P. Mortenson on the vacation of her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Donda of Manchester Saturday.

Mr. W. G. Smith was an over Sunday caller with his parents in Dubuque.

Miss Naomi Leonard is visiting relatives in Wyoming, Iowa.

Miss Nancy Griggs visited relatives in Gravelle Saturday.

Mrs. I. A. Spear visited relatives in Earlville Thursday.

Miss Ethel Larson was the guest of her sister in Manchester Friday.

NORTH MANCHESTER.
Last Tuesday evening the neighbors and friends of Mrs. Charles Barnard gave her a surprise party in her home. Mrs. Barnard was the recipient of some very nice presents among which was a gold watch chain from her husband, linen table cloth and other useful presents.

Mrs. Minnie Skinner is quite sick with an attack of lagrippe.

Mrs. Grace Kaltenbach and sons Harry and Phil are visiting relatives and friends for a couple of weeks.

Mrs. Mary Trenehard is home again after an absence of a year. She has been visiting in Dakota and Waterloo.

EDGEWOOD.
Miss Maggie Alcorn is representing Edgewood in the popular girl contest now being conducted by The Democrat. Miss Alcorn's friends are rallying to her support, and the votes in her favor are steadily climbing upwards. This township should strive to make Miss Alcorn the winner, and the people will give her their subscriptions unanimously.

On Tuesday morning, February 16, 1909 at the Catholic church in Greeley occurred the marriage of Mr. Nicholas Budden of Petersburg to Miss Lizzie Schacherer of this place. The ceremony being performed by Rev. J. T. Hartigan. Mr. Edward Putz, a relative of the bride acted in the capacity of groomsmen and Miss Agnes Budden, a sister of the groom as bridesmaid. The bridal party reported to the Schacherer home where a bounteous wedding dinner was served to a number of friends and relatives. The bride, a daughter of Joe Schacherer Sr. was born and reared in this community and leaves us with the best wishes from all her friends. The groom though not so favorably known in these parts, is a young man of energetic habits and has in this city to move on the Nightmann farm northeast of Earlville, to which place they carry the best wishes of all Edgewood people by whom they are known.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Cocking, who were at Erie, Illinois, to attend the funeral of a relative returned home Tuesday.

Will Hitchcock, the drayman, has moved into his residence in the north part of town which he recently purchased.

Dick Way, who resides south of town has been confined to his home for several days past, owing to a siege of rheumatism.

The dance at Hester's opera house, Feb. 16, was largely attended and all report a good time. The next day is slated for Feb. 21. Music by Bill's Harp Orchestra.

The farmers in this vicinity are talking very favorably of organizing a co-operative churning station in our town. Talk on the subject has grown to a state of high enthusiasm since the Farmer's Institute here, and 65 of our farmers have already signed an agreement to stand by the undertaking. As soon as 80 have been secured we understand they will proceed to build.

Miss Kate and Anna Funk are visiting relatives and friends at the point this week.

Several sled loads of young folks left town last Friday night. We are under information that they left for Elkport or Strawberry Point (who knows which?) as a dance was billed for each town and sleighing either way was hard to beat.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Todd were Greely callers over Sunday.

Jas. Wall called a meeting in the York school house Saturday evening for the purpose of discussing inquiries concerning the Farmer's Rural Telephone line.

Mr. F. T. Pilkington of the firm of Pilkington & Son, is confined to his home by illness.

Mr. Lawrence Funk of this place is visiting relatives at Elkport a few days.

Mrs. N. Dueschlag of town left for a week's visit with her daughter, Miss Emma who is a teacher in the schools of Alden, Iowa.

The auction sale of Mr. Beckner on the Mason's farm was a very satisfactory affair. We understand he will move his family on "The Pines" owned by F. L. Minkler but have been unable to learn who will run the farm for another year which Mr. Beckner will vacate.

Miss Harriet Schofield of Strawberry Point has sold her house there and moved to Edgewood to spend the remainder of her days with her sister, Mrs. Sarah Madison.

Joe Schacherer Jr. and his brother, E. J. Schacherer, both of this place visited with their sister, Mrs. Wm. Budden of Petersburg one day last week.

DELAWARE.
George Preston of Hopkinton was in town Wednesday.

Laro Hakenson was a recent business caller in Manchester.

Mr. Moore of Wadena was a guest of his sister, Mrs. A. W. Sackett over Sunday.

Mr. Will Roloff visited his brother in Arlington Tuesday last week.

Mrs. W. F. Esler visited relatives in Dubuque last week.

Mr. Henry Kellogg of Greeley was a business caller in town last week.

Mrs. Geo. Goldsborough entertained the Larkins club last week Thursday.

Mr. E. E. Mittelstadt took charge of the Manchester creamery last week Monday. Mr. W. Mittelstadt was called away to Fayette on account of the illness of his mother.

Miss Harry Gutherson was a business caller in Manchester Wednesday.

Mr. P. Mortenson on the vacation of her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Donda of Manchester Saturday.

Mr. W. G. Smith was an over Sunday caller with his parents in Dubuque.

Miss Naomi Leonard is visiting relatives in Wyoming, Iowa.

Miss Nancy Griggs visited relatives in Gravelle Saturday.

Mrs. I. A. Spear visited relatives in Earlville Thursday.

Miss Ethel Larson was the guest of her sister in Manchester Friday.

NORTH MANCHESTER.
Last Tuesday evening the neighbors and friends of Mrs. Charles Barnard gave her a surprise party in her home. Mrs. Barnard was the recipient of some very nice presents among which was a gold watch chain from her husband, linen table cloth and other useful presents.

Mrs. Minnie Skinner is quite sick with an attack of lagrippe.

Mrs. Grace Kaltenbach and sons Harry and Phil are visiting relatives and friends for a couple of weeks.

Mrs. Mary Trenehard is home again after an absence of a year. She has been visiting in Dakota and Waterloo.

EDGEWOOD.
Miss Maggie Alcorn is representing Edgewood in the popular girl contest now being conducted by The Democrat. Miss Alcorn's friends are rallying to her support, and the votes in her favor are steadily climbing upwards. This township should strive to make Miss Alcorn the winner, and the people will give her their subscriptions unanimously.

On Tuesday morning, February 16, 1909 at the Catholic church in Greeley occurred the marriage of Mr. Nicholas Budden of Petersburg to Miss Lizzie Schacherer of this place. The ceremony being performed by Rev. J. T. Hartigan. Mr. Edward Putz, a relative of the bride acted in the capacity of groomsmen and Miss Agnes Budden, a sister of the groom as bridesmaid. The bridal party reported to the Schacherer home where a bounteous wedding dinner was served to a number of friends and relatives. The bride, a daughter of Joe Schacherer Sr. was born and reared in this community and leaves us with the best wishes from all her friends. The groom though not so favorably known in these parts, is a young man of energetic habits and has in this city to move on the Nightmann farm northeast of Earlville, to which place they carry the best wishes of all Edgewood people by whom they are known.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Cocking, who were at Erie, Illinois, to attend the funeral of a relative returned home Tuesday.

Will Hitchcock, the drayman, has moved into his residence in the north part of town which he recently purchased.

Dick Way, who resides south of town has been confined to his home for several days past, owing to a siege of rheumatism.

The dance at Hester's opera house, Feb. 16, was largely attended and all report a good time. The next day is slated for Feb. 21. Music by Bill's Harp Orchestra.

The farmers in this vicinity are talking very favorably of organizing a co-operative churning station in our town. Talk on the subject has grown to a state of high enthusiasm since the Farmer's Institute here, and 65 of our farmers have already signed an agreement to stand by the undertaking. As soon as 80 have been secured we understand they will proceed to build.

Miss Kate and Anna Funk are visiting relatives and friends at the point this week.

Several sled loads of young folks left town last Friday night. We are under information that they left for Elkport or Strawberry Point (who knows which?) as a dance was billed for each town and sleighing either way was hard to beat.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Todd were Greely callers over Sunday.

Jas. Wall called a meeting in the York school house Saturday evening for the purpose of discussing inquiries concerning the Farmer's Rural Telephone line.

Mr. F. T. Pilkington of the firm of Pilkington & Son, is confined to his home by illness.

Mr. Lawrence Funk of this place is visiting relatives at Elkport a few days.

Mrs. N. Dueschlag of town left for a week's visit with her daughter, Miss Emma who is a teacher in the schools of Alden, Iowa.

The auction sale of Mr. Beckner on the Mason's farm was a very satisfactory affair. We understand he will move his family on "The Pines" owned by F. L. Minkler but have been unable to learn who will run the farm for another year which Mr. Beckner will vacate.

Miss Harriet Schofield of Strawberry Point has sold her house there and moved to Edgewood to spend the remainder of her days with her sister, Mrs. Sarah Madison.

Joe Schacherer Jr. and his brother, E. J. Schacherer, both of this place visited with their sister, Mrs. Wm. Budden of Petersburg one day last week.

DELAWARE.
George Preston of Hopkinton was in town Wednesday.

Laro Hakenson was a recent business caller in Manchester.

Mr. Moore of Wadena was a guest of his sister, Mrs. A. W. Sackett over Sunday.

Mr. Will Roloff visited his brother in Arlington Tuesday last week.

Mrs. W. F. Esler visited relatives in Dubuque last week.

Mr. Henry Kellogg of Greeley was a business caller in town last week.

Mrs. Geo. Goldsborough entertained the Larkins club last week Thursday.

Mr. E. E. Mittelstadt took charge of the Manchester creamery last week Monday. Mr. W. Mittelstadt was called away to Fayette on account of the illness of his mother.

Miss Harry Gutherson was a business caller in Manchester Wednesday.

Mr. P. Mortenson on the vacation of her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Donda of Manchester Saturday.

Mr. W. G. Smith was an over Sunday caller with his parents in Dubuque.

Miss Naomi Leonard is visiting relatives in Wyoming, Iowa.

Miss Nancy Griggs visited relatives in Gravelle Saturday.

Mrs. I. A. Spear visited relatives in Earlville Thursday.

Miss Ethel Larson was the guest of her sister in Manchester Friday.

NORTH MANCHESTER.
Last Tuesday evening the neighbors and friends of Mrs. Charles Barnard gave her a surprise party in her home. Mrs. Barnard was the recipient of some very nice presents among which was a gold watch chain from her husband, linen table cloth and other useful presents.

Mrs. Minnie Skinner is quite sick with an attack of lagrippe.

Mrs. Grace Kaltenbach and sons Harry and Phil are visiting relatives and friends for a couple of weeks.

Mrs. Mary Trenehard is home again after an absence of a year. She has been visiting in Dakota and Waterloo.

EDGEWOOD.
Miss Maggie Alcorn is representing Edgewood in the popular girl contest now being conducted by The Democrat. Miss Alcorn's friends are rallying to her support, and the votes in her favor are steadily climbing upwards. This township should strive to make Miss Alcorn the winner, and the people will give her their subscriptions unanimously.

On Tuesday morning, February 16, 1909 at the Catholic church in Greeley occurred the marriage of Mr. Nicholas Budden of Petersburg to Miss Lizzie Schacherer of this place. The ceremony being performed by Rev. J. T. Hartigan. Mr. Edward Putz, a relative of the bride acted in the capacity of groomsmen and Miss Agnes Budden, a sister of the groom as bridesmaid. The bridal party reported to the Schacherer home where a bounteous wedding dinner was served to a number of friends and relatives. The bride, a daughter of Joe Schacherer Sr. was born and reared in this community and leaves us with the best wishes from all her friends. The groom though not so favorably known in these parts, is a young man of energetic habits and has in this city to move on the Nightmann farm northeast of Earlville, to which place they carry the best wishes of all Edgewood people by whom they are known.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Cocking, who were at Erie, Illinois, to attend the funeral of a relative returned home Tuesday.

Will Hitchcock, the drayman, has moved into his residence in the north part of town which he recently purchased.

Dick Way, who resides south of town has been confined to his home for several days past, owing to a siege of rheumatism.

The dance at Hester's opera house, Feb. 16, was largely attended and all report a good time. The next day is slated for Feb. 21. Music by Bill's Harp Orchestra.

The farmers in this vicinity are talking very favorably of organizing a co-operative churning station in our town. Talk on the subject has grown to a state of high enthusiasm since the Farmer's Institute here, and 65 of our farmers have already signed an agreement to stand by the undertaking. As soon as 80 have been secured we understand they will proceed to build.

Miss Kate and Anna Funk are visiting relatives and friends at the point this week.

Several sled loads of young folks left town last Friday night. We are under information that they left for Elkport or Strawberry Point (who knows which?) as a dance was billed for each town and sleighing either way was hard to beat.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Todd were Greely callers over Sunday.

Jas. Wall called a meeting in the York school house Saturday evening for the purpose of discussing inquiries concerning the Farmer's Rural Telephone line.

Mr. F. T. Pilkington of the firm of Pilkington & Son, is confined to his home by illness.

Mr. Lawrence Funk of this place is visiting relatives at Elkport a few days.

Mrs. N. Dueschlag of town left for a week's visit with her daughter, Miss Emma who is a teacher in the schools of Alden, Iowa.

The auction sale of Mr. Beckner on the Mason's farm was a very satisfactory affair. We understand he will move his family on "The Pines" owned by F. L. Minkler but have been unable to learn who will run the farm for another year which Mr. Beckner will vacate.

Miss Harriet Schofield of Strawberry Point has sold her house there and moved to Edgewood to spend the remainder of her days with her sister, Mrs. Sarah Madison.

Joe Schacherer Jr. and his brother, E. J. Schacherer, both of this place visited with their sister, Mrs. Wm. Budden of Petersburg one day last week.

DELAWARE.
George Preston of Hopkinton was in town Wednesday.

Laro Hakenson was a recent business caller in Manchester.

Mr. Moore of Wadena was a guest of his sister, Mrs. A. W. Sackett over Sunday.

Mr. Will Roloff visited his brother in Arlington Tuesday last week.

Mrs. W. F. Esler visited relatives in Dubuque last week.

Mr. Henry Kellogg of Greeley was a business caller in town last week.

Mrs. Geo. Goldsborough entertained the Larkins club last week Thursday.

Mr. E. E. Mittelstadt took charge of the Manchester creamery last week Monday. Mr. W. Mittelstadt was called away to Fayette on account of the illness of his mother.

Miss Harry Gutherson was a business caller in Manchester Wednesday.

Mr. P. Mortenson on the vacation of her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Donda of Manchester Saturday.

Mr. W. G. Smith was an over Sunday caller with his parents in Dubuque.

Miss Naomi Leonard is visiting relatives in Wyoming, Iowa.

Miss Nancy Griggs visited relatives in Gravelle Saturday.

Mrs. I. A. Spear visited relatives in Earlville Thursday.

Miss Ethel Larson was the guest of her sister in Manchester Friday.

NORTH MANCHESTER.
Last Tuesday evening the neighbors and friends of Mrs. Charles Barnard gave her a surprise party in her home. Mrs. Barnard was the recipient of some very nice presents among which was a gold watch chain from her husband, linen table cloth and other useful presents.

Mrs. Minnie Skinner is quite sick with an attack of lagrippe.

Mrs. Grace Kaltenbach and sons Harry and Phil are visiting relatives and friends for a couple of weeks.

Mrs. Mary Trenehard is home again after an absence of a year. She has been visiting in Dakota and Waterloo.

EDGEWOOD.
Miss Maggie Alcorn is representing Edgewood in the popular girl contest now being conducted by The Democrat. Miss Alcorn's friends are rallying to her support, and the votes in her favor are steadily climbing upwards. This township should strive to make Miss Alcorn the winner, and the people will give her their subscriptions unanimously.

On Tuesday morning, February 16, 1909 at the Catholic church in Greeley occurred the marriage of Mr. Nicholas Budden of Petersburg to Miss Lizzie Schacherer of this place. The ceremony being performed by Rev. J. T. Hartigan. Mr. Edward Putz, a relative of the bride acted in the capacity of groomsmen and Miss Agnes Budden, a sister of the groom as bridesmaid. The bridal party reported to the Schacherer home where a bounteous wedding dinner was served to a number of friends and relatives. The bride, a daughter of Joe Schacherer Sr. was born and reared in this community and leaves us with the best wishes from all her friends. The groom though not so favorably known in these parts, is a young man of energetic habits and has in this city to move on the Nightmann farm northeast of Earlville, to which place they carry the best wishes of all Edgewood people by whom they are known.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Cocking, who were at Erie, Illinois, to attend the funeral of a relative returned home Tuesday.

Will Hitchcock, the drayman, has moved into his residence in the north part of town which he recently purchased.

Dick Way, who resides south of town has been confined to his home for several days past, owing to a siege of rheumatism.

The dance at Hester's opera house, Feb. 16, was largely attended and all report a good time. The next day is slated for Feb. 21. Music by Bill's Harp Orchestra.

The farmers in this vicinity are talking very favorably of organizing a co-operative churning station in our town. Talk on the subject has grown to a state of high enthusiasm since the Farmer's Institute here, and 65 of our farmers have already signed an agreement to stand by the undertaking. As soon as 80 have been secured we understand they will proceed to build.

Miss Kate and Anna Funk are visiting relatives and friends at the point this week.

Several sled loads of young folks left town last Friday night. We are under information that they left for Elkport or Strawberry Point (who knows which?) as a dance was billed for each town and sleighing either way was hard to beat.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Todd were Greely callers over Sunday.

Jas. Wall called a meeting in the York school house Saturday evening for the purpose of discussing inquiries concerning the Farmer's Rural Telephone line.

Mr. F. T. Pilkington of the firm of Pilkington & Son, is confined to his home by illness.

Mr. Lawrence Funk of this place is visiting relatives at Elkport a few days.

Mrs. N. Dueschlag of town left for a week's visit with her daughter, Miss Emma who is a teacher in the schools of Alden, Iowa.

The auction sale of Mr. Beckner on the Mason's farm was a very satisfactory affair. We understand he will move his family on "The Pines" owned by F. L. Minkler but have been unable to learn who will run the farm for another year which Mr. Beckner will vacate.

Miss Harriet Schofield of Strawberry Point has sold her house there and moved to Edgewood to spend the remainder of her days with her sister, Mrs. Sarah Madison.

Joe Schacherer Jr. and his brother, E. J. Schacherer, both of this place visited with their sister, Mrs. Wm. Budden of Petersburg one day last week.

DELAWARE.
George Preston of Hopkinton was in town Wednesday.

Laro Hakenson was a recent business caller in Manchester.

Mr. Moore of Wadena was a guest of his sister, Mrs. A. W. Sackett over Sunday.

Mr. Will Roloff visited his brother in Arlington Tuesday last week.

Mrs. W. F. Esler visited relatives in Dubuque last week.