EARLVILLE.

Our citizens were given a genuine fire scare on Thursday evening when the clang of the fire bell called them to the Commercial Hotel where the flames were issuing from an upstairs window in a truly fierce manner. The fire is supposed to have started from the explosion of a kerosene lamp and the curtains and draperies near by were in flames when the department arrived. Everyone felt extremely relieved when it was reported all out, for a worse place for a fire would be hard to find as the hotel adjoins the livery stable and other buildings are very close.
