TWO DEATHS IN FAMILY

MR. AND MRS. JAMES HOGAN, BOTH DIE DURING PAST WEEK.

MRS. HOGAN DIES TO-DAY

Two of Delaware County Pioneers End Life's Journey Together.

James Hogan died at his home in this city Saturday morning, April 2, 1910. He had been ill but a few days and his passing was marked by the entire absence of pain and suffering. Life's course was run and the body gently conscious to the end, he bade his family good-bye during his last moments. Mr. Hogan's death was not due to any particular disease. Life's course was run and the body that had served him long and well during the eighty-eight years of his life sought the rest that follows earthly toils.

The deceased was born in Dublin, Ireland, in 1822. When a young man, at the age of twenty, he came to America to seek his fortune in this new western country. He first took up his residence in New York City, going to Montreal, Canada, two years later. Here he remained for several years removing from there to Detroit, Michigan. He was engaged for several years as a locomotive engineer on the Northern Indiana railroad now the Alton and enjoyed the distinction of running the first locomotive on this line in to Chicago. In 1853 he removed to Bloomington, Illinois, where he met Miss Ellen Henrich, who later became his wife. She was also born in Dublin and the two had been playmates there when children. Their meeting in this country was accidental, neither one knowing that the other was here. They were happily married in 1855 and the same year removed to Dubuque where Mr. Hogan entered the employ of Denton & Magill. He remained with this firm until it had completed the railway construction work from Dubuque to this point. He then engaged in farming and took up a piece of land in Ed's Grove, the farm now being owned by L. G. Clute. In 1866 he purchased a farm in Milo township where he lived until he retired from active work in 1900 and removed to Manchester.

Mr. and Mrs. Hogan were born eight children, all of whom are living. They are Mrs. T. J. Bossert of Los Angeles, California, John D. Hogan, William D. Hogan and F. M. Hogan of Aberdeen, South Dakota, A. J. Hogan of Sioux City, Iowa, Mrs. J. W. Dudley of Manchester, Mrs. J. W. Sheldon of Wheaton, Illinois, and Mrs. E. E. Andrews of Emmett, Idaho. All of the children were at the bedside of their father at the time of his death except Mrs. Bossert, who was unable to reach here until Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Hogan was a man of generous impulses and always had a pleasant word for those he came in contact with. In his younger years he was a man of energy and hard work. He was successful in his pursuits and during the last years of his life he lived in retirement and enjoyed the competence he had accumulated. He was a faithful member of the Catholic church. He never aspired to public office but chose the pleasures of home and family. His affection for his family was a marked characteristic and during his last days he frequently expressed the hope that he might live until his children arrived. His many friends deeply regret his death.

The funeral service was held from the Catholic church Monday morning at 10 o'clock, Father John Collins, officiating. Interment was made in the Manchester cemetery.

MRS. HOGAN SUCCEUMS

As this paper is about to go to press, we are informed that Mrs. Hogan, the widow of James Hogan, the subject of the above, obituary notice, died this Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. She had been ill with pneumonia for several days and her family had feared that in her condition she might be unable to survive the great shock caused by the death of her husband.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Hogan have the sincerest sympathy of the community in their double bereavement in the death of both of their parents within the past week.

The funeral service of Mrs. Hogan will be held Thursday morning at 9 o'clock at the Catholic church. Mrs. Hogan's obituary will appear in our next week's issue.

EDGEWOOD.
With the passing of March the community has much to say regarding its entire presence. Not one rainy day and everyone clear and sunny, save one, is a record beyond reproach in the minds of the grayest heads. Even April sprung to life with its pleasurable and sunshine that conversation on the topic was so great that "April Fools Day" was scarcely appreciated.

The teaching force of our high school are enjoying this weeks vacation and departed for their respective homes Saturday.

John Putz sr. of Elkport was the guest of his son and daughters at this place a couple of days last week.

Miss Ella Funk was a southern passenger on Tuesday night of last week.

The Edgewood orchestra went to Hopkinton Tuesday last week where they furnished music for a dance.

Elsie Hatch and Angie Bixby departed for Mt. Vernon and Winnipeg, Minn. respectively to resume their studies after spending their Easter vacation with home folks.

At the F. T. Pilkington home on Monday of last week occurred the marriage of Miss Amanda Flemming of this place to Howard Sterling. After the ceremony the contracting parties prepared to the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Flemming, where a bounteous dinner was given to a list of invited guests. The bride and groom were attended by Miss Mae Pilkington and Leonard Avery. The bride was well known in his vicinity. The groom, a total stranger, we are informed, was born at Bridgeport, Conn. He, at the present time, holds down a claim in South Dakota, where he has been since November 1, and to which place he will take his young bride. We wish them well on the matrimonial voyage of life.

Kate and Matilda Funk spent Sunday of last week at home.

Lester Burgins, the local butcher, has sold his meat market business to Mr. Smith, the butcher at Strawberry Point who will take possession at once.

Last Thursday night the business men had the pleasure of having an opportunity of hearing an address: "The Retailing of Merchandise a Science" by W. J. Pilkington, editor of Merchants Trade Journal, Des Moines. Mr. Pilkington seldom lectures in towns smaller than Dubuque or Waterloo, but through the efforts of his brother, F. T. Pilkington, President of our Commercial Club the lecture was free to everyone and highly appreciated. Following the address a banquet was given at the Whipple House, of which the business men partook. Following the banquet a few closing remarks were made by Mayor Floyd Peet, F. T. Pilkington, J. W. Forward, B. W. Newberry of Strawberry Point, R. J. Bixby and W. J. Pilkington.

Last Friday night the Seniors of the Edgewood High school put on the three act play, "A Man from Borneo". The play was perhaps the best of its kind put on here for sometime. The crowd was of good size and the appreciation shown was of such a nature as to warrant the repetition of a similar one.

C. S. Maxson is adding an addition to the back of his general store which is conducted by his son Lloyd and Lee Denmore.

Mark Appleton and Tucker Stone left last week for their new homes in farming and took up a piece of land in Ed's Grove, the farm now being owned by L. G. Clute. In 1866 he purchased a farm in Milo township where he lived until he retired from active work in 1900 and removed to Manchester.

Mr. and Mrs. John Coolidge of Manchester were visiting here Friday.

Chas. Todd transacted business at Colesburg Thursday.

Edward Ament of Dyersville was seen on our streets Friday.

Mrs. Fred Peck jr. was a Strawberry Point passenger Friday.

Miss Maud Wheeler is suffering from the result of a serious burn on one of her hands at this writing, having brought the same in contact with hot lard.

George Luense of Marion, formerly of this place was seen on our streets shaking hands with his friends one day last week.

Attorney Steele and wife arrived here Thursday morning for a visit with the former's parents at this place.

Frank Wiley and Francis Funk loaded a car of goods from this place Monday for Lemon, South Dakota, where they have claims. Mr. Wiley's family will join him in about three weeks hence.

G. W. Barr is assisting Chas. Todd in the lumber yard this week.

Francis Boland of Elkader, who is working for Thos. Wiley is reported on the sick list with quinsy.

Jos. Tip left here for South Dakota last Tuesday morning with the intention of buying land.

Miss Beryl Coolidge and Miss Mary Meier of Communia were the guests of friends and relatives here Saturday.

Wm. Kamer held an auction sale on his farm adjoining town last Saturday. We understand he will move to Strawberry Pt. where he will run a butcher shop, a trade to which he needs no introduction. We wish him well in his endeavor.

Frank May and wife are moving into the Chas. Wheeler house.

BAILEY'S FORD.

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. VanAken spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. R. E. Grommon.

Harry Conner sold hogs to E. Hackbarth of Delhi Tuesday.

Chas. Grommon sold hogs to S. Hogan at Delhi Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sheppard were Manchester callers the first of the week.

Mrs. R. E. Grommon was in Manchester Wednesday.

J. W. Hartman and M. Breach had business in Manchester Wednesday.

Mrs. R. E. Grommon and son, business in Manchester Wednesday.

Harry Conner had business in Manchester Saturday.

The Misses Minnie and Edith Sheppard were Manchester callers on Saturday.

Avia Grommon begins her school in the Evans district in Coffins Grove, Monday April 4th.

COLESBURG.

We are patiently waiting for the April showers to bring the May flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wendorff were up from Dyersville to spend Friday as guests of Colesburg friends.

F. M. Brock has improved the appearance of his residence by putting in new windows.

Richard Cooper of Fayette was an over Sunday visitor at Cyrus Craig's home.

Mrs. Charles Merson and family had as their guests over Sunday her mother and brother of Guttenberg.

Mary May has returned from a pleasant visit with friends at Millette, South Dakota.

W. S. Page expects to leave this week to visit his son, S. B. Page, at Waterloo and his daughter, Mrs. Harley Barnhart, at Webster City.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Livingston are the proud parents of twin daughters born last Friday. Congratulations.

The U. I. students return a week's vacation today Monday after a week's vacation at home.

Mrs. W. H. Bush has been very sick during the past week. Her many friends hope that her illness may not be long.

The class of young boys of the M. E. Sunday school has been organized into a club called "Boys Brotherhood" with Edgar Dittmer, brother-in-law, Carl Mitzner, scribe and Spencer Smith, treasurer. Boys between the ages of nine and sixteen years are eligible to membership. Other requirements for membership will be made known on application. All are welcome. The boys are planning for some good times this summer.

Joseph C. Moreland of Chicago made a flying visit to Colesburg friends during the week. He went from here to Osage to visit relatives.

Albert Haven left Tuesday for his home at Pocahontas, Iowa, after having spent some time with relatives.

The Missionary society of the Zion M. E. church called upon Mrs. Otto Haug Thursday afternoon, giving her a genuine and most pleasant surprise. Mrs. Haug is a member of the society and the call was in the nature of a farewell before her departure for Great Bend, Kansas.

Rev. R. T. Westren took the B. B. club to Plum Creek on Saturday and they enjoyed the day fishing. The following boys are indebted to Rev. Westren for a most enjoyable time, viz—Edgar Dittmer, Ted Dittmer, Carl and Fred Mitzner, Fred and Walter Hyde, Carl Trowbridge, Spencer Smith, Walter Bush and Russell Landis.

George Cramer of Dyersville was among our Sunday callers.

On Wednesday, March 30, occurred the marriage of Miss Ella Stillinger and Wesley Palmer at the U. B. parsonage, Rev. A. E. Hirsch officiating. Returning to the home of the bride's mother, a sumptuous wedding supper was served to relatives and intimate friends. A reception was tendered the newly married couple at the opera house. Music was tendered by the Edgewood orchestra and dancing was in order. Mr. Palmer is a prosperous young farmer residing at Osterdock. The bride has been practically all of her life in Colesburg where she has many friends and we wish her long life and happiness to Mr. and Mrs. Palmer.

The municipal election was held Monday and the voting population was out almost in full force. Seventy-three votes were cast. The election resulted as follows—Mayor, Cyrus Craig, assessor, J. W. Platte, aldermen, Adde Hyde, Wm. Adams, L. H. Smith, L. W. Maxwell and George Walker. The drum corps escorted the mayor-elect home from the polls and there was "music in the air" for a while.

Mrs. Goddard and little son of McGregor were guests at the Aug. Inscher home during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Evans of McGregor are the parents of a daughter born March 25. Colesburg friends extend congratulations.

Mrs. O. P. DeLong, Miss Kate DeLong and Miss Lulu Donaldson have gone to Guttenberg for a visit with Mrs. B. F. Weldt.

Messrs. Wm. and Martin Garber and Mrs. Jerome of Garber, Oklahoma, were present at the funeral of their sister, Mrs. Lucy Boddow, which was held Tuesday. Interment was made at Mt. Harmony.

EAD'S GROVE.

Mrs. Mattie Garlow visited her niece, Mrs. Henry Parkinson Wednesday.

Ed Robison enjoyed a visit from his mother, who lives at Manchester the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Clute arrived home from Florida on Thursday, where they went to spend the winter. They are both improved in health we are glad to say.

J. M. Retherford and wife visited at John Croyles on Sunday.

Lloyd Lash, son of Winfield Lash got kicked in the eye by a horse last week. This makes it quite bad as he had the other eye put out a few years before.

The schools at this place commenced again on Monday.

Weak Eyes.

If your eyes are weak and are easily tired when reading and sewing, it probably means that your general health is below par. A nourishing diet and plenty of sleep, combined with exercises in the open air, are important. When you must work rest your eyes occasionally for a few minutes at a time, and always work in a good light—in daylight if possible.
