A SECRET WEDDING.

The Manchester friends of Miss Della Matthews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse W. Matthews of Earlville, were interested in learning of her marriage to Mr. Charles Davis, son of Wm. Davis of Geesley, at Charles City, December 19, 1909. Mrs. Davis has taught the fourth grade of the public schools in this city for the past several years. The following is taken from the Earlville Phoenix regarding their marriage:

"The young people kept their marriage secret until last week. Mr. Davis left after the ceremony to look for a location, being an attorney at law. Mrs. Davis returned to her duties as teacher in the Manchester public school. On Thursday of last week she left for Altus, Okla., where Mr. Davis is now engaged in the practice of law and at which place they will be at home after July 1. "Mrs. Davis is a young lady of charming personality and esteemed by a wide circle of friends who extend to her every best wish for a happy married life. She is a graduate of the Earlville schools and has for the past few years been remarkably successful as a teacher. Mr. Davis, while not known to many in this vicinity, is honored as a young man of integrity and will undoubtedly be successful in his chosen profession."

ANNUAL SPRING RUG SALE

Our immense Spring Assortment of RUGS is undoubtedly the largest and handsomest line ever shown in Delaware county and comprises all the new ideas in patterns and color combinations.

Only six more days until the Fourth of July.

—John Mastorhan is a visitor in Waterloo today.
—Last Wednesday was the longest day in the year.
—John Cruise Jr. is in Anamosa on business today.
—The Earlville carnival will be held on August 18.
—E. M. Carr was a business visitor in Independence Monday.
—O. W. Smith of Hopkinton transacted business in town Monday.
—Dr. H. M. Bradley has recently purchased a new Ford automobile.
—Miss Irene Thorpe has gone to Chicago, where she will spend several weeks.
—The thermometers have been registering between 90 and 100 degrees Fahrenheit during the past week.
—Dr. Harry Hoag of Garner, Iowa, was in Manchester the latter part of last week visiting with relatives and friends.
—Gidner Bros. talk about new spring and summer suits in their change of advertisement this week. Read what they have to say.
—The Delaware county board of supervisors held a one day session at the Court house in this city Saturday. The usual routine business was carried out and the board adjourned to Saturday, July 31, 1910.
—Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Moore have removed their household goods from the Congregational parsonage during the past week. The parsonage has been remodeled and repaired during the past few weeks after the fire which greatly damaged the building.
—Al Prebble arrived home Thursday from Crookston, Minnesota, at which place he has been for the past several years. He has made arrangements whereby he is soon to become the proprietor of the meat market at Geesley. His friends and family are glad to see him back in this vicinity.
—A. E. Clark of Thorpe, who is a patron of the Thorpe creamery, received a check amounting to $182.13 for milk taken to that creamery during the month of May. Mr. Clark had 17,677 pounds of milk for the month and the test was 3.6. John Mattusch, who is also a patron of the same creamery, received a check for $75.59 and is milking 10 cows.
—Think of the amount and character of entertainment you receive at the Chautauque for $1.50. How many get through the circus the other day on less than $1.50 and didn't feel swindled either. You can get entertainment for a week, three sessions every day for $1.50 at the chautauque. This price holds good until the opening day, when season tickets will be advanced to $2.00.
