The street sprinkling wagon drove through the down town district Thursday morning for the first time this year. The March winds had been sweeping clouds of dust and dirt up and down the streets, causing the windows of the stores and every available resting place for the fine sand, to look like anything but a Spotless Town. But with the first appearance of the sprinkler, the nuisance of facing drifting dust was relieved.

T. H. Camp of Des Moines, district passenger agent for the Chicago Great Western railway, was in town Thursday. Mr. Camp is of the opinion that in a few months time, the Great Western will be running some of the finest equipped passenger trains across Iowa that will be seen on any railroad. Much attention is being paid to the prevailing gossip that this company is to double track its lines from Oelwein to Chicago, and if the management of the road determine upon such improvements, better service will naturally be afforded the patrons.

Work was exemplified and two degrees were conferred upon six candidates. An elaborate dinner was served at noon, and during the afternoon, a discussion was held in the interests of the order. Next Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock there will be a regular meeting in the lodge rooms. Every member is urged to be present.

CHOIRS TO REHEARSE.

The men's chorus in the cantatas which are being prepared by the First Congregational and Methodist Episcopal churches will meet tonight in the parlors of the former church. A rehearsal of the entire chorus will be held Friday evening at the same church, and on Sunday afternoon, at the Methodist Episcopal church another general rehearsal will be held. Every member of the chorus is urged to be present.

WIRELESS MESSAGE TO MANCHESTER.

The first wireless message ever directed to Manchester was received Saturday by G. G. Pierce. It was sent by R. W. Tirrill from the steamship Monterey from mid-ocean. It read as follows:

3-28-09.

Steamship Monterey at Sea.

G. G. Pierce.

Manchester, Iowa.

Atlantic City, N. J.

We send greetings to all our friends from mid-ocean.

R. W. Tirrill.

DEATH OF MRS. MARY PAXSON.

After a brief illness of scarcely a week, Mrs. Mary Paxson died at her home on Howard and Madison streets in this city Saturday afternoon March 27, 1909, at about half past two o'clock. The funeral will be held from the home Thursday afternoon, and the services will be in charge of Rev. Dr. H. O. Pratt of Tama, Iowa, and Dr. R. A. Barnes, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Mrs. Mary Paxson was born in Painesville, Ohio, August 12, 1835, and was 73 years, 7 months and 15 days of age. She was one of a family of seven children, and with her parents moved to Winnebago, Illinois, when she was about 3 years old. Mrs. Paxson came to Manchester in 1858 and made an extended visit with her brother, George Williams, who lived on a farm near this city. Deciding to remain here, she made her home with Rev. and Mrs. Churchill. Sometime afterwards, she met Charles H. Paxson, and on October 6, 1860, they were married by Mr. Churchill, who was then pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church in Manchester. Mr. and Mrs. Paxson built their home in 1865, the foundation of which was completed the day Abraham Lincoln was assassinated.

Seven children were born to them, one of whom died when three years of age. The remainder of the family, with the exception of Mr. Paxson, who died May 16, 1894, survive the mother. They are Mrs. C. W. Hayes of Omaha, Nebraska; Mrs. J. M. Hord of Indianapolis, Indiana; Miss Susan Paxson of Omaha, Charles H. Paxson, Miss Emily Paxson and Miss Ruth Paxson of this city. Two brothers, John Williams of Upland, California, and Henry Williams, who lives in the same state, also survive her. Mrs. Paxson united with the Methodist Episcopal church when a child, placing her fifty years ago. Until her health was impaired, and it was impossible for her to attend religious services, Mrs. Paxson was an earnest and tireless worker for the church which she loved. After being denied all means of personal attendance at divine worship, she instituted and maintained until the time of her death an altar of faith in the home, being made happy by the constant attention of her hosts of friends and of her family. The disease which so sorely afflicted her for nearly twenty-five years was one that required almost superhuman strength and fortitude to bear, and yet through it all, Mrs. Paxson cheerfully exerted and consistently proved her staunch trust in the religion which she had proved and tested for many years. With but a single thought, she steadfastly made the happiness of her family and her friends the supreme importance in her life. Having suffered so pitifully all these tedious years, Mrs. Paxson knew full well the strength which came from expressed sympathy and loving care of her children. She died quietly and without pain, and her departure from life came as a sudden and unbelievable statement to her friends and family. Telegrams were immediately sent to the children, and Mrs. Hayes, Mrs. Morley, Miss Sue Paxson and Mr. Paxson arrived in the city Saturday night. Miss Emma and Miss Ruth Paxson are expected this (Wednesday) evening.

CONFERENCE OF U. B. CHURCH.

The annual conference of the United Brethren church of the state was held at Gladbrook last week, and on Sunday the presiding bishop delivered an able sermon, after which the list of ministers, as they had been assigned to their various parishes, was read. Rev. Donnie Minton was returned to the church in this city, and Dr. B. J. Clark will again serve the charge at Cedar Rapids.

RICHMOND SELLS TO DREW.

Richmond, and will remove to Manchester about the first of May, having rented one of the McIntosh houses on East Main street. Mr. Richmond has been a stock buyer in Manchester and Delaware county for many years. He and Mrs. Richmond intend to continue their residence in this city.

STREETS AGAIN CLEANED.

Street Commissioner C. E. Whitman and his force of men were at work last week cleaning the downtown streets, removing the accumulated dirt of the winter, and freeing the gutters of loose ice and mud. The streets will be flooded with water and thoroughly washed as soon as the snow and ice have passed away.

CHOIRS TO REHEARSE.

The men's chorus in the cantatas which are being prepared by the First Congregational and Methodist Episcopal churches will meet tonight in the parlors of the former church. A rehearsal of the entire chorus will be held Friday evening at the same church, and on Sunday afternoon, at the Methodist Episcopal church another general rehearsal will be held. Every member of the chorus is urged to be present.

CITY COUNCIL MEETING.

At an adjourned meeting of the city council Thursday evening, the following resolution was offered by Alderman Scott from the First Ward, and his motion seconded by Alderman Dorman from the Third:

"This is to certify that at an adjourned regular meeting of the City Council of the City of Manchester, Iowa, held March 25, 1909, the following resolution was adopted by said council:

"Be it resolved by the city council of the City of Manchester, Iowa, that the deed of Elizabeth C. Carter and Amos C. Carter, her husband, conveying to the city of Manchester for public use as an alley, the following described land, to-wit: The north ten feet of the tract or parcel of land described as follows: A strip of land 76 by 65-100 feet wide from the west side of the southwest quarter of Lot 7 of the Iowa Land company's subdivision of a part of the city of Manchester. This day executed, he and she hereby accepted by the said City of Manchester upon the terms and conditions set out in the deed of dedication, and be it resolved that the city clerk is hereby ordered and directed to issue warrant payable to Elizabeth C. Carter in the sum of $125.00 on the general fund to be delivered to her in the payment for damages and expense caused by the removal of said barn and other buildings from the land conveyed for alley purposes, and the said parcel of land is conveyed for public use.

"Approved this 25th day of March, 1909, and the same is made a matter of record in the proceedings of the city council of the City of Manchester."

A petition signed by property owners living on the south side of West Union and the north side of West Howard streets for the construction of a sewer was continued.

The present council will meet in special session this (Tuesday) evening, for the purpose of inspecting the returns of the municipal election, which was held Monday, and at that time declare those receiving the greatest vote duly elected as officers of the city.

The following bills were allowed:

A. H. Cleveland, salary as chairman of street committee, $25.00

W. H. Gill, labor, 13.40

H. E. Gley, salary as engineer, 5.00

J. S. Gley, salary as chief of fire department, 25.00

ARE YOU READING "THE BARRIER?"

The Democrat presented to its readers last week the first installment of "The Barrier" by Rex Beach. This story is well worth reading, as it portrays the moving passions for gold and love of women by men in the far northland. The story is one of conflict that seizes the imagination of the reader, causing him to forget time in the anxiety to finish the book.

If you did not read the first few chapters last week, send us a 2-cent postage stamp and we will be pleased to send you the first installment. If you have a friend you would like to have read the story, send us $1.50 for his subscription to The Democrat and we will furnish him the paper for one year.

H. S. GRADUATING CLASS.

The graduating class of the Manchester High school is preparing to present "The Spanish Gypsy" in connection with the exercises to be held in Central Opera house June 2. The class is composed of the following members: The Misses Elizabeth Anderson, Blanche Bishop, Mildred Brown, Mayme Chapman, Edna Cowells, Ada Cramer, Sue Fleming, Hazel Green, Ada Hyde, Grace Kelsar, Myrtle Rutherford, Viola Stimson and Ruby Stewart; and Messrs. Clarence Ash, Earl Durey, Clare Engstrom, Clifford Fisher, Lawrence Hollister, Clarence Klaus, Henry Claus, Arthur Newcomb and Andrew Rector. The class colors are maroon and silver; class flower, American beauty. The motto is still to be chosen.

LIBRARY OPEN MORNING.

For several months, the library has been open to the public from 9 until 12 o'clock every morning except Sunday, through the country of the librarian. While the public is not to expect the privilege of visiting the library in the morning as official, yet Miss Wood is usually at her office and the building will be open when she is there. This is an accommodation to more people than would be imagined. A great many students are delighted to read in the library the first part of the day, and visitors in town have often been disappointed in not being able to visit the building before 2 o'clock.

TROUT TO BE DISTRIBUTED.

Down at the United States Fish Hatchery, there are a million of little trout being cared for which are which are soon to be shipped in big tin cans to Illinois, Minnesota, Wisconsin and to many points in this state, where they will be emptied into many rivers and at some not far distant time furnish food and sport for thousands of fishermen. The bureau of fisheries at Washington City makes the assignments. Messrs. Craser and Clark are now at La Crosse, Wisconsin, putting the steam engine and launch used in connection with this station into commission for the summer.

COUNTY TREASURER BUSY.

The county treasurer and his deputy are having the time of their lives just at present. Taxes are due, and today (Wednesday) is the last day of grace. Correspondence has to be answered at night, and strenuous doings are going on in the east room of the Court House now days.
