EDGEWOOD.

Every farmer in this vicinity is complaining. Too much rain and too little work done in the needy corn fields, that are now assuming the appearance of verdant meadows, but, wait! Days of pleasant sunshine will again put in their appearance and all will be well by and by.

J. J. Schacherer and family spent Sunday of last week at the Jos. Heighberger home near Ryan. Owing to the heavy rains they were compelled to remain over night and returned Monday. They experienced some difficulties in fording the little streams as bridges had washed out. The editor has been working under difficulties all winter and spring and we hope he will experience no more down hill work in the future. We wish him success.

LENOX COLLEGE.

The Junior class gave their orations on Monday evening. There are ten in the class. The indications point to an interesting commencement in 1910.

Tuesday afternoon a missionary conference was held. Addresses were made by Mrs. Patterson of Springville, who for 5 years was with her husband a missionary on the island of Hainan, and Miss Florence Ricketts who is a missionary teacher at Marshall, N. C. They each gave any interesting facts connected with their work, after which a reception was given to all in the association rooms, and a pleasant half hour spent with old friends and new.

Tuesday evening the address before the literary societies was given by Rev. E. C. Ross, '94. His subject was culture and Christianity and was listened to with much interest by his audience.

Wednesday afternoon the alumni address was given by Rev. Arthur Vaughn, '93, professor in the University of Idaho. He spoke on Americans and the frontier. The friends who gather on commencement week are always interested in hearing the old students come back to address them. It shows an appreciation of the products of Lenox college and they are well worthy of it.

The alumni banquet was served in the gymnasium Wednesday evening at 6:30, after which Dr. W. B. Guthrie acted as toastmaster and responses were given to the following toasts: Outbound, Miss Louise Jackson, '09. Things not in the Curriculum, Dr. C. B. Beckes; The Forward Movement, Rev. Theodore Morning, Independence Our College Sweetheart, Rev. C. E. Reeve, '94; Our College, Rev. Garritt Snyder, '80 Pittsburg, Kansas. Others who responded to calls were President Reed, Prof. C. M. Evans, head of the new agricultural department, Rev. Daniel Russell, '94 Pittsburg, Penn.; Dr. Lucock, Chicago; Prof. Graham of South America, Hon. E. C. Perkins '74, Dr. A. E. Moody and Dr. D. C. Mackintosh. The banquet closed about midnight with the old alumni song, the words of which were written a number of years ago by Mrs. A. E. Anderson.

Thursday morning the sun pushed aside the veil of clouds which had obscured his face for so many days and shone brightly on the class of '08 and their friends who were gathering for the last and most important exercises. Some beautiful music by the band guided the people to the Presbyterian church which was seen filled to its utmost capacity. The music during the program was furnished by Barnes orchestra. The exercises were opened with prayer by Rev. A. E. Moody. The orations were then given by four members of the class. Two were selected by the class, Mr. John Porter and Miss Jessie Dunlap, and two on account of highest scholarships, Miss Clarissa Morrow and Mr. Albert Aitchison. The address before the class was given by Dr. George Lucock of Chicago and was a good, practical and helpful. He emphasized the value of small colleges considering them the places where the best all around education could be obtained. Then came the giving of diplomas and conferring of degrees. Fifteen were graduated from the Academy and next year will enter the college as freshman. The members of the class received the degrees as follows: B. A. was conferred on Albert Aitchison O. W. Behrens, Misses Gena Minkler, Louise Jackson, Clarissa Morrow and Elliott Parkhill; B. S. on the following: Albert Aitchison, who also received B. A., Misses Maud Crabb, Jessie Dunlap, Herman Dunlap, Verdon Welch and John Porter. The Board of Trustees conferred the degree of Doctor of Divinity upon Rev. E. C. Reeve, '94 of Clearfield, Pa., Rev. A. P. Vaughn, '93 and Rev. Garrett Snyder '80 of Pittsburg, Kansas.

CATARRH CANNOT BE CURED.

With local applications, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease, Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quick medicine. It is prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is a regular prescription known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrh. Send for testimonials free.

TOWN WRECKED FROM DYNAVITE.

The town of Fredericksburg, twelve miles south of New Hampton, was shook from its business center to the outer limits of its territory Thursday noon by a terrific explosion of dynamite, the accident occurring in a small store house in the rear of a hardware store. The explosion ruined a fine brick, business block, damaging every building within a radius of two blocks. Residences were badly demolished, plaster torn away from the walls, clocks sent falling from their accustomed places, and the whole town affected as though visited by a miniature cyclone. A traveling man by the name of H. K. Hawkins of Owatonna, Minnesota, was seriously injured and a young lady was badly hurt. The cause of the lightning of the dynamite is unknown. Fredericksburg is the home of the parents and a sister of B. W. Grem's of this city.
