MRS. FRANK LILLIBRIDGE.

Susie J. Smith was born three miles east of Greeley, September 22, 1860 and died at her home near Oneta April 8, 1910, aged 50 years, 6 months and 17 days.

She was married to Frank M. LillibrIDGE on her 22nd birthday at Delhi. Five children blessed this union, one dying in infancy. Those living are Charles of Twin Falls, Idaho, Earl of Buhl, Idaho, and Gladys and Anna, both of whom are at home.

Besides those dear ones, Mrs. LillibrIDGE leaves to mourn her loss an aged mother, Mrs. Smith, who resides with Mrs. Richard Way, her daughter at Edgewood, a husband, two sisters and one brother, Mrs. Mattie Baker of Independence, Kansas, Mrs. Richard Way of Edgewood and Chas. A. Smith of Layna, Montana.

She was a good Christian woman, a member of the U. B. Church, also a member of the Maple Rebecca lodge of Greeley, Number 227, which society took charge of the funeral, which was held from the home at 2 p. m. Monday afternoon, April 11. Her sons, Charles and Earl arriving in time for the obsequies.

Mrs. LillibrIDGE was a woman of lovable character whose aim in life, was to smooth the rough places in the lives of all with whom she came in contact.

To her home and family she gave all that a loving wife and mother could, and her passing is the cause of deep regret and mourning among those who were nearest and dearest to her.

Tender memories of her cordial hand clasp, and the kind words with which she was wont to greet her associates, will ever linger in the hearts of those who loved her.

Death, is at all times, unwelcome, and when the silent messenger enters our homes and bears away our loved ones, then it is hard to say, with resignation, Thy will be done. This dear friend, has caught the music.

Of the glad angelic song—
Read the glory of the message.
She had waited for so long.
Not a moment, did she tarry
Mid the lower walks of earth—
For her soul had long been waiting
For its glad, immortal birth.

Oh, the wonder, that meeting
At the holy, altar place,
With the loved ones, long since parted,
Heart to heart, and face to face;
Oh the hand clasps, with their meaning,
Tenderer, than earth can know,
And the glory of the welcome
Where eternal fountains flow.

ELECTED JUSTICE OF PEACE.

The Manchester friends of Mrs. Mary Phares were interested in learning that she was recently elected to the office of Justice of the Peace at Clinton, Illinois. In referring to her election the Clinton Journal says:

One of the unusual features of the election was the candidacy of Mrs. Mary I. Phares for Justice of the Peace, and she was elected, too. There is a vacancy for a Justice, but neither party had made a nomination for the place. It was noted about a few days before the election that Mrs. Phares was a candidate for the place and many of her friends when they went into the booth wrote in her name on one of the blank spaces on the ballot. She received a total of 52 votes, 10 in the first precinct, 4 in the second, 11 in the third, 11 in the fourth and 16 in the fifth.

Mrs. Phares says that she will qualify for the office and open a docket. Her acts will be legal until she is ousted from office by a direct proceeding, which will hardly be done. She will be what is known as a de facto officer, whose deeds cannot be attacked collaterally.

Attorney General Wickersham is Surrogate—New York Stock Market Advances Two to Five Points Following the Decision.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—The Standard Oil and Tobacco cases were reargued for argument by the United States Supreme court.

The reargument of these cases comes as the direct death of Justice Brewer. This noted jurist died just a few days after the Standard Oil case had been argued. As Justice Moody was unable to participate in the consideration of these cases, only seven justices were left to give a decision in these cases. The fact that the corporation tax cases were not set for reargument is taken to mean that a decision will be announced in regard to the constitutionality of the law authorizing it within a short time.

Wickersham is Surprised.

Attorney General Wickersham was as much surprised as anyone at the sudden turn in the fight against these corporations. He expressed his utter ignorance of any further knowledge of the action of the court.

Unless a motion to advance the cases is made, they will not come up in the regular order of business for nearly a year. It is regarded as improbable that such motion for reargument before next term will be made. Only three more weeks of this term remain for hearing the argument of cases, although the court has come in before its adjournment, about the first of June, to hear arguments in a particular case.

Brewer's Successor to Participate.

The effect of the reargument will doubtless be to have the successor of Justice Brewer, whomsoever he may be, participate in consideration of these cases. The choice of the successor may be made more difficult on account of the complication. Some General Powers has been mentioned prominently for the vacancy and now the question arises as to whether he would be eligible to sit in the tobacco and oil cases. He did not participate in the argument of these cases, as did opinion is divided as to whether it would be in good form for him to sit in judgment because of his advisor position in the department of justice.

Stock Market Rallies.

New York, April 12.—After early heaviness and dullness the stock market made a sharp and excited rally on the Washington news that the United States Supreme court had ordered that both the American and Standard companies should be regulated. There was a wild scramble of shorts to cover and the bear stamped resulted in almost general rallies of one to five points. These advances followed many previous losses of stout fractions to a point.
